

Descendants of Johann Ludwig Kuhn

Generation No. 1

1. Johann Ludwig¹ Kuhn

Notes for Johann Ludwig Kuhn:

It is likely Johann Ludwig Kuhn is the father of our Christian Kuhn who was baptized in 1805 in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Besigheim, Germany.

Child of Johann Ludwig Kuhn is:

- + 2 i. Christian Frederick² Kuhn, born Jul 27, 1804 in Besigheim, Wurtemberg, Germany; died Oct 11, 1879 in Wheatstone Twp., OH.

Generation No. 2

2. Christian Frederick² Kuhn (Johann Ludwig¹) was born Jul 27, 1804 in Besigheim, Wurtemberg, Germany, and died Oct 11, 1879 in Wheatstone Twp., OH. He married (1) Helena Sophia Stoll Feb 24, 1829 in Besigheim, Baden, Wurtemberg, Germany, daughter of Johannes Stoll and Dorothy Zoller. She was born Jan 09, 1806 in Heilbronn, Wurtemberg, Germany, and died Jan 27, 1877 in Olentangy Village, near Galion, OH. He married (2) Rosena Stoll Apr 23, 1878 in Crawford Co., OH, daughter of Johannes Stoll and Dorothy Zoller. She was born Aug 11, 1811 in Heilbronn, Wurtemberg, Germany*, and died Dec 10, 1891 in Bucyrus, OH.

Notes for Christian Frederick Kuhn:

John Jacob Kuhn's obit had his father's name as Christian Frederick. Child's obit and cemetery records had Christian A.

According to Mamie Kuhn, granddaughter of John Jacob Kuhn, Christian and Helena Sophia Stoll Kuhn lived in Abstaat Bessingheim (now Besigheim), Germany, until 1832. Then (according to the "History of Elkhart County in an interview with Christian's son John), Christian Kuhn came to America from Wurtemberg, Germany. Bessingheim was located in Wurtemberg. Christian was reared and educated in Germany and served an apprenticeship in the tailor's trade. He worked as a journeyman until 1832 and then with wife and one child set out for America on the ship Brig Malay. The ship arrived from Amsterdam, Holland, at NY on 9/4/1832. It took three months to cross the ocean, and, consequently, because of the delayed voyage, all passengers were placed on short rations. When the Christian Kuhn family's ship docked in New York, Mr. Kuhn had ten cents in his pocket. On the same ship with Christian and his wife Helena Stoll Kuhn, were her parents, her seven siblings, and future brother-in-law Ludwig Assenheimer who married sister Rosena Kuhn.

He quickly found work at his trade and lived in New York City until 1837. He then set out with his family for the West. Going up the Hudson River, at Albany the family took a canal boat to Buffalo, New York, then by lake steamer to Sandusky, Ohio, and from there by wagon and team to Bucyrus, Ohio. Bucyrus was then a village of only 14 buildings, and the surrounding country was practically a wilderness. No railroads had yet been built in Ohio, consequently, there were no established markets, and little money in circulation. More deeply than that, the country was in general financial depression, and Christian Kuhn soon became discouraged with the outlook and decided to return to New York City. Having no money, he started his return journey on foot, and with only a change of clothing in a bundle, he said good bye to his family, promising to send for them as soon as he could earn sufficient money. He had gone but a short distance when he met Mr. Boyer, who told him that if he would return, he would give him work. Mr. Boyer came to the Kuhn home with his three sons, and each was measured for a suit. Soon, Christian had all the work he could do.

(Mamie Kuhn, great granddaughter of Christian, said that Christian walked from NY to OH and brought his family to OH. This account was likely provided to her by a researcher in Mansfield, OH. There was a Christian

Kuhn from Wurtemberg (reported in Centennial Biographical History of Richland Co., OH.) who lived in Sandusky Township, who did walk from Pittsburgh, PA to OH and had children of similar names as our Christian Kuhn. Mamie gave Gerald and Maxine the names of our Christian's children and listed some of the names of this Christian Kuhn (Charles, John, Amanda and Lillian in addition to our Christian's other children - so she obviously had been given information on the wrong Christian. We accept the account our Christian's son John gave in the "History of Elkhart County." It is more likely that he took the boat trip to Buffalo and the lake steamer to Sandusky as stated by his son John. There would have been plenty of work for Christian in NY as a tailor and he could have fallen on hard times in a small populated community, like Bucyrus, which had only 14 buildings when he arrived. It is noteworthy that the other Christian was from Wurtemberg, was also a tailor who too became a farmer, was a Lutheran, and relocated in 1828 to Mansfield which is near Bucyrus, OH, where Christian relocated in 1837. It leads us to wonder if our Christian and this Christian may have been related.)

Christian filed his intent for naturalization on March 16, 1840, in Bucyrus, OH. (Ref. Vol. 2, page 110, Wurtemberg Immigrants).

In 1848 he bought 15 acres of land with a log cabin in Whetstone Township. First thing he did was to plant an orchard. It was necessary to buy fruit trees far away, and he and his older two sons carried the young trees on their shoulders following trail marked by blazed trees. The famed Johnny Appleseed (John Chapman) had established and left apple nurseries in Perrysville and Mansfield, OH. Johnny Appleseed left Mansfield for Indiana about 1836 and settled on 214 1/2 acres around Fort Wayne, IN. Christian's apple trees likely came from the Mansfield nursery which had been owned by Johnny Appleseed. Christian's sons helped clear the land and toil the soil. His success as a farmer was as great as his tailoring. At the time of his death on 10/11/1879, he was the owner of a fine 160-acre farm and had considerable money.

Olentangy Village in Whetstone Township where Christian's farm was located was the site of an Indian and Crawford Army (probably named after Crawford Co., OH) encounter in 1782. When the Army entered the township, perhaps a mile below the present village of north Robison (located north of Olentangy on SR 602)); they went across the township bearing to the south, crossing where the Galion Road now is at some point (Christian's land intersected Galion Road) between the Township Hall and Secaiu Park, and left the township a trifle over 3 miles south of Bucyrus. Their return route was the same, and it was when they had crossed where the Galion road now is (Christian's farm was located one farm north of Galion Road), they were compelled to stop to protect their rear and the battle of the Olentangy followed. The battle in the northeast quarter of section 22 (Christian's farm was section 26 and joined section 22 to the north) on the high ground north of where the monument stands. The east half of this section has since been owned by Sarah R. Lust and the west half by J. B. Campbell. Along the higher ground, north of Galion Road (Christian's farm was one farm north of the Galion Road), is where in 1782 the Indian trail was located from Galion to Upper Sandusky, crossing the Sandusky River south of the Mansfield Street bridge, following the high ground through southern Holmes and crossing the Brokensword, about half a mile SW of Oceola. The western section of Whetstone was a part of the Plains which the Indians used for their ring hunts, when they fired the grass and drove the game to a common center, shooting the animals as they endeavored to make their escape through the ring of fire. When the earliest settlers arrived in Olentangy there was an Indian village on the banks of the Whetstone, at or near where Seccaium Park now is, and in this section many Indian relics have been plowed up. Another camp or village of the Indians was between the Stewart graveyard and the river. (The Indian route would have been from Holmes Co. east of Mohican State Park, west through Butler, Belleville, Lexington, Blooming Grove, Galion, north to North Robison, west to Bucyrus, and Oceola, and north to Brokensword. It is known that the battle was within 2 miles of where Christian later purchased his farm.)

The southern part of Whetstone township was designated as the "Green Sea," by John James. In many places there was growth of wild grass, and a species of cane, called maiden cane, sprung up, and were of very luxuriant growth, often growing to a height and thickness as to prevent persons from passing through, except by following beaten paths. (Christian's farm in 1997 was a combination of woods and farm land and located The Olentangy River runs through the farm so it is possible that part of Christian's land could have part of the Green Sea area.)

In 1838 a man named Isaac Dickson entered the land and thought it would never become properly inhabited. He convinced a man named Tobin to take the land and for clearing a few acres, he was to have it rent free, and also have all of the crops. Tobin accepted the offer and the first night Tobin spent in the cabin, a violent wind storm swept through the section (probably a tornado), tearing up trees along its track, hurling timber in every direction, and shaking the cabin to its foundation. The day before the storm the land was tangled forest, much of it covered with water, and the next morning the desolation was still more complete, and Tobin promptly sold his goods except what he could take in one wagon he had, and started back to Pennsylvania. Tobin reportedly died in Pennsylvania and never had the western fever again.

Shearer Road joins Christian's farm and it was in that area that Mary Elizabeth Shearer (later the wife of John Jacob Kuhn, son of Christian Kuhn) was born. Mary Elizabeth and her parents moved to Scott Township in Kosciusko Co., IN, but she returned to near Galion, OH, after she married Christian's son John. Many Shearers/Sherers in the Bucyrus, Galion, Mansfield, Dayton areas are related to the Christian and Helena Sophia Stoll Kuhn's descendants via Mary Elizabeth Shearer.

In 1849 quite a number of German Lutheran people had located in the vicinity of Olentangy Village, as well as Reformed. Religion was a matter of the heart with those people and they did not forget the needs of their sons and their confirmation vows when they came to Crawford County. Longing for a place where they and their children could worship, these pioneer people came together in August, 1850 and organized the Emanuel congregation. The German Evangelical Lutheran congregation of the unaltered Augsburg Confession was the faith of Christian and Helena Sophia Stoll Kuhn. They were charter members of the first church established and built in Olentangy Village (near Galion, OH). John Sherer and his son Adam Sherer (our relatives) were also members. The church had its dedication on November 9 1851. Christian Kuhn was a charter member and a deacon. A sum of $330 was needed to build the church. Four men signed to pay for this church: Heinrich Helfrich, Adam Scherer (Scherer a relative of the Kuhns, and Tobias Kile. Land was donated by Christopher Dinkel. John Sherer (a relative) received his first communion at the dedication.

After 30 years, the congregation decided they needed more room and a more modern church building. Everybody got busy; work was started at once, and on the third Sunday in Advent, 1881, the replacement church was dedicated. The church cost $1700 and was shortly paid in full. The offering at the dedication Sunday was $75. Those members who had held offices of the church when the new church was dedicated were allowed to march ahead of the procession on dedication day. George Mathias Kuhn, a son Christian and Helena) was one of the deacons.

Olentangy had a tavern, blacksmith shop, a general store, school house, and other buildings erected. In 1840, a post office had been established. When the Civil War broke out little was left of the town but the school house and saloon (tavern). (It is not known if there were a battle in that area or if residents simply left the area.) Now the village has crumbled and the then residents are only faintly recalled.

In 1997, the church in Olentangy Village is no longer used and is in disrepair. The cemetery where many of our Kuhn ancestors are buried is well maintained.

On Feb. 15, 1998, Maxine and Gerald Kuhn found the following query posted on the internet site for Crawford Co. Ohio: "Dan Ruth, Thur Mar 27 10:16:53 1997 RUTH, HENRY FRANCIS Know this is a shot in the dark. But, here it goes, I am looking for Parents of Henry Francis Ruth, my g-grandfather, born in 1841 in possibly Bucyrus (?) Twp., Crawford Co., Ohio. He married Martha E. Wonger in 1866. This the basics on Henry F.: Born 1841, supposed on Sandusky Ave., in Bucyrus. His mother was a domestic for Christian Kuhn and wife of Whetstone Twp. Some report his father was English (which I doubt) and his name was Francis. The info is from his death certificate of 1916 and doubt its validity. My grandfather William H. Ruth, late of Whetstone Twp., never knew or told who his grandfather was. Henry F. was in the Civil War Co. E 101st. Died in Whet. Twp 1916. He was baptized at the German Reform Church in Whetstone Twp. in 1857. I have no idea where those church files are now. Not even sure who I might contact. I would give anything to find any substantial lead on his father or mother. Appreciate your time and hope to hear from you. Dan Ruth, pharm@donet.com." Gerald and Maxine Kuhn contacted Dan Ruth and learned that his grandfather was like a brother to George Kuhn (son of Christian) and he had a picture of George Kuhn and sent copies of letters George Kuhn and Johanna Kuhn Birk's child wrote on behalf of his g-grandfather to qualify for a Civil War Pension.

Christian Frederick Kuhn died Sat., Oct. 11, 1879 in Whetstone Township, OH, (near Bucyrus) of apoplexy, at the age of 73 years, 4 months, and 14 days. Born in Wurtemberg, Germany; emigrated to America in 1832, at the age of 28. Lived 5 years in New York City and then in Bucyrus, OH, for 13 (wife's obit had 14) years. He then moved to a farm in Whetstone Township where he lived until his death. He was married twice and left six children: four sons and two daughters, one of whom was the wife of John G. Birk. His second wife Rosina Aggenheimer - correct spelling is Assenheimer - Kuhn whom he married about a year before his death survived him. Ref. Crawford Co. Forum 10/17/1879. (Frederick was middle name of Christian in his son John's obituary, but other obits had middle name as A. for Adam.) (He was buried at Olentangy with his wife.) When Christian died his obit indicated he was survived then by 2 children one being Mrs. John G. Birk of Bucyrus (we know the survivors were at least George, Frederick, and John)

Note: According to the Wurtemberg Emigration Book, 800,000 people left Wurtemberg from the 17th Century to WWII for other parts of the world.

Church records for Christian's area are Europe film 555967 and 555968 at LDS library in Salt Lake City, Utah. From the Guide to German Parish Records, the Lutheran Church in Besigheim would have their data in the Mormon Microfilm Data Bank. Once the Parish is identified, you may request a copy from the Mormons. The Parish is the Evan-Pugh and records cover 1589-1874.

There are many dates floating around as to when Christian and Helena were married. According to German records and the Christian and Helena family Bible, the date is Feb. 24, 1829.

Notes for John G. Birk, Jr.:

Written in about 1915 and published in History of Crawford Co. and Representative Citizens, pg. 577.

"John G. Birk, Jr., was born in Germany, July 22, 1823, and came to the United States in 1847, sailing from Havre. His voyage took 30 days. He arrived in New York on June 3. His son Christian's obituary had 1847 while one History of Crawford Co. report had 1845, and another in the same book as 1847.) He located first in Albany, N. Y., but in 1849 reached Bucyrus and there established himself in the harness making business and continued in this line until the close of his life, his death occurring October 10, 1888. He was active in the Democratic Party and served four years as county treasurer of Crawford County. On April 24, 1851, he married Joanna (Johanna) Kuhn, who was born also in Germany, June 6, 1831, and was the daughter of Christian and Helena Sophia Stoll Kuhn. Joanna's parents came to America in 1832 and during the long voyage (3 months because of weather conditions) she learned to walk, although it may well be suppose that the ship's floor was unsteady for little feet. Her people remained in New York until 1837 and then came to Bucyrus, where she died October 9, 1893. Both she and husband were members of the Lutheran Church. The following children were born to them: Christian F.; Louis C., born in 1854, who is in the harness business at Bucyrus, and who married Caroline Kircus; Elizabeth, born in 1857, who is the wife of Frank P. Donnenthir of Bucyrus and has two children Louis and Gertrude; Helen and Matilda, both of whom died in infancy; Emanuel, born in 1866, who is proprietor of the harness store which his father founded in 1849, and who married Theresa (another source listed her name as Melinda) Vollworth; and George M."

By reviewing the names of the children of Joanna and John, their children were named after her parents (Christian Frederick and Helena Sophia) and her/his brother (Louis/Lewis) and her sisters (Elizabeth, and Matilda). Her brother John Kuhn named one of his son's Emanuel after Johanna and John's son Emanuel.

John's father, John G. Birk, Sr., left Germany because he had freely voiced his opinion on religious and political issues and would be sentenced to a jail term. He deeded over his property to his daughter and brought his minor children and wife to America. The German government confiscated the property from his daughter.

Notes for George Mathias Kuhn:

The following article was written in History of Crawford County and Representative Citizens (pg. 779) while George was still living.

"George M. Kuhn, one of Whetstone township's most respected citizens, resides on his valuable farm of 90 Acres and has spent his entire life, with the exception of four and one-half years, in Whetstone township, Crawford Co., OH. He was born at Bucyrus, OH, Oct. 31, 1844, and is the son of Christian and Sophia (Stoll) Kuhn.

The parents of George M. Kuhn were natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and after marriage they came to the United States. by trade the father was a tailor and for two years worked as such in New York and then came to Bucyrus and continued for a time in the tailoring and clothing business and then engaged in farming. He was a member of the Lutheran Church. His family consisted of the following children: Hannah, wife of John Birk; Lewis; Fred; George M.; John; and Matilda, wife of Abraham Shearer.

George M. Kuhn attended the district schools when he was young and afterward assisted his father on the farm until he was 24 years of age, at which time he married and later purchased the homestead of 80 acres, to which he added ten more. He carried on general farming and raises stock and poultry for home use. He is a Democrat in politics and has served as school director and road supervisor and has been twice chosen to administer on estates.

On Sept. 19, 1868, Mr. Kuhn was married to Miss Mary Keifer, who was born in Germany and died June 26, 1912, aged one day less than 61 years. She was a daughter of Adam and Elizabeth (Shock) Keifer, the former of whom was a blacksmith and farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Keifer the following children were born: Elizabeth, who married Lewis Kuhn; Margaret, who married Fred Muntz; Catherine, who is the wife of Jacob Carg; Louisa, who married Henry Lowmiller; Jacob; Lydia, who is the wife of Oswald Fritch; John, and Mary, who was the wife of George M. Kuhn.

Notes for Abraham B. Sherer:

The following is the newspaper's account of the death of Abraham Sherer, verbatim:

"SUICIDE

Prominent Farmer Ends His Life by Cutting His Throat

Found dead in a hay mow.-Said to have worried about financial matters and family affairs.

A. B. Sherer, a well known farmer of Sandusky Township, resorted to self destruction in his own barn last Monday morning, by cutting his throat. Mr. Sherer had eaten his breakfast with his family as usual and left the house soon after. The family thought nothing of it as they supposed he went to the neighbors or to the police. When he did not appear at noon the family became anxious as to his whereabouts and began a search. At about dark one of the children was horrified by seeing his father in the hay mow with a gash in his throat. He had evidently gone there immediately after breakfast and committed the rash act. The gash was not long, but deep and a good aim was taken at the jugular vein.

Corner Bland was summoned and held an inquest. From the evidence he rendered a verdict of suicide and post-mortem revealed that he cut the right jugular vein.

His wife died about a year ago and lately it appeared to have affected his mind, in connection with some financial and family troubles. The deceased was about 55 years old and leaves ten children, four sons and six daughters. Four of the daughters are married.

Mr. Sherer was widely known throughout the county and the bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their sad affliction. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock followed by internment in the Loss Creek Cemetery A. B. Sherer was born June 25, 1845 and died April 1, 1901, age 56 years, 9 months and 6 days. He was married to Matilda Kuhn in 1866. To this union was born ten children, four sons and six daughters all of whom are living. He leaves to mourn his departure, ten children, four grandchildren, one brother, one sister, many other relatives and a large circle of friends. His wife preceded him to the other world about ten months ago and he could not, it seems, become reconciled to that sad affliction and great loss. His sorrow seemed to increased, and became more burdensome, and on April 1, 1901, he went to an unused place in his barn and took his life. In his boyhood days, at the age of seventeen, he was confirmed in the Lutheran Church and was connected with that church all his life. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, April 3, 1901 and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. B. Weaver. Internment was made in the Sandusky Cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their sore bereavement and sad affliction."

Russell (probably Russell Sherer, grandson of the deceased) told Mr. Starkey Abraham's suicide was caused by Abraham's daughter Bertha marrying a no good man and that she was by far Abraham's favorite. She married this same gentleman the very next day and was divorced from him very soon after. She lived as a single woman the rest of her life and never returned to Crawford County. She died in the State of Washington.

11. Christian Frederick⁴ Birk (Johanna Barbara³ Kuhn, Christian Frederick², Johann Ludwig¹) was born Apr 29, 1852, and died 1935. He married (1) Bertha Susan Volk Jun 10, 1873, daughter of William Volk and Magdalena. She was born Mar 03, 1851 in Bucyrus, OH, and died Aug 10, 1898 in Bucyrus, OH. He married (2) Anna Susanna Volk Oct 09, 1904 in Crawford Co., OH, daughter of William Volk and Magdalena. She was born Oct 02, 1855 in Bucyrus, OH, and died May 22, 1924 in Bucyrus, OH.

Notes for Christian Frederick Birk:

Per Centennial Biographical History, they carried a large and well selected stock of goods and their business methods are such that those who once became their customers remained as regular patrons. Christian was also connected with the Board of Trade. At age 23 he was elected to city council from 1894-98; city marshal 1884-1890; then county sheriff 4 years; then in 1898, elected mayor.

CHRISTIAN F. BIRK, of the well known drug firm of Birk Bros., operating at Bucyrus, and made up of George M. and Christian Birk, was born at Bucyrus, April 29, 1852, is a son of John G. and Joanna (Kuhn)Birk. The Birk family is of German extraction of the grandfather, John G. Birk, Sr., was born in Wurtemberg, in the village of Kriheim, where the old family residence still stands. He was one of the patriots of 1848 who, on account of his courage in advocating freedom of speech and action, when threatened with persecution and in order to avoid it, in 1849, followed other members of his family to America, deeding his estate in his native land to a daughter, but later it was confiscated by the government. Mr. Birk and wife found a safe and pleasant home in Liberty township, Crawford county, he following agricultural pursuits until his death in 1876. He became an American citizen and identified himself with the Democratic party, but never severed his connection with the German Lutheran Church. In his own neighborhood he had married a Miss Schmidt, who died in 1862. They had the following children: Louis, who died at Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1865; J. Christian, who died unmarried in the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O., at the age of sixty-two years, having served in the Civil war from 1861 until 1865; John G.; Salome, who married William Carle, a farmer in Holmes township; Wilhelmina, who married Jacob Bower, and lived and died in Liberty township; and Rosanna, who married Jacob Donnenwirth, and lived and died at Bucyrus.

John G. Birk, Jr., was born in Germany, July 22, 1823, and came to the United States in 1847, locating first at Albany, N. Y., but in 1849 reached Bucyrus and here established himself in the harness making business and continued in this line until the close of his life, his death occurring October 10, 1888. He was active in the Democratic party and served four years as county treasurer of Crawford County. On April 24, 1851, he married Joanna Kuhn, who was born also in Germany, June 6, 1831. Her parents came to America in 1832 and during the long voyage (3 months because of weather conditions) she learned to walk, although it may well be supposed that the ship's floor was unsteady for little feet. Her people (Christian and Sophia Helena Stoll Kuhn) remained in New York until 1837 and then came to Bucyrus, where she died October 9, 1893. Both she and husband were members of the Lutheran Church. The following children were born to them: Christian F.; Louis C., born in 1854, who is in the harness business at Bucyrus, and who married Caroline Kircus; Elizabeth, born in 1857, who is the wife of Frank P. Donnenwirth of Bucyrus and has two children Louis and Gertrude; Helen and Matilda, both of whom died in infancy; Emanuel, born in 1866 who is proprietor of the harness store which his father founded in 1849, and who married Theresa Vollworth; and George M., who is associated with his brother, Christian F. Birk, in the drug business at Bucyrus. Christian F. Birk attended school at Bucyrus and then learned the harness making trade with his father and for eighteen years worked in the shop. In 1892, associated with his brother, George M. Birk, a licensed pharmacist, he became part proprietor of the present drug business, this being the third oldest drug store in the city. Mr. Birk has not only been a successful business man but he has been a useful, reliable and active citizen. In 1877 he was elected a member of the city council for a period of four years; in 1884 was elected city marshal, serving until 1890, when he was elected sheriff of Crawford county and served in that capacity for four years and nine months. In 1898 he was elected mayor of Bucyrus and served as such for two terms. In many ways his fellow citizens at times, endeavored to show their appreciation of his public-spirited and faithful efforts and on one occasion presented him with a handsome ring, properly engraved. On numerous occasions he has been sent as a delegate to Democratic conventions when matters of vital party interest have been under consideration.

Mr. Birk was united in marriage with Miss Bertha S. Volk, who was born at Bucyrus, March 3, 1851, and died August 10, 1898. They had three children born to them: John W., who is a graduate of the School of Pharmacy, at Columbus, OH, and of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, at Chicago, of which he is a member of the faculty, who served as first lieutenant in Co. A, in what was known as McKinley's Own, in the Spanish-American War, and who married Margaret Curtis and has one daughter, Helen; Caroline Elizabeth, who is the wife of Glenn W. Kerr, who is private secretary to the president of the Good Roads Machinery Company, at Kennett Square, Pa., and has two children - Virginia and Caroline; and Edna T., who is the wife of O. W. Kennedy.

Mr. Birk is a member of the German Lutheran Church. He is identified with the Elks and the Knights of Pythias.

He married Florence Eckhart Jan 14, 1897, daughter of William Eckert and Julia Martin. She was born May 29, 1873 in Marion, OH, and died Jan 09, 1942.

Notes for George M. Birk:

One source listed his middle initial as R. In "History of Crawford County and Representative Citizens" pp. 636-7, George is listed as having a Ph.D. It appears his "Ph.D." is not representative of what is required today to be awarded the degree. He never had any collegiate training, studied by reading and passed a strict examination in Nebraska to be certified as a pharmacist.

Article written about 1913 and published in History of Crawford County and Representative Citizens, pp. 636-7.

GEORGE M. BIRK, Ph.D., of the drug firm of Birk Bros., at Bucyrus, O., located at No. 4 Opera House block, was born at Bucyrus, February 25, 1869, and is a son of John G. and Joanna (Kuhn) Birk, and a grandson of John G. Birk, who came from Germany to Ohio in 1849, one of that notable band of patriots which included such men as Mr. Birk and the late Gen. Carl Schurz, both of whom became honored citizens of their adopted country.

George M. Birk attended school at Bucyrus through his boyhood but, unlike several of his brothers, did not incline to learn the father's trade of harness making. He seemed to have natural talent in the direction of chemistry and by himself followed a course of reading along that line although he never had any Collegiate training. In 1885 he went to Nebraska and there passed the strict examination demanded by the State Board of Pharmacy, and in 1889, two years before he had reached his majority, he was licensed to practice. In 1892 he returned to Bucyrus and in the same year associated himself with his older brother, Hon. Christian F. Birk, in the drug business and for twenty years he has been at the head of his present store. This is the third oldest drug store in this city, having been started in 1878 by A. C. Lewis, who operated it until 1892 when the present firm took possession. They not only carry a complete line of pure drugs and honest proprietary remedies, but all the sundries to be found in a first class establishment of its kind and additionally have a side line in wall paper.

George M. Birk married Miss Florence Mae Eckhart, who was born at Marion, OH, a daughter of William H. and Julia C. (Martin) Eckhart, the former of whom was born in Pennsylvania and the latter in Ohio, both of German parents. Mr. Eckhart died in Marion County, O., at the age of fifty years, while his widow makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Birk, who was an only child. Mr. and Mrs. Birk have one daughter, Kathryn Eckhart, who was born May 12, 1898. Mr. and Mrs. Birk are members of the Presbyterian church. Fraternally he is identified with the Masons, the Elks, the Knights of Pythias and the Woodmen of the World. Politically he is a Democrat.

According to Devon Kuhn (grandson of Emanuel), prior to the death of his death, Emanuel told Devon that he had a dream that he was trapped underground by a big rock and couldn't get the rock off. He realized the dream was an indication that he was not ready to met his Maker. Emanuel summoned Rev. S. W. Longenecker of the Church of the Brethren and together Emanuel made peace with God. Emanuel died peacefully. Rev. Longenecker was, thusly, invited to share in the funeral services with Emanuel's long-time pastor (Rev. Donald Dow).

Notes for George Wyman:

George's ancestors parents were Joseph and Margaret Hahn Wyman; his grandparents were Daniel and Susanna Baeo Wyman.

Obituary as recorded by Estella Wyman Nuland, daughter of the deceased.

"George Wyman, 89, after an illness of 5 weeks, died Sunday Feb. 16 at noon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Estella) Nuland, 806 Beech St., where he had resided for the past 7 months. He was born on a farm near Bourbon, Indiana, on December 12, 1879, the son of Joseph and Margaret (Hahn) Wyman. He moved with his family to Valparaiso from Nappanee, IN, in 1914 and became widely known in surrounding rural areas as an auctioneer and dealer in electric light plants. He later became an electrical contractor, retiring at age 81. Mr. Wyman helped establish the Trinity Lutheran Church in Valparaiso, was the first president of the congregation, and was on the building committee of the church. For many years he was Supt. of Sunday School, a vestryman, and member of the choir. He was preceded in death by his wife, the former Hettie Kuhn, in 1959; two daughters Helen in infancy, and Mrs. Mildred Briscoe in 1958; three grandchildren and five sisters. Survivors other than Mrs. Nuland are two daughters, Mrs. Herbert (Edith) Leasure of Lynbrook, New York, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan of Valparaiso, 9 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Services will be held at 10:30 A.M. at Trinity Lutheran Church with burial in Graceland Cemetery. Visitors may call at the Wetmore Funeral Home on Tuesday the 18th from 4-9."

The following was taken from the March 1964 "Trinity Trumpet," a monthly newsletter of the Trinity Lutheran Church, 201 Washington Street, Valparaiso, Indiana, written by the Rev. Frank Stevenson (before the death of George in 1969):

"GEORGE WYMAN was selected for our first column for these good reasons: He is a Charter Member of the congregation; he was the first lay president of the new congregation; and, he was the first superintendent of the Sunday School.

George was born in Bourbon, Indiana, a village along U.S. #30, near Plymouth, on December 12, 1879. He lived there until the family moved to a farm near Nappanee when he was ten years old.

In 1899 he married HETTIE KUHN, whom he first met while attending the West Millwood school.

The Wymans had four daughters: Mrs. Mildred Briscoe, who died in 1958; Mrs. Herbert Lesure, Lynbrook, N.Y.;

Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan, Valparaiso; and Mrs. Joe Nuland, Valparaiso. (Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Nuland are Charter Members of the congregation, also.) Mr. Wyman, ever known for his aggressiveness, has earned his livelihood in a variety of endeavors, showing a marked preference for self-employment. He tried farming first, managing as many as four farms with little or no hired help. Rebounding from this ambitious program, he sold his farm and moved to Nappanee, to try working in a factory. (It was in Nappanee that he knew Mrs. Stevenson's father, the Rev. S. D. Myers, who was pastor of the Lutheran congregation.) This brief employment was followed by a series of endeavors which included operation of a transfer line, a restaurant (that made him feel "penned in") and a harness and buggy sales and service company.

It was an urge to be an auctioneer that brought George to Valparaiso, here he worked for the Maxwell Implement Co. as a salesmen, but because there was little business in the farm implements during the winter months, he began selling electrical fixtures and appliances throughout five adjoining counties as distributor for the Westinghouse Electric Co. He was "on the road" for six years. When the rural electrification program began, Mr. Wyman became an electrical contractor, managing four crews throughout the now familiar territory." Later, when a 'building boom began in 'and around Valparaiso, he sub-contracted the wiring of homes being erected by lumber yards and other contractors: In recent years he contracted the wiring for the "Place Homes." It was during this period that he taught the trade to Ben Brajcke, who has continued in this work since Mr:Wyman's retirement October 31, 1962.

Mr. Wyman entered into church work with the same zeal as shown in his many employments. He was a member of the Vestry, the Building Committee, the Chancel Choir and the Lutheran Brotherhood. Together with Mrs. Wyman, he visited many church members and new people in the community. His recollection of all the time and energy so invested is framed in these words: "The pleasure was all mine." Now in his 85th year, he expresses only two regrets: one, that he is unable to continue active in church work; two, that, due to failing eyesight, he cannot read his Bible.

Mrs. Wyman, whom he describes as a "wonderful partner," was also active in the work of the church. She belonged to the Trinity Women's Guild, the Wittenberg University Guild, and was a tireless visitor of the sick and shut-in members. She died on June 24, 1959. Since that time, Mr. Wyman has lived alone in the house they bought in 1917, at 204 Monroe St. In retirement, he "just tends a tomato patch."

George Wyman is a man with a marvelous sense of humor, with an unquestioned integrity in his work, and with a marked fairness towards others. He is a man filled with love: love for God and the Church, manifested by the time and energy spent in Christian service; love for his family, which now includes seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and love for his neighbors. (He is remembered by former neighborhood children, now grown to manhood and womanhood, as the "man who filled wagons with candy.")

Our sincere thanks go to Mr. Wyman for these his many contributions to church and community. His faith, love and service are an inspiration to us all."

Obituary (torn) for Mrs. Frank Hahn:

Last Thursday afternoon Rev. _____ conducted the funeral rites.....attended by a large number of relatives and friends and were indeed very appropriate. The record of the life of Mrs. Hahn was contained in the obituary, which was as follows:

Ida May came to bring sunshine into the home of John and Elizabeth Kuhn on 3/27/1882, in a farm home,near Bucyrus, Ohio.

When but 3 years old, she came with her parents to Scott township, in Kosciusko County, Indiana, where she has resided ever since on the old home place.

She found her life companion in the person of Frank Hahn and they were married October 25th, 1906. Into this home came three children: Mary, Loren and Dale. This has been a happy home of devotion and love, all too soon to be broken as it now is. Mrs. Hahn was a devoted wife and mother, willing to spend herself for the welfare of her family. In November of 1929 she contracted a cold that resulted in her fatal disease and took her from the home at the age of 51 years, 9 months, and 5 days. Everything was done that could be done to spare her. She spent 8 months in Colorado seeking health but it was not to be found there for her. After four years of illness, the Heavenly Father relieved her. She often expressed a desire to go to that celestial city to be with her mother. She began her preparation for eternal life when but a child about 13 years of age by being confirmed in the Lutheran Church at Union. In 1920 she and her husband joined the Foster Chapel M. E. Church where she remained a member until released to the Heavenly throng and the church triumphant.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a most devoted husband and three children - Mrs. Mary Klasing, of Indianapolis and Loren and Dale; two brothers, Adam Kuhn, of Bremen, and Emanuel Kuhn, of near Nappanee; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Hepler, of Nappanee, and Mrs. Hettie Wyman, of Valparaiso. Two brothers and one sister preceded her in death.

We speak of the realms of the blest, that country so bright and so fair; and oft are it glories confessed - But what must it be to be there! Do thou, Lord, 'midst pleasure and woe, For heaven our spirits prepare; then soon shall we joyfully know and feel what it is to be there.

Prof., Prof. and Administrator in the Dept. of Food Science at Penn State Univ. from 1967-1994. He is a Prof. Emeritus. He served in the US Army near the end of the Korean Conflict, served in VA, CA, and Korea, attaining the rank of 1st Lt. Known as Gerry.

Gerald's granddaughter, Jessica Elaine Kuhn, wrote this English theme in Nov. 2000 about her grandfather: "The most unusual person I know would be my grandpa, Gerald Kuhn. He is 69 years old. He used to be a head professor at Penn State in food science for 29 years. He has very little hair and he is about 6 feet 2 inches. He is funny, but sensitive. He doesn't talk about old stuff to me, but about school and sports. He doesn't have to have everything perfect like some grandpas. That's one way which makes him unusual. He owns a pontoon and he lets my brothers and me drive it. One time my older brother was driving it and he went to dock it, but on the way in, he hit the poles. He didn't get mad or anything. He just told him to try again. When you don't do something right and you hurt or scratch something that doesn't belong to you, they normally get mad. But he didn't. Another time was when we were on the water, he was going really fast and hitting the waves so he could get us wet. That's unusual because most grandpas would be slow and wouldn't want to hit the waves. But that's why my grandpa is the most unusual person I know."

Notes for Maxine Barker:

Maxine has an AA Degree in Humanities. Being interested in genealogy, she developed annual family calendars for the Kuhn and Barker descendants. Gerald and Maxine Kuhn are actively researching their roots.

Maxine's original first name was Thelma. Maxine legally dropped the name of Thelma in 1962. She is known as Maxine Barker Kuhn. Her first name of Thelma was given to her by her father in honor of a friend he and his wife Bessie had in common. Maxine was given to her by her oldest sister Mary who admired a school friend by the name of Maxine. Maxine was known as Thelma in school and by most of her relatives as her formal name. Maxine's father called her Fellow, Fella, and Mac. Mary called her Maxine. Many relatives referred to her as

Mac.

Maxine's father nicknamed her Fellow for he was disappointed that she was not a boy and he was going to consider her his little fellow (male son). Maxine played the part well and adored her father as she did her mother. When Maxine was 2, she twisted her hair in knots with one finger, while sucking her thumb on the other hand. Maxine's hair was extremely thick and keeping the hair tangle-free was a chore for her mother. Her mother made the comment that if Maxine didn't stop sucking her thumb and twisting her hair, she was going to cut Maxine's hair off like a boy's. Maxine's sister Libby (Elizabeth) greeted her mother at the door and exclaimed that she had saved her mother a job. When the mother said, "Honey, what did you do?", Libby explained, "I cut Belmer's (Thelma Maxine's) hair off like a boy's." When the father arrived home from work, he took Maxine to the barbershop and had her hair trimmed like a boy's in order to smooth out the haircut given to her by her sister Libby. This incident made the father even happier that Maxine looked even more like a boy. The father was blessed shortly there with a son Henry, Jr. and then in two more years, another beloved son Ralph.

166. Joan Alberta⁶ Kuhn (Elmer Lewis⁵, Emanuel Matthew⁴, John Jacob³, Christian Frederick², Johann Ludwig¹) was born Jul 15, 1932 in Bourbon, Marshall, IN. She married Norman Lee Fisher Jun 07, 1953 in Bourbon, IN, son of Raymond Fisher and Crystal Rodgers. He was born Aug 25, 1929 in Argos, Marshall, IN, and died Aug 12, 2005 in Bourbon, Marshall, IN.

Notes for Joan Alberta Kuhn:

Based on an interview with Joan Kuhn Fisher on 2/1/1999 with Maxine Kuhn.

Joan Alberta Kuhn Fisher, born 7/15/1933, Bourbon, Indiana, on the Lemler Farm. She was known as Joan in the family and some of her friends called her Jo in high school.

Health: suffered from tonsillitis and had her tonsils removed at a cost of $50 at the McDonald Hospital in Warsaw, IN, at about 8 years of age.

Playmates: Brothers and sisters, at home. Grade school: Barbara Rogers, Norma Shearer, Velma Young, Patsy Craig, Lois Hodge, Ruth Ellen Jackson, Shirley Hahn.

Visits with grandparents: Young Joan and siblings were to spend a week with Uncle Hillis and Aunt Emma Kuhn Knoblock's, but Joan became homesick and was taken to the home of her grandfather, Emanuel Kuhn, and she was very contented while staying the remainder of the week with him. She slept in the same bed with her grandfather and recalls he had a white potty under his bed, and candy in his top bureau drawer.

Schools: Attended Bourbon Township Schools. Favorite teacher was Glenn Disher in grade 5. Course of study was General with electives in Home Economics and Typing. She liked the home economics teacher Naomi Wacknitz, whose father was Joan's pastor. She, therefore, took all the home economics classes possible. She admired Nellie Griffin and decided on that subject as an elective. She was in marching band and was a clarinetist and a majorette. Joan twirled at basketball games and thoroughly enjoyed the activity. She played basketball in high school.

Jobs: Assisted brother Gerald Kuhn in the delivery of newspapers. He paid her 10 cents per day for delivery. They decided on 10 cents per day for Gerald made $1.10 and had to spend three hours on Saturdays in collecting money. At the age of 7 or 8 she worked in the family's onion patch by weeding and topping the onions. For assisting on the family farm, she recalls receiving 5 or 10 cents each Saturday. She brought candy or ice cream at Danner's 5&10 Store in Bourbon, Indiana. For 5 cents, she could get a bag of candy. She also worked on her Uncle Harvey Grosvenor's farm near Argos and got paid 10 cents an hour. At about the age of 16, she worked at the Bittings Restaurant and later the Bittings Grocery Store.

Church: Became a member of the United Brethren which later became Evangelical United Brethren in Bourbon, IN. There, she was active in Sunday School and Youth Groups. She thoroughly enjoyed the week's summer camp on Lake Wawasee at Syracuse, IN. She recalls her future husband going to the summer camp but was not dating him at the time. Later in life, she sang in the church choir as a soprano and in special groups.

Tasks at home: Clean house, clean own room, cooking, ironing, sewing and gardening. Joan learned to sew at the age of 8-10 years of age. She loved to iron and was paid 10 cents a shirt to iron her brother Devon's shirt when he was on leave from the Army. She recalls that was a lot of money back then.

Courtship and marriage: Her future husband, Norman Fisher, was a member of the church she attended in Bourbon, Indiana. It seems that she had always known Norman. Their parents had long been good friends. Norman worked in the same onion patch as she, but he had a couple of dates with her older sister Helen. Norman and Joan were in Christian Endeavor and asked Joan if he could take her home. Then, the two started dating about once a week. Norman worked nights so it was only possible to date on the weekends. The first present he ever gave Joan was a pair of gloves. He wrapped them up, took the present to her older brother Luther Kuhn at Luther's Sunoco Gas Station and asked Luther to deliver the gloves to Joan. Joan said it was no big deal for they were not seriously dating at the time. They dated two years before they became engaged. He gave Joan a ring for her high school graduation in 1951. Norman was leaving for military service. He'd told her he wasn't going to give her a ring, and she had a date planned for the next week. He'd told her that he didn't expect her to stay home and wait on him to return. She cancelled her date and waited for Norman to return.

While Norman was in the military, she worked at Jet White's Grocery Store in Warsaw, IN. At Jet's she was checking out groceries and made twice the salary she could obtain in Bourbon, IN. She worked from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday-Saturday, with Thursday afternoon's off. She stayed at Jet's until the arrival of twins Lin and Lee Fisher in January, 1959.

Joan and her sister Eleanor had planned Joan's and Norman's wedding while Norman was stationed in England. Eleanor made all bride's and attendants' dresses. When Norman returned from his tour of duty in April of 1953. They were married June 7, 1953. Norman had considered reenlisting in the military and when he asked Joan her opinion on the idea, she told Norman that if he reenlisted, they were through. Joan wanted no part of the military life but preferred to settle down in Indiana.

They moved into an apartment on Center Street in Bourbon, IN. Joan was a skilled cook upon entering marriage. Neither Joan nor Norman can remember their first spat. She said Norman did have a bit of a temper she didn't know he had. After about a year and half (1955), they moved to an apartment at 312 North Walnut Street, Etna

Green, IN, (now the residence of her nephew Garry Baker). Joan and Norman were sound financially. They lived on Norman's salary and saved Joan's. They saved enough to buy a lot at 503 Sunset Street in Bourbon, IN, and enough for a down payment on a home which was erected in 1956. In 1956, only the husband's salary was considered for mortgage approval. Although Joan was working, the bank would only approve their home loan based on Norman's salary. Norman's step-father, Dean Philips, signed a loan supplement for them so they could get bank approval for their loan. Joan and Norman lived on Sunset until they moved to 305 Arnold Street in Bourbon, IN, in 1984, and sold the home on Sunset in 1985. The home on Arnold Street had belonged to Norman's mother and stepfather, Dean and Crystal Rodgers Fisher Phillips.

Joys and Sorrows: Greatest sorrow: Was the death of her oldest sister Eleanor in 1954. Eleanor had a role model for the entire family. Eleanor liked Norman and both Joan and Norman thought of Eleanor as a "jewel of a person."

Greatest first joy: Joan had learned that she and Norman couldn't have children. They had applied to the local Welfare Services for adoption of a child. After confiding in a friend at work that they could not have children, the friend told her of a child she knew that would be born and would be placed for adoption. They were told which lawyer to see for the adoption, and made an appointment with the lawyer who arranged the adoption. Joan said that while trying to chose a name for the baby to be, her sister-in-law Jane Trowbridge Kuhn asked her what she would name the children if they were twins. Joan said, "Don't worry about that, we'll only have one. To their surprise, identical twin boys were born on January 29, 1959. Joan and Norman decided on the names for their sons at the local drug store when they had to fill out a card and list the names of their newborns. They were born on a Friday, and Joan and Norman picked up the brothers on Sunday from the lawyer outside the hospital. Joan and Norman recalled how much their lifestyles changed upon arrival of their sons Lee and Lin Fisher. They had been accustomed to going out somewhere almost nightly and suddenly, they were home bound. Joan's sister Sharon, girls at the First State Bank, and Dorothy Stull came by daily to help feed the babies. The next biggest joy was when they adopted their daughter Sheila in 1967.

When the family decided they would adopt a daughter, Lee was not excited about adopting a daughter, he'd rather have a boy, and preferably no baby whatsoever. He told the Social Worker that Joan and Norman fought a lot for he did not want them to get a child. The Social Worker saw through what Lee was feeling and his parents were approved for adoption. Sheila was 6 weeks of age when she joined the family and weighed 6#6oz. at that age - which was the birth weight of Lee and Lin.

Mother-in-law and Father-in-law: Joan liked her in-laws and they got along extremely well. Joan and Norman vacationed with their in-laws in Portland, OR, in 1962 when the boys were small. They attended the 1962 World's Fair and Rose Parade in Portland, OR. The Navy brought ships up town on the Columbia River. They went to the top of the "Needle" at the World's Fair. They went through the Tetons where the twins played in the snow.

In November, 1963, Joan and Norman took the twins to Gainesville, FL, to visit Joan's brother Gerald and his wife Maxine Kuhn. Just prior to leaving their home in Bourbon, IN, for the trip, they learned that President Kennedy had been shot. No one was on the road on their trip to Gainesville. Everyone was in watching the breaking news on televisions. Upon arriving at Gerald's, Gerald told them to hurry inside to see the news for Kennedy's assassin Lee Harvey Oswald had just been shot by a Jack Ruby. Joan and Norman decided that for the sake of their country, they probably should not return to Florida, for it was on their next trip in Florida that they learned President Ronald Regan had been shot by John Hinckley.

Joan and Norman took the twins on a trip to Niagara Falls in 1968. Sheila's adoption was not finalized so Joan's sister Sharon took care of Sheila in her Bourbon, IN, home. They later took a trip with Sheila to Niagara Falls. Lee and Lin loved to travel but Sheila wasn't particularly fond of traveling. Other trips included frequent trips to Pennsylvania where Joan's brother Gerald lived, Kentucky where Joan's sister Sharon resided, and then to Texas to visit a niece Jean Ann Gottschalk (Nelinson). After the children were grown, Joan and Norman took two trips to Hawaii and a trip to Alaska.

Favorite song: Hawaiian Wedding Song.

Clubs: Home Ec Club (President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary); Morning Circle, Choir.

Home Hobbies: Needle Crafts, Sewing, Decorating, Cooking, Grandchildren and poodle Tara.

Impression of Ancestors: Cannot remember her grandmother Salome Hepler Kuhn, or her grandfather Albert Grosvenor. She loved her Grandfather Emanuel Kuhn and recalls he gave her chocolate covered peanuts. She was told her grandmother Salome Kuhn made large sugar cookies for her grandchildren but cannot recall that fact for she was only about 18 months of age when Salome died. Salome's sugar cookie recipe was passed on to Joan's mother Hester Grosvenor Kuhn. Memories of her Grandmother Lulu Reed Grosvenor were not happy ones to recall. Lulu was an invalid who had to spend a set amount of time in each of her children's home. Lulu was not a loving and fun grandmother, but one who was stern and expected the children to live a very disciplined life. Joan particularly remembers her grandmother's wanting the children to wash their hands frequently. She would look at the children over her glasses sometimes in a scolding manner. Joan and her siblings do not remember Lulu before Lulu broke her hip and became an unhappy invalid. They only remember how their mother had to care for her in their home.

Advice to descendants: Be happy and do the best they can in life.

Notes for Norman Lee Fisher:

Based on an interview with Norman Fisher on 1/31/1999 with Maxine Kuhn.

Norman Lee Fisher, born 8/25/1929, born in the Kelly Hospital in Argos, IN, during the national depression as the second child of Raymond and Crystal Rodgers Fisher. My parents at the time were living on a farm in Fulton Co., between Argos and Rochester. I was referred to as Norman by my parents, but Norm by many close friends.

I endured about all the childhood diseases that came along.

The financial condition of my parents was poor, as a result my father left the home before I was five months old. During the depression my father had lost in job in South Bend, my brother had died at the age of four from diphtheria, and he could no longer take the stress of not being able to support his family.

My mother and I lived with my grandparents. Our financial condition was poor. My mother kept house for some people west of Richland Center for $4 a week. At about the age of six, she took a job with Philemon Phillips as his housekeeper. There she met his son Dean Phillips. Dean's father died when I was about 14 years of age, and then Dean and Crystal were married. I considered Dean more like a brother, and then after Dean's marriage to my mother, I felt of him more like a father. Dean was extremely caring and good to me and my family.

I attended grades 1 and 2 at Tippecanoe. I actually skipped the third grade at Richland Center and was promoted to grade 4. From grade 5-12 I attended the Argos School, where I graduated in 1947. During grade 12, I was elected to go to the Indiana Legislative Assembly in Boys' State, held at the Indiana School of the Deaf in Indianapolis. It was there I did my first public singing as part of an Octet at the Butler Field House, which was filled to capacity. I don't recall being nervous and the song was entitled "Tell Me Why." The group was formed by our discussing singing, then practicing together, deciding we sounded pretty good, and then going public with our singing. The conference was one week long. I stayed in touch with some of the singers for several years. One guy, named Jerry, was from Argos and wrote in a "work of art." His long-hand was a cross between printing and cursive.

My course of study was General: typing, speed reading, etc. Although I did not take shorthand, the girls in that class could take dictation up to 200 wpm. The shorthand teacher, Bernice Mitten, was my typing teacher. She never married and was an excellent teacher.

I played basketball in high school, a little baseball, softball, but I excelled in track. We had no official baseball team but played exhibition ball.

My church attendance was first at the Methodist Church at the Richland Center and then later at the United Brethren, then known as the Evangelical United Brethren (EUB), which then merged with the Methodist Church and renamed United Methodist Church. I was a soloist at the church and at weddings. I never sang at funerals until my wife's grandfather, Emanuel Kuhn, died in 1955.

I had known Joan Kuhn, daughter of Elmer and Hester Grosvenor Kuhn, for years. We became more acquainted at Christian Endeavor. I had two dates with her sister Helen before I dated Joan. I gave her an engagement ring as I was leaving for a two-year tour of Army service. While Joan and I talked about getting married, I never officially recall proposing. I got the diamond ring out of my car's glove compartment and asked her to try on the ring. The ring fit perfectly.

I entered service May 10, 1951, as a Private E-2, at a salary of $79.80 each month. I was assigned to Co. K, 5th Army, as a machine gunner. Tours of duty took me to Ft. Riley, Kansas, for basic and extended basic training in special weapons and ranger training. From there I went to Mildenhall, England, where I stayed for the remainder of my service career. I had been trained in heavy weapons in Ft. Riley, and in England, assigned to Anti-Aircraft Artillery to protect the Air Force Base as soldiers in the Army. Shortly, my duty was Battery Clerk where I made out the reports where everyone was everyday: who was sick, guard duty, who was on leave, etc. I was a track runner for the US Army and won several medals. I was then asked to join the RAF track team and again won medals which were awarded by then Princess Elizabeth. One medal was the coronation medal for it was the year she became Queen of England.

We married on June 7th after my returning home on April 23, 1953. We went to the Smoky Mountains and then into NC where we visited one of my old Army buddies. As we drove into his driveway, Joe Clary, was sitting on his back porch. He was in the JAG office in Mildenhall, England.

After looking in Plymouth and in various other surrounding towns, we settled for an apartment in the 200 block of East Center Street in Bourbon. Joan's family lived in the 400 block.

Joan was a good cook upon our entering marriage and got better with each passing year. After we married, Joan bought the pie crusts, filled the crusts with chocolate pudding and put whipped cream on top, for our family gatherings. They were excellent pies. She gradually branched out and took other foods to these gatherings.

I thoroughly enjoyed my in-laws and never had any problems in our relationship. My in-laws had approved of our marriage and were friends of my mother and step-father.

I worked on various farms while growing up. From 1948-1953 (with time out for military service) I worked at McCords in Plymouth, IN, as a Chandler, making radiators for Studebaker trucks. From there I went to the Inwood Elevator where I worked as head mill man. I stayed there until late 1959. I became a feed salesman for Mercury Products, representing Marshall, St. Joseph, Kosciusko Counties. I learned I was not a salesman. Fortunately, on December 10, 1960, I was hired by R. R. Donnelly's in Warsaw, IN, as a pressroom production clerk. Eight months I was made foreman in the shipping department. Later we branched out and I became in charge of the Materials Department which had encompassed several departments: we handled all the roll stock (paper) used by the pressmen, ink department, shipping, receiving, by-products and J stock (packaging materials, i.e., pallets, shipping papers, strapping, and everything used in packing the customer's finished products). I enjoyed working at Donnelly's. The pay was good, the hours were long, and fellowship was heart-warming. There was a Presidential change in the company and the last two years of my employment was not as enjoyable as the former years. It was during this period that there was considerable down-sizing of personnel. I retired August 29, 1990.

My hobbies are bowling, gardening, flowers, Christmas decorating, and baking. My highest bowling average was 195, and received many bowling trophies. I won numerous ribbons in flower shows: Best of the Show, People's Choice Award, etc. People come to tour our flower gardens and to view, according to many, the "best Christmas lighting" in Bourbon, IN.

My grandmother Minerva Rodgers was an excellent cook. My grandfather Rodgers took me to Barnum Bailey Circus in Rochester, IN, for their first seasonal show. I got to see Clyde Beatty who was one of the world's renown animal trainers in those days.

I saw Admiral Richard E. Byrd's arctic snowmobile which passed through Rochester, headed north on old US 31. His destination was the North Pole. Upon arrival at the North Pole, the huge snowmobile fell into a large crevice which ended the snowmobile's potential usefulness in Byrd's exploration efforts of the North Pole. Each tire was larger than any automobile tire we had ever seen.

Viewing of the Northern Lights was frequent during my youth. The air evidently was purer back then, nor the night lights that we have today. Our night lights back then were lanterns. We had our first electricity about 1939 or 40 when we generated our own electricity. We had loads of rows of batteries down in the basement. We had a gasoline engine that ran, made energy, and stored the energy in the batteries.

Our first phone was a wall phone. You removed the receiver the talked to the microphone on the wall unit. Mr. Phillips (my step-father's father) would talk on the phone with toothpicks in his mouth. The repairman occasionally had to remove those toothpicks from the microphone.

My advice to my descendants is to work hard and be honest. If you do those things, you will have happiness.
