

Descendants of John HUNTLEY

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN² HUNTLEY (UNKNOWN¹) was born ca. 1624 in British Isles (Scotland), and died 16 Nov 1676 in Lyme Colony, Connecticut. He married (1) SARAH. She died ca. 1650. He married (2) JANE CURTIS Bef. 1669 in Unk. She was born ca. 1630 in England, and died ca. 1669 in Lyme Colony, Connecticut. He married (3) MARY (HAND) BARNES 03 Jun 1669 in New London, Connecticut. She died 05 Jul 1687.

Notes for JOHN HUNTLEY:

John Huntley, born about 1622-1626 in the British Isles, possibly Aberdeen, parentage, unknown, came to Boston, Massachusetts Bay Colony prior to July 1647; He originally settled in Boston, two years later he moved to Roxbury, Mass. and several years later moved to Lyme Colony, Connecticut, he died in Lyme Colony of Connecticut 16 November, 1676. His first wife, Sarah, maiden name unknown, died in Boston of smallpox ca. 1650. John's second wife Jane Curtis, who would be our relation, died in Lyme Conn. about 1669.

John married, after 1669, a third wife, Mary (Hand) Barnes, divorced wife of Charles Barnes, who had abandoned his wife and returned to England, after he was caught fornicating with her, and fined 10 pounds, which was a lot of money in those days. John apparently corrected the situation by doing the noble thing and marrying her. Mary was the Daughter of John and Alice (Gransden) Hand of Long Island.

John apparently had a brother or other close relative; William Huntley of St. Phillips Parish, Barbados, who owned a cotton plantation there and owned two slaves. Barbados was an English Island from 1605 until the middle 1900's.

For more on this information and other see the Book John Huntley of Lyme Conn. by Virgil Huntley.

He married RACHEL HARRIS 21 Jan 1705/06 in Lyme, Connecticut, daughter of WILLIAM HARRIS and ELIZABETH INNIS. She was born ca. 1684 in Unk, and died Unknown in Unk.

Notes for MOSES JR. HUNTLEY:

Moses Huntley Jr.'s wife, Rachel Harris, could be the daughter of William Harris of Block Island, R. I., a Blacksmith, who came to Lyme, Conn. where he died by Sept., 1693. William Harris's Widow Elizabeth, apparently daughter of Alexander and Catherine Innis of Taunton, Mass. and Block Island, R.I., married #2 Richard Smith of Lyme who died before 1705.

Moses was a farmer in Lyme. Earmarks for cattle were very necessary for the Colonial farmer; those recorded in Lyme seem to be unusually complete. "Moses Huntley marke is a halfe crope on the under side of near ear & halfe pene on the under side of each ear-2 Jan. 1685". Moses Huntley Jr. marketh with his father's mark by his consent".

At a town meeting held at Lyme Conn. 17 Jan. 1714 Moses Huntley Jr. was admitted an inhabitant

He married PATIENCE VAUGHN 27 Mar 1746 in Lyme, Connecticut. She was born 21 Dec 1722 in Lyme, Connecticut, and died Aft. 1768 in Unk.

Notes for JABEZ HUNTLEY:

Much has been written about Jabez Huntley Sr., while still living in Lyme, Conn. Jabez saw service, as a 2nd Lieutenant in the French Indian Wars in the Campaign of 1757 in Capt. Adonijah Fitch's 2nd Company, Col. Phineas Lyman's Regiment. Jabez along with his brothers William and Moses also served in the Campaign of 1758 in Capt. Timothy Mather's 11th Co. 3rd. Conn. Regt. from 14 April to 18 November. In 1759 he served in Capt. Zebulon Butler's 9th Co., Col. Eleazer Fitch's 4th Conn. Regt.

After the French Indian Wars, Jabez was given part ownership, of the town of Horton in King's County Nova Scotia, as the French had been evicted from there. Jabez stayed there for several years, but decided that the ground was no good for growing crop's as the uplands had "no stones in it", and moved to Maine, with most of his family following him.

During the Revolution, Jabez Sr. served as a Sgt. in Capt. Stephen Smith's Co. from 14 Sept. to 13 Dec., 1775 at Machias, Maine for defence of the seacoast. He also served as a Private along with his sons Rufus and Jabez Jr. in Captain Joseph Seaveys Company, Col. Benjamin Foster's Regiment from Dec. 5th to Dec. 25th 1778, during this period Jabez Jr. and Rufus were captured by the British, at one time they tried to escape from a British Ship on a raft, but were again captured, Jabez managed to escape again by jumping overboard and swimming to shore. Rufus was later released in Rhode Island on March 17th 1778 and later served on the Massachusetts Sloop, Winthrop, commanded by Capt. George Little.

Jabez's son Warren also served in the Revolution as a seaman, on board the Frigate Boston, under Captain Samuel Tucker.

Jabez Sr. also served in 1777 in Machias for a 1 pound bounty, under Col. John Allen.

Another story exists that Jabez Sr. was at the "Battle of Bunker Hill" where General Joseph Warren died in his arms. This has never proven to be true, however many descendants in this line of Huntley's had the name Warren as a first or middle name.

Jabez died at his son Jabez Jr.'s home in 1810, at the age of 93.

Jabez and Patience Vaughan were married March 27, 1746 by the Reverend George Beckwith.

From the book "The History of Kings County" by A.W.H. Eaton, published originally by Salem Press in 1910, later by Mika Studio, Canada, 1972 comes the following "Horton Grantees", first effective grant of 65, 750 acres, given May 29 1761, registered June 13, 1761. Committee of and for the grantees: William Welch, Lebbeus Harris, Samuel Reid. Each full share consisted of 500 acres. The names are as spelled in the original grants:

Huntley Jabesh - 1 share"

Notes for NATHAN HUNTLEY:

The first grant of land for a township, which is now Marlow, New Hampshire, was made by Gov. Benning Wentworth in 1755, but no settlement was made. A new Grant was made 7 October, 1761 to a group of residents of Lyme, Conn. and vicinity. Before settlement of the town began, all business was conducted by the Proprietors in Lyme, Conn.

Nathan was one of the first settlers, arriving about 1767 and building the first house in that year on Marlow Hill where he had a large estate. His 100 acre lot, laid out on the Marlow and Lempster town line remained in the family for 180 years, being sold to other parties in 1947.

Nathan Huntley and Eber Lewis were the first Selectman of Marlow and Nathan was always active in town affairs. Nathan served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Jeremiah Stiles Co. , Colonel Paul Dudley's Regt. and was present at the siege of Boston.

33. JABEZ JR.⁶ HUNTLEY (JABEZ⁵, MOSES JR.⁴, MOSES³ SR., HUNTLEY, JOHN² HUNTLEY, UNKNOWN¹) was born 1760 in Lyme, Connecticut, and died Oct 1816. He married BETTY SMITH 23 Dec 1782 in Machias, Maine, daughter of ISSAC SMITH and SARAH WISWELL. She was born 13 Mar 1768, and died 28 Nov 1816.

Notes for JABEZ JR. HUNTLEY:

Jabez Huntley Jr., served in the Revolution as a Pvt. in Capt Joseph Seavey's Co., Col Benjamin Foster's Regt., from 23 June to 16 July, 1777. This Company was ordered to duty by Col. Foster for the defense of Machias and adjacent rivers when the British ship "Ambuscade" lay in the harbor at Machias. Jabez also had other enlistments through 1779.

Jabez Huntley Jr., with his wife, Betty sold his farm in Plantation # 14, 25 November 1814 and moved to Plattsburg, New York (Washington Co. Me. 10:448) Jabez Huntley and family arrived in Plattsburg in the winter and stayed until spring when they resumed their journey to the West. A story told by descendants relates that Jabez found his brother Rufus Huntley, living on the shores of Lake Ontario and liking the area decided to settle there, but both Jabez and his wife became ill and died within a month of each other. The children returned to Plattsburg where they remained until after 1830.

The following article about Jabez Jr. appears in the Maine Historical & Genealogical Records, Vol. 9, No. 1: "In 1800 one, Jabez Huntley, lived in Plantation #14, seven miles from Dennysville in a log house on the stepped road leading from the latter place to Machias, and one Summer day while on the road, gun in hand, accompanied by his son, he saw before him in his path a big Black Bear, and quick as thought he discharged his piece into the bruins head, wounding him severely; at which the bear made a hasty retreat for the woods with Huntley in close pursuit. Suddenly the enraged brute turned upon his pursuer and clasped him firmly in one of his characteristic hugs but by superhuman power Huntley threw his antagonist to the ground but was unable to free himself from his close embrace until his son came to his rescue and dealt such heavy blows upon the bears head with his gun stock that the animal was forced to relinquish his deadly grasp. After finishing the bear, whose weight was early 400 pounds, young Huntley with much difficulty succeeded in carrying his father home where he remained for some months disabled from injuries received in the hard fought contest".

The young Huntley mentioned in this thriller is probably Issac Smith Huntley, Jabez's oldest son, who at 15 years of age would be the only son strong enough to carry his father home.

from John Huntley of Lyme Conn. Book 1 page 31.

Also it should be mentioned that Jabez Huntley Jr, was scarred for life from this bear attack.

Notes for HENRY A. MUNSON:

Henry Munson Jr. was listed as a Sea Captain in the 1870 Census, a Ships Carpenter in the 1900 Census and a local fisherman in the Machias port, Maine area. His next to last child, Carrie, is my Grandmother, who married Harry Austin Huntley, son of Austin J. Huntley and Ella Holmes Huntley, which is my link with the Munson name.

One interesting story that I just heard in October, 1995 from a Ethel Quimby of Bucks Harbor, Maine, was that Mina Belle Munson and James Lindsey were first married, and had a baby James Jr., shortly after his birth, Mina Belle died. However on her death bed she asked her sister Helen to marry James Sr. and raise James Jr. as her own. Even though Helen was already engaged to someone else, she accepted her sisters deathbed wish.

Henry Munson is listed in the 1870, 1880 & 1900 Census, in the 1870 Census his Mother in Law Widow Nancy M. Huntley, age 43, Brother in Law Benjamin Huntley age 15, is also listed as living with them. In the 1880 Census, Widow Nancy M. Huntley age 53, is listed as having dropsy, also her Nurse Mary B. Kilton aged 55 is listed as living with them
