Merton Williams is the great grandson of Deborah Mullett-Haight-Bowerman .

It is my guess that Sylvanus is a nephew of William, but I have no confirmation. In Merton's book there is reference to a bother of William's whos name is Samuel but there are no dates on Samuel or if he was married and there is no mention of any other brothers or sisters.

Notes for Edwin Allison WILLIAMS:

On the night of January 9-10, 1899, a hurricane came up the Hudson Valley following the U.E.L. route into Canada.

Sleet froze over everything, and trees crashed down before the wind. Windows blew in and the roof of father's old barn began to fly off. About 4 A.M. with the help of his faithful hired man, Odadiah Wanamaker, he closed the great drive-way doors and stepped back to roll a boulder against them. A gust tore them open; one struck him on the head and in four hours he was dead. - Merton Y. Williams

Notes for WILLIAM BRIGDEN:
William Brigden and Sarah Jane Wood moved from Ontario, with two of the children, Stillman and Beatrice Alice, in March 1889, to farm near Napinka, Manitoba, until 1906. Annie Bardella (born April 1889) the twins, who died at ten months, Parrie Frost and Mable Pidgeon, were all born there.

The farm was sold and the family lived in Napinka for two and a half years, then moved to Bellville, Ontario, in December of 1909. Beatrice took her first year Arts at Albert College, Dell studied music with Professor Denmark, Parrie took a Commercial course and Mable a special course in Domestic Science. In October, 1910, they moved to Brandon, Manitoba. William dabbled in Real Estate until his death in Dec. 1925. Sarah Jane died in May, 1927.

Dell married Fred Aikens in July, 1912. Parrie married Hazel Heath in 1913. Mable married Tom Hanway, in June, 1919. Beatrice trained in Public Speaking and lectured in the Social Dept. of the Methodist Church for sometime. She moved to Winnipeg after her mother's death and worked as a Civil Servant until she retired.

Parrie was with Eaton's Life Insurance for 32 years until his death in 1956. Hazel passed away in Nov. 1964. Tom Hanway died in 1942, and Mable continued as a Civil Servant in Regina, Saskatchewan until retiring.

The above was taken from the notes compiled by Fred and Dell Aikens as a Centennial Project, in 1967.

Kathleen Rogers - May 22, 2002 Viewers< from MyFamily.com Mullett Ancestry site. There I was, going through some of the letter that my late mother, Margaret Robinson Bailey left and came across one from my great Aunt Hattie Magee who is writing of Beatrice Brigden. She says'' The Baker family tree is being distributed. It is complete with some history, family records, and the English family tree that Marguerite (Baker) was instrumental in circulating added. It's altogether a worth while project. Its in loose leaf form so one may make corrections or suggestions. Cousin Frank Wilson who was looking after the publishing of it died May '69 so Beatrice Brigden got another relative, Dr. Longley to help out. They got it together in this form and are asking $4.00 to cover expenses. I have several copies. Wilson planned a more expensive one for $10.00.

Too cool! 05*26*2002 :)

He was born May 06, 1889 in near Dublin, Ontario CANADA, and died November 30, 1970.

Notes for FREDERIC JEWELL AIKENS:

Some info gleaned written in family Bible by Fred (son of David) on Dec 11, 1952

In 1910, they moved to Brandon, Man. Frederic Jewell Aikens visited his Aunt Eliza Herbert on his way home from a trip to his birthplace in Ontario. His cousin Rossie Herbert had a girl friend by the name of Annie Bardella Brigden. The attraction was sufficient to bring him back to Brandon in the fall of 1911, to attend Brandon College for a course in Commerce. Dell, at the time was working at millinery.

Fred and Dell were married July 31st, 1912, the honeymoon being spent at Winnipeg Beach. From mid August to the end of October they were on the farm helping his father take off the last crop. They visited Jennie Aikens Vipond and Uncle Arthur at Froud, Sask. Christmas was spent in Brandon with Dell's folk, then a move to Port Arthur, Ontario in Jan. 1913.

Fred worked in the carpet department of the I. L. Mathews store until August, 1914, when the 1st World War broke out. He began work with the Prudential Insurance Company in October. Hugh Elliot was born Sept. 11th, 1914. The company moved them to Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan in Sept, 1916, when Audrey Selene was six months old. Fred was to take charge of the office, which was greatly in arrears. He worked very hard and within three years brought it up to a good standing, then his health failed. The doctor suggested a move to the coast, as the high altitude was not suited to his nerve condition. The company again moved them to Vancouver and he resumed work, but the migraine headaches continued. He bought a confectionary store on Georgia Street, but was forced to move when the Medical Dental building was erected.

They spent thirty-two years at 5002 Commercial Drive, Hugh, Audrey, Iola (born 1918) and Bea (born 1920), were all married from there. In April, 1952, Fred, Dell and Bert (born 1930), moved to Yale Street, then in 1953 to 1270 Kelowna Street from where Bert was married in Sept. 1957. Fred worked ten years at the P.N.E. until his health again failed.

The above was taken from the notes compiled by Fred and Dell Aikens as a Centennial Project, in 1967.
