From the Crossville Chronicle, Volume 67, Number 31 Thursday July 30, 1953 Page One

Dewey Marlow dies suddenly Sunday eve'ng

Prominent Business Man Suffers Heart Attack at Home about 8:00 P.M.

The community and the entire county was shocked and grieved when it became known early Monday of the passing of Dewey H. Marlow, prominent business man here for the last 24 years.

His death occurred Sunday evening, July 26 about 8:00 o'clock at his home near the airport. Although his family and close friends had known of a heart condition which threatened his life, it was not commonly known. His passing takes from the county a good citizen, an honest businessman, a loving husband and father.

Mr. Marlow owned and operated Farmers Supply Warehouse and later opened up a nationally known car agency. In both of these he was assisted by his son, Harold and son in law, Earl Lewis, after their return from military duty in World War II. He was a member of the American Legion, being a veteran of World War I, and a member of Pomona Methodist Church.

A native of LaFollett, the Marlow family located here in 1926; living first in the Pomona community where they operated a farm. Soon there after Mr. Marlow became interested in live stock and had a stock yard for a while. He decided the county needed someone to handle the potato crop in this county, so he started the Farmers Supply Warehouse.

Besides his wife, the former Lessie C. Lewis, he is survived by their six children: two daughters, Margie, Mrs. Earl Lewis; Juanita, Mrs. William Ewing of Oak Ridge; four sons; Harold, Ray, Aaron and Ralph, two brothers, Simpson, Rt. 1 and Melvin, of Vesper, and eleven grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 Wednesday afternoon, July 29 at Pomona Methodist Church with the Rev. Frank Snaverly of the Crossville Methodist Church officiating, and assisted by the Rev. A. Nightingale of the First Congregational Church here.

Burial followed in the Crossville Cemetery with these persons as active pallbearers: Alva Potter; Cosby Harrison; C. S. Tollett; J. R. Litchford; Fred Hamby; Frank Hughes and Burr Cole and Roy Williams.

July 1960 -Crossville Chronicle

The name of Farmers Supply and Warehouse office has changed to Mountain Builders Supply, it has been announced by Earl Lewis, manager, and Ray Marlow, assistant manager. Farmers Supply and Warehouse was opened in 1943 by the late D.H. Marlow. The present two-story building, which houses Mountain Builders on the second floor, was built in 1946. Marlow Motor Company occupies the first floor.

1 dies, 3 hurt in Lantana Road crash

Sgt Leon Tollett of the highway patrol today is continuing his investigation into a "partial headon crash" on Lantana Road, near Fairyland grocery, that claimed the life of a 25-year-old Cumberland County native and left another 25 year old in serious condition in the intensive care unit of Cumberland Medical Center. Asked if any citations would be issued as a result of the crash, Sergeant Tollett said this will be determined after his investigation is completed.

Dead as a result of injuries in the crash is Gary Marlow, a mechanic at Marlow Motors and son of Ralph Marlow, retired Crossville auto dealer. Seriously injured is Stanley Watson, also 25, of the Jet Motel. Others injured in the three-car crash about 9:45 p.m., Friday, are Johnny Welch, 23, of Crossville, a passenger in Marlow's car, and Victor Chandler, 19, of Route 11, the driver of the third vehicle. Welch was admitted to the hospital for treatment. Chandler was treated and released Friday night, Sergeant Tollett reports. Watson underwent emergency surgery early Saturday morning, was at first reported in "critical condition" and by Sunday his condition was reported as "serious."

Early in the investigation, Sergeant Tollett said he had about 15 different versions of what happened after talking with witnesses. Later, on Sunday, he said it appeared that Marlow, with two passengers in his 1971 Chevrolet, was driving south on Lantana, as was Chandler in his 1973 Chevrolet. Watson, who like Chandler was alone in his 1965 Chevrolet was proceeding north. Asked in which lane the accident occurred, the north or south bound lane of traffic, Tollett said it appeared the point of impact was along the center of the road. Following the crash between the Marlow and Watson vehicle, described by Tollett as a "partial head on crash," Marlow's car travelled about 258 feet, came to a stop and burst into fire. Marlow's companions, Welch and Ward Phipps, 22, who escaped injury, pulled Marlow from the car as the blaze was quickly extinguished, Tollett said. Marlow, Watson, Welch and Chandler were taken to Cumberland Medical Center for examination and treatment with Marlow being transferred to University Hospital in Knoxville.

Born in Cumberland County, Marlow was preceded in death by his mother. He leaves his father Ralph, stepmother, Jane, and sister Teresa, all of whom live on Holiday Drive in Holiday Hills. He also leaves a brother, David, living in California; another sister, Mary Ellen Walden of Martin, Tx.; two step sisters, Rachel Cravens of Crossville and Kathy Cravens of Knoxville, and his grandmother, Mrs. Alva Montgomery of Rockwood. Funeral services were held at p.m., Monday, August 20 at Bilbrey Funeral Home chapel, with burial in the Green Acres Cemetery. The Rev. James Davis of the First United Methodist Church officiated. Young Marlow's cousins served as pall bearers.

JAMES ALLEN MARLOW

James Allen Marlow was born on May 23, 1955, in Crossville, Cumberland County, Tennessee, United States of America. His father is Dewey Harold Marlow, born 8 August 1923, in Chattanooga, Hamilton County, Tennessee; his mother is Anna Marie Hinch, born 5 July 1923 in Cumberland County, Tennessee. James has two brothers and one sister, all of whom were born in Cumberland County, Tennessee: Randall Harold Marlow, born 18 January 1948; Robert Lee Marlow, born 29 April 1951; and Carolyn Ann Marlow, born 1 September 1953. James is called Jim by his family and friends.

Jim grew up in the house now addressed 5746 Highway 127 South, Crossville, Tennessee, 38555. (Previous addresses of this house were 22 Valley Road and later Route 8, Box 385, Crossville, Tennessee, 38555.) Jim's parents still live on this property which covers approximately 53 acres. The property is on U.S. Highway 127 South, approximately 1 mile south of the entrance to Cumberland Mountain State Park. The property borders U.S. Highway 127 South to the east and Old Mail Road to the north. (The deed to the property is in Cumberland County Deed Book Number 47, pages 105-107, where it was recorded on 10 September 1954.) Now, the main driveway to the property is located directly across U.S. Highway 127 South from a Texaco service station and market. The phone number for Harold and Marie Marlow is (615) 484-6293.

Jim attended Homestead Elementary School for grades 1 through 8, where he played football, basketball, and softball on school teams. During his Homestead School years, Jim performed chores around the house including mowing the yard; planting, hoeing, and harvesting the family vegetable garden; and feeding pigs or cattle from time to time. His hobbies included playing chess and collecting insects. After Jim was struck by a car while riding a bicycle when he was in the seventh grade, breaking a leg and sustaining a head wound, Jim was allowed, at his request, to quit taking piano lessons.

Jim attended Cumberland County High School in Crossville, Tennessee, for grades 9 through 12, graduating in 1973. Jim played football and basketball his freshman year, but swollen and painful knees forced him to give up competitive varsity sports. Jim was vice-president of his freshman class and president of the sophomore class. Thereafter, Jim was not active in school politics, but rather concentrated on his job as a radio announcer at the local radio station, WAEW. Jim worked at the radio station many hours a week in his junior and senior high school year and continued to work for WAEW on a part-time basis for several years thereafter.

Jim attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (UTK), from June 1973 through May 1974. Jim lived mostly in the dormitory known as Greve Hall; he joined the social fraternity Kappa Sigma. Jim worked briefly at WNOX radio as a broadcaster. In the summer of 1974, Jim attended classes at Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, Tennessee. After attending classes at UTK in the fall quarter of 1974, Jim traveled to Cuernavaca, Mexico, in January 1975 to attend Spanish language classes. After two months in Cuernavaca, Jim moved to Mexico City, where he obtained a job teaching English at the Berlitz School of Languages on Insurgentes Avenue. Jim stayed in Mexico City through December 1975: he continued to teach for Berlitz during this time and attended classes at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) in the fall of 1975. Jim lived in various boarding houses while in Mexico; he had many Japanese student colleagues.

Jim returned to UTK in January 1976 and rented a room in the Hotel Monday on Cumberland

Avenue. Jim received his Bachelor of Arts degree in December 1976 with a double major in Spanish and Economics. He was inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa honor society.

After a brief visit to Montreal, Canada, in January 1977, Jim went to New York City where he soon obtained a job with Norman Jaspan Associates as a private investigator. Jim's first assignment was to a film development plant on Long Island; during this time, Jim lived in Long Beach, Long Island, New York. In March 1974, Jim was transferred to Minneapolis, Minnesota, on another assignment for three months.

Jim began attending law school classes at UTK in June 1977 and graduated with a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree in December 1979. While attending law school, Jim lived in a small apartment at 1215 White Avenue which had been converted into an apartment from a one-car garage. While in law school, Jim earned money by selling plasma, officiating football and basketball, and working occasionally for WAEW radio.

Jim took the Georgia bar exam in July 1979 and was admitted to practice law in Georgia immediately upon graduation from law school in December 1979. After taking the Tennessee bar exam in February 1980, Jim went to Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Mississippi to enter active duty as an Air Force lawyer.

Having been commissioned in the Air Force Reserve on 18 January 1980, Jim entered active duty in the Air Force on 5 March 1980 at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, in the grade of Captain as a lawyer in the Judge Advocate General's Department. He attended the Judge Advocate General (JAG) school at Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama, in 1980. In February 1981, Jim was transferred to Osan Air Base, Korea, where he worked in the base legal office and later became the Area Defense Counsel. Jim's primary duties were defending Air Force personnel accused of crimes in courts-martial.

In February 1982, Jim was assigned as the Circuit Defense Counsel at Rhein Main Air Base, Frankfurt, Germany. Jim's duties were still primarily criminal defense, but mostly in major felony cases. Jim defended in courts-martial in West Germany and Berlin, Italy, Turkey, and England; he traveled as a consultant to air bases in Spain and The Netherlands. Jim lived for about a year in the village of Worfelden, Germany, but then later moved to an apartment on Rhein Main Air Base. Jim attended Squadron Officer School at Maxwell AFB, Alabama, in 1984. Jim elected to separate from active duty and was released from active duty with an honorable discharge on 30 November 1984. Jim received the Air Force Commendation Medal and the Meritorious Service Medal for his active duty service.

Jim worked as an attorney for the law firm of Waco Carter and Associates in Frankfurt, Germany, beginning on 1 December 1984, for about six months. He shared an apartment with Captain Lindsey Graham at Nordring 146, Moerfelden-Walldorf, Germany, near Rhein Main Air Base. In the summer of 1985, Jim began performing numerous tours of duty as a Reserve officer and began teaching Aviation Law and other courses for Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. In the fall, he began taking classes in the Internationales Studienzentrums, a German language school in Heidelberg, Germany. Jim lived in this school, which was located in the old Schloss Hotel, from 1 October 1985 until he finished the course of study on 28 February 1986.

After finishing studies at the Internationales Studienzentrums, Jim rented a room in the apartment of Stefan Federolf at Ponsstrasse 12, 6082 Moerfelden-Walldorf, Germany. Stefan rented other rooms in his house to Lufthansa stewardesses, one of whom was Sabine Klein. Jim continued performing reserve duty, teaching for Embry-Riddle University, and he traveled to Spain, Greece, and then Crossville, Tennessee.

On 14 July 1986, Jim began work with the Department of the Air Force as a civilian attorney at the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Headquarters, Seventeenth Air Force (HQ 17 AF/JA), Sembach Air Base, Germany, in the civil service grade and series of GM-905-14. Jim worked in this position until 30 September 1996. Seventeenth Air Force commanded Air Force units in Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium, and Norway: at the height of the Cold War, Seventeenth Air Force included 15 main installations in four European countries with more than 40,000 personnel. Initially, Jim worked primarily in the administration of military justice, reviewing records of trial from courts-martial of Air Force personnel. Over time, his work evolved into primarily the implementation and monitoring of compliance with treaties such as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Status of Forces Agreement;

Jim's duty title became Chief of International Law. Jim had remained a member of the Air Force Reserve and performed his military reserve duty in the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Headquarters Air Forces in Europe, at Ramstein Air Base, Germany; Jim was promoted to Major in the reserve in January 1991. Jim earned performance awards each year for his work at HQ 17 AF/JA and he received two Meritorious Service Medals for his reserve work at Ramstein Air Base for the periods October 1986 through June 1996.

Jim had met Sabine Klein in the spring of 1986 when he moved to live with Stefan Federolf in Walldorf, Germany. At that time, Sabine was a stewardess with Lufthansa German Airlines: she flew frequently, primarily on intercontinental routes on Boeing 747 aircraft. When Jim began work at Sembach Air Base, he rented an apartment at Wichernstrasse 19, Winnweiler, Germany, in the ground floor of the house of Karl-Heinz Roes. He continued visiting Sabine and Jim and Sabine became engaged in September 1986 to be married.

Sabine was born on 14 October 1958 in Moenchengladbach, Federal Republic of Germany. Her parents are Peter Klein, born 27 September 1935 in Moenchengladbach, Germany, and Rosa Frieda Irmgard Umgeher, born 31 May 1938 in Poessneck, Germany. Sabine has two brothers and two sisters, all born in Moenchengladbach: Rainer Peter Klein, born 5 January 1960; Baerbel Klein, born 14 April 1961 (who married Siegfried Paul Buecker on 18 March 1983); Bernd Klein, born 22 May 1963 (who married Carmen Peters on 21 September 1992); and Sonja Klein, born 3 June 1972.

In February 1987, Sabine traveled to Crossville, Tennessee, for the first time and attended a tea granted in her honor at the home of Louise Walker where many friends and relatives of the Marlows attended and brought gifts. Jim and Sabine were married at the Standesamt in Moerfelden-Walldorf, Germany, on 9 June 1987, with their friends from Walldorf in attendance: Trauzeugen (Trusted Witnesses) were Stefan Federolf and Barbara Jubel. The church wedding was held on 27 June 1987 in the chapel at Sembach Air Base, Germany, with Sabine's parents, siblings, and aunts and uncles in attendance along with Jim's parents, sister Carolyn, and Air Force friends, including Captain Lindsey Graham, Major Marty Jayne, and Colonel Tom Hemingway. Jim's father was the best man and Barbara Jubel was the maid of honor. The wedding ceremony and reception were videotaped on VHS, NTSC standard (American standard) videotapes.

Sabine flew with Lufthansa until she became pregnant in the spring of 1990 when she was transferred to ground duties in Frankfurt, Germany. She and Jim continued renting a room from Stefan Federolf in Walldorf, Germany, for most of this time. Jim was one of only six Air Force civilian employees to be selected to attend the Air War College at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, and Jim and Sabine moved to apartment 1728 on 2601 Vaughn Lakes Boulevard in Montgomery, Alabama, in July 1990. Jim attended Air War College from August 1990 until he graduated in June 1991.

Lucas Allen Marlow was born at 0815 on Saturday, 24 November 1990, at Baptist Medical Center in Montgomery, Alabama. The labor had begun on Friday evening before. Jim was present at the delivery, which was aided by forceps used by Dr. Felix Tankersley. Jim's parents and sister Carolyn were visiting in Montgomery at the time of birth (Thanksgiving had been on 22 November 1990); Lucas was also visited in the hospital by Jim's brother Randy and Randy's wife Sherry and their children, Allison and William, who lived in Dothan, Alabama. Lucas was baptized at the First Methodist Church in Crossville, Tennessee, on 24 December 1990, during an evening service.

After Jim completed Air War College in June 1991, Jim, Sabine, and Lucas returned to Germany: they had retained the apartment at Wichernstrasse 19, 67722 Winnweiler, Germany.

On Friday, 5 March 1993, around 0800, Eric Justin Marlow was born at the Kreiskrankenhaus (County Hospital) in Rockenhausen, Germany. The labor had begun early in the morning and Jim and Sabine rushed to the hospital on roads covered with light snow. Delivery began shortly after arrival at the hospital and before the doctor arrived: Jim was present for the delivery. Eric was baptized at the First United Methodist Church in Crossville, Tennessee, on 22 May 1994.

Jim, Sabine, Lucas, and Eric lived at Wichernstasse 19 in Winnweiler, Germany, until they moved into a larger house at Im Kuechengarten 5a, 67722 Winnweiler, Germany, in August 1995. They retained the same telephone number: 06302-5238 (direct from USA: 011-49-6302-5238).

After the Berlin Wall fell in 1989, the U.S. military presence in Europe was reduced substantially: by 1996, Headquarters Seventeenth Air Force included only two large Air Force installations, Ramstein Air Base and Spangdahlem Air Base in Germany, and it was merged into Headquarters Third Air Force at Mildenhall Air Base, United Kingdom; Headquarters Seventeenth Air Force was inactivated and Jim's position was abolished. On 6 November 1995, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit had rendered a judgment denying Jim's appeal and upholding the 30 December 1994 order of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims which had denied Jim's claim for housing allowances and other entitlements related to his civil service position, which claim Jim had unsuccessfully pursued through Air Force grievance channels, the General Accounting Office, and the Comptroller General since July 1986. When the Air Force refused to grant Jim these allowances in connection with another job offer, Jim elected to be separated from civil service on 30 September 1996 as part of the reduction in force.

Jim is an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, Georgia, and Washington D.C. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Military Appeals, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the U.S. Tax Court, the U.S. Court of International Trade, and the U.S. District Court (Middle District) of Tennessee. His biographical sketch appears in several editions of Marquis Who's Who in American Law and in the 1997 edition of Marquis Who's Who in America.
