From Writings by Lucy Fountain Morris:

Joseph G. Stockton, a successful stockman and farmer and the owner of a large farm in Prairie township (Randolph Co.), is a stock holder and one of the organizers of the Exchange Bank of Clark, Missouri. He was born in Prairie township, July 3, 1842, the son of Thomas and America Jacobs Stockton.

More than a half century ago (this was written in 1920), Mr. Stockton settled on his present farm. He has been engaged in general farming and stock raising during all that long period and for many years has been recognized as one of the substantial farmers of this section of the state.

During the Civil War, he went to Illinois and later to Kansas where he was located when President Lincoln was assassinated. Subsequently he returned to Randolph County where he has since been a continuous resident.

In October, 1868, Mr. Stockton was married to Miss Eliza Wood, who was born in Boone County, Missouri. They are buried at Chapel Grove Cemetery, Clark, Missouri. (from History of Randolph County Missouri, by Alexander H. Waller, Historical Publishing Company, Topeka & Cleveland, 1920)

On Thursday, October 12, 1871, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. J. S. Palmer, Mr. James N. Quisenberry and Miss Laura Ella, daughter of Levi Cook, Esq., all of Boone

Notes for WILFRED ARNETT:

From information collected by Marmaduke Chapter, Columbia, Missouri:

Wilfred Arnett: of Columbia, Missouri in 1923. Enlisted May 20, 1864 at Louisa Courthouse, VA in 1st Bat. Virginia Reserves, Co. C, under Col. R.T.W. Duke as private. Fought in battles at Ft. Harrison and Gains. Paroled out of service at Louisa Courthouse, VA in May 1865. Belonged to U.C.V. Camp Searcy under Capt. Maxwell. Received the Cross of Honor.

Note: "I have not the language to write you of my experience of the cruel and bloody war that was fought in Virginia for four long years. We fought for a cause and principle that was just. The question of whether a Sovereign State had a right to withdraw from the Union has never been past on only settled by the sword. The Constitution of our country is blank on that question. I was only seventeen years old when I enlisted and did not suffer the hardships that my brothers had for four years of service. I was sent to the front at once on the Chickahomany River in front of General Grant's army. It was all we could do to repulse Grant's attacks; he would not drive; we forced him half around Richmond and Petersburg. With the most heartfelt gratitude to the noble Daughters of the Confederacy for their untiring efforts to commemorate and keep active the Cause we all loved so well, I am, as ever, Yours Gratefully, Wilfred Arnett."

Wilfred stated that his mother was a slave owner in 1860, and his father was an officer in the War of 1812.

Notes for WILLIE LEE STOCKTON:

"...In October 1868, Joseph G. Stockton married Miss Eliza Wood, who was born in Boone County, Missouri. Six children were born, Willie, who became the wife of Jack Sharp of Prairie Township, who came to Missouri from Indiana with several other brothers and children at a early age. Jake was a farmer and Constable of Prairie Township for about 30 years. All above are buried in Chapel Grove Cemetery at Clark, Missouri.

"Of this union eleven children were born, one of which was Georgia, born September 24, 1899. Georgia was educated and reared near Clark, Missouri. On May 13, 1916, she married Clarence Robinson of Sturgeon, Missouri.

"Clarence was born on April 26, 1895, west of Sturgeon, Missouri, the youngest of fifteen children whose father was John Taylor Robinson, a farmer and Holiness preacher who dedicated Lick Fork Church and cemetery (which still exist west of Sturgeon, Mo.). John Taylor's father John Robinson, served in the Union Army in Kentucky. He is buried in the old Sturgeon cemetery. John Taylor came to Sturgeon, with his mother and several other children in a covered wagon during the Civil War from Indiana. John Taylor married Parthina Roberts, both are buried in Lick Fork Cemetery west of Sturgeon, with others of the Robinson family. Clarence and Georgia reared three children, Clarence Clay, of this review, Lillian Loraine, now Mrs. James Pearl Broaddus of Las Vegas, Nevada; Betty Jean, now Mrs. Clyde Burnham of Moberly. Clarence and Georgia live at 910 West End Place, same address for fifty-six years; last May (1976) they celebrated their sixty (sic) anniversary. Clarence worked forty-five years as a sheet metal worker for the Wabash Railroad Company. Clarence Clay was born December 1, 1919, in Moberly. Clarence C. taught Mathematics and Science one year, became Principal of Southeast Park Elementary School in 1951, and served in that position for fifteen years. The next ten years he was Director of Audio-visual for Moberly Public Schools, later to return to teaching Mathematics in the Moberly Schools. Clarence C. worked in many organizations as Cerebral Palsy, Cancer, Boy and Cub Scouts, Teacher Professional Organizations.

"Clarence C. taught Sunday School for over forty years and served on the Board of stewards many terms for the Trinity United Methodist Church. He is listed in Who's Who in Missouri Educators of 1975 and Who's Who in American School Districts in the 1976 edition. "On December 24, 1941, Clarence C. married Frances Madaline Collins of Old Melton, Missouri. Madaline's father Roy Vivian Collins and Mother Pearline Maratha (Wood) came from Grundy County (near Trenton, Mo.) to the Moberly area in the early twenties. Mr. Collins and his father E. L. Collins were carpenters in the area and Pearline's father was a farmer in Grundy County. Frances Madaline was born near Paris, Missouri, on December 2, 1923. "She was educated in Moberly schools but attended Madison school the last two years of High School. Madaline also attended Moberly Junior College. She served the Tri-Me Sunday School Class of the Trinity United Methodist Church as an officer for many years. She also served in many other organizations as minor officer or as a volunteer. Notes for JENNIE "MARIE" MORITZ YORK:

Jennie Marie Douglas

The Idaho Statesman , Edition Date: June 23, 2005

(1915-2005) Jennie Marie Douglas quietly slipped away from us Sunday, June 19, 2005. She was born Jennie Marie Moritz on Jan. 12, 1915 to Jacob and Hannah Moritz on their homestead in the Highland Hills above Cambridge, Idaho. She was 90 years old this past January and stayed alive these past two and half years out of sheer stubbornness. She battled through four major surgeries; physical therapy and rehabilitation so that she could stay in her home and keep up her yard, grow her tomatoes - the most delicious tomatoes ever. During the second surgery on her hip she contracted an antibiotic resistant infection that finally took her in the end. You'd think she was down, but she'd stick her chin out and fight back until she was home and enjoying a good quality of life. She'd make us laugh with a crack and then stubbornly continue to treat her leg ulcers by spraying alcohol on them, ignoring her nurse practitioner granddaughter's admonitions and orders to put her feet up. Marie made the best bread pudding. It was a standing order for many who visited. She always cooked with the most fat she could find, like she still on the ranch, cream, butter, lard etc. - because it tasted so good. We greeted her cooking with a willing appetite. Things got harder for Marie in the spring of 2003. She fell and broke her hip. The day after we brought her home from the nursing home in September, the love of her life, Reuben Douglas passed away. She visited Reuben nearly every day of the six years he lived in nearby Hillcrest Rehabilitation and Care Center after his stroke. Marie said that she missed Reuben every day. They were married for 38 years. Marie's family and friends have lost a kind sweetheart. She was charming but would sometimes drive us nuts because she had to do things her way. She'd say, "I'm not set in my ways." She'd stick her chin out and turn her ears off. She was through with being bossed about by her family. What could we do but shake our heads and think, "That's Grandma!" and admire her strength. She had her mind and knew what she wanted regardless of what was best for her. No longer reminiscing about the years on the ranch, the days during World War II on the west coast, the good years in Boise, and many visits to Montana, Oregon, Illinois and Missouri. Marie's passing has left a big void in our lives that we will do our best to fill with memories of her smile and laughter. And laugh we did! How do you recoup such a loss? Well...her descendants are made of the same tough fiber. Her spirit is in a better place now. Marie leaves behind two daughters, Shirley York Casey (Bob) of Weiser, Idaho and Josie York Saunders (Phil) of Gladstone, Ore.; one stepson, Nathan Lee Douglas (Paulette) of Parma, Idaho; seven grandchildren, Grayson Casey (Karen) of St. Helens, Ore., Becky Letz (Scott) of Ponca City, Okla., Julie Lynn (Bob) of Ketchum, Idaho, Bradley Casey (Mechelle) of Kingsland, Texas, Ben Casey (Michele) of Sand Hollow, Idaho, Douglas Saunders (Renee) of Oregon City, Ore. and Kimberly Saunders of Gladstone, Ore.; fourteen great-grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren. Marie worked hard for most of her life but always had time to enjoy life, laugh with us and even enjoyed a happy hour. Memories of her home, great cooking, beautiful flowers and delicious tomatoes will remain with all who knew them. The family wishes to express their appreciation and thanks to Marie's neighbors, Harry and Beverly Buster, and Allen Hui, for the kindness they have shown to Marie throughout the years. We owe a heartfelt thanks to Marie's friends Lori, John, Brittney and Gus Brandon for their devoted care and friendship. We'd like to extend our gratefulness to Cheryl Quinney for her tender care of Marie in the final months of her life and Janet Howard, her hairdresser of 35 years, for fixing her hair one more time. Many thanks to Dr. Alan Maderious for his loving care of our grandmother. A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Friday, June 24, 2005 at the Joplin Cemetery. Private viewing will be Thursday from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. and Friday morning from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Relyea Funeral Chapel at 318 N. Latah. A potluck will be held at Marie's home after the service. All are welcome. Come remember the good times.
