My Uncle Buck worked as Pipe Fitter in Saudi Arabia, Alaska and Bahrain. He traveled the World often. He ran numerous businesses including Confectioneries in Idaho and California. He was a joyous man who gave freely and loved unconditionally. He was always full of jokes, stories and songs. Emma Frederiksen was the love of his life after she died he wrote the following song in remembrance of her.

My Princess "E"

Though you've been called away, our Love will always stay.
A Monument of Love and Life, so true.
And now I share alone, fond memories to atone, a Love, a Life, a Dream of Ecstasy.
But now the Sun shines and all in Faith you're mine.
A Faith from now until Eternity.
So now I bid adieu to a personage so true.
My love, my life my Princess "E"

PARLATO, June Helen (Powell)

June was born April 30, 1924. She was the daughter of Harry A. Powell and Irene R. (Burke) Davis. June is survived by three children, Annie (Ray) Gronau of Irvine, CA, Frank (Brenda) Parlato of Wildomar, CA, and June (Paul) Schmitz of Riverside, CA, a cousin Betty J. Burke of Rochester, half-siblings Ruth and Gerald Powell, sisters-in-law, Connie (Robert) Giambrone and June E. (Russell) Parlato of Webster, NY, brothers-in-law, Fredrick (Edith) Parlato of Victorville, CA and Joseph (Ann) Parlato of Rochester, NY, 9 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. Her parents, husband Frank C. Parlato and siblings, Jeannie Davis, Charmaine (Davis) Martino and Charles G. Powell, preceded her.

June grew up in Rochester and Buffalo and as an adult worked in Rochester factories. She met her husband Frank around 1945; they married and had children. In 1961, she and her family moved to Southern California where she owned a "Mr. Softee" ice cream franchise. June later took assembler positions with Monsanto and Beckman, opened a Candy Store called Olde Fashion Confections with her Uncle Buck Burke, retired from Hughes Aircraft in 1990, but went back to work as an assembler elsewhere. All this was done while caring for her husband "Chic" as he struggled with Multiple Sclerosis.

June enjoyed gambling, especially Bingo, Slots, Poker and Gin rummy. In 1991 she was baptized by the Calvary Baptist Church of Riverside and attended services regularly.

June passed away October 26, 2004 in Laguna Hills, CA. Funeral services were held October 30th, at Fairhaven Mortuary Chapel, Santa Ana, CA. Burial was in Riverside National Cemetery.
