

Descendants of JOSEPH BUCK

Generation No. 1

1. JOSEPH² BUCK (*NICHOLAS*¹) was born 01 Nov 1764 in Haycock, Bucks Co, PA, and died Abt. 1835 in Cambria Co, PA. He married (1) MARY ELIZABETH MECCLE 02 Dec 1787 in Goshenhoppen, Bally, Berks Co, PA, daughter of CHRISTOPHER MECCLE and MAGDALEN. She was born 23 Jun 1769, and died 24 Aug 1794 in Bucks Co, PA. He married (2) ROSINA DUMM 20 Apr 1795 in Goshenhoppen, Berks Co, PA, daughter of JOHANN DUMM and MARY. She was born Oct 1766 in Moselem Springs, Berks Co, PA, and died 09 May 1851 in Carrolltown, Cambria Co, PA.

Notes for JOSEPH BUCK:

From "The Buck Family" by William Kirkpatrick; 28 August 1987

"Joseph Buck was the second child of Nicholas Buck by his first wife Mary Appolonia Kohl, b 1 Nov 1764, baptized 18 Nov 1764; sponsors Joseph Kohl and Alberta Kohl at Haycock, Bucks Co, Pa. (GR p 13; complete record at St. Joseph's, Philadelphia..Beek (sic) ACHSR, Vol 1, p 279).

In 1787 he was assessed taxes of 5 shillings as a singleman but for no land. However, it is assumed that he inherited about that time a portion probably 1/2 of his deceased father's property in Springfield Twp, Bucks Co, Pa. (PA Archives, Series 3, Vol 13, P 810). He remained in Bucks Co. until about 1800, when he sold his real estate holdings to his brother and with his family moved to Whitehall Twp, Northampton Co (now Lehigh-Co) Pa. Between 17 Feb 1805 and 29 May 1808 he moved to Westmoreland Co with his family and again, after 25 Mar 1824, removed to Cambria Co, Pa. joining his son already there since about 1823.

On 2 Dec 1787, Joseph Buck married his first wife, Mary Elizabeth Meecke/Merkle/Mackel/Mechel/Magel b 23 June 1769, daughter of Christopher and Magdalen Meecke. (GR p 177; p 38). After bearing Joseph's first two children, Mary Elizabeth d on 24 Aug 1794 aged "about 35 years old." (Actually 25 years old.) (GR, p 184.) The two children were 3 and 4 years old. She was buried at Bally, Washington Twp, Berks Co, Pa.

After an eight-month mourning period, on 20 Apr 1795 Joseph Buck married Rosina Dumm, b Aug-Dec 1766, daughter of Caspar and Mary Eva Dumm of Moselem Springs, Richmond Twp, Berks Co, Pa. (GR, p 181.)

Joseph's third child was b 4 Apr 1796. The year 1797 must have been a traumatic one for him and his wife; In January 1797 within four days they lost their second and third son leaving only one, their oldest. In November 1797 they had another son. The three deaths of his first wife and two sons in as many years may have been the motivating stimulus for his decision to move about 1799/1800 to Whitehall Twp, Northampton Co (now Leigh Co) where he had four other children. His last two children were born handicapped (deaf and dumb) in 1803, and 1804. This additional trauma may have again motivated him to move this time to Westmoreland Co between Feb 1805 and May 1808. Their move after 1824 to Cambria County was probably motivated by a desire to be in close proximity to his sons who had preceded him there in 1823.

Joseph died in Cambria Co between 1830 and 1840. His widow, Rosina (Dumm) Buck survived him dying in Carroll Twp, Cambria Co, Pa between 1850 and 1860. In the 1850 Census, she was living at the age of 83 in Carroll Twp caring for her 46 year old handicapped daughter Susan.

In 1833 Rosina's brother Valentine Dumm had joined her in Cambria Co, thereby becoming the founder of the Dumm family there.

By his two marriages, Joseph² Buck had eight children."

JOHN BUCK DEAD AT CARROLLTOWN

Former Sheriff and Legislator Passes Away of Pneumonia After Long Illness In Eighty-Seventh Year
John Buck, an ex-Sheriff of Cambria County and a former member of the State Legislature, died at 10 o'clock last night at his residence in Carrolltown, in his eighty-seventh year. Mr. Buck's death was due to pneumonia, which developed soon after the sudden death of his wife, Mrs. Regina Sherry Buck, on November 12, 1909. The funeral of Mr. Buck will take place on Tuesday morning from St. Benedict's Roman Catholic Church, with the Rev. Father Leopold Probst, O.S. B., in charge. Interment will be made at Carrolltown.

The deceased was one of a family of eleven children, all of whom have passed away except Francis J. Buck, of Carrolltown, and William J. Buck, of Allegheny Township. He was a son of Joseph Buck, who settled on the John Zern farm in Carroll Township, where John Buck was born on December 11, 1823. John Buck built the grist-mills known as Buck's Mills and engaged in the milling business until 1861, when he was elected Sheriff, defeating James D. Hamilton. Three years later he located at Carrolltown and engaged in the mercantile business. He was a staunch Democrat, but served as Postmaster of that place during both terms of the administration of President Grant because of the fact that there was not a Republican then living in that vicinity.

In 1874 Mr. Buck and the Hon. John Hannan, of the First Ward, were elected on the Democratic ticket as Representatives to the General Assembly, defeating Thomas H. Lapsley and John C. Gates. They were the first persons to represent Cambria in the House after the district was changed from one to two members. Mr. Buck continued in the mercantile business until early in the 90's, when he retired. He was an active member of the Roman Catholic Church and a man having much influence in the community in which he resided for so many years.

John Buck and Miss Regina Sherry were united in marriage at Loretto by the Rev. Father Joseph Gallagher on June 5, 1849. The following children are living: Celestine A. Buck and Mrs. James B. Eck, of Carrolltown; Dr. Michael J. Buck, of Pittsburg; A. W. Buck, of Ebensburg; S. H. Buck of Elyria, Ohio; Dr. J. P. Buck of Chicago; Edward Buck, of Tonopah, Nev; Mrs. James V. Scanlan, of Ebensburg; Ambrose C. Buck, of Braddock; Vincent J. Buck, of Turtle Creek, and Lambert Buck, of Hastings. Besides these, he is survived by forty-nine grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren, together with two brothers, mentioned above.

John Buck was born in Carroll Township, Cambria County, Dec. 11, 1822, the son of Joseph Buck, whose father emigrated from Germany and settled in Pennsylvania. Joseph Buck was born in Bucks County, Pa., Nov. 16, 1797. His son, John, was reared and educated at Carrolltown, where he built the grist mills known at that time as Bucks Mills. He engaged in the milling business until 1860, when he was elected sheriff of the county. At the end of his term as sheriff he moved to Carrolltown and engaged in the mercantile business. He served as postmaster and in 1875 was elected to the State Legislature. He continued his mercantile business until the early nineties, when he retired. Mr. Buck died in 1916 and is buried at Carrolltown. His wife, a native of Germany, died in 1915. To Mr. and Mrs. Buck the following children were born: Celestine A., of Carrolltown; Dr. Michael J., a physician, Pittsburg; Sylvester H., Elyria, Ohio; Peter M., who died in 1881; James P., of Chicago; Anicetus William, of Ebensburg; Mary O., married James V. Scanlan, of Ebensburg; Ambrose C., of Braddock, Pa.; Edward J., of Denver, Colo.; Anna M., married James B. Eek, of Big Bend, Pa.; Vincent J., of Turtle Creek, Pa.; and M. L., the subject of this sketch.

Mr. John Buck, the newly elected Sheriff of this county was sworn into office yesterday. Although we opposed his selection on political grounds, still we are confident in predicting that he will make a popular public official.

Close of a Beautiful Christian Life.

"As a cloud of the sunset, slow melting in heaven,

As a glad dream of slumber, which wakens in (?)
She has passed to the world of the holy from this."

On Friday evening, November 12, Mrs. John Buck died at her home in Carrolltown, at the advanced age of 80 years and 4 months.

As the deceased was so well known, and had so many friends and relatives in and around Carrolltown, we feel that her death deserves more than a passing notice.

Mrs. Buck, whose maiden name was Rachel Regina Sherry, was born at Strassburg, France, July 12, 1820, making her age 80 years and 4 months. In early childhood her parent's emigrated to this country and settled at Bald Eagle, Blair County, afterwards removing to Allegheny township, this county, where they resided for many years.

On June 05, 1849, she was united in marriage to John Buck, who still survives and who, in the active years of life, was prominent in business and political affairs, being sheriff of Cambria County 1861-65, a member of the legislature during the session of 1875-6, postmaster of his home town, and a member of the mercantile firm of E. Glass & Co., which (illegible) one day was the leading establishment in Carrolltown.

Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Buck went to Buck's Mill, (now known as Wolf's Mill), where they resided until 1865, when they went to Carrolltown, at which place they made their permanent home, occupying a comfortable residence immediately opposite St. Benedict's Catholic Church.

During their married life twelve children were given them to brighten their home circle, eleven of whom are still living.

The death of Mrs. Buck was unexpected, for on Friday she was around as usual and after the evening meal both she and her husband sat in their accustomed places and concerned friends who called. About 8 o'clock she laid her head back on the chair and fell into a gentle slumber, but as this was not unusual no thought was given the matter, and it was not until the last guest had departed that her daughter, Mrs. James B. Eck, who occupies the same house, called her and receiving no reply placed her hand upon her and discovered that her mother was dead, having quietly slept away.

The deceased was a woman of beautiful Christian character, her every word and deed manifesting purity and kindness of heart and mind. She was kind and loving not only to those of her own household but to everyone; her generosity knew no bounds, and no one ever made an appeal to her in vain.

"She stretched out her hand to the poor; yes, she reached forth her hand to the needy."

Although having passed the allotted span of life, she was bright and happy in the companionship of friends, and her home was the Mecca of many a troubled and distressed soul who sought counsel. She was in verity:

"A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command."

She was a Christian woman, devotedly attached to her church, and zealous in the discharge of every duty; it is, therefore, not to be wondered that she was beloved by all who knew her.

As wife and mother she was faithful and true to husband and devoted to her children.

"Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

When her earthly pilgrimage was ended and the work for which she had been sent accomplished, the "silent messenger of death" gently laid his finger upon her, and a "still small voice" said "Come." No sickness, no suffering, no anguish in saying farewell to loved ones.

"Asleep in Jesus! Blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes(?)."

Surviving to mourn her loss is the aged husband and the following children: C. A. Buck, Carrolltown; Dr. M. J. Buck, Pittsburg; S. H.

Buck, Elyria, Ohio; Dr. J. P. Buck, Chicago; A. W. Buck, Ebensburg; Mrs. James V. Scanlan, Ebensburg; A. C. Buck, Edgwood; E. J. Buck, Tonaph; Mrs. James B. Eck, Carrolltown, V. J. Buck, Turtle Creek; M. L. Buck, Hastings.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place Tuesday morning. Solemn High Requiem Mass being celebrated in St. Benedict's church, after which interment was made in Carrolltown cemetery."

W.J. BUCK IS DEAD.

William J. Buck, of Allegheny township, one of the best known men in northern Cambria county, died at his home at "Buck's Mills," Saturday evening aged 82 years. Mr. Buck was born in Allegheny township in 1829, and from the time he was a young man, was actively engaged in business. Upon the Buck farm there was an old grist mill, a saw mill, and country store, and these three enterprises prospered to a great extent especially after the war, for many years furnishing the people of the north of the county with their only near-by supply of groceries, feed, flour and lumber. Mr. Buck continued the store until the time of his death, but a great change in times materially lessened the business and practically closed the mills.

The deceased was married when a young man to Miss Mary Glass, of Allegheny township, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glass. His wife preceded him to the grave over two years ago.

Mr. Buck is survived by eleven children, viz: Mrs. Gussie Bengeler, widow of the late Joseph Bengeler, of Gallitzin; Henry J. Buck of Carroll township; Emma, wife of Edward Boes, of Allegheny township; Annie, wife of Isadore C. Campbell, of Gallitzin; Ida, wife of Jerome Dawson, of Gallitzin; Alex J. Buck, of Cresson; Charles F. Buck, of Harrisburg; Andrew M., Albert and Edward, at home; and D.A. Buck of Carrolltown.

The funeral took place Tuesday morning, when a requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Michael's Catholic church at Loretto, of which the deceased was a life-long member, interment following in St. Michael's Cemetery, adjoining the church.

Notes for JOHN A KENNEDY:

John A. Kennedy, a former well-known citizen of Cambria county, died at his home in Adrian, Nobles county, Minnesota, on Tuesday, August 14th, 1903, in the 70th year of his age.

Mr. Kennedy was born in Carroll (now Barr township) this county, July 12th 1834, and was a son of Michael Kennedy, one of the early settlers of that vicinity. In 1851 he met with an accident while at work with a cider press which resulted later in the amputation of one of his legs below the knee. He then began qualifying himself for a teacher, which profession he followed for several years, making his home in Carrolltown, where he was elected a justice of the peace. During his residence in Carrolltown he was elected a county auditor and later (in 1867) a county commissioner. At the end of his term as commissioner, Mr. Kennedy was appointed commissioner's clerk which position he filled until elected county treasurer in 1881. After his appointment as commissioner's clerk, Mr. Kennedy took up his residence in Ebensburg where he remained until 1885 when he went west and located in Nobles county, Minnesota and during his residence there was twice elected register of deeds of that county. Mr. Kennedy was twice married, his first wife being Mary Ann Buck of Carroll township, who bore him three children, all of whom survive. His second wife was Eva A. Snyder of Clearfield county who with four children survive him.
