Notes for ISIAIAH J ROBINSON I:

Isaiah Robinson Sr. was suprised one day when a few indians,(don't know what tribe) stopped in on him at his home on the frontier of Wisconsin. He played the fiddle for them, & when he finished the indians left without saying anything. They just went away. Two or three weeks later the same indians returned and left a half of a deer for him & his family. This story was related by Carl L. Borchardt to his daughter Ethel Jacobs.
