Notes for Icbabod Ashcraft:

One Icbabod Ashcraft built a fort for protection against the Indians at some point in Fayette County, Pennsylvania ,prior to 1750, near the present site of Smithfield. It appears reasonable some of the Ashcraft men were involved in the French and Indian War and with fighting the Indians who infested that part of Pennsylvania. Fayette County was the center of some action during those times and the Ashcraft's living in that area would have,by necessity ,been involved.

- viii. Richard Ashcraft, born 1740 in Chamber Mills, Pa.; died February 1792 in Chamber Mills, Pa; married Elizabeth Carr; born 1748 in Fayette County, Pa.; died 1846 in Meade Co. Ky..

Notes for Richard Ashcraft:

Richard's birthplace is not definitely known but apparently somewhere in Fayette Co., PA. He sold 340 acres of land on the banks of Monongahela River in 1767. He was an excellent tracker and woodsman, serving as an Indian scout and spy in western PA along the Monongahela River. He served under Col. Bradstreet and Bouquet in the French and Indian Wars in expeditions between the Ohio and the lakes in early 1754.

Richard and Ichabod helped erect Ashcraft Fort about 1770. Richard served as a spy in the Revolutionary War (record on file at the State Library in Harrisburg). He died by freezing to death 1792 after his horse broke through ice while crossing a stream. The horse got away and went home without him. Richard was found the next morning frozen to death.

A path was found around a tree with a wet and freezing man trying to keep warm.

About five years after his death, Elizabeth and the children moved to Meade County, Ky.
