Notes for SAMUEL LAWSON REYNOLDS:

Samuel and Cliff came to Crook County in 1907.

The Reynolds family started in Crook County with the coming of Samuel Reynolds and his brother, CLIFF, in 1907. He was born in Illinois to Benjamin and Isabella Parrish Reynolds and grew up in Hiawatha, Kansas. He adjusted his age and joined the army to do service in the Philippines. He mustered out in California and worked various places until coming to Prineville.

Sam decided to try his hand at farming and settled down on a ranch on McKay Creek

Notes for LESLIE ALICE POTTER:

I was born in Crook, now Jefferson County, July 30, 1888, sixteen miles northeast of Sisters.

My parents, BARNES and SARAH WINTER POTTER, came with their family of four children during the late summer or fall of 1883 from Carson City, Nevada. Family consisted of VADA, PEARL and GEORGE JOHNSON---children born to my Mother in a former marriage-- and their baby, ETHEL.

Father loved the country but water was a problem. He spent some time searching and finally discovered, what he thought, to be good lasting spring water. It proved to be such.

He met a man, Hen Mock, who invited him to move his family in with him and he would board with them. The Mock place was two miles from Father's chosen place. With the family settled, he gave full time to clearing land, building fences and a log cabin.

I don't know how long they lived in the Mock home but my sister GLADYS, was born there in July 1885. I was the first one born in the new home.

As things adjusted, Father was able to work away from home part time to help with funds for the family living costs.

They had several cows and Mother made and sold butter to the store at Sisters. She also did laundry work for the sheep herders who grazed sheep nearby.

Father continued clearing more land and raising more grain.

During the fall of 1894 Father and a neighbor, Dan Council, started to Prineville with their crop of wheat to have it ground into flour for the family, and bran and shorts for the stock.

They lost their whip and Dan went back to find it. They were on a downgrade so it was decided Father would wait for Dan at the foot of the hill.

Father had gone a very short distance when a wheel gave way and the wagon overturned, pinning Father under the seat. He was still breathing when Dan returned but Dan could not release him. He went for help but it came too late, Father was dead.

By that time there were eight children, as a set of twins, MAUDE and ERNEST, were born in November, 1891.

The three older children were grown and out on their own, My oldest sister, VADA, had been married several years.

Mother continued on the homestead until 1900 during which time we attended the Sisters and Cloverdale schools.

I came to Prineville in 1904 where in 1910, I married SAMUEL REYNOLDS. He had a daughter, VESTA, born of a former marriage.

We lived twenty five years on a farm, three and a half miles from town, on McKay Creek. Our son, ERNEST, was born October, 1912.

When Ernest was married in 1935 we moved to Prineville. We built our new home in 1940.

My husband passed away in 1956. I continued living in the home until June, 1980. I now live with my son and daughter-in-law, VIOLA.

Notes for VESTA OLIVE REYNOLDS:

Vesta Reynolds Dull

I was born in Prineville 14 Nov. 1909, to SAMUEL LAWSON REYNOLDS and EMILY ELIZABETH POWELL (daughter of MARCUS POWELL and VICTORIA THOMPSON). My mother died Dec. 6, 1909 when I was just a few weeks old and I was placed in the care of MRS. BARNES POTTER and her daughter LESLIE. On October the 10th 1910 LESLIE and my father were married. I grew up on the Reynolds ranch on McKay Creek and attended school first in the Lower McKay Creek School which was on the corner of the ranch and then to Prineville until the 14th of June 1928 when I met and married FREEMAN HOWARD DULL. FREEMAN carried the title of County and Home Demonstration agent and Cow Tester--Smith Hughes Teacher of Agriculture, I became acquainted with him while he was testing cows on the ranch. We moved to the valley where my first child was born.

ELIZABETH LEE DULL was born 25 July 1929 in Salem, Oregon; she married RALPH J. JUKER and had 1 daughter, Caroline Lee Juker, Born 08/16/1951.

LYLE ALLEN DULL was born 19 July 1931 in Salem--he married ANITA MARIE DELAUREATI and they had 4 children.

BARBARA JEAN DULL was born 19 July 1931 in Salem-- she married FARLEY DWIGHT FLYNN and they had 2 children.

FREEMAN's work required we move often so we ended up living in the following places, Beaverton, Ontario, Caldwell, Baker, LaGrande, McMinneville and Oregon City. Later in our marriage FREEMAN and I separated and since then I have lived in Portland and am now in the Heritage Mt. Hood Nursing Home in Gresham, Oregon. I have 7 grandchildren, 3 step-grandchildren and f great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-granchild.

Notes for NORMAN LELAND REYNOLDS:

NORMAN LELAND REYNOLDS born September 22, 1919 in Crook County, Oregon to TINA and CLIFFORD REYNOLDS.

His first school was the little Lower McKay Creek for two years then on to town school in Prineville where he graduated from the 8th grade; Crook County High School the next four years where he played football along with a little study, graduating in 1938.

In the fall of 1940 decided to try Oregon State for a year but in December 1941 World War II broke out. January 1942 Norman joined the U.S. Air Corps, Private Norman Reynolds took his training in the Medical Corps at Paine Field, Washington. He spent most of his war years on Umnak and Adak Islands in the Aleutian Chain.

Returning to the U.S. in July 1944, Corporal Norman Reynolds married LOIS PHAYE SEELYE of Portland, Oregon, July 23, 1944.

Lois and Norman started their married life in Santa Monica, California where Norman was stationed as a Medic. November saw the Reynolds transferred to Richmond Virginia Air force Base. July 1945 a son, CLIFFORD LELAND REYNOLDS, joined this family; born in Sandston, Virginia.

The War was over, Norman received his discharge in October and the family returned to Crook County. Norman got a job on a ranch working for Ben Sordal on Johnson Creek.

About a year later the family moved to the old family home on Lower McKay Creek Road. Norman worked as a mechanic for Frank Alander. February 3, 1947, JAMES NORMAN REYNOLDS was born in the old hospital on West 1st Street.

1949 saw the Norman Reynolds family move into their own place out three miles on Lamonta Road to Brookfield Lane where they still reside. June 30, 1949 also added another little boy to the Reynolds family--RICHARD RANDY. In 1952 Norman went to work for Scotty's Sales and Service, the Dodge dealership owned by Bruce Scott. Norman ran the shop until Scotty's retirement in 1963, when Norman bought the business.

In the meantime a daughter PHAYE ELAINE, joined her brothers, January 8, 1954. On Jim's birthday, February 1956 KEITH ALAN arrived to complete the family of five.

In 1966 Norman gave up the dealership and has run his own auto repair ever since.

Clifford Reynolds received a Master's Degree in Christian Education. He married NANCY JANE STEWART of Portland, Oregon; became an Ordained Minister in the Conservative Baptist Church. They are now missionaries in Armstrong, British Columbia. They have four children--- Aaron, Micah, Nathan and Benjamin.

James Norman married SELINA RIDGE in Texas. She had two children, Patrick and Karen; they had Wynne Capri. They lived in Central Oregon until 1979; when work became scarce they moved to New Mexico to work in the oil fields.

Richard married ELINORE BIGALOW. they live in Crook County and Richard works for Les Schwab. They have two boys, Kelly and Jason.

Phaye attended C.O.C.C and now is a supervisor at Jered's Outdoor and More Store in Bend.

Keith Alan lives in Crook County . He married MICHELLE DUBISAR. He works for Prineville Garbage Disposal.
