Notes for HIRAM HUNT:

UNKNOWN HUNT'S BEFORE 1803
IN VIRGINIA AND KENTUCKY

Although the sources have not been validated, I believe the origin of Hiram Hunt 1803, is as follows:

Richard Hunt, American Revolutionary Soldier from Virginia born abt. 1758, Wife, Winney Unknown

Richard Hunt served as Pvt of Inf & Cav for the VA Militia State of KY
He is buried in Pennington Cemetery, Lincoln Co KY 68 (Abstract of Graves of Revolutionary Patriots, Vol 2, P—

Married: Abt. 1776 (Pension Records)

Children: Polly, who married Absalom Smith in Lincoln County, KY 1816
Nancy, b. 1791, married Jesse Chapple in 1812 (Surety Hackley Hunt)
Andrew
James
Alexander
Robert
Hackley

Hackley Hunt was listed on the 1800 Tax List for Lincoln County, KY along with Richard Hunt
Hackley married Sally Burnam on October 9, 1798 in Lincoln County, KY
The 1830 Lincoln County, KY, Federal Census lists Richard Hunt, Winney Hunt, Hiram Hunt, Sally Hunt, James Hunt and Fanny Hunt. Also, Elizabeth Burnam is listed on the 1830 Census next to Hiram Hunt, Sally Hunt.

Hiram Hunt and Malinda Wilson were married on April 19, 1831 in Lincoln Co, KY
In 1840 Hiram is listed on the Washington Co, KY Census. Then the 1850 Census in Jefferson Township, Pike County, IN, lists Hiram 46, Malinda 36, James E 18, Alexander 14, Mary 12, (All born in KY) Pleasant 7, Thomas 4, and Palina 1 (All born in IN) After coming to Missouri, Francis Marion Hunt, (a male) was born to them.

In 1850, Sally Hunt 76, (Hiram's widowed mother?) was shown remaining in Lincoln Co, KY, residing with Andrew Hunt 46, Mary 26, Nancy 7, Fanny 6,
May 4, Winny 1, then Sally 76, Robert 12, Marian (Female) 10.

Although I have been researching the Hunt Family for over one year, and suspected that Hackley Hunt may be Hiram's Father, I only received a posted reply on Ancestry.Com's Message Board, last Sunday, July 18, 2004 from Gail Garwood, with the following information.

"We may have a connection in our HUNT ancestors. I am descended from Polly HUNT who married Absalom Smith in Lincoln County, KY 1816. Polly had 5 siblings and she was daughter of Richard and Winifred HUNT.
Records show that her sister Nancy married Jesse Chapple in 1812 and the surety was Hackley Hunt. Pension Records indicate that Richard & Winifred HUNT married about 1776 and first child born shortly thereafter. This would certainly leave enough years for Hackley to be born & be of marrying age in 1798. I admit that this is speculation on my part. Happy to share. I'm really working harder on Absalom SMITH right now, but would like to fill in siblings of Polly. Looking forward to hearing if we are cousins."
Gail

Dear Hunt Family Members,

In researching the Hunt Family this last year, some interesting facts have come to light. One is that not much research has been done on the Hunt Family or else it has not been shared with the genealogy world. Just recently, (see Notes on Hiram Hunt) it appears that the Hunt Family may be descended from a Revolutionary War Patriot, Richard Hunt of Virginia and Kentucky. In May 1780, Kentucky County, Virginia was formed from Fincastle County. In 1782, Kentucky was established as a judicial district. In 1792, Kentucky achieved statehood.

It's almost been like reading a historical novel. All the characters have recreated themselves in the mind's eye. Carroll has been a great listener and co-explorer of the family censuses from 1800 through 1930, as well as historical documents like land grants and deeds, marriage bonds, interesting bios, and many other treasures. The story begins just after the Revolutionary War and travels through the War of 1812, the great Civil War (ours were Confederate, it seems, i.e. James and Alexander, Pleasant's brothers served in Missouri), Indian Wars, on through World War I and II, Korea, Vietnam to the current conflict in Iraq. Around 1850, Hiram Hunt and Malinda Wilson Hunt, along with their children must have traveled West by wagon. I'll bet if they could tell us, they had some very scary as well as fun times on that family journey. The trip that may have taken months at that time can now be driven in about ten hours. From Frankfort, KY to Montgomery County, MO through Pike County, IN, lies over 574.63 miles of open country. Then about 1875, life's journey took William Paul Hunt's father and mother, Pleasant Hunt and Nancy Gooch Hunt along with three small children, to Jacksboro, TX. The distance covered was at least 555.91 miles of trail. The Only Golden Arch was the one to the West.

Around Christmas 2003, we found the Mulquinna Family in Mount Pleasant, Wayne Co, PA. The time difference was only about 130 years. I think the spelling must have been what an Immigration worker or census taker might have heard. I'll bet it really ended in "y" or "ey". But that year 1870, the stonemason, Mathew Mulquinna had just passed away leaving his widow, Julia alone. She lived close to her daughter, Sarah Mulquinna Conway, Ed Conway's wife and Adelia Conway Hunt's mother. I pictured a crowded tenant building filled with wonderfully colorful Irish immigrants. Hard working and fun loving people came to America for a better life, and maybe at first, they just got a different one. But I think that image is incorrect. Ed Conway is listed as a farmer. Wayne County borders the State of New York. I guess 130 years ago there was less population and more ground. The hope of traveling West where a man could obtain a lot of land to farm, kept Ed Conway trudging through whatever daily conditions he encountered. And that is exactly what they chose to do. They had a boy and a girl, Edward 5 and Mary 1. By 1880 in Jack County, TX they had another son, Joseph, daughter Annie, son Charles and finally Adelia Bell Conway, born July 25, 1885. But she wouldn't remember much about her daddy, because he passed away in 1889. His widow, Sarah, had a tough job ahead of her.

Meanwhile, the Pleasant Hunt Family situation wasn't so pleasant either. In 1880 Pleasant and Nancy were only 35 and 34 years of age. Their children were Ida 11, Lena 9, William Paul 7, Maud 3 and Claudius 4 months. They had already lost son Byron before his third birthday. He was buried in Carpenter Cemetery in Missouri along with his Grandfather Hiram and Uncle Thomas G. In 1883 Nancy passed away. About four and a half years later, Pleasant remarried. Savannah Kiker Umberson was a widow about 14 years his junior. She also had children: George W. b. 1879, Sophronia b. 1881, Charles W. b. 1883, and Nettie M. b. 1885. Together they had: Sewell M. Hunt, born 1890; Amy B. Hunt, b. 1895, and Oma L. Hunt b. 1898. Pleasant passed away about 1920. He, his first wife Nancy and second wife Savannah, son Sewell and brother James are buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in the Hunt Family Plot. James "H" Hunt is the name listed; however, I believe him to be Pleasant's brother, James "E" Hunt, because the birth year 1832 is right. He passed away in 1909. There's a story about William Paul, as a teen, taking two horses out to plow one day. When he didn't come home for lunch or dinner, Pleasant went to find him. He found only one horse in the field and no William Paul. It turns out that his son took the other horse and went off to become a cowboy. He had quite a life driving cattle to market on the Chisholm Trail from Texas to Kansas. I would love to hear about that experience. Then of course the question remains, did he ever bring back the horse?

Well things weren't much brighter as Paul William and Adelia proceeded and succeeded in raising ten kids. They went to western Oklahoma, and then settled in Tillman County, Oklahoma, first Grandfield, Hollister, then Loveland. One of my favorite family stories (I've heard plenty from Ed and Carroll), is about the first year after Papa died. The family which consisted of Adelia, Ed, Kenneth and Carroll at home, moved in with Sally Meyer, a neighbor. The first year Byron and Wade helped put in a wheat crop which a hail storm destroyed before harvest. Carroll says that his Mama said, "O.K. Boys...Go gather up that ice. We're going to make ice cream." And that is what I've noticed about all the Hunt's ever since, that indomitable spirit in the face of adversity. Then of course we must remember Hattie, dressed up as "Old Tall Bess" to frighten the younger ones. Also I heard Ed and Carroll laugh until they were silly about "Traylor" stories. Jut Traylor, nicknamed "Jet" or just "Traylor", was a black man who worked with the family for years. Ed, and the others played lots of tricks on the good natured Traylor, which hopefully weren't all one sided...

Finally the Frederick, Loveland, Grandfield and Lawton Tales need to be written down before they are forgotten, one concerning "The Mongoose." A great way to pass long winter evenings is listening to the crackling and popping of family characters coming to life like sparks jumping off logs into the living room. It's so great to have received the Hunt Family Name and the loved ones who have come with it. Thanks for all your help. We'll continue on with the Hunt's, Mulquinna's, Wilson's, Gooch's, Conway's...and so on and on. Life will continue to provide sequels for the telling, I'm sure.

Sincerely,
Marion 7/21/2004
