The Brockett Chapel of the Parish Church of Bishops Hatfield is situated at the east end of town. The South Chancel aisle or (Brockett Chapel) is seperated from the Chancel by two handsomely decorated gothic arches. Inside of this is a large altar tomb, on which are two pillars supporting a flat cover surmounted by a quartered shield of Brockett, impaled with AShe,Benstedeand Cromwell.

In Bishops Church Hatfield is a monument to Earl of Salisbury. (The Marquess of Salibury found the church in a delapitated state and restored it at her own expense). On the floor of the church on either side, are two effigies, brought from the Brockett Chapel when the church was restored.

Brockett Chapel was restored in 1872 by a Mr Wynn Ellis
