Zachary Taylor was our 12th President, another of the eight that were born in Virginia. He moved with his family to northern Kentucky where his father established a plantation in Jefferson County.

He was commissioned in the army in 1808 and spent the next 40 years in the army serving duty at frontier stations; fighting in various wars, i.e., War of 1812, the Indian wars in the Northwest Territory and the Mexican War.

His fame came from the latter conflict, where "Old Rough and Ready" defeated a large force at Monterey, Mexico. Taylor defeated Santa Anna at Buena Vista in February 1847. This ended the war in northern Mexico and Taylor became a national hero.

General Taylor was selected by the Whig's, in 1848, to run for President, and he campaigned on his military record. He won the election and his Vice President was Millard Fillmore. Taylor's administration was a short one [1849-1850] as he died in office, July 4, 1850 of cholera.

Taylor was a member of several prominent families. One forebear was William BREWSTER, a Mayflower pilgrim. James MADISON was Taylor's second cousin, and Robert E. Lee also was a kinsman. The 12th president's father was Lt. Col. Richard Taylor of the Revolutionary Army. His mother was Sarah Dabney Strother Taylor.

Zachary Taylor was born in Orange county, Va., on Nov. 24, 1784. A third child and third son, he had six younger brothers and sisters. As an infant he was taken to what became Jefferson county, Ky., and he grew to manhood on a farm near Louisville. His formal schooling was slight.

Elected in 1848 over Lewis Cass by a popular vote of 1,360,967 to 1,222,342 and an electoral vote of 163 to 127. Chose Millard Fillmore as vice-president.

Died in office, while Congress was in session.
