American Evangelical Lutheran Church was established by Danish immigrants who in 1874 took the name Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and formally organized as a synod in Neenah, Wis., in 1878. A constitution was accepted in 1879, and the present name was adopted in 1954. In 1962 the American Evangelical Lutheran Church (with about 24,000 members), the United Lutheran Church in America, the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church, and the Suomi Synod merged into the Lutheran Church in America.

The Oakland Cemetery at Waukon, Iowa is at the south end of the city on State Highways 9/76. Originally described as an entity in a Waukon Standard newspaper item in the May 16, 1892 issue, which stated that the Waukon Cemetery would thereafter be known as the Oakland Cemetery. This cemetery comprises the original Waukon Cemetery, including the "1920 Addition" (shown as part of the original cemetery on a plat of September 20, 1875, the St. John's Addition (Lutheran) probably acquired by the Waukon Burying Ground Association in early 1927, the German Addition, conveyed by Warranty Deed on July 1, 1927 by the Waukon Burying Ground Association, and "Alleys" created by establishing burial lots in spaces between existing lots in the four other entities and by renumbering some existing lots.

September 9, 2000 (TLL) - Kerman News clipping

NORTH DAKOTANS RETURN TO KERMAN - Mr. and Mrs. Meds [sic] Skov and family returned to Kerman this week from Forbes, North Dakota. The Skovs left the Land of Kerman a little over a year ago for the north, but have decided to again take up their abode in this community. They will live on their ranch in the Dakota colony which Skov purchased from J.A. Gilbert sometime ago. Skov's household goods and a team of fine horses arrived Tuesday. (handwritten date of July 1968 MUST be wrong because both Mads and Mary were deceased by 1968!) {11/16/02 - why Forbes, ND? Investigate....}

November 16, 2002 - 1920 Census shows Mads, Mary, and all three daughters in Dakota Precinct. Ancestry transcription really mangled Mads name. It's shown as Mada P. Shor!

H.S. Cooper
p. 482

H.S. Cooper, P. O. Waukon, farmer, sec. 21, was born in Franklin Co., Vermont, in 1824. His father, Martin Cooper, moved into Addison Co. in 1826, where the subject of this sketch was raised. In 1849 he immigrated to this county, purchasing from the Government 360 acres of land in this township, there then being but three or four families in the township all of whom had come in the same year. There were at that time but very few settlers in any of the adjoining townships the people having to endure many hardships and privations always incident to the settling of a new country. He was married to Miss Eliza Gilvert in 1852, by whom he had eight children, Franklin, Martin, Mary, Orpha, Winfield, Augusta, Edwin and George. He was again married to Mrs. Hannah M. Pratt, whose maiden name was Geesey. Her first husband served his country during the rebellion in Co. A, 27th Iowa inf., till the close of the war, returning home, but soon after dying in 1865. Mr. Cooper owns a farm of 440 acres, well improved and one of the best farms in the township.

The 285 biographies were transcribed by Roxanne Barth & Phyllis Peterson.

HORATIO FRANKLIN (FRANK) COOPER, b. Mar.26.1852, Waukon, Allamakee County, Iowa; d. Feb.07.1935, Hastings, Nebraska; m. MATILDA (TILLIE) J. DUNBAR, Apr.23.1880, Red Cloud, Nebraska; b. Feb.07.1861, Putnam County, Illinois; d. Jul.11.1960, Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Notes for HORATIO FRANKLIN (FRANK) COOPER:

OBIT - Horatio Franklin Cooper

Horatio Franklin Cooper, son of Harmon and Jane Cooper, was born on March 26, 1852 at Waukon, Allamakee County, Iowa. He came to Nebraska in the year 1878.

On April 24, 1880, he was united in marriage to Matilda J. Dunbar. Three children were born to this union, Elsie Watt of Livingston, TX, Chester of Norfolk and Winifred Lamb of Guide Rock.

He leaves to mourn his death, besides his wife and children, one sister, two brothers, seven grandchildren and four great grand children.

He taught school in an early day having taught 15 terms in the states of Iowa and Nebraska.

He passed away at Hastings, Nebraska, Feb. 7, 1935, aged 82 years, 10 months and 11 days.

Funeral services were held from the Guide Rock Methodist church, Saturday, February 9, at 2:00 PM conducted by the pastor, Rev. E.C. Moore. Interment was in the Guide Rock cemetery.

Running true to form the above last historical sketch of a good man is very brief. Mr. Cooper was that kind of man, shrinking from publicity. The writer remembers very well when Mr. and Mrs. Cooper celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Cooper was reluctant to have his likeness reproduced in public print.

Mr. Cooper has been one of the substantial pioneers of Webster County. He was well educated in fact was one of the most prominent educators of his day. He took an active interest in politics, yet never sought public office. He chose his farm location in an early day before the plains farms north the river were considered practical on account of lack of water. While he never became a wealthy man, he produced enough of this world's goods to meet all obligations and live in comfort. He was what I regard as a very substantial citizen, highly respected and honored by his fellowmen and loved and revered by his family. He was one of the best friends I ever had, liberal in his praise when he thought I was right, and kindly critical when I was wrong. A lot of folks are proud to have had the privilege of knowing Mr. Cooper as a friend.

Notes for MATILDA (TILLIE) J. DUNBAR:

In the 1910 census, Horatio and Matilda are living in Guide Rock with their daughter Winnifred. They have three children, all alive. Horatio is a farmer and owns his own farm.

OBIT - Commercial Adv. Red Cloud - Funeral services for Mrs. Tillie Cooper

At ten o'clock Wednesday morning, July 13, 1960, the funeral services for Mrs. Tillie Cooper was held at the Methodist Church in Guide Rock with burial in the Guide Rock Cemetery.

Rev. N. A. Pritchard officiating. Miss Alice May Watters sang two of Mrs. Cooper's favorite hymns; "Take My Hand, Precious Lord," and "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone". Mrs. Joe Hunter was organist.

Casket bearers were Bob Shaw, Clair Guy, Don Crews, Joe Hunter, Lovel Wulf, and John Holthaus.

Matilda J. Dunbar, daughter of the late John and Mary Dunbar was born Feb 28, 1861 in Putnam County, Illinois, the third child of a family of nine children. She departed this life on July 11, 1960, at the Red Cloud Community Hospital aged 99 years, 4 months, and 13 days.

She with her father's family came to Nebraska via covered wagon in the spring of 1872 and she continued to live here the rest of her life, thus knowing and enduring the hardships of an early pioneer.

On April 24, 1880, he was united in marriage to H.F. Cooper, who preceded her in death in Feb. 1935. To this union was born three children, Elsie Watt, who died in June 1941, Chester Cooper of Los Angeles, CA, and Winifred Lamb of Guide Rock.

She was a good wife and mother, a kind neighbor, a conscientious Christian and church worker. She has been a member of the Methodist Church many years.

She loved to hear and sing the gospel songs and nothing delighted her more than to have her family, children and grand children around to sing those songs.

She was proud of the fact that two of her grandsons became ministers of the gospel.

Besides her two remaining children, she leaves to mourn one brother, Oran Dunbar of Los Angeles, 6 grand children 14 great grand children and 7 great great grand children. Thus another pioneer mother has slipped away. The weight of the passing years proved too much for her in the weakness of age and she quietly bade farewell to earthly scenes to rejoin her friends and loved ones of the yesterdays.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral of Mrs. Tillie Cooper were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bramwell, and Mrs. Twila Bramwell Sahaigain of Lincoln, Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Watt of Plainview, TX, Mrs. Lois Watt Hill of Chicago, IL, Mrs. Beulah Crow Madison and daughter of Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. E.V. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunbar of Superior, Mr. and Mrs. Art Katherinberg and family of Superior, Mrs. Paul Pritts of Superior, Mrs. Jas Shambaugh and daughter of Bostwick; Mrs. Carolyn Yung Meistrell of Norfolk, VA, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodward of Red Cloud, Mildred and Thelma Winslow of Northbranch, Mrs. Abbie Baldwin of Red Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Baldwin of Superior.

Notes for Peter Hansen Carlsgaard:

When Peter arrived in South Dakota, he changed his name from HANSEN to CARLSGAARD due to the fact that there was a large number of HANSENS. <---This rumor has been disproved by finding Peter's father, Hans Petersen CARLSGAARD in Denmark. Still need to discover where CARLSGAARD comes from.

Located a P. Carlsgard in the 1885 Special Census for South Dakota. Verify that individual is Peter Carlsgaard. Dwelling is Spink County, SD. Page # 003. Also shown are the numbers, T114N - R60S. These numbers correspond to Union Township. See map (Townships of Spink Co., SD.gif)

Notes for Ane Kirstine Nielsen:

Jan. 2, 1997

The records I received from Ruby Skov Wyllie are somewhat confusing in regards to the spelling of Ane's last name. Since Ane was Danish and the Danes were still using the patronymic system of naming, I am using the spelling of Nielsen. However, Ane is female, so her last name should be Nielsdatter.
