State of Tennessee VS William Nealon Case No. 1102 DWD

Came the Attorney General for the state and the defendant in person, who being arraigned at the bar of the court and charged upon a presentment against him in this cause, for a plea thereto says he is guilty as charged therein and submits the judgement of the court.

And the Court for such his said offense assessed a fine against him of Fifty ($50) dollars and the cost of the cause, and orders that he stand committed until said fine, costs, and expense fees are paid, secured or worked out according to law.

And the defendant brought with him into open court, James F. Nealon and J. C. Howard, who with the defendant confessed judgement in favor of the State of Tennessee for the fine aforesaid and all the cost of the cause.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Tennessee, for the use of Roane County, have and recover of the defendant and his said sureties the fine aforesaid and all the cost of the cause, including State and County taxes for all of which an execution will issue.

It is further ordered by the court that defendant's drivers license be forfeited and that defendant is not to drive an automobile vehicle within the State of Tennessee for six (6) months from this date.

March 2, 1954

Presentment No. 1102. Enloe Turner, Foreman Grand Jury, Charge: DWD State of Tennessee VS William Edward Nealon. John T. Kerr, Prosecutor. Clerk Summons for State: John J. Kerr. O.T. Sloan, Attorney General Pro Tem. Filed March 2, 1954. Mrs. Josh Fulks, Clerk. Edith F. Sitzlar, D.C.

(NOTE: Mr. James F. Nealon, mentioned as surety for William, is also being traced. All family members still living say that these two men are NOT related. I find that hard to believe, since their families have lived rather close in several different counties since the early 1800's. So, to try to link them, I have traced James and his family back to William Frances Nealon and am still looking for the connection!)

Obituary can be found in the May 28, 1959 Rockwood Times.

Notes for ALMEDA CARTER:

Phyllis Nealon related a story I just had to add to Ms. Almeda's page. Phyllis said that, when she was little and her mom and dad were going to visit her Grandma and Grandpa Nealon, that she used to cry not to go. When asked why, Phyllis said that Ms. Nealon made the best biscuits ever and that all the grand kids would ask for one when they went up there. Phyllis said that even if there were plenty of biscuits and all the kids were there, Ms. Nealon would never give them one - but she would later sneak and give Phyllis' brother, Don one. All the other kids would find out and get mad. Phyllis felt like Ms. Nealon didn't like her because she didn't give her one - so she never wanted to go visit them.
