Notes for THOMAS TRIPP:

[Meserve.FTW]

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 16, Ed. 1, Tree #1137, Date of Import: Jan 25, 1999]

Thomas Tripp, is said to have had three wives and 21 children, but this information is not proven. In his son Stuart's Census record, 1910, it states his father was born in England. No other record gives this information. When he filed marriage intentions, he was of Searsmont, Me. 1810 Census record gives his age between 60 and 70 years and he is residing in Appleton, Me. It seems that Susan may be his 3rd wife...

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 16, Ed. 1, Tree #1137, Date of Import: Jan 25, 1999]

Thomas Tripp, is said to have had three wives and 21 children, but this information is not proven, In his son Stuart's Census record, 1910, it states his father was born in England. No other record gives this information. When he filed marriage intentions, he was of Searsmont, Me. 1810 Census record gives his age between 60 and 70 years and he is residing in Appleton, Me It seems that Susan may be his 3rd wife..

Notes for AARON WALTER GARFIELD SIMMONS:

There is an item on ebay that supposedly is Aaron W. Simmons' diary/journal/scrapbook from the 1850s-1870s timeframe. It looks legitimate. I cannot seem to link these people to my Simmons or other lines in Maine, so I thought I would pass on the information to others who might be connected. I have no connection to the seller. There are some drawings in the journal - one of a ship with the legend "Mary Ann." I found a web site that says Aaron W. Simmons was captain of the schooner Mary A. Power from 1880-1881: Was on e-bay gone in 2005 There is a picture of someone the seller says is named Mary Anderson, but I think the name below the photo actually says "Miss Mary Andrews." Rockland vital records shows Mary Jane Andrews married Luther M.

Simmons in 1854. Might be the same person and maybe a relative of Aaron. The diary also refers to Aaron's first wife Mary A. Ling and there is a drawing of a circle with her name in it.

Notes for FRANK LAWRENCE MESERVEY:

ps - in scrolling through your web site - the descendants of Clement Meserve, I spotted the listing for Frank Lawrence Meserve. I met Frank and Carlene during a trip to Maine in 1996. Nice people. Carlene and another woman from the Appleton Historical Society kindly took me around to the cemeteries where my relatives are buried. I understand Frank passed away and Carlene remarried, but I do not know her new last name. Sylvia Cates ... <scates@globalcrossing.net> ..

Notes for BARBARA MARGARET GRIMWADE:

[My Mayflower Fuller Line on mom's side of the family.] Ellen Baker <dab@3-cities.com> Washinton State *Edward Fuller m. ? in ?, in England. Edward was born before Sept. 4, 1575 in Redenhall, Suffolk, England and D. between January and April of 1620/1 during the first winter, after arriving from the Mayflower, in Plymouth, Plymouth Co., MA. His parent were Robert Fuller and Sarah Dunkhorn. Robert was a butcher or a tanner. Mrs. Fuller (his wife) was b. in ?, England., and Died also between Jan. and April of 1620/1 during the first winter, after arriving from the Mayflower, in Plymouth, Plymouth Co., MA. Edward and his unknown wife were among the English Separatist living in Leiden, Holland. He then joined the pilgrims at Southhampton, England and then embarked first in the "Speedwell" and when the ship proved unseaworthy, transferred to the Mayflower and with his wife and young son, Samuel, continued the voyage to the New World. He was the twenty-first signer of the "Compact," and though he and his wife both died soon after their arrival and are buried in unmarked graves on Coles Hill at Plymouth, Plymouth Co., MA. Edward had at least 2 children, *Capt. Matthew (b.1603?-1678) and Samuel (b. 1608?) (*Note-There are several possible women that could have been Edward's Wife. The following were found in the parish register abstracts of the I.G.I.of Edward Fuller's marrying during the time he would have most likely married. Amy Lee, (m. Nov. 21, 1596, Abinger, Surrey, England), Ann Carpenter, (m.Nov. 25, 1597 in Carlton, Bedford, England), Thomasine Sheppard, (m. May 2, 1597 in St. Gregory, Norwich, Suffolk, England), Joan Raven (m. Oct. 28, 1599 in Woodham, Walter, Essex, England), Elizabeth Buck (m.July 25, 1602 in Great Finborough, Suffolk, England), Barbara Colman (m. Jun 10, 1606, Chigwell, Essex, England), and Agnes Croucher (m. Jan. 14, 1607 in West Horsley, Surrey, England).(*Note-Edward Fuller, was one of the Puritans who left England because of religious persecution. In the time of Queen Elizabeth I, 1558 to 1603, the policy was to enforce absolute uniformity in religious belief. The Puritans were targeted because of their persistent attempts to purify the church and they had stopped with the ceremonies required by the dominant religion. King James I, who succeeded Queen Elizabeth I, also was intolerant of other religions.)
