Notes for JACOB FREY:

FREY - In Pine township, Pa., Sept. 9, 1893, Jacob Frey, aged 86 years, 11 months and 21 days. Jacob Frey was born Sept. 18, 1806, in Conneaut tp, of German parents, whose ancestors came from Switzerland into Germany, then to America, and settled in eastern Pennsylvania about the year 1765 and in 1800 his parents, Henry and Barbara Frey came to Crawford county and settled on the farm, part of which is now owned by Simeon Frey. Here they raised a large family whose descendants are scattered in all parts of the United States.

When about 20 years of age he married Rebecca Gilliland and settled in the woods in Conneaut township where he cleared and improved a farm. Mrs. Frey died in 1848, leaving a family of five children - two sons and three daughters. In 1850 he was married again to Miss Sarah Loreta Linn of North Shenango township, who still survives him, and raised another family of five children. In 1867 he moved into Pine township, on the farm where he resided until his death.

When about twenty-two years of age he united with the M.E. Church and remained an active member all his life, holding all the offices of church belonging to lay members. He took special interest in leading the singing, which he did for nearly half a century, when his voice failed him; he could always be seen beating time.

Uncle Jacob was a strong active man with marked ability, and although his early education was very much neglected, yet he wielded an influence which was felt by all who knew him. It was his special delight to help the sick as well as the poor and needy ones. In 1852 he invented a machine for making wooden water pipe, and followed that business successfully for many years. In 1880 he was attacked with creeping paralysis, which, though but slight at first, yet increased slowly until 1890, when he broke down and was quite helpless. About nineteen days before his death he was attacked with the flux and despite his severe illness he lived beyond all expectation, having a strong constitution such as few men possess.

Of the ten children born to Jacob Frey, but five still live: Benj. J. Frey, of Lee county, Iowa; Mrs. Louisa R. McCABE, of Conneautville, Pa. Mrs. Carlie WILDRICK, of Conneaut twp.; Mrs. Nervie SHAW, of Dicksonburg, and Henry, who is on the old homestead. Two brothers, George and Simeon, still survive him, out of a family of sixteen. Many relatives and friends paid a tribute of respect to deceased at Frey Cemetery where his body was laid away Sept. 11, 1893.

Notes for CATHERINE HARVEY, AMELIA HARVEY:

At the April 1861 session of the court of Quarter Sessions Jacob Zimmerman was indicted for seduction and bastardy with Pamela Harvey (begetting a male child in May 1860,) and apparently found guilty as he moved for a new trial 13 Aug. 1861. Silas Harvey presented a bill of costs on Pamela's behalf. Silas was brought before the Grand Jury (George Leash of Troy Twp. was his surety) charged by Zimmerman with perjury, in the foregoing matter, but no indictment was returned.

Notes for LITTLEFIELD TITUS:

The marriage between Littlefield and Catherine lasted only two weeks. Littlefield charged in the divorce proceedings that Catherine was a woman of the street and had inflicted him with a social disease. Littlefield Titus was a brother to Alvira/Elvira Titus Churchill, the same woman, Jane Lewis wife of Silas Harvey charged with alienation of affection in the divorce proceedings between Silas Jr. and Jane Lewis. A 1886 plat map shows Silas Harvey Jr. and Ester Dingman owning land with Alvira to the north and Giles Dingman to south.

Silas Chidester Harvey

By Mark Harvey, Jr

Written to Linda Kelley in Jan. 2002

“Some of What I remember about GrandDad”

When Mom (Vivian) and Dad (Mark Harvey Sr.) got divorced I was seven years old. (Mark must have been born in '32, so it may have been '39. Ron was a year and a half younger and Sister was a year and a half younger than Ron.

We were taken out to live with Grandpa Harvey. Dad lived there also and worked at the Titusville Dairy.

GrandDad wasn't too happy about us coming out there and I didn't blame him.

There were some harsh words said. I can't remember much about it, but I was scared and hid behind the couch.

But I was inquisitive enough that I started following GrandDad around to the milk barn, to the lower barn, where he kept the Bull, and etc.

I remember going to the woods with GrandDad. He had a crosscut saw and I would get on one end and he on the other. Of course, he did all the work, I just pulled the saw back ~ but I thought I was really doing something!

I would go with him to fix the rail fence. I could pick up one end, and I finally figured out how the rails went. I remember he got a little angry with me one time. I was having a hard time figuring out where to put the end of the rails. Later on that evening we (He and I) were sitting on the porch, and he handed me a dollar and said I was a good worker, or something of that sort. I knew then he must have felt bad about chewing me out.

When GrandDad plowed the fields with the horses, I followed along behind him and the plow. One day he was plowing the upper field and I was following along behind as usual ~ The plow rolled something different up. I stopped to look and it was an old coin purse. It was rotten from being out in the field so long. When I picked it up a whole bunch of Indian-head pennies went scattering everywhere. There were well over three hundred Indian-head pennies I gathered up and GrandDad said I should keep them. I had never seen that much money. I had a dollar or two I had been saving and I bought a new jacket with the money.

I did most all of the Team-driving on the hay wagon, when haying season was in. The last two or three years with GrandDad he gave me a dollar after haying. A dollar was sure worth a lot more at that time.

Dad and us kids slept upstairs. In the summer when the cows were let out to pasture GrandDad would come to the bottom of the stairs at 5:00 AM and call “Caa Boss”. That meant, “Get up and go get the cows for milking.”

Sometimes when the dew was blowy and cold, I would hop on the stones on the way down the lane, as the stones were still warm from the sun the day before. Then I would walk in the fresh cow-pies on the way back to the barn (to warm up my feet again.) Sometimes I would find deer in the pasture with the cows. (We wore shoes only on Saturday and Sunday and to school.)

We went to Town on Saturday. We would get the fire up real good in the kitchen stove then fill the reservoir with water. We would take our bath in a big washtub. Sister and Ma Harvey would take a bath first, then GrandDad, Ronnie and I. Then to Town!

I believe GrandDad was 67 years old when he passed away, and that wasn't long after left the farm. At that age he was still a great specimen of a man ~ I remember his stomach seemed to be made in four squares of muscle.

I wish I could have had more time to spend with GrandDad. ~ But that cancer has hurt a lot of our lives.

Linda, you can be very proud of your grandfather. He was very much looked up to in the community and was asked his advice from (by) many people.

GrandDad started the day at five with the milking ~ he never seemed to hurry but he always seemed to accomplish so much.

I used to walk with GrandDad over Trurn (?) Wescoats to get crude oil for firing (?) and oiling the harnesses, oiling the plows and other equipment. We even used it on the little pigs! I would hold their hind legs while he gelded them (or whatever you call it with pigs). He would make a cut then pull it out and cut it off, and would they squeal! When done, he poured crude oil on them. The farmers seemed to use crude oil for just about everything!

* * * * *

I guess I've rattled on enough for now. There was another story about GrandDad I remember hearing. They were taking rocks and stones off of a newly plowed field. I guess a couple or three men tried to put a big rock on a stone boat and couldn't get it done. GrandDad walked over, picked it up, and put it on the boat.

* * * * *

Dear Linda, We are down at our place in South Carolina. (We) have been here for two or three days. About the 10th of February we plan on going on down to Arizona to see our grandchildren there, and I have a colt that we're showing at the Scottsdale Show the 17th of Feb. Wish us luck! How are your horses and family? Hope they find you in good health and Happy and Healthy.

Think of you often. I'm sorry I didn't take you to see GrandDad's grave. Your brother, Robert, is buried there also. Hope you can make out this writing. Love you, Mark.
