

Descendants of ? Schwartz

Generation No. 1

1. ?¹ SCHWARTZ was born Abt. 1740. He married ANNA CHRISTINA SETZLER, daughter of JOHN SETZLER and ANNA MUE. She was born 06 May 1751 in Lexington District, SC.

Notes for ? SCHWARTZ:

It is my theory that this fellow happens to be either Johann Adam Black, or his brother. Unproven and likely impossible to prove. C. Krell

Notes for ANNA CHRISTINA SETZLER:

Anna Christina had two 100 acre surveys in 1771, one on Cannon's Creek and one on the waters of Wateree Creek. Both were in the estate of her oldest son by Adam Frederick Epting, John Adam Epting (Newberry Court of Common Pleas B-12, 1812).

A 50 acre survey of 1770 to Adam Frederick Epting on Cannons Cr., with an adjacent tract, came down to Jacob Epting (Newberry Court of Common Pleas A-67, 1822).

Source: Master file of Don Whitaker

Anna received the second of her own land grants in her maiden (Setzler) name in 1773. (See note below)

Source: "The Eptings, a Documented History, 1700 - ca. 1920", 2nd Edition, Jean Epting Blackmon.

According to Dr. Carl W. Nichols, German-born children who came with their parents to America later received free land as "bounty" grant, and that the females always received their land in their maiden names, even if they had already married by the time the grant was issued. (ibid)

Per the Federal Census of 1790, none of the sons were reflected as being in her household. Henry Swatts (sic) was shown head of household with four males and one female. This could have been Henry, Anna Christina and her Epting children. Source, as above.

{Cibby's note: the 1790 Census most likely enumerated Henry with the four Epting children, John Adam, Jacob, John and Catherine. April, 2008}

Her son John Adam sold 100 acres to Henry Schwartz in 1794. Adam had inherited all of his father's land through the right of primogeniture which was still in effect when Adam Frederick Epting died. (ibid)

From "The Dutch Fork, an Atlas" by Carl Nichols:

"Setzler, Anna Christina 100A, 16 Apr 1771m 119:403. Br. of Cannons Creek. Maps-Pp. 16, 18, & 37. Later owned by Adam Epting who d. intestate. Land partitioned, 1812, between widow of Adam Epting who had m. Martin Koon and dau., Elizabeth Mary Epting (Nby Ct of Common Pleas B-12.)"

In the census quoted, there was an adjoining landowner named Frederick Adam Apling, next to the 780 acre tract grant in Lexington County that Jacob Epting obtained in 1791. (ibid)

Child of ? SCHWARTZ and ANNA SETZLER is:

2. i. Henry² Schwartz, b. Abt. 1766; d. Bef. 22 Jan 1835.

Generation No. 2

2. HENRY² SCHWARTZ (?¹) was born Abt. 1766, and died Bef. 22 Jan 1835. He married MARY ANN KLAPP, daughter of JOHN KLAPP. She was born Abt. 1770, and died Bef. 1835.

Notes for HENRY SCHWARTZ:

From the Dutch Fork Genealogical Society's web page:

A report dealing with the ancestry of Leland Epting of Spartanburg, SC, is found in V. L. Fulmer's "Shealy Family," Pp. 14-15. Mr. Epting's Great Grandparents were described as Adam Frederick Epting and Anna Christina Setzler. The children of this

Henry Black's family are found in various records as Schwartz or Black.

In 1794, Henry Black bought from Adam Epting and wife, Eve, the 100 acre survey of 1770 to Adam Frederick Epting on Cannons Cr. (Newberry Deeds Q-2, p. 159). In 1835, the heirs of Henry Schwartz, Sr., sold this tract to Nicholas Summer (Newberry Deeds S-111). Heirs of Henry Schwartz, Sr., at that time were: Henry Schwartz, George Reichert and wife Mary, Schwartz, David Kunkel and wife Christina, Rosanna Schwartz, Magdelina Schwartz, and Juliana Schwartz. Dower was sig by Susan M. Schwartz.

From "The Eptings, A Documented History, 1700 - ca. 1920", 2nd Edition, Jean Epting Blackmon:

"The Newberry Census for 1810 listed both Henry Swatts, Sen'r and Henry Swatts, Jr. Henry Swatts, Sen'r was over 45 years of age, had a boy and three girls in his home under the age of 10. He also had a girl 10 - 16 years of age and a woman 16 - 22 years of age. It is apparent that he was married to a 'second wife' at this time, or at least was not married to Anna Christina Setzler Epting, if indeed he ever had been. Henry Swatts, Jr. was 16 - 26 years old, proving that he was born between 1784 - 1794, making it possible for him to be Anna Christina's son. A female in his home was the same age as he, and there was a young boy under 10 in his home as well.

Jacob Setzler and Adam Setsler were listed next to the Swatts household on the other side."

More (ibid):

"On January 22, 1835, an interesting deed was transacted by the heirs of Henry Schwartz. It said, "we Henry Schwartz, George Rikert and wife Mary, Adam Schwartz, David Kunkle and wife Christiana, Rosanna Schwartz, Magdelina Schwartz, and Juliana Schwartz, all of the state of S.C. and part of Newberry and part of Lexington District, in consideration of the sum of $855.00 paid by Nicholas Summer of the state aforesaid, and Newberry District, have granted, bargained and sold...a tract of land which Henry Schwartz Senr. died possessed of containing by resurvey 88 acres, being part of a tract originally granted to Adam Frederick Epting, binding on lands now held by [another] Adam Epting, the widow Fike, Jacob Setsler, Wm. Chapman, estate of John Chapman, Nicholas Summer, and the remainder tract held by the widow Schwartz situated in Newberry District on branches of Cannons Creek, waters of Broad River."

Witnesses were William Chapman, Joseph P. Summer, and Geo. H. Chapman. [Susan M. Schwartz, wife of Adam Schwartz relinquished her dower right.]"

Shown as "Henry Swatts" in the 1790 US Census, Ninety-Six District, Newberry County, and 2 (Free white males of 18 years of age or upward, including heads of families), 3 (Free white males under 18 years), 1 (Free white females, including heads of families), --- (Slaves).

Notes for PAUL WILLIAM ARTHUR SCHWARTZ:

Paul W. Schwartz Family Bible owned by granddaughter (Vivian) Joanne Swartz Kitchings.

"As I remember what was told to me was that Paul Swartz came to Wagener to work for W. A. Lybrand (daddy's granddaddy) in his stores. I was told that W. A. Lybrand owned nearly all of Wagener and all the land between Wagener and New Holland. His stores carried groceries, clothes, hardware, etc., and he had a livery stable. Mama said that Paul Swartz was a very handsome man. Edith told me that Paul Swartz had both Minerva and Joanna pregnant and that W. A. Lybrand told him that he had to marry one or the other. He chose Joanna. Edith called her Aunt Anna.

I was told that Paul Swartz was the father of both daddy and Aunt Bessie. Aunt Bessie was older than daddy. Minerva had another child out of wedlock. Aunt Bessie's name told that her father was probably a traveling merchant and was called a...

Then Minerva married Furman Huckabee. I've always wondered why he married her with three illegitimate children. Maybe married her for what he thought he would get when Minerva's father died. I was told that he left each of his children two hundred acres. Minerva's land was where Camp Rawl is today. She sold her land to the Rawl family and they gave part of it to the E Church for then to build the Baptist Camp for youth. The picture of all of them was taken in front of the house that Minerva and Furman built on her land.

Then she and Furman had four more children...Uncle Fred, Uncle Robert, Aunt Minnie, and Uncle Danny. After Minerva died Furman married a much younger woman named Elizabeth. They had seven living children: Margaret, Betty, Barbara, Ottale Johnny, and twins that they named William and Willie. Mama (sic) said that Furman and Elizabeth as he called her had a stillborn child that they buried at the feet of Minerva in the New Holland Cemetery. Aunt Bessie and others were upset about it but mama told them that Minerva would never be of having a "little angel" buried at her feet.

When I was ten years old daddy and mama talked Furman and Elizabeth into letting Betty (age nine) come to live with us for a year. She was a grade below me. Mama made dresses for both of us and I know it was more clothes than Betty ever had. Daddy and mama took Betty to see her parents several times during the year and when school was out they took her home younger sister wanted her turn to come live with us but mama said that she had enough.

Edith's husband Joe Williamson had a sister named Lois. Lois married Bill Swartz. When I saw him he looked so much like daddy. Edith said he should be for they were half brothers. Bill and Lois had a daughter, Elaine, that was interested in genealogy. She had found out that there were Jews in her background and was very upset about it. Edith thought it was very funny that she was so upset. Edith also said that Lois Swartz told her that we came from the trashy side of the family. This hurt Edith very much. Edith should have reminded her that Joanna wasn't a saint either.

I remember when I was a small child and we went to visit Furman or daddy's brothers or sister we passed through Pelion. There was a big two story house on the right going down that had a bunch of camelias in the front yard. Mama said that daddy's mother lived there. I remember that once on an occasion we stopped and visited with the people there. I always thought it was where his Aunt Annie and Uncle Paul lived.

Daddy was very ashamed of his birth circumstances and got angry if anyone brought it up. Once I said that my grandmother Minerva had daddy and got divorced and married Furman. I always knew that Furman was not his father. I did not know anything about illegitimacy at that age. I assumed that she had been married before. Daddy got so angry that he was furious and wanted to know who had been talking to me. Mama said that she thought Betty had told me. I knew never to mention it again.

I used to ask mama what Minerva looked like as she died before I was born. Mama said to put a bonnet on Daddy and I will know how she looked. Evidently he did not inherit Paul Swartz's good looks." -- Frances Louis Huckabee Hancock

According to Woodrow L. Weatherford, the original family name was Schwartz, but they changed it to Black until they moved to the Dutch Forks area of South Carolina, where they changed it back. After Paul moved his family to Wagener, a school teacher shortened it to Swartz.
