Generation No. 1

1. Nicholas<sup>1</sup> Davis He married Catherine Whiting, daughter of Henry Whiting and Ann Beverly.

Child of Nicholas Davis and Catherine Whiting is:

- + 2            i. Benjamin<sup>2</sup> Davis, born 1731 in Wales; died 1802 in Rowan Co., NC.

Generation No. 2

2. Benjamin<sup>2</sup> Davis (Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) was born 1731 in Wales, and died 1802 in Rowan Co., NC. He married Rebecca Harrell. She was born 1743.

Notes for Benjamin Davis:

Some time prior to 1749 he came to Amercia, where he settled in Virginia, south of the James River. He served in the Rev. War as a Lt. After the war he moved to Cleveland Co., NC, and settled above the Broad River with his wife Rebecca Harrell.

It is speculation that Benjamin was the father of Philip and Simon. But it is almost a certainty that he is considering the same surnames and place names keep coming up, etc. Others feel that that the lineage went from Nicolas to Philip, making Philip the son of Nicolas instead of Benjamin. In my research, I too have felt that Benjamin fits into this lineage at this point and am, thusly, placing him there.

Children of Benjamin Davis and Rebecca Harrell are:

- + 3            i. Philip<sup>3</sup> Davis, born 1762; died WFT Est. 1792-1853.
+ 4            ii. Simon Davis, born 1765 in Brunswick, VA; died Jun 04, 1856 in Cleveland, NC.

Generation No. 3

3. Philip<sup>3</sup> Davis (Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) was born 1762, and died WFT Est. 1792-1853. He married Mary Ann Clayton. She was born Abt. 1764.

Notes for Philip Davis:

The origins of Phillip Davis have been widely researched and debated for many years without much luck. Many theories have developed with little concrete evidence to back them up. In 1790, he was a resident of the 96th District of Union County, SC. By 1800, he, his wife Mary, and their family had moved to Rutherford Co., NC. Revolutionary War Records for Philip have not been discovered, but many believe him to be a younger brother of Simon Davis, Revolutionary patriot of Virginia. Simon is buried in Rutherford Co., NC.

Bessie Frances Davis Barker told her daughter Maxine Barker Kuhn that Simon Davis, who was the Rev. War patriot, was one of her great uncles.

Children of Philip Davis and Mary Clayton are:

- + 5            i. William Fernilson "Long Billy"<sup>4</sup> Davis, born Mar 19, 1788 in Newhouse, Rutherford, NC (Womacks had Union Co., SC); died Jul 16, 1876 in Cleveland Co., NC (One source had his death as 1846).
+ 6            ii. Philip Davis.
7            iii. Mary Davis, born 1800 in NC.

Notes for Mary Davis:

It is speculation that she is the daughter of this Philip and Mary Davis.

4. Simon<sup>3</sup> Davis (Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) was born 1765 in Brunswick, VA, and died Jun 04, 1856 in Cleveland, NC. He met Leucinda Unknown. She was born 1765, and died Apr 01, 1846 in Rutherford, NC.

Notes for Simon Davis:

Source: Sent by Rae Davis-Smith (All info on this Simon and his descendants was from Rae.)

Sometime prior to the outbreak of the Revolution and while Simon was still living at home with his parents, the family moved from Virginia to the Union District (96), South Carolina. Upon becoming of age, Simon was enrolled in the local militia as was required of all able bodied men. He belonged to Capt. Grant's company and the men were divided into three groups and were occasionally called upon in a rotating system for service as the situation required. In this capacity, he was called out several times for a brief few days "to keep Cunningham and his party from doing much mischief." His first three months of duty were in the year of 1779. Still in Capt. Grant and Major Jolly's Company. Davis was ordered to march to Charleston, through (Granby), Orangeburg, Four Holes, and Dorchester, to the 10-Mile House above Charleston. There they joined the main Army under General Greene and Colonel Washington. From this pint, the army moved to Stono, where "it was clost cutting with me to see my comrades falling on all sides." From the battle of Stono, they were sent on to Bacon's Bridge where they remained for a few days before returning home. When Davis' time came around again to serve, his Company was under the command of Capt. Cromer an they were attached to colonel Brandon's Regiment. They were marched and stationed at a fort on Fair Forest. On this 3-months tour, much of their time was out "sometimes after Ferguson to keep him from spreading too much through the country." Also, sometimes we were in close chase after Cunningham and his gang, who were really desperadoes. They spread death wherever they passed. They (Cunningham's Troops) had no respect of persons. We pursued them twice as far as the Savannah River and they would be back in the neighborhood nearly as soon as we would." His next three months of duty were in 1781 when they were ordered out by Capt. William Grant and Major Jolly and marched down Broad River to the mouth of Sandy River, where his company was joined by some other forces. From there they proceeded down the river "to Springs." About 25 miles from Eutaw Springs they joined the main Army of General Greene and proceeded private's viewpoint in the midst of the action. "There I saw more men slaughtered than I ever saw before or since. In the Wing (vicinity), I was in, the ground was almost covered with dead and dying." Fortunately, Davis escaped without injury, and after the battle, his company was placed in charge of prisoners and they were marched to Camden where the prisoners were turned over to the proper authorities. The troops were then released and returned home along with their officers who resided in the same neighborhood. Soon after their arrival back home, General Brandon made a request for Major Jolly and Capt. Grant to get volunteers who had been with them at Eutaw Springs for a one month tour of tour to "keep (Lee) and (Girth) from plundering lundering and killing the women and children." Simon Davis volunteered for this tour and was stationed at the Fort of Fair Forest. While stationed at Ft. Fair Forest, news was received of peace and they were sent home.

The Pension Act was passed in June 1832 and Simon Davis applied for his pension in April, 1835, before the Rutherford County Court. He added a statement to his application explaining the reason for his delay in filing for the pension, stating that in the spring of 1832 (prior to passage of the Pension Act) he had moved to the State of Tennessee. Later, he talked with an attorney who advised him of the requirements for proving his service, giving character references, etc., and since he had not been in Tennessee long enough to become well known by neighbors and friends, he had not applied for pension there. He had just recently moved back to Rutherford County (in 1835) where "I expect to continue as long as I live."

Simon married soon after the Revolution while still in the Union District, SC, and they moved into Rutherford County, NC, where he remained until 1832 when he moved to Tennessee. He apparently remained in Tennessee only about two years and probably returned to Rutherford Co. in the early spring of 1835. His wife's name was Leucinda but at this point her maiden name has not been found. In the 1790 census of Rutherford Co., we find Simon listed with the following in is household: one male over 16 (himself); two males under 16; and three females (his wife and two daughters). In the 1800 census his household lists: one male and two females under 10 years of age; one male and one female between 10 & 16 and one female between 26 and 45 (Simon and his wife). In 1810 Simon's household included beside his wife and himself, three males and two females under 10 years of age; three females 10-16 years; and one male 16-26. Allowing for errors in some of these census recordings, and comparing the various census years, it is concluded that Simon and Leucinda Davis were the parents of at least 10 children. There has been established proof of only six children.

At the time of his death of June 4, 1856, Simon was in his 97th year. Simon was a resident of Cleveland Co., NC. His wife Leucinda died in her 81st year. After the death of his wife in 1846, Simon apparently lived with his children at various times. In the 1850 census he is shown in the Rutherford County census with his son, George Davis, but records of the payment of the final pension due him indicate he died in Cleveland Co. where we assume he was living with another child.

William and his wife endured the deaths of three sons and a son-in-law and two seriously wounded sons during the Civil War. A daughter was imprisoned. Details unknown.

6. Philip<sup>4</sup> Davis (Philip<sup>3</sup>, Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) He married Nancy Unknown.

Notes for Philip Davis:

His birthdate is listed as about 1775, but that conflicts with the age of his mother.

Philip was a large land owner in Rutherford Co., NC. His will stated that he owned land on both sides of the state line (NC and SC) beginning at the mouth of Hays Huck (Creek) branch near the Broad River in NC. Also a tract of land on the west side of Suck (Huck?) Creek. His Will: Book F, Page 126, Rutherford Co., NC. This Philip Davis is in the 1790 index of Union Co., SC, later that County was in NC which probably supports the fact that he owned land on both sides of the North Carolina-South Carolina lines.

Another filming of his will is #19908 P. 57, 58, 59, which is much clearer and can be read well. Family History Library, SLC, UT.

Children Abner, Alfred and John were listed as "underage" in their father's will.

She was born Oct 20, 1832, and died May 21, 1900 in Swain Co., NC at home of her youngest son Thomas Jefferson Davis.

Notes for Thomas Allen Davis:

Please refer to the article "Dear Companion" by Shirley Gibby McHan Boykin, great granddaughter of Thomas. Shirley lives in Gatlinburg, TN (1999). He had dark hair and eyes and was 5' 10 3/4" tall.

He joined the CSA May 10, 1862.

Thomas was a private in the CSA 56th NC Regiment, Co. T.. He was a farmer in Cleveland Co., NC, before enlisting on May 10, 1862 at age 32, for the war. He was reported sick in the hospital at Goldsboro, NC, in September and October, 1862. He was sent home to recuperate. He returned to duty in January and February, 1863. Reported present and accounted for through June, 1864. Died in the hospital at Richmond, VA, Sept. 1, 1864 of "chronic diarrhea." 28. Simon Drury<sup>5</sup> (Drew, Drewry) Davis (William Fernilson "Long Billy"<sup>4</sup> Davis, Philip<sup>3</sup>, Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) was born Dec 27, 1833 in Newhouse, Ruthford, NC. He married (1) Susannah Hamrick Aug 10, 1853 in Cleveland Co., NC. He married (2) Sarah (Sally) Harrison Cogdell 1869, daughter of Thomas Cogdell and Rebecca Horne. She was born May 03, 1842 in Rutherford Co., NC, and died Aug 12, 1917 in Swain Co., NC.

Notes for Simon Drury (Drew, Drewry) Davis:

Jim McDonald wrote 11/27/1998: Simon Davis' property on the "head waters of Brushy Creek" was sold by him to his brother-in-law, Richard Philbeck, in 1885. He must have really wanted to get rid of it quickly because it only sold for $30.00. Simon used four initials S.D.W.K. Davis. Willis' granddaughter, Sarah Jane Davis Gunder, wrote on January 31, 1999: "I don't know how many acres on Brush Creek he sold, but I suspect that even if he only sold his land for $30.00, he may have made a good profit in the year of 1885. Here is why! There are some old deeds in the family that I have been able to study. One deed was to a person from the State of North Carolina. The State sold in 1883 50 acres for $6.25. that would be about 12 1/2 cents per acre. The State also sold some land to another person in 1874 amounting to 40 acres for $5.00 = 12 1/2 cents per acres. In 1989 somebody bought 44 acres for $100.00. That would be around $2.27 an acres. In 1888 - 100 acres for $50.00 = $2.00/acre, etc. When Sarah's husband's father worked in Brooks Town, he lodged for $2.25 per day. Sarah can remember buying five Hershey kisses for 1 cent. (Sarah was born in 1938.) Cost of living and land were less expensive in western NC than in some other areas of the United States.

Simon served in the 34th Regiment of the CSA as a 4th corporal. The Regiment was known as the Sandy Run Yellow Jackets. According to letters from Thomas Davis, brother of Simon, to his wife Maryann Margaret Davis, Thomas mentioned in a letter dated May 26, 1863 that he was sorry to learn that Simon had his leg blown off. Then in his June 19, 1863 letter, Thomas said that he had visited Simon in the hospital in Richmond. Simon was overjoyed to see him and was anxious to go home. Thomas talked Simon into staying at least another two weeks in the hospital. All legends and reports indicate that Simon was injured at Frasier's Farm outside Richmond, VA. There was a huge battle at Frasier's Farm on June 18, 1862 - if Simon had been wounded then, it would have been almost a year before Thomas learned and also would have meant Simon had been hospitalized over one year - which both situations are highly unlikely. Legend has that Simon served at Gettysburg and was injured when the Regiment retreated down into Va. and were at Frasier's Farm. However, the Battle of Gettysburg took place after Thomas had learned that his brother had lost a leg. The battle at Gettysburg was in July of 1863. Later clarification: Ref. Co. B, 34th Regiment NC Troops, page 267, Vol. IX: " Davis, Simon Drewry, Corporal, born in Cleveland County where he resided as a farmer prior to enlisting in Rutherford County at age 29, September 2, 1861. Mustered in as a Corporal. Wounded in the left leg at Chancellorsville, Virginia, May 2, 1863. Left leg amputated. Reported absent wounded through October, 1864." This official entry agrees with the date Thomas would have learned (May 26, 1863) that Simon had been injured.

By being a non-commissioned officer in the CSA, is an indication that he could read and write.

Simon kept a diary of his Civil War life. The diary went from Simon to his son Willis Hamby Davis, and then to Horace Alvin Davis. Horace Alvin loaned the diary to his sister Nellie Davis Hedden. It is believed the diary fell into the hands of her granddaughter, the former Patricia Sipes. If Patricia reads this, it is hoped that she will share this diary with descendants of Simon.

29. Abraham "Hamby" W.<sup>5</sup> Davis (William Fernilson "Long Billy"<sup>4</sup>, Philip<sup>3</sup>, Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Nicholas<sup>1</sup>) was born Jul 25, 1835 in Newhouse, Rutherford, NC, and died Sep 01, 1906 in NC. He married Arbella Bridges WFT Est. 1852-1884. She was born Abt. 1837, and died WFT Est. 1852-1935.

Notes for Abraham "Hamby" W. Davis:

Vol. IX, page 267, Co. B., 34th Regiment NC Troops: "Davis, Abraham H. Private. Born in Rutherford County and resided in Cleveland County where he was by occupation a farmer prior to enlisting in Rutherford County at age 26, September 2, 1861. Wounded in the arm at Gaines' Mill, Virginia, June 27, 1862. Returned to duty July 23, 1862. Present or accounted for until captured at the North Anna River, Virginia, on or about May 24, 1864. Confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, May 30, 1864. Paroled at Point Lookout on or about March 14, 1865 and transferred to Boulware's Wharf, James River, Virginia, where he was received on March 16, 1865, for exchange." Hamby's Regiment was known as the Sandy Run Yellow Jackets.

One family story that is often told concerns the disappearance of William and Sarah's youngest child Hamby. Their large two-story house caught on fire one night and everyone was frantically trying to get their possessions out of the house. The mattresses were rolled up and thrown out the upstairs window, later to be carried away from the house and out of danger of the fire. As the house burned, the parents began counting children and soon discovered that "baby Hamby" was missing. Everyone looked for Hamby, but they each began to think he had been lost in the fire. In a few minutes, they heard a baby crying. Hamby had been rolled up in one of the mattresses, thrown out a second story window without waking up. Cleveland County, NC, would have quite a few less Davises had Hamby really been lost in the fire.

Hamby and Arabella raised their children on a farm near Newhouse.

Willis Hamby Davis, son of Simon, was named for this Hamby.

Cornelia Barnett's Bible listed Abraham's name as Abram W. Davis, being born 7/25/1835. Cornelia died in 1910.

Notes for Robert Davis:

Although no record has been found, family legends state Robert was killed during the Civil War. It was thought he was wounded in battle, crawled off the battlefield, and bled to death. His sons, Lawson and George, were reared by their grandparents, George and Lucinda Womack Davis.

Rufus enlisted in the CSA, Co. 1, 56th Reg., NC Troops, on July 8, 1862, was missing on August 21, 1864, and was wounded near Petersburg and died near Philadelphia.

Notes for George Davis, Jr.:

George and Jane raised ten children and a number of grandchildren. As a lad in his early teens, George knew the agony of losing four older brothers, all killed or died of injuries or diseases, while they were serving in the Confederate States Army. George saw an old way of life disappear and society change all around him, but he developed a sense of values that would help him maintain his integrity and sense of responsibility. During the war, his father had accumulated a "sack full of Confederate money" which became worthless after the defeat of the Confederacy, but the family had based its existence on the practice of using skills that were valuable to the greater community. There was still the need for a wagon-maker (his father had one of the best equipped blacksmith shops in the county), a miller, a tanner, and a wheelright, all skills practiced by someone in the family.

And there was the land and farming. At the death of his father and mother, George received a large tract of land, all his father's tools and a grist mill. His heritage of hard work and fine craftsmanship was to enable the young George to provide well for his family. In short, George became the kind of citizen that has made America great, the honest, hard-working, law-abiding, stable, dependable, salt-of-the-earth farmer that politicians and the media might call "middle America."

Notes for Annie Emily P. Smiley:

Annie Emily, unlike her husband's quiet ways, was outgoing, talkative and had an opinion on about everything and was quick to express it. She loved music, played the organ, sang while being accompanied by all types of musical instruments, and she played the guitar and banjo. She entertained her grandchildren with her many musical talents. She was an excellent seamstress, an expert spinner and weaver. One of her greatest joys was visiting her neighbors for miles around. Notes for Willis Hamby Davis:

Willis was a man ahead of his times. In the 1950's, he would have been a beatnik; later, he would have been a hippie. He was well educated and spent his time writing poetry and songs. He had a wonderful bass voice and sang in groups and in his church. Willis was a devoted Christian, who preferred the Free Will Baptist Church as his church of membership. When with this children, he encouraged group singing. He was a master at throwing horse shoes, which was a very popular game for Sunday afternoons in western NC.

Willis felt that Christians should live with the bare necessities of life as to not show pride in holdings on this earth. The "good life" was to be your reward when you reached Heaven. He lived in a log cabin with a dirt floor. The poem below was written by Willis and reflects how he felt about his home and his mansion in the hereafter:

"The Little Log Cabin

I dwell in a little log cabin.
It sits on a little flat noll.
It suits me well as a mansion.
It's built out of white oak pole.

It's high inside than round it.
The floor it never gets wet.
It sure is a fine place in winter.
No cold comes up not a bit.

The floor space is 20 by 20.
It sits flat down on the ground.
The floor never gets dirty.
We keep the loose dirt packed down.

I claim to own 18 acres of very good mountain land.
Thought that's a mistake,
I just leased it
It belongs to the Lord I understand.

Some of these days, not many
Still it may be a few years.
I'll give up all my possessions, and
Go home where they shed no tears.

Then I hope to own a mansion.
Free of taxation and price.
And to be with friends and loved ones
And be with a Loving Christ."

Written by W. H. Davis (Date unknown)

Notes for Lawrence Edward Brooks:

Lawrence was known to have been a "hell raiser" in his younger years and had an illegitimate son, Clarence Brooks, by Amanda Calhoun in 1912. He joined the infantry (19th Infantry, Co. L) and fought Poncho Villa during the Mexican uprising before leaving the service in 1914 and returning to NC. There he met and wooed Elsie Davis, a young western NC school teacher. He finally convinced her to marry him in 1916.

This hardworking couple raised nine children during the depression years. They were farmers and money was scarce, but they were able to hold their own during the leanest of years. Elsie made all the clothing, cooked on a wood stove and heated the home by a fireplace. There was no electricity in the 200-year-old farm house until Gene was a junior in high school. There was no indoor plumbing and the wash was done over an open fire (clothing was placed in a water-filled open iron kettle and clothing boiled and then hand scrubbed) outside for many years. Children helped with chores, the planting and harvesting. Every member was expected to "pull their own weight." Lawrence and Elsie were pillars of the church and community, always willing to give a hand to those less fortunate. In later years, George Addison Brooks came to live with them and died in their home.

Lawrence was quite athletic and very competitive. he was known for his checker playing and took up golf at the age of 86 (and did quite well!), which he played until he was 100. He was also recognized for his quick wit and humor as much as Elsie as known for her quiet way. She, however, was often able to "one up" him at his frequent jibes and teasing. They were absolutely devoted to one another and Lawrence, at a speech given to his church on the occasion of their 70th anniversary, told the audience that he never went to sleep a night of their marriage without saying "I love you" to her...after 70 years, he stated, he almost believed it! He frequently threatened here that he was going to trade her in on two 40 year olds and he once said he wanted the following on his tombstone.."Here lies a 100 year old man shot dead by a jealous lover!" He died at nearly 102 at the Veteran's home. Until about the last six months of his life, he remained physically and mentally alert and active.

Notes for James Andrew Freeman:
This family was considered the poor of the poorest. James got work wherever possible. Hill made most of the clothes. Their diet was mostly beans, potatoes, and vegetables they could grow. Around 1953 the family caught and cold spring lizards which they sold for fish bait. Boys work in furniture factories in High Point, NC.

Maxine Kuhn has no idea who wrote the first sentence of this note about the family. Be aware that most people in western NC during this area had similar diets, grew most of their food and live simply because job opportunities were not that plentiful. Regardless of their financial means, the family was very bonded and loved each other.

Notes for Bessie Frances Davis:

Bessie Davis was well-educated for her era. She attended high school at Gastonia, NC. She taught literacy classes in her home after she married Henry. Adults would gather around the "supper" table after the evening meal and be students for the evening. The classes were conducted in such a setting, according to Bessie, so others in the community would not know the people were illiterate and learning to the three basics: reading, writing and arithmetic. It was not until final years that she disclosed who some of her students had been and those students were now deceased. She kept their secret as her secret.

Bessie's saddest time of the year was between Thanksgiving and Christmas for she recalled it was the time her mother had passed away. She frequently talked about songs her mother sang and would sing those songs to her children.

Bessie and Henry raised Pearl and Grace Davis who were orphaned at ages 3 years and 18 months, respectively, at the death of their mother. Willis brought the girls to Bessie and asked her to take them for he could not raise them, and if she and Henry would take them, he knew they would be well-treated and would grow up to be "somebody." Willis remarried later but never asked for his two daughters. Other children of Willis' joined the Henry and Bessie Davis household for periods of time. Those joining the Barker family were Robbie Ray,

Horace Alvin, and Nellie Davis.

More About Bessie Frances Davis:

Burial: New Bern, NC

Cause of Death: Heart attack following a stroke 9 months earlier.

Medical Information: Bessie's stroke left her essentially as a paraplegic for she broke her hip when she had her stroke and in addition she cracked some vertebrae.

Occupation: Homemaker

Notes for Henry Arthur Barker, Sr.:

Bessie and Henry both had Etna, NC, addresses at the time of their marriage. Her mother was listed as Martha J. Davis and her father was W. H. Davis. George Carpenter, J. P., performed the marriage in Franklin Township of Macon Co., NC. Lillie M. Horne of Franklin, N. F. Gibson and Mary Duvall of Etna, NC, were witnesses. (N. F. Gibson was a brother of Henry's sister-in-law Lillie Gibson Barker; Mary Duvall was the granddaughter of Henry's second step-mother, Jimmie.)

There is a curiosity as to who Lillie Horne was for Bessie's paternal grandmother had been Rebecca Horne. Could this Lillie Horne be a relative?

Henry adored his three stepmothers. He said they were "as good to me as if I had been their own son." The one who was more influential in his life was "Jimmie." Henry had no patience when his own children showed any disrespect to his wife and their mother. He would comment, "You be kind to your mother. You are lucky to have a mother. I treated my stepmothers better than you just treated your mother." Henry also said that some people would comment to him that he did not have to obey his stepmother for she "wasn't really his mother." He said that he held those people in disdain and if he had listened to them, he would have had a miserable life, but instead he enjoyed the love of his stepmothers.

She married Gerald Darwin Kuhn, Ph.D. Oct 06, 1962 in Gainesville, FL, son of Elmer Kuhn and Hester Grosvenor. He was born Apr 15, 1931 in Bourbon, Marshall, IN.

Notes for Maxine Barker:

Maxine has an AA Degree in Humanities. Being interested in genealogy, she developed annual family calendars for the Kuhn and Barker descendants. Gerald and Maxine Kuhn are actively researching their roots.

Maxine's original first name was Thelma. Maxine legally dropped the name of Thelma in 1962. She is known as Maxine Barker Kuhn. Her first name of Thelma was given to her by her father in honor of a friend he and his wife Bessie had in common. Maxine was given to her by her oldest sister Mary who admired a school friend by the name of Maxine. Maxine was known as Thelma in school and by most of her relatives as her formal name. Maxine's father called her Fellow, Fella, and Mac. Mary called her Maxine. Many relatives referred to her as Mac.

Maxine's father nicknamed her Fellow for he was disappointed that she was not a boy and he was going to consider her his little fellow (male son). Maxine played the part well and adored her father as she did her mother. When Maxine was 2, she twisted her hair in knots with one finger, while sucking her thumb on the other hand. Maxine's hair was extremely thick and keeping the hair tangle-free was a chore for her mother. Her mother made the comment that if Maxine didn't stop sucking her thumb and twisting her hair, she was going to cut Maxine's hair off like a boy's. Maxine's sister Libby (Elizabeth) greeted her mother at the door and exclaimed that she had saved her mother a job. When the mother said, "Honey, what did you do?", Libby explained, "I cut Belmer's (Thelma Maxine's) hair off like a boy's." When the father arrived home from work, he took Maxine to the barbershop and had her hair trimmed like a boy's in order to smooth out the haircut given to her by her sister Libby. This incident made the father even happier that Maxine looked even more like a boy. The father was blessed shortly there with a son Henry, Jr. and then in two more years, another beloved son Ralph.

Notes for Gerald Darwin Kuhn, Ph.D.:

Gerald earned a BS in olericulture, MS and Ph.D. in Food Science from Purdue Univ. He was an Asst. Prof. at the Univ. of Fla. from 1960-1967; an Assoc. Prof., Prof. and Administrator in the Dept. of Food Science at Penn State Univ. from 1967-1994. He is a Prof. Emeritus. He served in the US Army near the end of the Korean Conflict, served in VA, CA, and Korea, attaining the rank of 1st Lt. Known as Gerry.

Gerald's granddaughter, Jessica Elaine Kuhn, wrote this English theme in Nov. 2000 about her grandfather: "The most unusual person I know would be my grandpa, Gerald Kuhn. He is 69 years old. He used to be a head professor at Penn State in food science for 29 years. He has very little hair and he is about 6 feet 2 inches. He is funny, but sensitive. He doesn't talk about old stuff to me, but about school and sports. He doesn't have to have everything perfect like some grandpas. That's one way which makes him unusual. He owns a pontoon and he lets my brothers and me drive it. One time my older brother was driving it and he went to dock it, but on the way in, he hit the poles. He didn't get mad or anything. He just told him to try again. When you don't do something right and you hurt or scratch something that doesn't belong to you, they normally get mad. But he didn't. Another time was when we were on the water, he was going really fast and hitting the waves so he could get us wet. That's unusual because most grandpas would be slow and wouldn't want to hit the waves. But that's why my grandpa is the most unusual person I know."

Notes for Kevin Paul Barker:

Kevin

One day God reached down and placed a treasure,
A precious little bundle of joy.
This was our Kevin Paul, a blond, blue-eyed, frail little boy.
Our family was so blessed by this gift from above!

He grew strong and healthy with tender care and lots of love.
He had a warm, quick smile, loved to rock and play,

Grew into a fine young man and always had a winning way!

He was a steady friend in good times,
Held true in times of strife,
Like a beautiful sunbeam that flickered and touched so many lives.

Then suddenly his life was taken,
And on this side we will never understand.
All we can do is place our tears and sorrows in the Master's hands.

Grandmama was there to meet him in that wonderful place.
Granddaddy's mischievous grin could not be hidden on his face!

There comes a time we must let go;
Yet a promise, a light that will never grown dim.
Kevin cannot return to us, but we can go to him!

In memory of Kevin Paul Barker
September 23, 1964 - April 11, 1996

Dedicated to Betty Boyd Barker DeBrick and Henry A. Barker, Jr. - His parents
Written by Elsie Bedell Barker McDonagh

Kevin was killed instantly near Bridgeton, NC, by an elderly Pennsylvania driver who failed to heed a stop sign. Kevin was a special young man, who loved to hug and be hugged. He was quick to smile, praise, and offer reassurance to those in need. He had no children.

Sun Journal, New Bern, NC, newspaper account of accident:
Tuesday 16 April 1966. Crash kills Bridgeton man near Vanceboro.
One man died and four other people were injured Thursday afternoon in an accident south of Vanceboro near the connection of US 17 business and US 17 bypass. Kevin Barker, 31, of Bridgeton was pronounced dead at the scene at the 3:50 p.m. accident. East Care medical helicopter from Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville was flown in to treat Barker's injuries, but the helicopter was sent away without a patient. Gary Rea, 40, of Wallingford, Penn., was driving his 1989 Chevrolet Celebrity Eurosport on U.S. 17 North when he took a wrong turn and headed into Vanceboro, Leitschuh said. He apparently did not see a yield sign and hit Barker's 1987 Pontiac Firebird on the driver's side. Alyssa Benson, 9, a passenger in the Chevrolet, was in the back seat of the car with her grandmother and was wearing a seat belt, Leitschuh said. Benson's grandmother, Patricia McGee, 56, also of Wallingford, was not wearing her seat belt and was sitting in the back seat. Rea's wife, Patricia was wearing her seat belt and was sitting in the front seat. All four were taken to Pitt County Memorial Hospital. Barker suffered a massive head injury, Leitschuh said. Barker's body was taken to Pitt by ambulance, according to State High Patrol Trooper Dean Leitschuh. Paramedics worked on Barker for about 45 minutes before pronouncing him dead and covering him with a sheet. Barker was alone in his car, and was headed home from his job at Coastal Maintenance in Aurora, Leitschuh said. Leitschuh said he could not find any witnesses to the accident. The Reas, their stepdaughter and the girl's grandmother were coming back from vacation, headed to Pennsylvania through the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel near Virginia Beach. No one has been charged in the accident, Leitschuh said. Alcohol was not a factor in the accident, the trooper said.

Later Mr. Rea was cited for the death of Kevin.

He married Dana Fleeman Sep 01, 1973 in Newport News, VA.

Notes for Larry Allen Brooks:

Larry joined the army soon after high school graduation. Never a strong academic student, he found his niche upon acceptance to flight school and graduated as one of the top in his class. He served in Vietnam for several years as a medivac helicopter pilot. Several times he was shot down but remained in control and was able to avoid disaster. In the end, he was responsible for saving many lives and for the rest of his life remained proud of what he did and never regretted his role in the service. Years later, he contacted Hodgkins Disease, often associated with agent orange used to spray the jungles and which he came into contact with in Vietnam, but he did not blame the government nor the war for his early death from this disease.

After his years in the service, Larry became a paramedic and worked for the Newport News ambulance service before he was able to get the job of his dreams - flying and selling aircraft. He worked for a number of years for a small firm in Missouri before moving to Elmira-Corning area, becoming the sales head for Switzer Aircraft, maker of bi-wing crop dusters and other small aircraft. He traveled all over the world in his position and also tested planes for the firm.

He died in Sayre, PA, of Hodgkins at the age of 44 after a 2.5 valient battle. He lived a Horseheads. His short life had been productive and testimonials poured in from all over the world attesting to the many friends he had made. His life was devoted to helping others and he made a difference and touched many lives, before and during his illness.
