Generation No. 1

1. JOB¹ LOWRY was born April 20, 1767, and died 1815. He married SARAH ANN ELKINS Abt. 1792 in Kershaw County, South Carolina, daughter of ROBERT ELKINS and SARAH ANN. She was born 1766.

Notes for JOB LOWRY:

Chr'nd St. James Northam Parish, Goochiand County, Va., November 11, 1767.

I have twelve pages of family history by Robert Odelphus Lowry and Nancy Emiline Lowry one page dated 1910, a lot of which I used in my family history. INTRODUCTION "This record is written from information given through, and handed down from our ancestors. Also, a part of it taken from the ages as recorded in our OLD BIBLE, while those of the younger or present generations, we ourselves are familiar with. We have not attempted to put in this part of the record the information we have obtained from the genealogical society, in which are the names of those that are, as it were strangers to us, but nevertheless descendants from the same forefathers. We hope to secure much more information from the books held by the aforementioned society. This record is the in one in which are the names of our near relatives who were well known by our late ancestors, while we ourselves are familiar with many of them."

Yours with love

R. O. Lowry & Nancy E. Lowry

The following is an inventory of the one of the Pickle Cemeteries in Monroe County, Mississippi. It is located in Township 13 South, Range 16 West just off the Sipsey-Detroit Road. The inventory was made in the winter 1996 and has been transcribed twice. I have checked it several times, but I fear there may still be mistakes. It is also in bad need of an update in order to add new burials and to standardize the symbols and methods used. Please feel free to contact me with additions or correction

- i. HENRY ARTHUR⁵ SANDLIN, b. October 18, 1880, Monroe County, Mississippi ?; d. January 22, 1947, Poteau, Le Flore County, Oklahoma.

Notes for HENRY ARTHUR SANDLIN:

Henry was the first of the thirteen children born to Horace Benton Sandlin and Narcissa Jane Irvin. He was born on October 18, 1880, probably in Monroe County, Mississippi. When he was fairly small, his parents moved to Sebastian County, Arkansas, not far from the Oklahoma border. He had such a large number of younger brothers and sisters that he had to help out a lot while he was growing up.

When he was 22, on May 27, 1902, he married Sarah Angeline Davis, who was five years his junior. She was born in Texas on September 15, 1885. Henry was a farmer. About 1920 he moved his family across the border and into Oklahoma and it was after he moved to Oklahoma that he got a job as a deputy sheriff. In 1928, when Henry's father Benton died, Henry and Sarah were again back in Hartford, Arkansas. Janie, his mother, traveled from Stigler and moved in with them, living there until she died.

The Great Depression hit the family very hard. They were fairly well off before the Depression, but during it, like so many other families, he lost almost everything he had. The situation in the family was very unhappy during these hard times and it was a little after that when they divorced. Henry lived with his son John for a while after that. We also know from a note in his Bible that Henry "Began work for Sam Blaylock, February 3, 1941." This was probably in Oklahoma. It appears that he lived out the rest of his life in Oklahoma, never remarrying.

A note in the front of his Bible by an unknown person (it might have been his son John) says:

Henry Arthur Sandlin

Notes for SARA FRANCES IRVIN:

Burial: Wesley Chapel Cemetery, Lamar County, Alabama

Notes for K.C. JONES:

Sarah Frances Irvin was born on November 22, 1869, in Lamar County, Alabama, the ninth child of Tillman Jefferson Irvin and Lettie Mahala Webb Irvin. Her mother was 40 and her dad 41 when she was born. She grew up near the border of Monroe County, Mississippi, and Lamar County, Alabama. On January 22, 1897, in Lamar County, at the age of 27, she married B.C. Jones, who was actually a few months younger than she was. The census recorded the family this way in 1900:

1900 Lamar County, Alabama Census

Pine Springs; Household # 24

Jones, K. Md. 4 years Mar. 1870 AL AL AL

Jones, Frances Nov. 1869 AL SC TN

Jones, John A. Apr. 1899 AL

She had four sons in all. Their first child was a daughter, who was born late the first year they were married, but she died in her sleep before she reached her first birthday.

B.C. got an infected tooth at age 56 and died, in about 1926. He was buried at Wesley Chapel Cemetery in Lamar County. She continued to raise the children and lived with her son Tillman when she was older. Her grandchildren remember her as being as sweet as an angel when they were growing up with her in the house, but she moved around between her sons' homes for a while because she would get fed up with one set of them and move to the other for a spell! In her older years, she married a man from Gattman whose name was Filippo, but she didn't have any children by him.

She passed away in August of 1960, at the age of 90. She was buried in Wesley Chapel also. (Source: David Webb)

The following is an inventory of the one of the Pickle Cemeteries in Monroe County, Mississippi. It is located in Township 13 South, Range 16 West just off the Sipsey-Detroit Road. The inventory was made in the winter 1996 and has been transcribed twice. I have checked it several times, but I fear there may still be mistakes. It is also in bad need of an update in order to add new burials and to standardize the symbols and methods used. Please feel free to contact me with additions or correction
