

Descendants of Anton Sop

Generation No. 1

1. ANTON<sup>1</sup> SOP was born 1799 in Germany/France, and died September 15, 1859 in Zanesville, Ohio. He married ELIZABETHA SCHMITT March 04, 1834 in St. Louis Roman Catholic Church, Buffalo, New York, daughter of JOHANNES SCHMITT and CATHARINA HEYD. She was born January 04, 1813 in ALS, Oberlauterbach, Alsace, France, and died June 25, 1902 in Zanesville, Ohio.

Notes for ANTON SOP:

Most likely he traveled by the Erie Canal to the Buffalo, NY area and lived there before moving on to Zanesville. In the 1850 Muskingum County census, Anton was listed as "Anthony Soup," a cabinetmaker.

Burial record for St Nicholas Cemetery list his name as "Anthony Saup."

More About ANTON SOP:

Name 2: Anthony Saup

Name 3: Anthony Soup

Burial: 1859, St. Nicholas Cemetery (across from 1647 Wheeling Ave), Zanesville, Ohio

Emigration: Abt. 1815, The family came from ALS

Notes for ELIZABETHA SCHMITT:

In the 1850 Muskingum County census, Elizabeth was listed as 39, born in France. That would mean she was born in 1811, not 1813.

1860 Census show her age as 47 and head of the household. This agrees with her birth year being 1813 and the reported death of her husband the previous year.

Living with Martin Cavanaugh and John Adam Yaest in 1900

Children of ANTON SOP and ELIZABETHA SCHMITT are:

2. i. ANTHONY<sup>2</sup> SAUP, b. January 26, 1835, Buffalo, Erie, New York; d. February 25, 1915, Zanesville, Ohio.

OBITUARY: Peter SAUP, Zanesville Signal, Friday, April 4, 1930

PETER SAUP RITES TO BE HELD HERE MONDAY MORNING

Funeral services for Peter Saup, 92, civil war veteran who died Thursday afternoon, will be held at 9 o'clock Monday morning at St. Nicholas church, of which he was a member. Burial will be made in Mt. Olive cemetery. Friends have been asked to omit flowers.

Mr. Saup died following a general breakdown in health at the house of his niece, Mrs. Elizabeth Saup of 509 South street. He had been gradually declining for the past six weeks.

Mr. Saup was born in Dunkirk, N.Y. (on) August 18 (?), 1828 [NOTE: correct date should be 1838], but, with his family, moved to this city at an early age. At the age of 21 years he left Zanesville and located in Cairo, Ill., where he resided until one year ago, when he returned to Zanesville to spend his last days.

The deceased was one of the most prominent residents of Cairo, Ill., and served that city as councilman and sheriff for several terms. For over 40 years he was deputy U.S. marshall of that district. He retired from active business about four years ago.

On May 7, 1864, he enlisted in the 1(?)43rd Illinois, V.L. as a corporal and re-enlisted at Cincinnati Jan. 14, 1854 [NOTE: date cannot be accurate] in the Hancock Veterans' corps as a private and was honorably discharger [d] May 19, 1865, at Grafton W. Va. He then returned to Cairo, Ill., where he resumed his business career.

Mr. Saup had traveled extensively within the United States and Eu(rop)e(?) and was a man of high attainments. He was a member of St. Nicholas Catholic church and is survived by one brother, Phillip Saup, of Ocean Park, Calif. and a number of nieces, grand-nieces, and grand-nephews.

Photocopy of obituary provided by Hilda E. Yinger, volunteer researcher, Zanesville, Ohio, July 7, 2001, at request of Susan B. Mullins, 2G-Niece of Peter Saup and Great-granddaughter of Phillip Saup.

Note: The information above has been copied directly from the photocopy of the Zanesville Signal newspaper obituary. Printing that was difficult to make out on the photocopy has been enclosed in parentheses. Comments by Ms. Mullins concerning the data have been enclosed in ellipses.

Generation No. 2

2. ANTHONY<sup>2</sup> SAUP (ANTON<sup>1</sup> SOP) was born January 26, 1835 in Buffalo, Erie, New York, and died February 25, 1915 in Zanesville, Ohio. He married MARGARET CATHARINA WEBER October 02, 1860 in St. Nicholas Church, Zanesville, Ohio, daughter of PETER WEBER and ELIZABETH DAMES. She was born March 08, 1840 in Irlich/Prussia, Germany, and died June 13, 1910 in Zanesville, Ohio.

Notes for ANTHONY SAUP:

TYPED COPY OF ORIGINAL LETTER WRITTEN BY ANTHONY SAUP ON JULY 7, 1864
AT CAMP PAROLE - NEAR ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND

LETTER to HIS WIFE

July 7, 1864

Affectionate Wife.

Maggie permit me to scribble a few lines to you that you may not be uneasy about me. I was sent away from Martin's Ferry before the battle and landed safe and sound here. Oh, my dear wife, the hardships of poor soldiers cannot be explained to you. Only if God spares me to get with you, who I love so dear, as my wife. I will never leave you till God calls me to his home in heaven. I send this letter to you that you may pray to God and the Blessed Virgin to protect me and bring me safe to you once more and if ever I get home, dear wife, one thing I will promise to you that we will say our evening and morning prayers regular and I know that I won't be so careless about going to church where I am near. Dear, I can't tell you how long I will stay. They talk about sending us from here to Washington to our regiment, if the raid is over. You may send a letter to me dear, and if I don't get it there won't be much lost, only three cents. And if I leave I will write you again. I can tell you a good deal if I get home safe to you again Maggie, how happy a meeting it will be for both of us. The time will soon be here, then my soldiering will be played out. Twenty Thousand Dollars in gold could not hire me again, if we had both of us to live on black bread and catnip tea without meat and butter. But I must close hoping these few lines from your dear husband may find you well as they leave me. Hoping and trusting to God that I may see you face to face by the last or the middle of next month. One thing more, give my love to my mother and mother-in-law. Tell your mother and father to not forget me in their prayers, to pray for Julius for he has seen hard times, that we may both come home together. Tell my mother to forgive me for all the trouble I have ever been the cause of, for I often think of her. Tell her to pray for Mike, that he may come home safe to her again and for me. Give my love to Lizzie and Mary Kate and Josephene, to August, Ferdinand and Henry, to Charles and children and your little sister, tell them I will bring each of them some candy when I come home, write and direct your letter to

Anthony Saup, Co. G 160
Camp Parole,
Near Annapolis, Md.

You need not put nothing in it dear, for it is doubtful whether I get it or not. Tell Mr. Schinnick I did not get his letter and let me know if he got mine, I told him he must give me more wages, no more at present.

Signed

Notes for ROBERT MICHAEL SAUP:

OBITUARY: R. Michael SAUP, Zanesville Signal, Saturday, January 1, 1916

R. MICHAEL SAUP CALLED BY DEATH FRIDAY EVENING

Heart Disease, Superinduced by Grippe, Caused Death of Well Known Citizen

A ten days' illness from grip, which affected his heart, caused the sudden death of R. Michael Saup, aged 70, one of the best known residents of this city, at his home, 509 South street, at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening. His condition was not recognized as serious until a few days ago.

Mr. Saup had been employed as a pattern maker at the Griffith & Wedge plant for many years and had worked until the time of his illness. For a period of twelve years, about twenty years ago, he held the position of superintendent of the Zanesville water works department. He was a veteran of the civil war and a prominent member of the St. Thomas Catholic Church and the Holy Name society.

Surviving him are his widow and six children: Thomas Saup of Toledo, Mrs. J.T. Carliss of Johnstown, Pa., Frank Saup of Lancaster, Harry Saup, Mrs. Harry Mechling of this city, and Miss Lizzie Saup of the home. Two brothers and two sisters also survive: Peter Saup of Cairo, Ill., Phillip Saup of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Kate Miller of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Lizzie [Elizabeth] Epple of this city.

Notes for JAMES RAYMOND JOHN SAUPPE:

Jim went to Rocky River High School.

After WW II, he went to Bowling Green University in OH and received a Bachelor degree in business.

When James was seventeen years old, he joined the Marines in 1943. He was a gunner and hit the beaches of Iwo Jima in March 1944. It was soon after they dug their fox holes that the hole was blown up. It was March 17, 1944, St. Patrick's day. He found himself, after he became conscious, in a tree hanging over a cliff. He was badly wounded with shrapnel throughout his body. He was the lucky one, his buddies were all killed. He spent a year at the Navy Hospital in Great Lakes, Illinois recovering from his wounds. He walked with a cane for quite a while, we still have the cane. While at the hospital he learned different crafts to keep busy; one of which was working with leather. He made a leather wallet, which he used for many years. He received a Purple Heart Award.

James was a salesman for Republic Steel Company in the Tubular division. The company was sold to LTV Steel Co. and he was let go after 34 years. He then went to work for General Tube in Blue Island, IL. As a hobby he made wine in his basement, like to golf when he was younger, but back problems prevented him from golfing later in life. He also like to fish. During the 'Great Depression of the 1930's, he was lucky because his parents were wealthy.

In January, 1969, the family moved from 4939 North 66th Street, Milwaukee, WI to Carter Dr. in Overland Park, KS. The new house was just finished being built, but it didn't have any electricity the first night. Everyone was sitting around the kitchen table with lit candles, while Jim told the family the following story. He started off by saying "It's a good thing we moved here." Their old home was haunted by a hermit that lived in the attic. He was very small and ugly, that's why he went into hiding. Nobody wanted to look at him. Late at night, when everyone was sleeping, he would come down from the attic and steal bread from the kitchen. That's why they were always out of bread. He also used to steal beer from Jim's spare refrigerator in the basement. The hermit would roll marbles in the attic. That's how they discovered he was up there. Nobody ever saw the hermit, but they heard him creeping down the stairs at night, but Jim was too afraid to look. This frightened them and that's why they moved.

Tim & Guy had their bedroom upstairs, where there was access to different parts of the attic. We used to have a monster club house in the main attic, it was a scary place to have it!

Jim has lived in:

Erie, OH; Rocky River, OH; Bowling Green, OH;

Lisbon Ave & 4939 N. 66th St. Milwaukee, WI;

9432 Carter Dr. Overland Park, KS 66212;
