Notes for William Ingram:

Obituary of William Ingram -- Millersburg, Iowa

William Ingram, was born in Tennessee, May 9th, 1816. Died at his home in Millersburg, Iowa, April 4th, 1908, aged 91 years, 10 months and 28 days. When 12 years of age he with his parents moved to Indiana, and later in 1853 he moved to Iowa, living first in Keokuk County, near South English. He afterwards moved to Decatur County and in 1860 moved to Iowa County in the vicinity of Millersburg where his home has ever since been. In 1833 (This should say 1840. Source: Jefferson County, Indiana Marriage Records 1811-1873) he was married to Miss Artemesia Fewel. To them were born ten children, eight sons and the two daughters, Mrs. Emily Stannard of Millersburg, Iowa, and Mrs. Eliza Markwell of Clay Center, Nebraska, survive him. His wife died in 1882 and in 1883 he was again married to Mrs. Angeline Pryor with whom his life since has been passed at their home in Millersburg. In his early young manhood he was converted and united with the Baptist Church, but later united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Millersburg of which he has ever since been a member, until he was, by the Great Head of the Church transferred into the Church Triumphant. Mr. Ingram has always been a man of a strong, vigorous constitution and only a few weeks since gave promise of passing the century, but a sudden breaking down of the house in which he had dwelt for nearly 92 years, has separated him from those who have known him so long, but reunited him with the greater number of his relatives and friends who had passed over the river. Besides his wife, who is 85 years of age, he leaves six children, thirty-two grandchildren, forty six great-grand child. He also leaves a host of friends who will long miss Grandpa Ingram. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Millersburg, Iowa, on Monday, April 6th at 10 a.m. and were conducted by the Rev. E. C. Brooks.

Obituary of Marion Ingram: Marengo Democrat 19 June 1902 page 8, col. 5

Died--In Marengo, Thursday, June 12, 1902 at 12:20 P.M. Mr. Marion Ingram, aged 61 years, 2 months and 15 days.

Mr. Ingram's death was very sudden, and his friends and acquaintances were severely shocked.

Marion Ingram was born in Jefferson county, Indiana, March 28th, 1841, and came to Iowa when quite young, settling in the vicinity of Millersburg, where he was married to Miss Mary A. Sherwood on July 6th, 1865. To this union was born eight children--five daughters and three sons. These with the wife and aged and honored father, Wm. Ingram, of Millersburg, survive. All were present at the last sad rites Sunday afternoon.

Marion Ingram answered the call of his country when the honor of the flag and the integrity of the Union were assailed. Almost at the first call to arms he enlisted in Co. F. Fifth Iowa Regular Infantry, on July 5th, 1861. He was honorably discharged at the expiration of his term of service on July 30th, 1864.

The children are: Mrs. John Smoley, Belle Plaine; Mrs. Stella Christopher, Greeting, Iowa, Mrs. Harry D. Frederickson, Marengo, Iowa; Mrs. Della Jones, Ruthven, Iowa, and Wilbur and Earl of this city, and Elmer of the regular army.

The funeral services occurred at the residence Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. J. M. McClelland of the M. E. church. A large number of friends were present to pay the last tribute of respect. The interment was in the I. O.O.F. cemetery.

Mr. Ingram was an honest and industrious man. To his family he was kind and indulgent, and his unflinching good nature and kindness of heart made him many friends outside of the family circle. Many friends extend sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Ingram and family desire to thank their many friends for the acts and evidences of sympathy shown in their late bereavement.

Marengo Democrat; 19 June 1902 pg. 4 col. 1

C.C. Stanard and Thomas Ingram and wives and Wm. Ingram Sr. attended the funeral of Marion Ingram at Marengo Sunday.
