Notes for Ernest Walter Hutchinson:

Death of Pleasant Street Man leaves Eight Fatherless Children

Ernest Walter Hutchinson, 46, died Sunday, Oct 18, at his home at 65 Pleasant Street after an illness of over three years. He was employed as a machinist by Parks & Woolson for about 30 years until he resigned on account of ill health. He also worked about a week and a half recently at the Bryant Chucking Grinder plant, but was forced to give it up on account of his health.

Mr Hutchinson was born in the town of Weathersfield near Perkinsville and Amsden, Oct 30, 1884 and lived there until he was about seventeen years old, when he moved to Springfield. He was the son of Theodore and Leonella Hutchinson. He attended school in Perkinsville.

His wife survives him and eight children: Two brothers and five sisters also survive: George and Ira Hutchinson, Mrs. William Wheelock, Mrs. Minnie Williams, Mrs. LeRoy Olney, Mrs. George Gee and Mrs. Mahlon Gragen. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon, October 20, with Rev. George Pomfrey officiating. Those from out of town at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. George Hutchinson of Keene, N.H., Mr. and Mrs. William Wheelock and family of Chester, Mrs. Minnie Williams and family of Claremont, NH, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Olney of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. M. Perry of Whitesville, Mr. and Mrs. George Gee of Perkinsville, Mrs. Arthur Frail and two daughters of Perkinsville. Burial was in Oakland cemetery.

Notes for Margaret Irene Cobb:

Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson

SPRINGFIELD -- Mrs. Margaret Cobb Hutchinson, 72, of 384 South Street, died early yesterday morning at Restawhile Convalescent home, where she had been a patient for the past month, after a lingering illness. She had been a life-long attendant of the Calvary Baptist Church where funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Stephen E. Fletcher, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery.

A lifelong resident of Springfield, she was born on January 19, 1892, daughter of Etwell and Susie Morgan Cobb. Her husband Ernest W. Hutchinson died in October 1931.

Survivors are six sons and two daughters: 23 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren; a brother, Bruce E. Cobb of New York City; a sister, Mrs. Lena Perry of Springfield, and several nieces and nephews.

Etwell Cobb, 85, Long Time FGS Employee, Dies

SPRINGFIELD -- Etwell Elmer Cobb, 85, of Pearl street died Saturday night at the Bellows Falls Inn. Born July 16, 1858, in Cornish, NH, he was the son of Edmund and Hannah Penniman Cobb. He had lived in Springfield for 60 years and was employed for 38 years at the Fellows Gear Shaper company.

Besides his wife, Susie Morgan Cobb, Mr. Cobb is survived by a son, Bruce, of New York city; two daughters, Mrs. Ralph E. Perry and Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson of Springfield; a sister, Mrs. Elsie Stickney of Charlestown, NH, 20 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Davis Memorial chapel with Rev. Raymond A. Beardslee officiating. Burial was in Oakland cemetery. Hugh Balch, Milton Slater, Robert Spindler, John Kendall, Benjamin Ross and Maurice Hitchcock were bearers.

Notes for Susan Esther/Susie Morgan:

From Mary Ellen Morgan

In going through my Morgan file I stumbled on the 1900 census entry for John et al. You know how they say you should go back over information in your files, that as time goes by, things pop out at you? Well, there are John & Elizabeth, and two households before is Etwell & Susie Cobb and children! And the listing after John & Elizabeth is Grace & Walter Randall.

The newspaper clipping of Susie's 90th birthday says she had six children.

Mrs. Susie M. Cobb

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Davis Memorial Chapel for Mrs. Susie Morgan Cobb, 95, who died on May 8 at the White Acres convalescent home after a long illness.

Mrs. Cobb was born at Springfield on February 26, 1865, during the presidency of Abraham Lincoln. She was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Kane Morgan. Her husband, Etwell E. Cobb, died in 1943

Residing in Springfield all her life, she lived on Pearl street for 60 years. Before entering the convalescent home, she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Perry on 71 Ellis Street.

She is survived by a son, Bruce Cobb of New York City; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson and Mrs. Lena Perry of Springfield; 20 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the First Congregational Church.

The Rev Charles P Calcagni of the First Congregational Church and the Rev. Ehrmann Bennett of the Baptist Church officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in Oakland cemetery.

Child of Etwell Cobb and Susan Morgan is:

- 3 i. Margaret Irene Cobb, born January 19, 1892 in Springfield, Vermont; died November 25, 1964 in Springfield, Vermont; married Ernest Walter Hutchinson.
