Generation No. 1

1. THOMAS<sup>1</sup> LAMBERT (Source: Carol Eliasof.) was born Abt. 1755, and died December 23, 1837. He married DIANA/DINAH BOLLINGER HARKINS (Source: Carol Eliasof eliasof@bellsouth.net) September 11, 1801 in Marriage Bond; Frederick Co., VA, daughter of STEPHEN BOLLINGER. She was born Abt. 1762, and died March 29, 1847.

Notes for THOMAS LAMBERT:

To Thomas Lambert:

Your Thomas Lambert, born Nov 13, 1804 was the son of Thomas Lambert, b. C1755 and died 23 Dec 1837. He married Diana/Dinah Bollinger Harkins, widow of Daniel Harkins. She was born C1762 and died 29 Mar 1847. Their marriage bond was posted 11 Sep 1801 in Frederick Co., VA. This mentions her father as Stephen Bollinger. I have a copy from a book published about marriage bonds in Frederick Co., VA. The deaths came from a typewritten copy of a Lambert bible owned by a Lambert in Walla Walla, WA. My brother copied it by hand, and later typed it up. So far, most of everything I have found finds the dates accurate. I'm not sure where Thomas Sr & Dinah died. I suspect Thomas Sr. died in VA, but have no proof.

Thomas and Dinah had the following children: John Lambert b. 1802 VA, Timothy Lambert b. 1803 VA, Thomas Lambert b.1804 VA, James Lambert b. 1808 VA, and Henry Lambert b. 1842 in VA. My brother had a note at bottom of page, "Isaac Lambert, Jan 1, 1843" He was born c1797. Not sure if he was another child my brother left out or what. There was also Adam B. Lambert b. C1811 VA who traveled from VA to MO with them. I don't know how he was related.

I am a descendant of James Lambert, son of Thomas and Dinah. My James died in Linn Co., MO in 1850. John died 1849 in Linn Co., MO. Henry died 1853 in Linn Co., MO.

My James' son Charles was in OR by 1876. The last place I have for your Thomas Jr was in Linn Co., MO when he married Alice Sturges on Jan 5, 1868. Thomas Jr.'s daughter Sarah was born in Ohio in about 1844, and his son John was born about 1850 in Linn Co., MO. This means they traveled to MO between these events.

Your Thomas Jr was in Brunswick, Chariton Co., MO for 1850 & 1860 censuses.

Hope this helps. Your cousin Carol in FL

Grandma Hecke Dead

Mrs. Ann E. Lane, better known as "Grandma" Hecke, one of the oldest and best known women in this section of Chariton county, died at her home seven miles southeast of Brunswick Monday night, March 29, shortly after 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Lane before her marriage was Ann Elizabeth Lambert, She was born in Scioto county, Ohio, Feb. 2, 1835, and at the time of her death had reached the ripe old age of 80 years, 1 month, and 27 days. When about 16 years of age she came with her parents to Missouri, settling in Chariton County, and practically all the remainder of her life was spent in the county, in the vicinity of Brunswick. The place where she died had been her home for more than half a century. In 1854 she was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Hecke, who preceded her to the grave in 1871. Of this union six children were born, one of whom died in infancy. The living children are: George T. Hecke and Mrs. P.C. Keith of Kansas City, and W.L. Hecke, Mrs. Wm. Carson and Robert H. Hecke, all of the vicinity of Brunswick. In 1873 Mrs. Hecke was married a second time, to Mr. John Lane, who also preceded her to the tomb many years ago. Of this union one child, Mrs. G Roesen, of Slater, survives.

There have been few, if any, women in Chariton county better known than Grandma Hecke. Having lived in this county and in this community for more than three-score years, she had a wide acquaintance, and was a familiar figure in the Brunswick bottoms, where she lived. In spite of her extreme age, she remained happy and cheerful to the end of her long life journey. She had a good word for everyone, and everyone had a good word for her. She had been for many years a member of the Christian church. Many old friends regret her passing away, and these old friends will cherish her memory.

Funeral services were held at her home Wednesday, conducted by Rev.A.C.Stormont of Dalton, after which her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground near her home. May she rest in peace.

Reminiscences of Fritz Gottschalk Published in The Brunswicker; Date Unknown

I was born and reared on the East side of the famous Cutoff Lake, therefore my thoughts keep running back to what people often call the good old days. I was not that fellow who taught the carp how to swim, several of the older fisherman beat me to that one. Years ago the main channel of the Mo. River ran where the lake now is, the upper North West end as well as the lower end. It ran in a half moon shape towards the north a distance of about 7 to 8 miles around.

In the year of 1879 the river cut straight through on the South leaving several thousand acres of land in Chariton County and was named "The Bar" right away, also leaving a deep lake therefore the name "Cutoff Lake". When it cut through there was a roaring sound like an oncoming storm. People left the bottom in a hurry, a steamboat from Brunswick went down and hauled some of them out. Louis A. Sasse was one of the men on that boat. Mrs. Charles (Grandma) Hecke who passed away in 1913 at 90* told me she heard the roaring as it cut through at midnight. She got up, hitched two oxen to a wagon, loaded her 5 children and drove the oxen to Brunswick without lines. Those days, no lines were used. Oxen were trained to go Gee or Haw. She said there was no way stopping the oxen (Jim and Tom). When they were dry, they would walk out into water wagon and all, and drink. When through drinking Mrs. Hecke would say, "Heck Hoay", and they would be on their journey to Brunswick where her husband was a cook in the army.

During the Civil War, cooking headquarters was located North of Brunswick upon the hill about where the late Geo Difanie's cherry orchard once stood. Mrs. Hecke reported she often carried a bucket in the wagon with her and sometimes would run and carry buckets of water to the oxen before they'd go to the water. It was bushwacker times between the North and South. Mr. Hecke was on the North side. Rutherford B. Hayes was President in 1879. After the river cut through farmers started buying land, surveying, building fences, houses, and moved in and developed it. Captain Louis A. Benecke was one of the first to own nearly 1000 acres, including part of the lake, and later sold down to near 600 acres which Ruby A. Benecke now owns. Water in the lake was 20 to 25 ft. deep. It was before any one ever thought of our present conservation commission, Captain Benecke made arrangements through Washington authorities and stocked the lake with croppies and there's been croppies there ever since. The Bar School district was organized and the Bar school built in 1901. As many as 60 children a year went to school there, and at one time the school had a reputation of having the best entertainments there at Christmas time. The late Rev. Michael Krattli taught school and held services there in 1902 and 1903. Three of his girls Ross, Otilia and Lucy taught Sunday School. Not one single person lives in that District now. Times have changed. An island of about 30 acres was left in the center of the big lake named "Toe Head Island". This island was bought by Valentine Rutliff's father of the late Albert and Chas. Rutliff of Brunswick. He reared a family of 8 children there and sold it to Rufus Cox in 1903. Cox raised about 100 head of hogs each year by feeding mostly skip jack fish he caught while fishing with a seine. Later Cox was killed in Dalton. Romeo and Chris Sasse owned the Island about 10 or 12 years. It is now owned by Mrs. Marie Knight of Dalton.

What was known as the old Keytesville landing was located about where the Dalton Gun Club now stands. Ships landed there before 1879 loaded and unloaded lumber, grain and tobacco there. I got the Keytesville Landing information from my dad and mother who came to this country in 1884. They got their information from General Sterling Price who was a close neighbor, lived there near the river bank raised tobacco and had a horse racing track. A Mrs. Fannie AGee (Col.) could speak German fluently and acted as interpreter between Dad and Price. Her husband (Sam) was a barber and cut all the neighborhood men's hair. The General was the first man to tip dad off that plasterer's and brick layers wages over here were 40 cents per hour. The older I get the more I get in debt to the good people that help me. This time thanks to Henry Gottschalk, Marie Knight, Henry Brandt who is 91, Ruby Benecke, Miss Ottilia Krattli, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gottschalk, Mrs. Gottschalk is the granddaughter of Grandma Hecke.

Tom,

Acquired her book, "Stay With it Van, From the Diary of Mississippi's First Lady Mayor," through interlibrary loan as well. Fun reading so far. She actually tells about her life growing up. Just into it 60 pages so far. Here's an excerpt:

"Aunt Frank (Sarah Frances Painter Campbell) had a beautiful daughter, Helen, a little older than I was. Another of Papa's sisters, Aunt Etta, also had a daughter, Georgia, about the same age. She was a talented musician and a very pretty girl as well. I used to play with these cousins when we went to visit our relatives in Kansas. Uncle Lambert, Georgia's father, had a grocery store. One time the three of us girls were in the store and he told us we could have a handful of any kind of cookies we wanted. Nabiscos were new then and Helen and Georgia chose them. My choice was Mary Anns, an oblong ginger cookie as big as my hand. My cousins laughed at me for taking those tacky old cookies, but I had enough to last me half the afternoon while their little old Nabiscos were gone in just a few minutes. Uncle Lambert made me feel better by saying I had made the smart choice, for Mary Anns would stick to my ribs. This book, so far, is filled with little stories like that,
