Raymond Hugh served in WW II and went through Pearl Harbor, but he was not there at the time of the bombing by the Japanese. He was aboard the ship DREXLER.

The DREXLER had been commissioned 60 months and 14 days previously to being sunk in the battle off Okinawa on 16 April 1945. It was hit by Kamikaze pilots, and the ship was listing so badly, Raymond just slid off into the water. He grabbed a life jacket and gun turret. One of his friends nearby, hit the water and went berserk. Raymond swam over to him and shared his life preserver. They Where in the water two hours before being rescued by a landing craft. He had a friend from Mayfield, Ky who was on the ship three bunk heads below deck and was blown up. One week later Ruthie learned from the newspaper that his ship had been sunk and did not know of his fate. Although Raymond wrote home afterwards that he was alive, Ruthie did not receive his letter until July. It was not until that time that she new he had survived. Only his mother, Brondle, had felt he was still alive.(Source: Interview with Raymond H. Clayton by NSCW)

Notes for Mayme Margaret Sutton:

(7 Jun 1999) I met Telous down at Ruby's when they lived close to Clayton Town. I was 14. Ruby knew I was going to get married, but nobody else did. I didn't tell mother or dad. We ran away to Missouri to get married when I was 15. They (mother & father) thought about having it annulled but it's a good thing they didn't. We were married 53 years before he died. (1m97) I'll never get married again even if I could because he (Telous) was so good to me. He never fussed at me, even when I did (fuss).

When we first married Telous hired out to a farmer for thirty dollars a month and that's all we had to live on. Then he bought a truck and hauled coal and carried cream and brought back ice for them. We went to Michigan two or three or four times. He went to auto plants. You could get a job anytime you went. We went before Pete and Sam; they were in the service (WWII) when we were up there.

We ate soup and boloney sandwiches because I didn't know how to cook. I never cooked at home. Miz Clayton taught me how to cook. Telous wouldn't hardly eat boloney up until he died because we ate so much of it back then.

I haven't had one of those awful headaches since I had that surgery on my head in Memphis. They were just awful. You wouldn't want to live that way. Make you sick to your stomach. The doctor down there who did the surgery told Telous it didn't have anything to do with my headaches, but I know it did because I haven't had one since. Just little ones I can take Tylenol for. Nothing like those I used to have.

(5 Jun 1999) Ozella Hopkins (Sykes) says Aunt Margaret asked more questions, was nosier than anybody else she'd ever see when they were growing up. "You couldn't shut up the questions," she said of her cousin.
