He married EVA MARIA MAGDALENA KAPP 1762, daughter of JOHN KAPP and REGINA SIEGMUND. She was born 21 Dec 1745 in Tulpehocken, Pennsylvania, and died 21 Dec 1806 in Clear Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio.

Notes for JOHANN GEORG DIFFEBACH:

George Diffebach moved to Paxtang, PA., just outside Harrisburg, PA, in 1770, when he bought 200 acres of land and a mill. He died in December 1788 and was probably buried in the old cemetery of Shoops Church.

The following, "Genealogical Notes" by George Irgang, is taken from the August 15, 1937 edition of The Defenbaugh Reunion News:

George Diffebach, our ancestor who fought in the Revolution War, is of the third generation in America. He was born at Tulpehocken, Berks County, Pennsylvania, between 1738 and 1741, being the second son and probably the third child of Johann Adam and Sybilla (Koebel) Diffebach. It is likely that he was baptized John George, but as yet no birth or baptismal record has come to light to confirm this. But whenever he was christened, from that day to this there has never been a moment when there lacked a living member of the family by the name of George Defenbaugh. As his parents were member of the Trinity Reformed Church, which they helped to establish there, it is assumed that he was brought up in the Reformed Faith.

When he was about twenty-one years old he married, but as no record of this is to be found in the Tulpehocken Churches, his wife's maiden name is not known. Her first name is uncertain, since the first records give it as Eva Magdalena, and Magdalena, though in his will he calls her Mary, and that name is found on her tombstone. That he was not married twice would appear from a record subsequent to his death, which gives the name again as Eva Magdalena.

By 1771 he had left Tulpehocken and moved some forth miles westward to Lower Paxton (or Paxtang) Township in what is now Dauphin County, locating about three miles east of Harrisburg. IN that year, he paid taxes on 100 acres of land, three horses and two cows. By 1773, he had increased his farm to 200 acres; in 1779, he acquired seven sheep, and in 1782, he was also owner of a sawmill.

When the Revolutionary War broke out, he and his three brothers served the patriot's cause as members of the Lancaster County militia. The record of his service, complete except for the year 1777, as found in the Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series, Volume 7, is given here with the original curious spellings, having been carefully checked to prove that all these references are to one and the same man.

"1776 George Diffebaugh, private, Cap't Wm. Bell's Co., commanded by Col. James Bard.

"1778 George Devibaugh, 2nd Class Co. 7, 4th Battalion.

"George Tivebach furnished 3 bu. wheat and 3 bu. forage for the army.

"1779 George Devibaugh 2nd Class Co. 7, 4th Battalion.

"1780 George Turbaugh, Ensign, Co. 5, 10th Battalion.

"1781 George Devibaugh, Ensign, Co. 5, 10th Battalion.

"1782 George Devibaugh, Ensign, Co. 5, 10th Battalion."

On May 10, 1782, Captain Andrew Stewart includes his name in his final list of persons between the ages of eighteen and fifty-three years who are members of the 10th Battalion. (Kelker, L. W. History of Dauphin Co. Pennsylvania, vol. 2, page 1001).

W. H. Egle in Notes & Queries, 3rd Series, Vol. 1, states: "From Col. Joshua Elder's account book we find charges for blankets carried by different soldiers and also the names of these furnishing." Among the latter, he lists George DivenBaugh. Another entry of Egle's in the work cited, Series 1, (1894) Vol. 1, gives the assessment list of taxables for 1780, wherein appears "George Tevebaugh, Second Lieutenant."

His descendants may note with satisfaction that George Defenbaugh promoted both religious and educational institutions. Some of his contributions have come down in records as follows: In 1775, he made a contribution of fifteen shilling to the pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Middletown. He made the same contribution in 1776, and in 1777, he contributed one pound. Interestingly enough, these are the only references to that family to be found in the archives of that Church. In 1786, he contributed 7 s, 6d, to a fund "for building a schoolhouse in one corner of the public ground in the town of Harrisburg." From other records we learn that this was the English and German Academy, one of the first academies erected in America. In 1787, he contributed 15 shillings to a fund "for building a church and school-house in Harrisburg for use of the Subscribers." This was the First Reformed Church (now Salem Reformed Church) of Harrisburg, at Third and Chestnut Streets, fronting the latter.

From the account book of his brother-in-law, John Parthemore Sr., who was Overseer of the Roads for Paxtang Township, we have the following entry: "June 17, 1782, George Diffenbaugh and Conrad Yantz worked with wagon and two horses at Carson's Bridge."

The record closes with his will, which mentions his wife Mary and his children: Elizabeth (Shoop), Catherine ((Moor), George, Adam, begins with solemn words: "In the name of God Amen", and the second paragraph opens: " I Recommend my Soul to God the Great Author of its being & my Body to the Dust from whence by the divine power it Originated". He specifically directs his administrators to give his younger children "such education as may be in their power." This will was written December 11, 1788, a codicil add December 17, and brought into court n Jan. 1, 1789, proving that he died in December, 1788. Where he is buried we do not know, but it is very probable in the beautiful old Shoop's Churchyard, three miles from Harrisburg on Penbrook Road.

He married NANCY ANN ARMSTRONG, daughter of THOMAS ARMSTRONG and MARGARET PATTEN. She was born 19 Dec 1805 in Ohio, and died 24 Mar 1875 in Ohio.

Notes for DANIEL KELLER DEFENBAUGH:

The following was transcribed, as best as possible, from an old faded copy of a newspaper obituary published about 1½ weeks after Daniel K. Defenbaugh's death:

"Death of an Old Pioneer"

We deferred mentioning the death of our venerable old friend, Daniel K. Defenbaugh, in our last issue, and the reason for it was that we could not learn the particulars in detail as we would like to have them, and therefore deferred the subject until this week. This old gentleman expired on Sunday morning, December 13th, at 1:35 o'clock. His passing away was a remarkably easy one. Scarcely a shudder was visible through his frame. The death bed was surrounded by all his living children, some of whom are grandfathers, white with age.

Uncle Daniel, as he was familiarly called by his vast acquaintanceship, laid claim of being the first white male child born in Ross County. This most important event in his life took place on Paint Creek, four mile east of Chillicothe on the 21st day of January, 1798, while Chillicothe and the surrounding country was a vast wilderness, inhabited by red skins and less than 200 white settlers. Shortly after Daniel's birth his father was ousted from his land claim on Paint Creek and with his little family moved up on Moccasin, which was then a part of Fairfield County. Here Daniel lived on the old home farm until after the death of his wife, ten years ago, when he moved into his property on Laurel, and continued the saw and grist mill business until but a few weeks previous to his death.

Since the death of his wife, which occurred March 24th, 1875, the old gentleman has kept house for himself, but his wants to quite an extent were administered to by his sons and daughters who live in the community. As old and crippled as he was from rheumatism and paralysis, he never hesitated in subjecting himself to the most arduous labors, even working in water up to his arm pits at times. He would depend on no one to do his work, and was always better satisfied when permitted to make his own repairs about his mill and dam. His wealth was not as great as some people imagined. This was greatly due to his generosity, never refusing a poor man _____, and loaning his money often without necessary paper in return. He had no will, but the heirs have agreed to the appointment of Mr. James Defenbaugh and Mr. Salem S. McClelland as administrators of the estate. (Please note: the above paragraph was especially faded, and the transcription here may not be totally accurate).

The cause of death was pneumonia, of which he had been ill but two weeks when called to the other world. The funeral took place on Monday, December 14th, at 10 o'clock a. m. from Stumpf's church, Rev. Fishburn, of Stoutsville, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mackey, of this place. Internment was made by the side of his wife in Stumpf's cemetery.

Out of ten children seven survive their father, as follows: James, living on Laurel; Elijah, at Livingston County, Illinois; Isaac and Allen at Coles County, Illinois; Martin, on Mocassin; Mrs. Margaret McClelland, on Mocassin; and Mrs. Angeline Stall, living on Laurel.

Notes for ARLINGTON FRISINGER:

According to Jennifer Frisinger DiCenzo via letter sent Aug 22, 2002:

Arlington Frisinger, also know as Arley, was a great fiddler. It could be said that he died going what he love. At the Old Fiddlers' Contest at Shawnee High School auditorium in May 1933, Arlington suffered a fatal heart attack. He was stricken at the close of an ensemble number in which he and 22 other contestants played. As the notes of "The Irish Washwoman" faded, Arlington sank to the floor. He had competed in many contests for fiddlers and was the first prize winner the year before he died.
