

Descendants of John King of Monongalia County VA/WV

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN¹ KING was born Abt. 1765, and died Bet. 1820 - 1840 in Monongalia Co., VA (WV). He married UNKNOWN. She was born Bet. 1730 - 1770.

Notes for JOHN KING:

John and his family moved from Maryland to Monongalia County, VA sometime between 1797 and 1803. This is derived from the information about his known children. The youngest, Comfort was born 1796-1798. All of John's known children were married in Monongalia County, VA between 1803-1826. All of his children listed Maryland as their place of birth during the 1850 census. Comfort's marriage, in 1826, was bonded by her brother-in-law, John Cunningham. John King, his wife, and his daughter Comfort King were counted in the 1820 Federal census for Monongalia County., VA (page 53). John's son, John (Jr.), was counted on the same page, next line of the 1820 Monongalia Co. census. John (Jr.) moved to Tyler Co. in 1824. John King (Sr.) could not be found living anywhere in VA for the 1830 census. No information is known about the spouse of John King.

There were two John King marriages listed in Monongalia county. One was in 1811 to Elizabeth Shaw. The other was in 1816 to Mary Elizabeth Floyd. One of these was assuredly the marriage of his son. This would indicate that there were two John Kings of about the same age with sons named John, all living in Monongalia county. Another possibility is that one of the John King marriages was a remarriage of John King (Sr.).

Notes for JOHN KING:

John King was listed in the 1820 federal census for Monongalia County Virginia. When John purchased land in Tyler county in 1824 he was listed on the deed as being from Monongalia county. The land that John King purchased was in Tyler (now Wetzel) county on Fishing Creek, in the King Bend, near Porters Falls. He and Elizabeth lived there until their death in 1859.

The 1850 census listed John (59) his wife Elizabeth (61), Margaret (24), Jeremiah (21), and Elizabeth (19). John listed his place of birth as Maryland. His wife Elizabeth listed Kentucky as her place of birth.
