

Descendants of Andreas Georg Krelle

Generation No. 1

1. ANDREAS GEORG¹ KRELLE was born Abt. 1823 in Prussia, and died 1895 in Newberry County, SC. He married (1) LOU HENSCHKE. She was born 1828. He married (2) RACHEL TAYLOR Abt. 1871, daughter of DAVID TAYLOR and FRANCES DOMINICK. She was born 1835, and died 1890 in Newberry County, SC.

Notes for ANDREAS GEORG KRELLE:
[Krelle.FTW]

Per 1880 Census, A. G. Krelle was 56 years of age. Grave marker indicates 1823 as date of birth. He spoke almost no English. He married Rachel Taylor, a War widow, and acquired a fair amount of land in the process.

His grave at the Zion Church is on the edge of the cemetery, next to the woods behind the church. Family legend has it that it was done so that he wouldn't have to be close to too many people for eternity.

On the passenger list for the ship W F Storer, arriving New York City on 16 Dec 1868 from Liverpool, he is listed as "Andrew Krell, 43, male, mason".

Generation No. 2

2. WILHELM FREDERICK² KRELLE (ANDREAS GEORG¹) was born 21 Sep 1850 in Prussia, and died 05 Jan 1912 in Omaha, NE. He married FRIEDERIKA WILHELMINA SCHLIEDER 1875 in New York City, NY. She was born 19 May 1853 in Leipzig, Saxony, Germany, and died 05 Jan 1912 in Omaha, NE.

Notes for WILHELM FREDERICK KRELLE:

According to records of Douglas County, NE, found at http://www.ukans.edu/carrie/kancoll/andreas_ne/douglas/douglas-p6 William arrived in New York in 1870 from Germany, and lived there for three years. He was a hatmaker in Omaha, with the Nindel & Krelle, and had reportedly been engaged in the hat business since his youth.

About his business partner:

PAUL NINDEL, (Nindel & Krelle) was born in Germany October 8, 1848, and came to America in May, 1880. He was a hatter in Europe and served thirteen years at the business before he came to this country. He was married in Germany in June, 1879 to Clara Milduer, a native of Germany. They have one child, Paul.

In the 1890 Directory for Omaha, NE, William F. shows up as a hatter at 407 N 14th, Omaha.

In the 1890 Omaha Nebraska Excelsior Directory, William is listed at 1010 S. 17th.

Children of WILHELM KRELLE and FRIEDERIKA SCHLIEDER are:

- 6. i. Frederick William³ Krelle, b. 12 Jul 1876, Omaha, Douglas, Nebraska; d. 29 Jan 1927, Lincoln, Lancaster, Nebraska.
- 7. ii. George Frederick Krelle, b. 17 Sep 1877, Omaha, NE; d. 27 Jul 1971, Glendale, Los Angeles County, CA.
- iii. Louise M. Krelle, b. 08 Feb 1879, Omaha, NE; d. 13 Mar 1919, Omaha, NE.
- iv. William Frederick Krelle, b. 02 Jan 1881, Omaha, NE; d. 21 Nov 1946, Omaha, NE.

3. GEORGE FREDERICK² KRELLE (ANDREAS GEORG¹ KRELLE) was born 01 Sep 1861 in Newberry County, SC, and died 22 Sep 1949 in Baptist Hospital, SC. He married (1) HARRIET ODESSIE MILES 18 Feb 1891 in Newberry County, SC, daughter of BURRELL MILES and MARGARET WEAVER. She was born 26 Dec 1867 in Newberry County, SC, and died 02 May 1905 in Newberry County, SC. He married (2) LILLIE ANN SHEALY 24 Aug 1906 in Newberry, SC, daughter of ERVIN SHEALY and GRACY SHEALY. She was born 23 Dec 1886 in Saluda, SC, and died 15 Feb 1968 in Newberry County, SC.

Grave marker indicates 1871, but 1880 Census taker would have had to mistake a 10-year old for a 20-year old male for this to have been true. It is thought that he lied about his age in order to marry a younger woman (Lillie) after Harriet died.

George was a determined farmer, demonstrated by the number of children he fathered by two wives. His children were permitted to attend school only after farm chores were completed, which meant during Winter months. (Related by James and Fairey Louise Black, who went to school in Newberry with George's kids.)

There is no agreement on whether George was born in Prussia or Newberry County.

Newberry Observer - Tuesday, August 22, 1939

Officer Krell Critically Wounded By Negro

Forest (sic) Krell, city policeman, was critically shot in the abdomen about 8:10 Sunday night by Anderson Moon, negro. The officer was taken to Newberry County Hospital where an operation was performed late Sunday night.

City Policeman Hitt gives the following account of the shooting: "About 8 o'clock we received a call to come to Boundary street. Krell and I answered the call and found that a negro by the name of James Moon had shot his wife in the foot. Anderson Moon, the boy's father, told us that James had gone. A negro girl then told us that he was drunk and was at a house about 300 yards down the street.

"We rode on down west Boundary street and saw the negro on the porch. Krell took the negro to the car while I entered the house to look for the gun. I couldn't find the gun with which the negro had shot his wife and went back to the car.

"Mr. Krell then entered the house to look for the gun while I held James in the car. I saw Krell enter the house and turn into a room on his left.

"At the time I heard a shot and two negroes ran out of the front door and I stopped them and held them. I flagged a car and the occupants held all three negroes (James and the two) while I went into the house. As I went up on the porch, Krell staggered to the door and said, 'He shot me'. I said, 'Who shot you?' and he said, 'Anderson Moon.'"

Mr. Hitt summoned an ambulance and Krell was taken to the Newberry hospital. The negro escaped and was apprehended in the night by Ralph Baker, working in connection with the officers. The negro was immediately taken to the state pen in Columbia. He had been an employee of Mr. Baker's.

Mr. Krell underwent two blood transfusions Sunday night and a major operation. The bullet entered the left side about the stomach and came out on the right side of the back.

From the Newberry Observer, August 22, 1939:

George Forest Krell News story

Mr. Krell was shot in the abdomen by the negro, the pistol ball entering the left side about the stomach and coming out the right side in the back. He was immediately rushed to the hospital and two surgeons from Columbia immediately summoned. He underwent two blood transfusions and a major operation Sunday night, suffering much pain all the while. His condition remained critical all day Monday and death came Tuesday morning about one o'clock at the hospital. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at three p.m. from the James R. Leavell Funeral Home, with services conducted by Rev. B. F. Roger and Rev. V. L. Fulmer. Interment was in Rosemont cemetery. Members of Amity Lodge No. 87, conducted Masonic burial services at the graveside. Active pallbearers were: O. P. Davenport, Gus Holm, Olaf Dahlgren, Ryan Hill, D. W. Clemmer, I. Kaplan, P. Abrams and J. C. Longshore. Honorary pallbearers were members of the police and sheriff's force and the city council.

Mr. Krell was born and reared below Prosperity in Newberry county and attended the schools of his section. He was from a family connection and since coming to Newberry 22 years ago made countless friends who are grieved to learn of his sudden death. For the past eight years he served faithfully as a city policeman, prior to that he served about the same number of years as an employee of C. T. Summer and company, and for four years prior to that was an employee of the Newberry Cotton mill.

Mr. Krell was a brave and fearless officer and could be depended upon to give his best for the city. He knew no danger and was as brave as men get to be. His willingness to do his best and the right thing indelibly impressed citizens of the city as being the best policeman on the Newberry force. The ever beaming countenance and smile of Mr. Krell will linger as a remembrance of a man almost universally loved by all Newberrians. He was big and strong and ready and always appeared pleased and happy while at work. He will be missed.

Mr. Krell is survived by his widow, who formerly was Miss Emma Morris of the county; three sons and one daughter, Heyward Krell, Harrell Krell, Ray Krell and Mrs. Brunell Schembs, all of Newberry; his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. George F. of Prosperity; six brothers, John Lester Krell of Johnson City, Tenn., Colie B. Krell, policeman of Augusta, Ga., William Krell of Laurens; Claude, Roy and Eugene Krell of Prosperity, and four sisters, Mrs. Agnes Stockman, Mrs. Lottie Bowers, all of Prosperity, and Mrs. Dottie Foshee of Newberry. James R. Leavell Funeral Home in charge.

Notes for CLISBY HARRELL KRELL:

[Krelle.FTW]

When his father George Forrest Krell was killed in the line of duty as a policeman in a gunfight with three negro men, C. H. Krell, Sr., was studying for the Methodist ministry. He dropped out of college almost immediately.

Source, Certified Copies of birth certificate and correcting document:

On January 26, 1960, a document was filed in the records of the S.C. State Board of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, stating that a birth certificate (Vol. 22, Certificate No. 017076, of the 1921 births) issued on May 31, 1921, indicated the child's name incorrectly. The name shown is Harding L. Krell, and the document filed corrects it to read Harrell Clisby Krell.

Interestingly, the original birth certificate referenced shows that there were four (4) children born to mother, including present birth, and that there were three (3) children of this mother now living, including present birth. To date, I have no record of a child of Forrest and Emma Krell that died prior to this date.

When I was born, my father was using the name Clisby Harrell Krell. Therefore, I am not technically and legally a Junior, due to the error in the order of my father's given names.
