1. JAMES HARVEY<sup>1</sup> HESS was born 05 Jan 1853, and died 18 Sep 1907 in Russell co. Va.. He married (1) UNKNOWN. She died Unknown. He married (2) CATHRINE HESS Abt. 1880. She was born 10 Jan 1865 in Russell co. Va., and died 19 Feb 1952 in Russell co. Va..

Notes for JAMES HARVEY HESS:

1900 census, Swords Creek precinct, Russell Co., Virginia
House # 189, Page # 149

James H. Hess, head, dob May- 1855, age 45, married 20 years
Stony C., wife, dob April- 1850, age 50, married 20 years, mother of 3 children, 2 living

Francis M., daughter, dob Mar.- 1885, age 15, Widowed, mother of 1 child, 1 living
William F., grandson, dob Nov.-1899,
Luther F. son, dob April- 1883, age 17, Single

( no doubt, this is the right family, though some dates do not agree with tombstone birth dates, and other birth records. Francis " Della" was not widowed, it is my understanding that she was going through a short separation with her husband at the time the census was taken.)

3. LUTHER FRAZIER<sup>2</sup> HESS(JAMES HARVEY<sup>1</sup>) was born 19 Sep 1883, and died 27 Apr 1939 in Russell co. Va.. He married BERTHA "BERTHIE" ALAFAIR RAY 27 Jan 1903 in Sword's Creek, Russell co., Va., daughter of JOHN RAY and MARY BALL. She was born 23 Jun 1886 in Russell co. Va., and died 11 Nov 1948 in Tazewell co. Va..

Notes for LUTHER FRAZIER HESS:

Luther and Bertha lived just out of West Raven, their home was up a holler on the north side of rt. 67, south of Raven and before you get to road # 635. They owned about 28 acres of land, on which they farmed. They raised all their food, trading milk and eggs for coffee and sugar and such. Raising Hogs and chickens for meat. My mother Helen, recalls them canning six to seven hundred quarts of food per season. She also says that they had a nice orchard, always had an abundance of apples. She remembers people coming from the area to get apples, Luther never charged anyone for them.

She also says this is how she met her future husband, Paul Jones. Him and his brothers use to come and gather apples.

Luther and Bertha had a total of fifteen children. One was born dead. They raised all their children on the farm mentioned above. Some of the kids attended the school on Horton Ridge. Sometimes they would walk through the woods, shortening their trek about one mile, as opposed to walking the road.

Luther was also a deputy sherriff in Russell co.. From what I gather, he was well liked, a repectable man.

My Aunt Lou recalls him working on the farm one day, when one of the neighbors came to get his help. Apparently, one of the men in their family had lost his mind. They said that he was a big man, Much bigger than Luther. Grandpa had to strike the man with his pistol to subdue him. It troubled him that he had to resort to striking him.

He was also a member of the RED Man Lodge. My mother recalls Bertha cooking the oysters for the stews they would have.

Evidently Luther's father James H. Hess owned a store in West Raven at one time, because Luther either ran the store for him, or kept his books, I'm not sure which. According to Mom and her Sister Lou, the store burned down.
