Notes for MARY FRANCIS SPURLOCK:

Florence loved to read she would stay up late after all the chores were done and everyone was in bed and read by candle light when ever she could. When she died Luther had all of her things put in a trunk and kept them like that untill his death, then it was passed down to her daughter Lona Gibson Snodgrass, and sense her death no one knows what happen to it.

Florence won a beauty contest about 1898. She was voted the prettiest girl in Warren County, Tennessee. She won a gold locket and wore it on the train trip to Texas, with her mother Nancy Ann, and some of her siblings. She pulled off her shoes and placed her locket into the toe of her shoe and placed them on the seat beside her. She took a nap and when she awoke her locket was gone. She never found the locket.

Florence raised my mother Claudia and my mother told me about how late at night when everyone was sleeping she would get up and sit with her while she would read. My mother told me that her grandmother was a very sweet lady that she cared very much for her family but she lived a very hard life.

Notes for RUBY LEE GIBSON:

The day Ruby Gibson Carroll married Walter Braswell she wore a yellow dress that she had made herself. Three of Ruby's children from her first marriage did not go to live with Ruby and Walter but were raised by her mother and father, Mary Francis & Luther Gibson. The oldest daughter Lucy went to live with Ruby & Walter but, only stayed for a short while before getting married.

This was told to me by my mother Claudia Mae Carroll Wheelis.

Notes for CHARLES HOMER CARROLL:

Van Zant News, November 29, 1987

Homer Carroll-Funeral services for Homer Carroll, 87, were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Bartley Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Paul Knous and Chad Grant officiating.

Burial was in Woodside Cemetery. Mr. Carroll died November 23 in a Tyler hospital after a long illness.

He was born November 15, 1900, in Webster County and lived in Grand Saline 56 years.

Mr. Carroll was a retired carpenter and worked for the Grand Saline Independent School District. He was a member of a Nazarene Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Eva Carroll, Grand Saline; two sons, Gayle Carroll, Kilgore, and Mike Carroll, Grand Saline; two daughters, Lucy Snodgrass, Waco, Claudia Mae Wheelis, Lorena; one brother, Howard Carroll, Keenewick, Washington; four sisters, including Myrtle Gibson and Mrs. Paul Knous, both of Jacksonville, and Mildred Desgranges, Arizona; 15 grandchildren; and numerous great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were William Gillespie, J. C. Russell, Gene Ellis, Buster Green, Junior Denton and Sammy Swain.

Homer Carroll's tombstone has his birthdate as November 15, 1900, but he is 6 months old when the 1900 census was taken. He always told everyone that he was born in 1900 not 1899. Homer took care of the Woodside Cemetery a few years before he passed away.

-----

Brenda Jean Dewald, 60, died September 9, at Pomona Valley Hospital.

She was born April 30, 1940, in McClellan County Texas. She moved to Pomona in 1964 where she met and married Dennis Dewald, her soul mate of 36 years.

Mrs. Dewald was a homemaker, artist, poet and designer who took great pride in her home and family. She was co-owner of D&J Screen Company, D&F Sanitation and Dennis Dewald Demolition.

She took great pride in her Southern heritage and as a result was civic minded. She kept abreast of city issues, and on many occasions successfully fought for her convictions. Even her adversaries have said she was a worthy opponent.

She is survived by her husband, their daughter Robin Lee Capogni, "son" Nick Capogni and their three children, Dennis Nicholas 11, Bryndlen Maebell 10, and Emilee Eliza 8. She also leaves a brother, Richard Hale of Moody, Texas, 7 nieces and nephews, eleven great-nieces and nephews and two great-great-nephews.

She will be greatly missed for her love, loyalty to family and friends, kindness and her wonderful sense of humor by all those that considered her friend, sister and mentor.

Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, at Draper Memorial Chapel in Ontario.

Entombment will be in Pomona Cemetery Mausoleum.

Draper Mortuary of Ontario is in charge of arrangements.
