Still another of the older Smith ancestors was Malcolm Smith. The following sketch is taken from Grime's History, pages 287 and 388. We might add that the older people called him "Macom" Smith. The Grime account is as follows: The veteran of the cross was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, in the year 1765. He professed hope in Christ in 1787 and was baptized by Elder Abel Oliver in his native State. He left his moorings in the Old North State and came to Tennessee, landing in Smith County, October, 1807. He cast his membership with that old historic Salt Lick church, situated in the edge of Jackson County. It might be remarked here that this was one of the oldest churches in this section, having been constituted in the very early part of the century. He was ordained by this church in 1810, by Elder Miles West and others. His ministry was mostly confined to Smith and Macon counties. He was a strong Calvinist in doctrine and his preaching was largely experimental. He raised a large family, most of whom became Baptists. One of his descendants, Elder E. L. Smith, of Mt. Tabor church, is noted minister of the gospel. He was present and assisted in the constitution of Salem Association in 1822. He was always busy about the Master's business till God called him home. He passed to his reward August 23, 1827. Peace to his ashes; would that we knew more of him.

Luther Smith, as he was commonly called, had a first name, Edmond, as was set out in the Census Record of 1850. Grime's History of Middle Tennessee Baptist says of him:

Elder E. L. Smith, Pleasant Shade, Smith County, Tennessee. He is of Scotch descent. He is rather low, medium size, with light complexion and slightly bald.

He is the son of Abel and Martha P. Smith. He was born in the third district of Smith County, Tennessee, October 31, 1836. He was brought up on the farm. He made profession at Mt. Tabor Church, Smith County, Tennessee, October 31, 1851. He united with said church and was baptized by Eldor John Hickman. He was ordained in October, 1864, by Elders E. B. Haynie and W. H. Haile. He has been pastor as follows (dates approximated): Mt. Tabor, twenty-three years; Mt. Hope, five years; Salt Lick, five years; Union, two years; Ebenezer, five years; Sycamore Valley, eight years. All the education he has he acquired at home. He has constituted three churches. He has baptized and married a great many, but has no record. He was married to Miss Mary M. Grinad, August 20, 1854, by whom he has three children. He is in very feeble health and has retired from the pastorate, waiting for the summons home. God bless his declining days. (1902)

Dickerson Hollow Cemetery

The Dickerson Hollow Cemetery is located beside the house at #107 Dickerson Hollow Lane. (This is very close to Rock City). This grown up cemetery contains approx. 15-20 graves that are marked by fieldstones with no inscriptions. The cemetery has a heavy growth of periwinkle ground cover. This is thought to be the burial place of Malcom Calvin "Cab" Smith born July 1840 and died Apr 27, 1903, a son of Able Smith. His wife, Elizabeth Dickerson Smith, was born July 1843 and she died sometime after 1900. She was the daughter of Lanson Dickerson. Notes for Jim Thomas Washington "J.W." Thompson:
 J. W. Thompson was a strict disciplinarian and a hard working man. He saw very little good and few pleasing things about his children. He saw nothing wrong in showing that he felt different about members of his family. But let me say without a doubt he loved his wife. I believe in his way he loved his children, but his way was "I am always right" and "I do not want to hear what you have to say". To understand this, one would have to know about his rearing. His father was a perfectionist, who married a woman he could not come close to understanding. His mother was a demanding, never satisfied woman. I would say the modern word for his family was dysfunctional. Everyone tries to understand that he did the best he knew how. After all is said and done he was loved. (Information from Ruth Kirby)
