Notes for PANSY VIRGINIA CANTERBURY:

Pansy was postmaster at Hazy, Raleigh County, WV from November 27, 1943 until June 1950.

To get to Hazy, which was a small coal mine community and does not exist now, you take WV route 3 west out of Beckley. Go through communities such as Arnett, Naoma, and Sundial until you get to Edwight and you will see a sign that says Hazy Creek. You follow the road that runs by Hazy Creek for about a mile more or less and that is the area where Hazy used to be.

There was a coal company store where you could buy just about anything that you needed, including clothes, meat, bread, canned goods and etc. There was a post office there where our mother was postmaster for about 7 years. A passenger train came to Hazy each day around 1:00 PM and brought the mail as well as passengers.

There was a large area in front of the store and this is where the children and sometimes the men played of the evenings after the store closed. We played all kinds of games including Red Rover, hide the belt, marbles and many other games that I cannot remember the names. We played a lot of marbles but most of the time on Saturdays and Sundays, the men dominated the marble game. We played football and used a carnation milk can as the football and sometimes we played baseball with a ball made out of a rock on the inside and this was covered with black electricians tape.
