

Descendants of William Jordan

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM¹ JORDAN was born Bet. 1668 - 1693 in Essex Co., VA, and died in VA. He married RACHAEL MEADOR in VA. She was born in VA, and died in VA.

Notes for WILLIAM JORDAN:

I do not accept the "proof" I've seen so far that my Jonas is son of William of Essex Co. Va and his wife Rachel -- that the Rachel Jordan who witnesses one of the Amelia Co. VA land deeds is his mother!

"My Jonas Jordan d. 1785 in Bedford Co. VA married Winefred???early to mid 1740s in Amelia Co. VA. They moved to Bedford late 1760s. Their eldest son is Absalom b. mid to late 1740s Amelia Co. d. 1826 Bedford Co. Another son is Benjamin. These are the only "proved" children of this couple. It is VERY POSSIBLE they had a daughter named Winefred. Absalom m. circa 1770. A daughter might be a bit old to "fit", but this is a start. Meanwhile, does anyone know anything more about Jonas and where he was before he appears in Amelia Co.? He is NOT the son of William and Rachel Meador as published. All his children's names are very "French" which makes me wonder if he is a recent imigrant?

Note by Larry Jordan:

Jonas is shown in this database as the child of William Jordan and Rachael Meador as a placeholder. There are researchers who believe this is the proper relationship.

Children of WILLIAM JORDAN and RACHAEL MEADOR are:

2. i. JONAS² JORDAN, b. Abt. 1725, Bedford Co., VA; d. 29 Jun 1785, Bedford Co., VA.
- ii. ABSALOM JORDAN, b. VA; d. 1795, Elbert Co., GA; m. MARY WALTON, Bef. Jan 1758, Albemarle Co., VA; b. VA.

Notes for ABSALOM JORDAN:

From: Linda Sparks Starr starr81@ix.netcom.com

Other VA Jordans I've tentatively placed as siblings of Jonas d. 1785 include: Absalom who married Mary Walton bef. Jan 1758 in Albemarle Co. VA. I think they went to Rowan Co. NC 1760ish and he is the one who died Elbert Co. GA in 1795.

Absalom m. Mary Walton dau. of William and Susanna, before Jan. 1758 per Wulfreck's "Some VA Marriages". Albemarle Co. VA deed records show him purchasing 220 acres from William Walton. Goochland Co., VA records show a 1746 deed -- land might have fallen into area that became Albemarle Co. As a resident of Rowan Co. NC, he sold his land in Albemarle Co., VA in 1760. I leave it to others to determine if he is the same Absalom who d. 1795 in Elbert Co. GA.

3. iii. JEREMIAH JORDAN, m. LOUISA WALTON, Feb 1759, Caroline Co., Va.
4. iv. THOMAS JORDAN, d. Jun 1809, Culpepper Co., VA.
- v. EDWARD JORDAN, d. Lunenburg Co. Va.

Generation No. 2

2. JONAS² JORDAN (*WILLIAM*¹) was born Abt. 1725 in Bedford Co., VA, and died 29 Jun 1785 in Bedford Co., VA. He married (1) ???. He married (2) WINIFRED MORRIS OR MAURICE ?? 1743 in Essex, VA. She was born Abt. 1729 in VA, and died in VA.

Notes for JONAS JORDAN:

Jonas descendants migrated to the following areas:

- Johnston Co., NC
- Sampson Co., NC
- Laurens Co., VA
- Darlington Co., SC
- Lawrence Co., KY
- Autauga & Coosa & Lowdnes & Montgomery Co., AL
- Heard Co., GA

Hello fellow rooters,

I haven't seen my particular Jordan line discussed yet, so decided to post a query of my own. My line begins with Jonas Jordan who appears in Amelia Co VA late 1730s/early 1740s. He is married by 1746 to a Winifred, "said to be Morris" by some researchers. They moved from Amelia to Bedford Co Va late 1760s where Jonas dies before 29 June 1785.

Known children included: Absalom d. 1826 Bedford Co. who was named "heir at law" in suit brought against him by brother Benjamin who wanted the land promised by Jonas, but never deeded. Benjamin won. I've tentatively positioned a Jonas Jr. who d. Nov. 1826 in AL as son of Jonas -- from group sheet of a descendant of Jonas Jr.'s son James. He may be the Jonas in Franklin Co. VA 1786 arrested for horse stealing. I'm less "sure" about the William Jordan who married Lucy Stitch Jun 1780 in Bedford Co as being son of Jonas. And then there's a Winston who married in 1790s in Bedford.

Other VA Jordans I've tentatively placed as siblings of Jonas d. 1785 include: Absalom who married Mary Walton bef. Jan 1758 in Albemarle Co. VA. I think they went to Rowan Co. NC 1760ish and he is the one who died Elbert Co. GA in 1795.

Jeremiah Jordan who married Louisa Walton Feb. 1759 in Caroline Co. Va

Thomas d. Jun 1809 in Culpepper Co. because he had sons named: Absalom, William, Sharshall, George, Thomas, William, John, (Absalom Jordan son of "My" Jonas, named a son Sashwell b. 1785) This Thomas is not to be confused with the Thomas of Henrico Co. or the one in Louisa Co.

Edward of Lunenburg Co. Va. who has sons Benjamin, William and Edward.

Can anyone offer more proof of relationships here? Take away any of my tentative siblings? I do not accept the "proof" I've seen so far that my Jonas is son of William of Essex Co. Va and his wife Rachel -- that the Rachel Jordan who witnesses one of the Amelia Co. VA land deeds is his mother!

I agree with Darla -- the above given names are surely from the same root word--whatever that is. I've been told it's the southern pronunciation of the informer's uncle for Churchill but I can't see it. Bear with me as I give my biannual "tentative brothers" of my Jonas Jordan d. 1785 in Bedford Co. Va. "Sashwell" and other distinctive given names come out of his line; based on those same given names and marriages, I've grouped four Jordan lines together as possibly being kin. Based on these same given names, I suspect I'm dealing with a French line, and some do appear in Quaker records.

I begin with my JONAS d. 1785 in Bedford Co. Va. His wife is "Winefred" based on various Amelia Co. VA deeds. I haven't backed him out of Amelia Co. yet. Traditionally he is the son of William and Rachel (Meador) Jordan of Essex Co. VA. However, I don't believe this for his descendants are not named "Meador" and "that Jordan" lines given names. Besides, "proof" comes with the witness of the 1768 Amelia Co. deed -- Rachel Jordan. People use this witness "as proof" that "this" Rachel is his mother! (I'm serious folks. Yes, "a" Rachel did witness the deed, but Jonas' mother would be in her 80s...not exactly a person who might be expected to be around should anyone question the deed several years later. And this Rachel could be any number of other possible relationships to Jonas.).

Jonas' heir at law is Absalom, who is sued by his brother BENJAMIN in Bedford Co. records. DAR has a line to Jonas via a "Jonas Jr." who, I believe goes to AL. I have neither of those lines and haven't located any other possible children of Jonas and Winefred. Absalom and his wife, Mary Ann (Hudson as her surname is not proven as far as I know) had the following children: Rosannah d. bef. 23 Jan 1824 m. Wm. Dickerson of Cumberland Co. -- had at least one son; LeRoy m. Rhoda Mayse, dau of John Mayse Dec 1806 Bedford Co.; Vincent d. 1849 Bedford Co. m. Elizabeth Mayse; Lucy d. bef. 25 Oct. 1841 m. Joshua Noble Dec. 1804; William M. Sally Preson Dec. 1807; Jeremiah d. 1846 Bedford Co. VA m. Lydia Dent Nov. 1807. (They lived in Breckinridge Co. KY at one time.) SASHWELL b. 14 Apr 1785 d. 7 Oct. 1874 Breck. Co KY m. Nancy Allen "Nannie" Dent 21 Dec. 1809. (The DENT Sisters were daughters of John); Ony m. Osborne Warner Jul 1804; and John.

Thomas Jordan of Culpeper Co., VA. His will was probated 19 Jun 1809 in Culpeper naming children: Absalom, William, Sharshall, George, Thomas, Frances, Anne, William, John, Sarah, Rachel and Mary. His wife was Mary. From something I have Sharshall's birth as 1747. The will info comes from an abstract of the records I was researching other lines in. This is all I have on this Thomas.

Absalom m. Mary Walton dau. of William and Susanna, before Jan. 1758 per Wulfreck's "Some VA Marriages". Albemarle Co. VA deed records show him purchasing 220 acres from William Walton. Goochland Co., VA records show a 1746 deed -- land might have fallen into area that became Albemarle Co. As a resident of Rowan Co. NC, he sold his land in Albemarle Co., VA in 1760. I leave it to others to determine if he is the same Absalom who d. 1795 in Elbert Co. GA.

JEREMIAH of Carolina Co., VA. He married Louisa Walton in Albemarle CO., VA 1759 per "The Douglas Register"

Again, I'm not sure these four are brothers; but given the similarities, I think they are.

"Several men named Jordan were born in Essex County in the early 1700's, and perhaps some of these could have been children of Rachel and William Jordan. Of these, Jonas, who was born about 1725, would appear most likely to have been Rachel's son, though a definite statement cannot yet be made. Jonas followed the route of the Meador migrations into Caroline, Amelia, and Bedford Counties, and had numerous dealings with Meador family members in those areas. In Amelia County, Jonas Jordan bought 244 acres of land on Sandy Creek which had been granted to Jason Meador. History of Bedford County:

"Jonas Jordan appears in the records of Bedford County, Virginia in 1773, and Absalom his son, in 1776.

Absalom is mentioned as heir at law of Jonas. They are first mentioned in Isle of Wight in 1730 and seem to have lived in Amelia, Goochland, and Albemarle counties, before settling in Bedford, as their names are found in the records of all those counties. No Revolutionary serice has been found for either of them except the following:

At a Court held for Bedford County, April 22, 1782, at the house of David Wright, "Jonas Jordan proved that he furnished the said Com: with 835 lbs. Beef for which he is all'd 16/8 per Cwt." (Order Book, 1774-1782).

Absalom Jordan married Mary Ann_____, and they reared a large family of children. Their son--Vincent Jordan, born 1769; married Elizabeth Mays in 1790. Leroy, another son, married Rhoda Mays in 1806. Both were daughters of John and Elizabeth Mays.

Vincent Jordan lived near Emaus. The old buring ground is near his house, enclosed with a stone wall, and there are tombstones ast some of the graves. A brother of Vincent, said to have been an eccentric bachelor, lived at Jordantown, and at his death, left his property to his slaves.

Jubal Jordan, born 1792, son of Vincent and Elizabeth Mays Jordan, married in 1817, Priscilla Williamson, daughter of Henry and Ann Rebecca Mason Williamson. Four of their sons, Alexander, Tyler, William and John served in the Civil War. The first three were Captains, and Tyler was promoted to Major. William was wounded in the war and John was killed.

Alexander Jordan born 1829 son of Jubal and Priscilla Williamson Jordan, married in 1851, Lucy Ann Crenshaw, daughter of John and Lucy McDaniel Crenshaw. Children: Henry Vincent; married Mary Terry Buford, Ella; married Dr. George Thomas Cauthorn.

The father for Francis and William is unknown. He is surmised from the census 1782 tax list and 1790 census record in Montgomery Co., NC. Francis and William appear to be brothers and both appear to have sons named John.

In the name of God amen. I Absalom Jordan of the County of Bedford Do make this my last Will and testament whereby revoking all former Wills made by me. First my Will and desire is that all my just debts be fully paid and satisfied.

Item: I lend my beloved wife Mary Ann Jordan all the residue of my estate both real and personal of every description During her life. And at her death I give and bequeath to my Son John Jordan all that track of land on which I now live also one feather Bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Vincent Jordan Fifty Dollars the Said Sum to be paid him by my Executor after the death of my Wife to him and his heirs forever.

Item: having amply provided for my Daughter Rosanah Dickerson, Deceased, at the time fo her intermarriage with William Dickerson

Item: I give and bequeath to my grand Son Hezekiah Dickerson, son of said Dec'd. Daughter Rosanah, the sum of Sixty Dollars in addition to what I have heretofore given and paid for him the said Sum to be paid him by my Executor after the death of my Wife.

Item: I give and bequeath to my Daughter Amy Jordan one good Feather bed and furniture to be Delivered to her by my Executor whenever by her demanded to her and her heirs for ever.

All the remainder of my personal Estate, at the death of my Wife I desire to be sold by my Executor in such credit as he in his discretion may judge most expedient for the Interest of my Estate. And the money arising from such sale after payment out to Vincent Jordan, the afore said sum of fifty Dollars and also to Hezekiah Dickerson the afore said sum of Sixty Dollars. And other Just and lawful claymers (sic), I desire may be equally divided between my following sons and Daughters to wit: Lucy Noble, William Jordan, Leroy Jordan, Jeremiah Jordan, Sashwell Jordan, Ony Jordan and John Jordan. The division to be made by my Executor without the expense of Commissioners being appointed by the court for that purpose. And lastly I do nominate and appoint my son Leroy Jordan whole and sole Executor of this my last Will and testament as witness my hand and seal this 23rd of January one thousand eighteen hundred and twenty four.

Hello Jordan researches,

Chuck Hamrick is back on va roots and his first rply sent my head to spinning. The query he answered was about the given name of Vincent, which chuck said is usually French in origin. My Absalom Jordan (1740s-1826 Bedford Co. VA) named his 3rd child, second son, Vincent. Has anyone looked at the Huguenot emigrants for Jordans? I've seen only the surname Jerdene and wondered if was corrupted to Jordan, but never following through on that.

Absalom's father was "Jonas" (1720s-1785) but he didn't name a son "Jonas" and I haven't traced his wife's side. Absalom and Mary Ann had: Rosannah, LeRoy, Vincent, Lucy, William, Jeremiah, Sashwell, Ony and John. Thanks for any suggestions. Linda WFT Vol. 5, Tree 1770 had information on this family.

WFT Vol.41, Tree #1375

Notes: Served in the Revolution.

Tree 1375 showed only one child: Sashwell, b. Aug. 14, 1785

Researcher: Linda Starr e-mail starr81@ix.netcom.com (Starr81)

She has a copy of a Bedford Co., VA. deed dated 21 Sep 1793 stating that Absolom is the son of Jonas Jordan, deceased. There was also a lawsuit whereby Benjamin Jordan sued Absolom "as heir at law of Jonas" over land Jonas promised, but never deeded to him. Linda stated she has the lawsuit papers that are dated November 1792.

Absalom's Will was signed in 1824 and proved May 22, 1826. The names of the children shown in his will are: Rosannah, Vincent, Leroy, Ony(Owney), Sashwell, John, Amy, Lucy, William, and Jeremiah. He also named Hezekiah Dickerson, his grandson in the Will.

Straw note: When I did a search thru Ancestry.com the file on Absalom Jordan with father of Jonas showed wife was Mary Ann Hudson. Children shown on this file were: Vincent, Leroy, Lucy, William, Jeremiah, Joshua, Oney, John, Rosannah and Sashwell.

In other research I did I found information questionable about Absalom having more than one wife. I found 1. Lucy? 2. Oney (Meador?) and 3. Mary Ann Hudson, abt. 1750-1850, Bedford Co., and reference to a Mary Walton married about 1758 in Albermarle County.

Rootsweb posting Dec.11, 1998 by Robert Jordan (jorbob@webtv.net)

I looked back through some of my old notes and found this from the 1967 Va Gen. Mag.

Absolom Jordan m. before 1758, Mary Ann Walton and had children Lucy M. Nobel, William, Leroy m. 1806 Rhoda Hays, Jeremiah, Joshua, Oney, John, Vincent m. 1790 Eliz. Mays, Rosanah m. Dickerson, Sashwell m. Nancy Dent. This is only a clue and must be checked out.

I am seeking information on the family of Absolom Jordan. He was bon about 1745 and lived in Virginia. He married Mary Ann Williamson. I do not know the names of his parents, his place of birth, or where and when he married. He died July 16, 1852 in Bedford Co. Does anyone have information from his will or military records that you would share? His daughter, Rosannah Jordan, married William Irvin Dickerson in 1790 in Bedford Co. Virginia. Many thanks from Diane

My gggrandfather was Sashwell Jourdan, I believe his father to be Absalom of Bedford CO., VA whose wife was Mary Ann Hudson? or Williamson? Their children; Sashwell b. 14 Aug 1785 d. 14 Aug 1785 Breckinridge Co. KY, Jeremiah, William, Leroy, John, Oney(Ony), Rosannah, Lucy, Vincent and Joshua.

Absalom was heir at law of Jonas Jordan (Jurdin). Deed book 9, page 228 Bedford co., VA. I have not obtained a copy. I assume that Jonas was his father. Jonas wife may have been Winifred, I have no proof.

Jonas provided beef to Rev. Army ref. "Our Kin" Ackerly page 662-3. Also see Public Service Claims in DAR magazine vol. 76, page 142.

Seems unlikely that Absalom would have been 107 when he died. I had a Beauchamp ancestor that was supposed to have been 107 but found out he was 80.

Appreciate any further information or corrections.

John

She was born 1761 in Prince Edward Co., Virginia, and died Abt. 1817 in Laurens Co., SC. He married (2) NANCY ANN "ANNE" MARTIN 14 Mar 1805. She was born 21 Aug 1760 in Autauga Co., AL, and died 17 Nov 1855 in AL.

Notes for JONAS JORDAN:

Notes from Larry E. Jordan:

On October 19, 2002, the Jordan Surname DNA test results show a 12 of 12 marker match and 24 of 25 marker match between the descendants of Jonas Jordan (b 1755) and William Enoch Jordan (b 1803). This shows that Jonas and William Enoch were closely related or shared a common ancestor. Jonas was the appropriate age to be William Enoch Jordan's father, but there is no record of such a relationship. It is more likely that William Enoch's father was a close relative of Jonas Jordan...perhaps a cousin from Bedford Co., VA where they shared a common ancestor.

Jonas Jordan and his son Rueben Jordan lived in Laurens Co., SC before the start of the War of 1812. William Enoch's family either lived near them in Laurens Co or over the line in NC. Jonas and Rueben appear in the Laurens Co., SC census of 1810 spelled Jones and Reubin (abstracts show it as Jones and Burlin). All Jordan in Laurens in 1810 are recorded as Jordin:

- Reubin (Rueben)
- Jones (Jonas)
- Lewi (Levi) who may not have been related. He moved to Greenville Co., SC and remained there for life.

Jonas has no slaves. Reuben has one. Others around them have many slaves. Reuben's uncle John Archer Elmore has 82 slaves in the same county. This appears to show that Reuben married into wealth that did not come through his Jordan family. This lack of wealth is consistent with other Jordans, including William Enoch Jordan b 1803, shown as relatives through DNA testing.

Jonas and son Reuben acquired more slaves after moving to Alabama and indicated in the will shown later.

William Enoch Jordan migrated from NC/SC to Heard County, GA then to Coffee Co., AL and finally to Covington County, AL. He was a mechanic in cotton gins. Jonas Jordan and his descendants migrated from Amelia Co., VA to Laurens County, SC and Wilkes County, GA. Some of these descendants then migrated to Autauga County, AL between 1815 and 1821. The earliest relative in that set was William B. Jordan who was born in AL about 1815. I believe he was William Benjamin Jordan and was related to the William, Benjamin and Reuben Jordans who migrated to Wilkes County, GA and who were descendants of Jonas Jordan.

Another group of Jordans who migrated from North Carolina to Georgia and finally Wilcox Co., AL were the descendants of Francis Jordan of Montgomery Co., NC. I have not connected Francis to Jonas Jordan of Amelia Co., VA, but the connection is logical. Some records indicate Francis originated from Albemarle Co., VA. Other records show his children were born in Amelia Co., VA. His son Raleigh (Riley) Jordan migrated to Wilcox Co., AL just southeast of Autauga Co., AL where Jonas Jordan's descendants settled.

Research notes from Sara Ann Hans:

Jonas Jordan from Amelia, VA migrated to Laurens, SC. Jonas died in Wetumpka, AL. I have his will. The family was in SC during the War of 1812. I have those records, too. There was a Francis, a son of Jonas and brother to Reuben. He was born in Amelia, VA, in 1786 and died in Lowndes, AL, 17 Aug 1858. He married a Dillard.

Laurens County is a part of the original Ninety Six District of SC. In 1785, nine years after Independence, the General Assembly passed an act creating six counties (Laurens, Newberry, Abbeville, Edgefield, Spartanburg, and Union) from the District. The county was settled by Scot-Irish with many of their descendants still residing in the area. After the county was created, a nucleus of a town was started as the county seat. Eventually to become known as Laurens, a charter was issued for Laurensville in December 1845. The first record of the town being officially called Laurens appears on a charter issued in 1873.

Notes for Reuben Jourdan: from "Elmore Family --3" p. 17:

Reuben Jourdan came to Alabama between 1814 and 1818, with his father, sisters and brothers and children, and was followed next year by Gen. John Archer Elmore and family.

Taken from Dedication of Jordan Dam, 1927:

REUBEN JORDAN, the head of the Jordan family in Alabama, was born in Amelia County, Virginia, in 1782, being the son of Elizabeth Elmore and Jonas Jordan. He served in the war of 1812 against the British under General Andrew Jackson having volunteered from the State of South Carolina. He also served in the war against the Creek Indians and was in the Battle of Horse Shoe Bend in Tallapoosa County, which occurred March 1814. He made several farm crops near Fort Toulouse two or three miles south of Wetumpka, Alabama, before returning to Virginia to get his father --then an old man-- and his brothers and sisters. They came through South Carolina where Reuben Jordan married Miss Emily Dillard. He was joined at the home of his uncle, General John Archer Elmore, by a large party which had gathered with the intention of moving to Alabama; Reuben Jordan's family, General Elmore and family, and several sisters, and many members of the Hall, Lewis, Dixon, Fitzpatrick, Scott, Williams, Bibb and Martin families formed the party. The year 1821 found these families in possession of large tracts of fertile lands in what are now Montgomery, Autauga, Elmore, and Lowndes Counties, and already taking a leading part in the affairs of the new state of Alabama. A few years later Reuben Jordan's wife Emily, died.

Another lot of settlers from North Carolina a little later came into a locality nearby (what is now Grand View) in the State of Alabama. In this party was a soldier of the Revolution, lame from wounds received in battle, named Aaron Spivey, a preacher, the fourth in line of the same name and calling. He had two daughters and two sons, and REUBEN JORDAN married the oldest daughter, Ann Spivey. About that time the state was afflicted with what was called River Fever, near the Toulouse Farm, and those who had settled in the rich river lands suffered from it most. This, coupled with the pioneer urge to move on to new lands, probably accounted for the fact that in about 1830, Reuben Jordan sold the lands, part of the present John Crommelin plantation-- and took up new lands to the north in the hill country, in what is now know as Coosa County. Here, in 1830, while still surrounded by the Creek Indians, under the famous Chief Tuskoonah, he built a pioneer cabin, two rooms, one above the other with a lean-to. Here Reuben Jordan brought his bride, a small, blue-eyed, fair-haired girl; here three children were born and here, in a few years, she was left a widow. Pioneer life was hard for a man but what must it have been for this young woman, alone in a cabin in the wilderness with three small children, a few slaves, some stock, a large partly cleared plantation, and the Indians still living all about her. But four generations of preacher-ancestors were a sufficient heritage, and she faced life with remarkable fortitude and ability. Being unusually well educated herself, she educated her daughters far beyond most women of that day, and sent her son, Reuben Elmore Jordan, to both the Medical college in New Orleans and to the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia. From each of these places he graduated and received his degrees.

Laurens County, SC
by William "Bill" Cooper

Native Americans, or American Indians, were the first known inhabitants of the area now known as Laurens County. The Cherokee Indians, members of the Iroquois nation, lived and hunted in the western and central piedmont of South Carolina. Many Indian artifacts have been unearthed in the areas along the Enoree River, Bush River, and Rabon Creek. Early settlers to the western piedmont area of the Carolinas came down through the back country of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia and were Scotch-Irish. The first known white settler to arrive in what is now Laurens County was John Duncan in 1753. From Aberdeen, Scotland, Duncan spent a few years in Pennsylvania before moving south. He liked the lush vegetation and abundant wildlife he found in this area and settled around a creek in the northeastern section of the county not far from the present city of Clinton. John Duncan built a rustic house, a few outbuildings, a distillery, and organized a church. He brought the first African slave and the first horse-drawn wagon into the area. Of course, the creek near which he settled is known today as Duncan's Creek, and the church, still in existence, is the Duncan's Creek Presbyterian Church, the oldest church in Laurens County and one of the oldest Presbyterian Churches in the back country

It is difficult to locate exact spots in the county where Revolutionary War military skirmishes took place. Important ones recorded include those at Lindley's Fort, the Battle of Musgrove's Mill on the Enoree River, and Hayes Station.

Part of the old Ninety-Six district of SC, Laurens became a separate county in 1785 being named for the Revolutionary War era patriot Henry Laurens of Charleston. The town of Laurens (known as Laurensville well into the nineteenth century) became the county seat, and the first courthouse was erected in 1786. The current courthouse was built in 1840 and enlarged in 1857. By 1820, the town had become known for its trade of tailor-made clothes. Andrew Johnson, a future president of the United States, and his brother came to Laurens in 1824 and established a tailor shop.

By 1840, Laurens was booming with establishments including medical practitioners, a fancy confectionery and fruit store, carriage, buggy, and wagon shops, tailoring establishments, building contractors, flour and corn mills, and eighty-one registered whiskey distilleries.

The 1888 BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF LAURENS stated that with the rapid growth of the city and with the excellent railroad connections, "Laurens can well be termed the Atlanta of South Carolina".

The town of Clinton, named for local attorney and representative to the South Carolina Legislature Henry Clinton Young, built up around Holland's Store which in 1809 housed the only post office in the eastern part of Laurens County.

In 1864, William Plumer Jacobs, a young minister, came to Clinton and found "a mud hole surrounded by barrooms". He crusaded for temperance, and the bricks from the last barroom to be demolished were used to build a chimney for Jacobs' new home on South Broad Street. Dr. Jacobs is one of the most prominent men in the history of Laurens County in that both Presbyterian College and Thornwell Home and School are products of his vision and effort.

No military action occurred in Laurens County during the Civil War though many native sons who went off to war became casualties of the conflict.

Cotton became an import crop in Laurens County with the invention of the cotton gin. Along with the expansion of cotton came the expansion of slavery. The number of slaves grew from 1,919 in 1800 to more than 13,000 in 1860. The desire to grow more and more cotton depleted forests as land was cleared, and poor agricultural practices depleted the fertility of the soil.

By the end of the nineteenth century, textiles were becoming very important in Laurens County and the upstate. The Laurens Cotton Mill was established in 1895, Mercer Silas Bailey built the first cotton mill in Clinton in 1896, and the year 1902 saw the establishment of both Lydia Mill and Watts Mill.

The means of transportation over the years has caused life in the county to change. With the building of railroads in the last half of the nineteenth century, the towns and communities of Cross Hill, Mountville, Waterloo, Ora, and Lanford grew. But, with the advent of the automobile and the construction of roads in the twentieth century, these areas lost vitality. Even today, our interstate highways make people very mobile causing local merchants and service providers to lose business to surrounding larger communities.

The 1990 Census listed Laurens County's population as 58,092, but the latest estimate (1995) of population is 60,800.

The John E. Jordan causes me to wonder if these Jordans are connected with the descendants of Elizabeth "Betsy" Elmore Jordan sister of John Archer Elmore, from whom the county is named. She married Jonas Jordan in Amelia Cty VA . They moved first to Laurens, SC then to Autauga AL (one of the parent counties of Elmore). He d. there 1826. They had chn: James m. Anne Brewer, had dau. Katie; John Archer, had dau Ottie who m. a Vickers; Frances, Felix, Martha, Mary, Thomas and Archelaus Elmore Jordan (named for Betsy and John A. Elmore's father). I'm a desc. of another Elmore sister, Judity, who m. Josiah Williams Amelia VA 1785 through their dau. Louisa who m. John DeBois Autauga 1825. The Williams following the same migration pattern as JAE and the Jordans. (My ref. for Jordans is Sharon J. Dolante's Maryland & Virginia Colonials.

Jordan Genforum Posting by Bob Lamb (rel57@mindspring.com)

Does anyone know what became of Archelaus Elmore Jordan or Thomas Jordan, the minor sons of Jonas? I have been trying to determine the parentage of my ggg grandmother Julia F. Jordan who was born about June 4, 1829. She died in Pittsview, Russell County, Alabama on October 4, 1915. She was born in Georgia and according to the census records so were her parents. She married Jacob Lamb on November 16, 1847 in Henry County, Georgia but they soon moved to Russell County (now Lee) living near Salem, Alabama.

Their grandson, my great grandfather, was Julius Elmore Lamb. He actually went by his middle name. I am curious if there is a connection between my Julia and Jonas.

Elmore County was created by the Alabama legislature on 1866 Feb. 15, from parts of Autauga, Coosa, Montgomery and Tallapoosa Counties. It was named for General John Archer Elmore, a veteran of the American Revolution and early settler of Alabama. Elmore County lies in the east central part of the state. It is drained by the Coosa and the Tallapoosa Rivers, which merge to form the Alabama River a few miles south of Wetumpka. The French established Fort Toulouse at the confluence of the Coosa and Tallapoosa in 1717, upon which site Gen. Andrew Jackson erected Fort Jackson in 1814, following the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. Wetumpka is the county seat. Other towns and communities include Eclectic, Tallassee and Millbrook.

Notes for ELIZABETH (BETSY) ELMORE:

The Jordans came from South Carolina, the mother of Mrs. Mary Wilson being a member of the noted Elmore family, in honor of whom Elmore county was named. John D. and Mary Wilson reared a family of ten children, only three of whom are living, viz.: Archelaus, of Prattville, Alabama; John H. of Bryan City, Texas; and Lawrence W. The latter was born August 30, 1822, in Autauga County."

Notes for THOMAS E. JORDAN:

Thomas lived in Coosa Co., AL during the 1840 census. He has two slaves compared with the 25 that his brother Reuben has at the time.

Thomas E. Jordan was born in Laurens Co., SC. Reuben Jordan's uncle, John Archer Elmore, lived in Laurens Co when Thomas was born there. William Enoch Jordan may have lived in and grew up in Laurens Co with Thomas E. Jordan and his other Jordan relatives. They followed the same migration path between 1818 and 1850.

Thomas E. Jordan moved from Autauga co to Coosa Co and finally to Crenshaw Co., AL before William Enoch Jordan moved to Coffee Co., AL. This may be the link between William Enoch Jordan's son Enoch (Nick) and the folks of Autauga Co., AL. Thomas and Jordan relatives lived near Elizabeth Batson's family in Autauga Co., AL or Coosa Co., AL. Another possibility is the part of Crenshaw Co that Thomas lived in may have become Coffee Co.

Crenshaw County, located in south central Alabama, is in that section of the state known as the timber belt -- relatively new county. It has been termed a "Reconstruction County" as it was created by a legislative act on November 24, 1866.

It was through the efforts of William H. Chapman, a representative to the state legislature from Covington County in 1866-67, that the act which permitted parts of Butler, Pike, Coffee, Lowndes, and Covington counties to be taken and used in the formation of Crenshaw County was passed. Chapman introduced the measure for the creation of the county and vigorously supported it in the state legislature until it was approved. A WILLIAM T. JORDAN born in NC or GA married HARRIETT TIGGIE CHAPMAN December 02, 1830 in Jones Co., GA. Harriett may have been a relative of William H. Chapman. William T. Jordan's descendants migrated to Covington Co., AL by 1850.

Thomas E. Jordan first bought land in Autauga County, Alabama in 1836 as shown below:

Notes for WILLIAM JORDAN:

Given name WILLIAM

Gender: Masculine

Usage: English

Pronounced: WIL-ee-am, WIL-yam [key]

From the Germanic name Wilhelm, which was composed of the elements wil "will, desire" and helm "helmet, protection". The name was introduced to Britain by the Normans. It has belonged to several rulers of England, Prussia, and Germany, including William the Conqueror, the first Norman king of England. Another famous bearer was William Tell, a legendary 14th-century hero from Switzerland.

thanks larry

your site was interesting , also i will check on the 25 marker test . it s interesting how dna can solve or connect familys , im very curious about your william e jordan, him and my george sr, were related so most likely it goes back futher than we know at this time. i dont know anything about george sr,as he is very evasive to find anything on. he does state in the 1850 census of bedford co va that he was born in va. in the 1860 boone co census he states he was born in bedford co va. also that he was 76 yrs old. i think he probally died around 1865 or before ,because he dosent show in any more census, but his family does. we do know about his children , they migrated before 1850 to boone co ,and george sr. followed his sons after the census in 1850. i obtained land iformation from the archives of wva. that the boys owned alot of land in that county. also they sold most of it too the coal companys which started the first coal mines in that state. all of them lived there and died there. at this time i do not know the father of george sr . but feel strongly that he was a part of the large jordan family of bedford co, one of them with strong georgia connections was william son of charles. he also live in the carolinas,and va. he was the father of most of the jordan boys in bedford co . jonas and his son absolem jordan were the other half of the population. where or how our dna crosses is a mystery too us. so this will be an exciting venture. i hope as jordans we can work toward solving this puzzle. i do find this exciting. thanks much

Hi Larry

I have been reading for several days the massive amount of Jordan information and find it overwhelming. I'm just a little dense when it comes to computers. I traced my husband's Jordan's in Montgomery County many years ago. As you know there is a lack of records so I'm stuck with John Jordan (b. ca. 1761) and Margaret. Their children are named in a court record in 1855. This includes a Hamilton and Riley who went to Alabama. James possibly died in Illinois and John and Walter who remain in NC. John (1761) grandson Rev James Jordan is called Cousin by Rev Francis Marion Jordan in the Biblical Recorder. Do you have any records for the brothers Hampton and Riley who were born 1800-1810? and went to Alabama.

John 1761 had land joining Reuben Jordan (census 1790 listed with females only) because Reuben is not on tax list I assumed Reuben is a brother of John but could he be the father? Reuben sold some of his land to Jesse Hurt about 1800. Reuben is not in the 1800 census. Did he die or leave? Jesse Hurt's granddaughter married John Jordan's (1761) Grandson.

I had a different idea about Esbell Jordan. I thought Francis and Reuben were her sons and her husband might be the John Jordan with a grant 1749 Bladen County

December 26, 1749 John Jordan was a witness to a deed – Thomas Coleman – Land N. Side of Pee Dee – John Francis Corner

John Francis shown on Montgomery County historical map as being in the Cheek Creek area

John Francis – (grant June 20, 1746) to Henry Touchstone

I believe the above was near Drowning Creek.

Frances Jordan grant of 1769 also listed on the Anson Petition
The above quotes from memory and names may be spelled wrong.

Daniel Epps III who died in 1781 Montgomery County had an Uncle who married Mary Anderson granddaughter of Arthur Jordan and a number of her family were in North Hampton County N.C. There was a large movement from The Granville area to Montgomery around 1780's. It seems those old Virginia families are very intertwined. Do You know anything about the Francis Jordan in the Barbardo's or Francis Jordan who had a grant in Virginia 1652.

As I am writing from memory(which is very poor) this may contain error. Most came from copy write publications. The only record I can produce a copy of is the court record in 1855. I have never faxed anything so if you want a copy, it would have to come by snail mail.
Good luck with your web page
Jean

Notes for RALEIGH (RILEY) JORDAN:

He went to Wilcox Co., AL according to Colon Tate Jordan.

Riley is two years younger than William Enoch Jordan who migrated from NC to Autauga Co., AL. They were likely relatives or brothers. Riley may have been in Autauga County before moving to Wilcox County.

Wilcox County, AL is southwest of Autauga Co and northwest of Coffee and Covington Counties. It is reasonable to assume other Jordan descendants made this same migration. Riley may have migrated to this area with the children or relatives of Jonas Jordan who settled in Autauga Co., AL.

Wilcox County was formed from parts of Dallas and Monroe counties by an act of the Alabama legislature on Dec. 13, 1819. It was named for Lt. Joseph M. Wilcox who fought in the Creek Wars. The county is located in the south-central part of the state, in the Black Belt region. The county was a center of Alabama antebellum plantation life. Today it is largely agricultural and rural. Wilcox is bordered by Dallas, Lowndes, Butler, Monroe, Clarke, and Marengo counties. The county seat is Camden. Other towns include Alberta, Catherine, Gastonburg, Lower Peach Tree, Millers Ferry, Pine Apple and Snow Hill.

12. REUBEN⁴ JORDAN (*JONAS*³, *JONAS*², *WILLIAM*¹) was born 20 May 1782 in Amelia Co., VA, and died 23 Aug 1840 in Coosa Co., AL. He married (1) EMILY DILLARD 22 Aug 1805 in Lauren, SC, daughter of SAMUEL DILLARD and ANNE HUTCHINGS. She was born 09 Jun 1784 in Pittsylvania Co., VA, and died 27 Mar 1829 in Autauga Co., AL or Montgomery Co., AL. He married (2) NANCY ANN SPIVEY 08 Jun 1830 in Rocky Mount, Autauga, AL, daughter of AARON SPIVEY and CHARLOTTE NIXON. She was born 1799 in NC, and died Dec 1888 in Coosa County, AL.

Notes for REUBEN JORDAN:

Among the first people mentioned in history to have settled in the Elmore County, AL area now known as Wetumpka were Reuben Jordan and his family. Reuben originally came to Fort Toulouse Alabama while fighting for General Andrew Jackson. (The French established Fort Toulouse at the confluence of the Coosa and Tallapoosa in 1717, upon which site Gen. Andrew Jackson erected Fort Jackson in 1814, following the Battle of Horseshoe Bend.) Reuben was an army Captain in the War of 1812. His mother was Betty Elmore, a sister of Gen. John Archer Elmore.

Reuben was born in Amelia Co., VA, but grew up in Laurens Co., SC where he joined General Jackson's army.

Reuben's uncle John Archer Elmore was an officer in the militia of South Carolina during the American Revolutionary War; he became a general in the militia after the Revolution. During his migration to Alabama, Reuben would influence John and his friends and relatives to migrate as well. Elmore Co., AL was named after John. John's home county in South Carolina may have been the home of William Enoch Jordans's parents. [Needs more research.]

After the War of 1812 and the Battle of Horseshoe Bend in 1814, Reuben went to his family home in Laurens Co., SC and to visit relatives in Amelia Co., VA. He returned to Fort Jackson, Alabama in 1818 and brought his father, brothers, sisters and children with him. He was followed the next year by his uncle Gen. John Archer Elmore and family.

While visiting Gen. John Archer Elmore in SC on his way back to Alabama, Reuben married Emily Dillard. Emily's father, Samuel Dillard, owned land and slaves. Reuben brought his wife's slaves and the slaves that belonged to his Jordan uncles with him when he returned to Fort Jackson. He was to prepare the plantation for John Archer Elmore with the help of the slaves.

Other families who migrated to Autauga Co., AL with Reuben included many Revolutionary War soldiers and their families. They included:

- Dixon Hall b 1755 Dinwiddie Co., VA moved to Autauga County in 1818. He lived in NC and Hancock, Baldwin and Putnam Counties, GA before moving to Autauga. He built the Elleslie Plantation that is now in Elmore Co., AL. He entertained Lafayette there in April 1825. He eventually moved to Montgomery Co., AL where he died.

- Bolling Hall b January 1765 in Dinwiddie Co., VA brother of Dixon Hall and son of Hugh and Mary (Dixon) Hall of Orange Co., VA. He lived in Brunswick Co, VA before migrating to Hancock, Baldwin and Putnam Counties, GA after he served in the Revolutionary War. Bolling was elected to represent the District of Milledgeville, GA in 1812 and 1814.

- William Hall b 1790 Dinwiddie Co., VA and son of Dixon Hall moved to Autauga Co., AL by 1818 and settled near his uncle Bolling Hall. The land became part of Elmore Co., AL in 1855.

- William Martin b 1760 Caroline Co., VA moved to Autauga Co., AL by 1818. He moved to Anson Co., NC with his father at age 14. He served with Walter Ross and John Dejarnette from Anson Co., NC in the revolutionary War -- the same county in which Andrew Jackson. (Montgomery Co., NC was formed from Anson 1775-1780.) William Martin served under Col Thomas Wade and Maj Jonathan Jackson. He lived in Edgefiled Co., SC (near Laurens Co) 1790-1810.

- Governor Benjamin J. Fitzpatrick b June 30, 1800 Green Co., GA married to Sarah Terry Elmore daughter of Gen John Archer Elmore. He became a Governor of Alabama and died in Montgomery, AL in 1869.

- Governor William Wyatt Bibb b October 2, 1781 Amelia Co., VA came from Elbert Co., GA to Autauga Co (later Elmore Co) in 1819 as the appointed Territorial Governor of Alabama. He was inaugurated as the first Governor. he was the son of William Bibb and Sara S Wyatt. He was lord high sheriff of Prince Edward Co., VA in 1774-1775.

- John Pemberton De Jarnette b after 1796 Anson Co., NC.

- John and Mary Lewis family from NC

- Walter Ross who was an early postmaster with Reuben Jordan

- Col Rose

- rev Francis Bake

- John Taylor

- Gray

- Chapell Sledge

- Branard Young

- Charles Crommelin b NY

After the death of Emily Dillard Jordan, Reuben married Nancy Ann Spivey. She was the daughter of Revolutionary War soldier Aaron Spivey originally from Isle of Wight, VA. Aaron and his family had moved to Autauga Co., AL -- probably through the influence of Gen John Archer Elmore. Aaron's wife Charlotte Dixon had grown up in Johnston Co., NC (near Sampson Co).

Taken from Dedication of Jordan Dam, 1927:

REUBEN JORDAN, the head of the Jordan family in Alabama, was born in Amelia County, Virginia, in 1782, being the son of Elizabeth Elmore and Jonas Jordan. He served in the war of 1812 against the British under General Andrew Jackson having volunteered from the State of South Carolina. He also served in the war against the Creek Indians and was in the Battle of Horse Shoe Bend in Tallapoosa County, which occurred March 1814. He made several farm crops near Fort Toulouse two or three miles south of Wetumpka, Alabama, before returning to Virginia to get his father --then an old man-- and his brothers and sisters. They came through South Carolina where Reuben Jordan married Miss Emily Dillard. He was joined at the home of his uncle, General John Archer Elmore, by a large party which had gathered with the intention of moving to Alabama; Reuben Jordan's family, General Elmore and family, and several sisters, and many members of the Hall, Lewis, Dixon, Fitzpatrick, Scott, Williams, Bibb and Martin families formed the party. The year 1821 found these families in possession of large tracts of fertile lands in what are now Montgomery, Autauga, Elmore, and Lowndes Counties, and already taking a leading part in the affairs of the new state of Alabama. A few years later Reuben Jordan's wife Emily, died.

Another lot of settlers from North Carolina a little later came into a locality nearby (what is now Grand View) in the State of Alabama. In this party was a soldier of the Revolution, lame from wounds received in battle, named Aaron Spivey, a preacher, the fourth in line of the same name and calling. He had two daughters and two sons, and REUBEN JORDAN married the oldest daughter, Ann Spivey. About that time the state was afflicted with what was called River Fever, near the Toulouse Farm, and those who had settled in the rich river lands suffered from it most. This, coupled with the pioneer urge to move on to new lands, probably accounted for the fact that in about 1830, Reuben Jordan sold the lands, part of the present John Crommelin plantation-- and took up new lands to the north in the hill country, in what is now know as Coosa County. Here, in 1830, while still surrounded by the Creek Indians, under the famous Chief Tuskoona, he built a pioneer cabin, two rooms, one above the other with a lean-to. Here Reuben Jordan brought his bride, a small, blue-eyed, fair-haired girl; here three children were born and here, in a few years, she was left a widow. Pioneer life was hard for a man but what must it have been for this young woman, alone in a cabin in the wilderness with three small children, a few slaves, some stock, a large partly cleared plantation, and th Indians still living all about her. But four generations of preacher-ancestors were a sufficient heritage, and she faced life with remarkable fortitude and ability. Being unusually well educated herself, she educated her daughters far beyond most women of that day, and sent her son, Reuben Elmore Jordan, to both the Medical college in New Orleans and to the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia. From each of these places he graduated and received his degrees.

Coosa County was created by the Alabama legislature on 1832 Dec. 18, from lands included in the Creek Indian Treaty of Cusseta, 1832 Mar. 24. It was named for the Coosa River, which forms its western boundary. The word "Coosa" is believed to mean "cane-brake" in the Alibama-Kossati Indian dialect. Coosa County lies in the east-central part of the state. It is bordered by Shelby, Talladega, Clay, Tallapoosa, Elmore, and Chilton counties. A site on Albert Crumpler's plantation on Hatchemalega Creek was chosen as the county seat and given the name Lexington. In 1835 the name was changed to Rockford. Other towns and communities include Equality, Nixburg, and Goodwater.

14. MARTHA⁴ JORDAN (*JONAS*³, *JONAS*², *WILLIAM*¹) was born Abt. 1790 in Amelia County, Va, and died 1851 in Crenshaw County, Alabama. She married SAMUEL BURNS. He was born Abt. 1786, and died 1851 in Crenshaw, Alabama.

Notes for MARTHA JORDAN:

Martha Jordan probably moved to Crenshaw Co., AL with her husband, Samuel Burns, before William Enoch Jordan moved to Coffee Co., AL. She moved there from Autauga Co., AL. This may be the link between William Enoch Jordan's son Nicholas and the folks of Autauga Co., AL. If Martha and her relatives lived near Elizabeth Batson's family in Autauga Co., AL or Coosa Co., AL, then we have the link.

Crenshaw County, located in south central Alabama in that section of the state known as the timber belt, is a relatively new county. It has been termed a "Reconstruction County" as it was created by a legislative act on November 24, 1866.

It was through the efforts of William H. Chapman, a representative to the state legislature from Covington County in 1866-67, that the act which permitted parts of Butler, Pike, Coffee, Lowndes, and Covington counties to be taken and used in the formation of Crenshaw County was passed. Chapman introduced the measure for the creation of the county and vigorously supported it in the state legislature until it was approved.

Notes for SAMUEL BURNS:

Crenshaw County, located in south central Alabama in that section of the state known as the timber belt, is a relatively new county. It has been termed a "Reconstruction County" as it was created by a legislative act on November 24, 1866.

It was through the efforts of William H. Chapman, a representative to the state legislature from Covington County in 1866-67, that the act which permitted parts of Butler, Pike, Coffee, Lowndes, and Covington counties to be taken and used in the formation of Crenshaw County was passed. Chapman introduced the measure for the creation of the county and vigorously supported it in the state legislature until it was approved.

Children of MARTHA JORDAN and SAMUEL BURNS are:

Notes for MARY JORDAN:

Printed material found in vertical file of State Archives in Montgomery, AL:

"Lawrence M Wilson, planter of Agricola, Alabama, is a son of John D and Mary (Jordan) Wilson. John D Wilson was born in Georgia, and it is thought in Oglethorpe County. He came to Alabama when a young man and settled in Elmore County, He was a fine mechanic and built many of the fine old residences in Montgomery. He married in Autauga County and lived there until 1833, when he moved to Coosa County, near Talledega Springs.

Here he resided until his death, which occurred after the close of the war. He was in the War of 1812 and was a colonel of militia for years. The Jordans came from South Carolina, the mother of Mrs. Mary Wilson being a member of the noted Elmore family, in honor of whom Elmore county was named. John D. and Mary Wilson reared a family of ten children, only three of whom are living, viz.: Archelaus, of Prattville, Alabama; John H. of Bryan City, Texas; and Lawrence W. The latter was born August 30, 1822, in Autauga County."

Notes for JONAS JAMES JORDAN:

A James Jordon (last name misspelled) is in Darlington Co., SC in 1830 census with following record:

James Jurdan	30-40
Female/wife	30-40
Male	<5
Male	5-10
Female	0-5

This James is surrounded by other Jordon families in Darlington Co., SC many of whom have the same unusual given names that Jonas James gave his sons. The neighboring Jordans (all with last names spelled Jordon) including:

Alexander
Berry
Batson
Byrd
Jesse
Joel
John Sr
John Jr
Joshua Sr
Joshua Jr
Josiah
Peter
Richard

Sarah
Wiley

These Jordons appear to be related to William Enoch Jordan b 1803 who migrated to Coffe Co., AL and finally Covington Co., AL.

Child of JONAS JORDAN and UNKNOWN UNKNOWN is:

- i. JONAS⁵ JORDAN, JR.^{235,236,237}, b. 1823, Lawrence Co., KY^{238,239,240}; d. Aft. 1860, Lawrence Co., KY^{241,242,243}.

Children of JONAS JORDAN and LYDIA JOBE are:

- ii. HIRAM⁵ JORDAN^{244,245,246}, b. Abt. 1838, Lawrence Co. Ky.^{247,248,249}; d. Unknown.
- iii. GREENVILLE JORDAN^{250,251,252}, b. Abt. 1844, Lawrence Co. Ky.^{253,254,255}; d. Unknown.

Notes for GREENVILLE JORDAN:

A Green Jordan was in Johnston Co., NC during the 1830 census age 20-30. He has a daughter under 5 and one 5-10...with no sons. He may be the Green who migrated to Covington Co., AL before 1850. There is also a Benjamin Jordan in the same county living near Green.

There was also a Nicholas Jordan in Johnston Co., NC during the 1830 census age 60-70 (born 1760-1770) with a wife the same age, page 50. These may be related to William Enoch Jordan who named his first son Nicholas Enoch Jordan.

An Enoch Jordan age 40-50 is in Sampson Co., NC in 1830 which is adjacent Johnston Co., NC. The Enoch is old enough (b 1780-1790) to be William Enoch Jordan's father and the son of Nicholas Jordan in Johnston Co., NC.

A Green Jordan is in Johnston Co., NC during the 1840 census age 20-30 living next to Nicholas Jordan who is probably his father.

The Green Jordan 46 from Johnston Co., NC seems to have gone to Wake Co., NC during the 1850 census with wife Dilly 39.

Green Jordan is in the 1850 Covington Co., AL census. He has little property which is consistent with Jordans from Sampson/Johnston Co., NC. He does not appear to be related to Charles Middleton Jordan. He is likely a brother to William Enoch Jordan. Need to determine where he moved to from Covington Co. He does not appear in census records after 1850.

- iv. MARTHA LYON JORDAN^{256,257,258}, b. Abt. 1847, Lawrence Co. Ky.^{259,260,261}; d. Unknown.

20. JESSE⁴ JORDAN (WILLIAM³, JONAS², WILLIAM¹)^{286,287,288,289,290} was born 1795 in Bedford Co., VA^{291,292,293}, and died 1870 in Lawrence Co., KY^{294,295}. He married SARAH ADKINS^{296,297,298,299,300} 29 Apr 1817 in Lawrence Co., KY³⁰¹. She was born 1796 in Washington Co., VA, and died 30 Sep 1874 in Lawrence Co., KY.

Notes for JESSE JORDAN:

Given name JESSE

Gender: Masculine

Usage: English, Biblical

Pronounced: JES-ee [key]

From the Hebrew name Yishay which possibly meant "gift". Jesse was the father of King David in the Old Testament.

Children of JESSE JORDAN and SARAH ADKINS are:

- i. JERIMIAH⁵ JORDAN^{302,303,304}, d. Unknown.
54. ii. NANCY ANN JORDAN, b. 1826, Lawrence Co. Ky.; d. 17 May 1861, Lawrence Co. Ky..
- iii. DAVID C. JORDAN^{305,306,307}, b. 1837^{308,309,310}; d. Unknown.
- iv. ELIZABETH JORDAN^{311,312,313}, b. 1839^{314,315,316}; d. Unknown.

- v. HIRAM JORDAN^{317,318,319}, b. Abt. 1841^{320,321,322}; d. Unknown.
55. vi. SARAH JANE JORDAN, b. 27 Mar 1841, Kentucky; d. 01 Feb 1922.

21. ABSOLEM PLEASANT⁴ JORDAN (*WILLIAM*³, *JONAS*², *WILLIAM*¹)^{323,324,325,326,327} was born 1800 in Bedford Co., VA^{328,329,330}, and died in Carter County, Kentucky^{331,332,333}. He married ANNA BURCHETT³³⁴ 27 Apr 1821 in Lawrence Co. Ky.³³⁵. She died Unknown.

Notes for ABSOLEM PLEASANT JORDAN:

Given name ABSALOM variant of Absolem

Gender: Masculine

Usage: English, Biblical

Pronounced: AB-sa-lahm [key]

From the Hebrew name Avshalom (contracted from Avishalom) which meant "my father is peace". In the Old Testament he was a son of King David who led a revolt against his father. While fleeing he got his hair caught in a tree and was killed by Joab.

Absolem Jordan is in the Culpepper Co., VA census of 1810.

Child of ABSOLEM JORDAN and ANNA BURCHETT is:

56. i. NANCY⁵ JORDAN, d. Unknown.

Generation No. 5

22. HAMPTON L.⁵ JORDAN (*JOHN*⁴, *WILLIAM*³, *JONAS*², *WILLIAM*¹) was born Bet. 1790 - 1794 in Montgomery County, NC, and died in Wilcox Co., AL. He married ELIZABETH L. VAUGHN 06 Jun 1839 in Wilcox Co., AL. She died in Wilcox Co., AL.

Notes for HAMPTON L. JORDAN:

Notes from Larry Jordan:

The relationship between Hampton L. Jordan and John Jordan is not confirmed. It does not appear in data from other sources. This one must be verified.

Hi Larry

Daniel Epps III who died in 1781 Montgomery County had an Uncle who married Mary Anderson granddaughter of Arthur Jordan and a number of her family were in North Hampton County N.C. There was a large movement from The Granville area to Montgomery around 1780's. It seems those old Virginia families are very intertwined. Do You know anything about the Francis Jordan in the Barbardo's or Francis Jordan who had a grant in Virginia 1652?

Hello Mr. Jordan. My mother, Katherine Jordan Adams, is the ggranddaughter of Dr. John Archer Jordan (1809-1881) who died in Rusk, Tx. His brother, James Alfred Jordan (1822-1873) died in Rockwall, Tx. Her grandfather was Thomas Archer Jordan (1841-1914) who moved to Texas in the 1860's and to Arizona in the 1880's. There are family legends about leaving Texas on the run after a big drought in 1883-84. Do you have any information on this family?
Thanks, Gerald Ross Adams, Sacramento, Ca.

My mother's ggrandfather, Dr. John Archer Jordan (1809-1881) was James Alfred Jordan's brother. They both went to Texas before the Civil War. I don't have any further information on James. John's wife was Jane Carolina Ross (1813-1871) of Laurens, S.C. Both her family and John were related to the Elmore family. Jordan appears as a given name in all of these families and Ross in our Jordans.

Children of JAMES JORDAN and HARRIET BOZEMAN are:

Notes for FELIX LAWSON JORDAN:

History of the Formation of Crenshaw County

Crenshaw County, located in south central Alabama in that section of the state known as the timber belt, is a relatively new county. It has been termed a "Reconstruction County" as it was created by a legislative act on November 24, 1866.

It was through the efforts of William H. Chapman, a representative to the state legislature from Covington County in 1866-67, that the act which permitted parts of Butler, Pike, Coffee, Lowndes, and Covington counties to be taken and used in the formation of Crenshaw County was passed. Chapman introduced the measure for the creation of the county and vigorously supported it in the state legislature until it was approved.

Chapman himself moved to Crenshaw shortly after it became a county and studied medicine in Rutledge. After receiving his medical license, he moved to Leon in the southern part of the county where he practiced medicine for a number of years before moving to Coffee County near Elba where he died.

The act of establishment of the county named Felix Jordan, George W. Thaggard, Thomas Mahone, J.D. Chapman, and Adam Benbow as Commissioners to hold an election for county officials and county seat on the first Monday in March 1867.

Two places, Barber's Cross Roads and Fuller's Cross Roads, were voted upon to decide which would be selected as the site of the county seat. Barber's Cross Roads received the greater number of votes, and was thus declared the county seat. The name of the village was changed to Rutledge, being named in honor of Captain Henry Rutledge, Commanding Officer of Company C, 59th Alabama Infantry, who gave his life for the confederacy at Drewry's Bluff.

The first county officials to be elected were: George W. Thaggard, Probate Judge; John R. Snow, Sheriff; Francis Cody, Circuit Clerk; W.T. Massey, Tax Assessor; James M. Lawrence, Tax Collector.

A.N. Northey was the first senator to represent the county in the state legislature in 1868. He was followed the same year by William Mastin, the first senator the people of the county voted for since becoming citizens of a new county, who represented the county until 1870. In this year, W.P. Calloway was elected as senator and in 1871 he became the first citizen of the county to be elected to the state legislature as representative, serving a two year term in 1871-72.

Crenshaw, after becoming a county in 1866, was involved in its first state constitutional convention in 1867. She sent as her representative the capable James H. Howard.

On May 11, 1893, after a popular election in which the change was approved, the county seat of Crenshaw was moved from Rutledge to the new and enterprising town of Luverne.

Luverne, later to become the leading town of the county, is located in the central part of the county on the Patsaliga River near the site of an old Indian village. The land where the town was built was at one time part of the Cody Plantation. Luverne was named after the wife of M.P. LeGrand of Montgomery who had purchased land in the county for a railroad. In 1888 the Luverne Land Company was organized by S.D. Hubbard, M.P. LeGrand, and George A. Folmar. J.O. Sentell surveyed the land and made a plot, laying out the streets for the town. Following this in 1889, the town was incorporated under the laws of Alabama. An election was held the same year in which J.O. Sentell was elected the town's first mayor. The councilmen elected were Dr. J.R. Horn, G.W.

Pope, G.A. Folmar, and G.F. Kirkpatrick. The city clerk was R.P. Fundaburk, and the marshal was G.W. Turner.

The county of Crenshaw was named after the Honorable Judge Anderson Crenshaw of Butler County. Judge Crenshaw was born in South Carolina in 1776, spending his early years there, and attending South Carolina where he was the first student to graduate. While still a young man, Judge Crenshaw came to the one time state capital of Alabama, Cahaba. He remained there for a number of years in which time he spent twelve years as a member of the Alabama Supreme Court. Leaving Cahaba, Judge Crenshaw then settled in Butler County where he became famous for his just interpretations of the law. Always a fair and respected individuals, Judge Crenshaw was honored in 1866 by the people who remembered him and named Crenshaw County after him.

CHAPTER II

Early History and Early Settlers of the County

The early history of Crenshaw County dates back prior to 1814 when that territory which now forms the county was a part of the Creek Indian Confederacy. This land was used mostly by Indians as hunting ground where they found an abundance of wild game, especially deer and turkey. Fish in the numerous streams were also plentiful.

There have been many Indian remains found in the county, especially along the banks of its streams. Camp sites have been found in several locations, but the only remains of a permanent village site to be found in the county were found on the H.N. McLeod plantation about two miles northwest of the present town of Glenwood.

After the defeat of the Creek Indians at the hands of General Andrew Jackson, the territory which included Crenshaw County was ceded to the United States by the Creek Indian Confederation in a treaty signed at Fort Toulouse on August 9, 1814. Following this, the land became a part of the Mississippi Territory and remained in this capacity until 1817 at which time Alabama was designated a territory. After Alabama achieved statehood in 1819, the territory which now forms Crenshaw County was divided between several of the surrounding counties until the legislative act creating the county was passed in 1866.

Of historical significance to the county is the Old Three Notch Trail, which cuts across the lower portion of the county near the present site of Dozier. Also in the northern portion of the county, passing near Honoraville, was the Merriweather Trail which is believed to have been a road leading from Greenville to Georgia which was used by military troops and early settlers.

In Crenshaw County is to be found one of the purest stocks of English, Irish, and Scotch descendants to be found anywhere in the United States. The people who settled the county were direct descendants of the settlers of the original thirteen colonies. Most of them came from South Carolina and Georgia settling first in other sections of the state and later moving to Crenshaw County.

The rest of this chapter is to be given to a discussion and biographical sketches of the earliest families to have settled in Crenshaw County. As will be pointed out, many of them came when the land was still a wilderness inhabited by red men and wild beasts.

Probably the first man to settle in the county was Francis Daniel, who with his wife came to Crenshaw from their former home in Montgomery County shortly after 1820. Mr. Daniel and his wife settled near the present site of Honoraville where he improved a farm and engaged in his occupation as a planter. At the time of their settlement, this part of the county was nothing but a wilderness filled with Indians and wild animals. Mr. Daniel, however, was friendly toward the Indians and found trading with them to be very profitable for him and his wife who were miles from any of their own people.

Settling in another portion of the county shortly after Francis Daniel settled near Honoraville was John Cody who was the first to settle near the present location of the county seat, Luverne. Mr. Cody was in fact one of the earliest settlers of the state. He came to Pike County at a very early date. About 1825, he and his wife removed to Crenshaw County where he had cleared a farm and made a home for them. His son, Francis Cody, who later became the first circuit clerk of the county, was born here in 1829.

Shortly after John Cody settled near Luverne, Richard Whitehead Horn settled at what was later to become known as New Providence which is located near Glenwood. Mr. Horn and his wife came here in 1826 when the nearest neighbors were miles away. He and his bride were surrounded by wild beasts and savages, but here in the forest Mr. Horn set to work to build them a home, and to surround it with the comforts of life. Fish and game were plentiful and a supply could be obtained almost any time from the Indians in exchange for a few ears of corn. Trading with the Indians became very important to the Horns, and many times when Mr. Horn was away at work his wife would be startled to find a savage in the house, face painted and armed, squabbling in his native language. Over his shoulder he would have a wild turkey or string of fish. By holding up the number of fingers he would indicate to her how many ears of corn he wanted in exchange for his prize. Here on their farm near the Conecuh River, the Horns remained until their death at ripe old ages.

Another pioneer of the county who settled in the western part of the county near the Butler county line was Joseph Ellington. Mr. Ellington settled in this region when the only other inhabitants were Indians, black bears, wolves, and wild animals. He improved a farm here and pursued his chief occupation as a planter. Mr. Ellington also did quite a bit of trading with the Indians in this vicinity.

Following Joseph Ellington's settlement came the settlement of the Leon community by the Merrills. In the winter of 1829-30, Jacob Merrill cleared and improved a farm near this community. At about the same time his brother William Merrill came to the community, and here in the wilderness near the Patsaliga River, the brothers improved vast farmlands. Indians were numerous in their area at the time of their settlement and the brothers being friendly with them engaged in Indian trading as a sideline to their occupations as planter.

Following these early settlements in the county during the decade 1820-30, settlers continued to pour into areas until by 1870 the population of the county was 8950 whites, and 2206 Negroes, giving a total of over 11,000.

Some of the other families to come to the county at early dates following 1830 were the Finleys, Hawkins, Rhoutons, Baxters, Moodys, Brunsons, Benbows, Fonvilles, Knights, Walkers, Moxleys, Morgans, Pendreys, Lowmans, and Rutledges.

To all the families I have mentioned and the others that I am positive I have not uncovered goes the credit for pioneering and developing what is now Crenshaw County.
