The Dodd/Pritchard Connection

I would like to express many thanks for all those who have so graciously assisted in this family research, they are too many to name. If I have in anyway misrepresented any portion of this family please let me know and I will gladly correct the mistakes. I have chosen to omit the names of the living to protect their privacy.

Introduction

Since there such close relations with the Dodd and Pritchard families who migrated through Tennessee on to parts West I have decided to include this book on my website. Hopefully through this publication we can fill in the missing pieces of these two families.

Please read through the pages and if you find a connection or can help us with any of the missing pieces let us know.

William Dodd and Henretta Weaver are married in Westmoreland Co. VA march 2, 1787. Richard Weaver is bondsman. By 1790 they are living in Chatham Co. NC. They then moved on to Virginia before 1800. George and Benjamin are probably not Henretta's children. Three sons and four daughters are named in his will. George and Benjamin are executors and trustees for their brethren. Will was probated Nov Ct. 1825.

The Dodds were among the early settlers of Decatur County. Williams sons George and Nicholas moved to the area about 1830 from Chatham County, North Carolina.

George, his nephew William C., Nicholas and son Alexander, all settled west of the Tennessee River near Lick Creek in what was then Perry County. Another nephew, Griffin, the son of Benjamin Loy Dodd, had settled in Henderson County in 1830 on land near the headwaters of Cub Creek. Griffin's son John Pryor married Nancy Jane Doyle, daughter of John Doyle of Brodies Landing. The Doyles were also early settlers of Decatur County.

Many descendants of the Dodd settlers moved on to other states before 1900. These families had various occupations. Early on they farmed but later several were timber cutters, sawmill operators, teachers and merchants. William H. Dodd had a business in the the Poplar Springs community of Henderson County in the late 1800's and early 1900's. William J. Dodd had a grocery store in Beacon and operated as a peddler throughout the county. His son Russel opened the first supermarket in Parsons before WWII, called the Jitney Jungle.

Jessie Dodd and wife Annie operated a dress shop in Parsons for many years. Jessie was also a Baptist preacher. Annie Townsend Dodd still resides in the Parsons area. Carl Dodd, son of Mitch and Frances Gilbert Dodd, operated various businesses in Parsons before moving to Paris, TN.

The Dodds have long been educators. Alexander W. Dodd was a teacher in Henderson County in 1850. marlin and Otis Dodd, sons of Benjamin Frank both taught school at Rocky Springs located near Jeannette. Otis taught a total of 30 years in Decatur county. His widow Opal and son Steve lived on the Perryville Highway. marlin's son Grafton lives on the land farmed by his father, grandfather and great grandfather. Grafton taught school and coached fo 13 years and has been principal of Parsons Junionr High School for 18 years. His wife Sandra and daughter Miranda, as well as a sister, a nephew and a niece are teachers.

Lillie Dodd Greener, granddaughter of John Pryor Dodd and Nancy Jane Doyle, lived in Parsons until her death in 1992. Her daughter Barbara is married to R.C. Stegall and lives in Jackson, TN. R.C. was Assistant District Attorney until his retirement.

Lillie's sister, Addie Dodd Hendrix Veal, lived in Parsons until her death in 1984. Her daughter Sylvia Tolley, grandson Dennus Tolley and great-grandson Jesse Tolley reside in Parsons.

The Dodds have always served their country when needed, beginning with William who served in the Revolutionary War and continuing through all other wars this country has been involved in. Griffin's son, Stanley H. Dodd, served in the Civil War, Co. G., 7th Cav., Dennus served and fought in Vietnam. Barbara Greener Stegall's grandson is the last to serve as of this date and he is presently defending the country serving in the USN. My knowledge of his last deployment was to defend the country against the Muslim nation who attacked the USA on September 11, 2002.
