Notes for Hugh Brent:

Hugh Brent seems to have come from Kent, England and may be related to Roger Brent, Mayor of Canterbury. The name Hugh was seen almost exclusively in the Canterbury/Kent branch of the family. It is not found at all in the Brents of Cossington or Lawk Stoke. See the book by David M. French, "The Brent Family," and Chester Horton Brent, "Descendants of Hugh Brent," for more information on the family in England. Hugh is thought to have been protestant (Episcopal) and so his leaving England was not to escape the taking of the family lands that brought the Maryland Brents and Giles Brent to Virginia. The major line of Brents in Kent had died out but a second wave of Brents entered Kent and there were five families of Brents there in 1975.including a H. B. Brent. Hugh Brent was first seen in the new world on June 20, 1642 on the Isle of Wright County and soon after in Lancaster CO Virginia. He was one of the head rights of Francis, England. On one occasion he was given a tract of land for bringing five immigrants to Virginia one of whom was thought to be his wife to-be Mary Acherson. He settled on land adjoining Captain William Pierce. Captain Pierce had been head of the Governor Wyatts guard in 1623. Hugh was next seen in Chickacon Country in 1649. In the 1650's he was known to have a home in the Hadowais Creeke( Now called Antipoison Creek). and tithes several times and purchases several tracts of land.. In 1665 he is appointed Constable of Lancaster CO, VA. He is also listed as attorney of record for several individuals. He accumulated 650 acers of land in 200 tract lots.

In the Virgina Land Office At Richmond, there is on record in Book 19. page 628. the following:

"May 6. 1664. 200 acres lying upon Haddamons Creek and Cantoman Creek in Fleets Bay to Hugh Brent," Page 633 of same book records:

"Hugh Brent. May 18. 166+ 200 acres on Fleets Bay butting south on Haddamons Creek."

There is also mention of a grant of land given Hugh Brent for bringing four persons into the Colony.

There is on record in Lancaster the will of the said Hugh Brent probated March 13. 1671. in which he names daughters Jean, Elizabeth, Martha and son Hough.

Will of Hugh Brent of Lancaster. Virgina, 1671.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affix my seal on this 26th day of August in the year of our Lord 1755. Charles Brent(seal)

In the presence of John Anderson, Clemt Chereral, Mary Cheveral,
Sarah Daniel and Mary Carter Filed 13 April 1756 in Stafford County

At a court held for Stafford County 13th. April 1756. the within last will and testament of Charles Brent dec'd was presented into court by Hannah Brent Exer. therein named who made oath thereto according to law and the will was proved by the oaths of two of the witnesses of the will, and a Certificate was granted to the widow for obtaining a probate thereof in due form.

Lucy Jane Brent Palmer, in Virginia Genealogies;

Charles Brent of Stafford County, Virginia who married Hannah Innes, daughter of James Innes of Richmond County, Virginia, is supposed to be a grandson of Hugh Brent the immigrant who came to Lancaster County in 1644, but I have not been able to establish his ancestry.

"There is on record a will of George Brent of Lancaster, who mentions son Charles, but speaks of him not being yet of age in 1740. It has been recorded by various members of the family in their Brent genealogies that this George Brent of Lancaster was the father of Charles Brent of Stafford County who married Hannah Innes, but this statement has been proved untrue, because Charles Brent mentioned in his father's will as being under age in 1740, was too young to have been Charles of Stafford County, who had children as early as 1727. Therefore the supposition is now that Charles Brent and George were brothers, and were the sons of a Hugh Brent who died intestate in Lancaster in 1713, the said Hugh being the son of Hugh Brent, the emigrant, mentioned in his father's will.

"Another supposition is that Charles Brent of Stafford County, may have come directly from England, as there is a record of a grant of land to him in 1728; and also we have record of Chancery Proceedings in Court in London before 1714, and also in 1726, of a suit mentioning Charles Brent if St. Giles-in-the-fields, Gent., against Thomas Morgan, Mary Brent (plaintiffs mother) and Francis Brent (plaintiffs elder brother).

"This Charles Brent could have been the Charles Brent of Stafford County, Va., as the date of this suit, 1726, would correspond with his age at that date. The birth of his. son, Innes, is recorded in the Overwharton Parish register in 1727, but it is surmised that the two daughters, Ann and Catherine, mentioned in his will, were born before he came to Stafford County, Virginia, because we do not find a record of their births there.

"Of these daughters, Anna, called Nancy, married Hugh Atwell of London." "In the list of Oxford graduates from 1659 to 1850, we fine one Charles Brent who was graduated May 4, 1705. This Charles might have been Charles of Stafford who was married, as we suppose, about 1720, and died 1756 "

Notes for William Brent:

Due to the information from the Kentucky biography of Sanford Brent written in 1884. The line seems totally secure from this point . The documentation just gets stronger with each generation.

In the book "The Brent Family The Carroll Families of Colonial Maryland by David French he states the following: "Strong evidence in favor of the assumption (William is the son of Captain William and Hannah Innis )is the association of many member of the Brent family in Henry CO.( Five years ago when I began this type of research I did not appreciate the strength of these family relationships and that as they moved across the country the families stayed in close contact and frequently lived together or moved as a whole generation. This began to break up after the Civil War) Hugh, son of Hugh Brent and Katherin Baxter, and first cousin to William, found two wives in this county marrying in 1795 and in 1818 while John Gunnell Brent, William's first cousin once removed moved to Henry CO about 1810 to 1815. He was the son of Col Charles Brent and Rachael Moore the grandson of Charles and Hannah Innis. Also in the book 'Descendants of Hugh Brent" Charles Horton Brent refers to a letter from William's granddaughter Caroline Brent Stephenson which confirms the relationship.oo

Notes for Doctor Sanford D. Brent:

Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, 6th ed., 1887, Henry Co.

DR. SANFORD BRENT, retired physician, was born in Washington County, Ky., July 5, 1800, the eldest of four sons and seven daughters born to William and Elizabeth (Simmons) Brent. His father was born in Fauquier County, Va., in August, 1777, came to Kentucky in 1798, and located in Henry County (now Trimble) and there resided until his death in 1851. He was a member of the Missionary Baptist Church, and one of the influential citizens of his day. Mrs. Elizabeth Brent was also a native of Fauquier County, and a member of Missionary Baptist Church.

Our subject passed his early life, until he was nineteen years old, on the home farm. He then attended the high school at Bardstown for two years, and in 1821 began the study of medicine with a view of making it a lifelong profession. After studying under Dr. John W. Bright, of New Castle, for two years, he entered the medical department of the Transylvania University at Lexington, from which he graduated with high honor in 1824. He then practiced near Campbellsburg, Henry County, for six years, then for eight years in Shelby County, when, on account of failing health he retired.

He was united in marriage, December 7, 1826, with Nancy Scott, of Henry County, and seven sons and four daughters were born to them: Levy (deceased), William, Rolland, George (deceased), James, Newton, David, Elizabeth, Mary, Eliza (deceased) and Harriet.

Politically, Dr. Brent was formerly an old line Whig, but since the birth of the Republican party has cast his ballots in its favor. He has a farm of 200 acres near Campbellsburg which he successfully manages; is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and of the Masonic fraternity, and is justly considered one of Henry County's honored and worthy citizens.

The above information was obtained through personal interview and questionnaire. roo

Notes for General Eppa Hunton:

General Eppa (2) Hunton, son of Colonel Eppa (1) and Elizabeth Marye Brent Hunton, was born September 22, 1822, in Fauquier county, Virginia. He was educated at the New Baltimore Academy presided over by Rev. John Ogilvie; he taught school for three years and at the same time studied law under the guidance of Judge John Webb Tyler, and was admitted to the Virginia state bar in 1843 before he was of age. He began practice in Prince William County, Virginia, and was commonwealth attorney in that county from 1849 to 1861. In 1860 he was a presidential elector on the Breckenridge ticket, and in 1861 he was a member of the Secession Convention which met at Richmond Virginia in February, 1861, and served through its first session. After the passage of the ordinance he was made a member of the military committee to recommend means of defense; however, being a man of military training, he gave up his civil office for active military service in the field.

He was colonel of Virginia militia in 1843, and in 1847 general, commanding a militia brigade, which commission he resigned to enter the Confederate Army. An application was drawn up and signed by his colleagues in the Secession Convention, upon which he was appointed colonel of the Eighth Virginia

Regiment, in the Confederate States army, which he was ordered to organize and equip ready for service. His regiment took an active part in the battles of Manassas, Ball's Bluff, in the seven days' fighting around Richmond, at Gaine's Mill, and later at Cold Harbor, Gettysburg, Sailor's Creek, and numerous other places. At Gaine's Mill, June 27, 1862, Pickett's brigade made an assault and penetrated three fortified lines of the enemy; General Pickett was wounded early in the action, so the command devolved upon Colonel Eppa Hunton as next in rank, and he pushed the assault to a successful issue, although he was not officially given credit for his achievement. After the battle of Gettysburg, in which he was wounded and his horse killed in the famous charge of Pickett's division, Colonel Hunton was made brigade commander succeeding General Garnett, and served as brigadier-general thereafter to the end of the war. On April 6, 1865, he was captured in the Sailor's Creek fight, and confined in Fort Warren until July, 1865, when he was released. His home in Brentsville, in Prince William County, Virginia, was destroyed by Federal troops during the war, so after the surrender he lived at Warrenton, Fauquier County, Virginia. Encyclopedia of Virginia Biography, Volume IV

General Eppa Hunton was elected as a Democrat from the Eighth Virginia District to the forty-third, forty-fourth, forty-fifth, and forty-sixth Congresses, his term of service beginning December 1, 1873, and ending March 3, 1881. He was appointed by Governor McKinney to fill a vacancy in the United States senate, caused by the death of Hon. J. S. Barbour, and took his seat June 1, 1892, was subsequently elected by the Virginia legislature to fill the unexpired term, and served in the senate until March 3, 1895, with distinction. While in the senate he served as chairman of the select committee on the University of the United States, and was a member of the committees on the District of Columbia, education and labor, post offices and post roads, relations with Canada; also on a select committee on the condition of the Potomac River front. In 1877 he was a member of the electoral commission. After his retirement from Congress he practiced law in Washington, D. C., although he continued to maintain his residence at Warrenton, Virginia. He was a member of the Episcopal church. He was a distinguished lawyer, soldier and statesman, whose integrity of character was above suspicion. He died October 11, 1908, in Richmond, Virginia. Encyclopedia of Virginia Biography, Volume IV

General Eppa Hunton married Lucy Caroline Weir, in June, 1848, in Prince William County, Virginia. She was born February 20, 1825, in Tappahannock, Essex county, Virginia, and died September 4, 1899, the daughter of Hon. Robert and Clara (Boothe) Weir, of Prince William County, Virginia, her father sometime a merchant of Tappahannock, Virginia. His father was James Weir, a Scotchman, who settled at "Dumfries" in Prince William County, Virginia, and married Lucy Mary Marye in St. George parish, Virginia. Issue of General Eppa and Lucy Caroline (Weir) Hunton: Elizabeth Boothe, born June 20, 1853, died September 30, 1854; Eppa, of whom further. Encyclopedia of Virginia Biography, Volume IV

Notes for Doctor William M. Brent:

From The History of Lawrence, Orange and Washington Counties Published by Goodspeed Publishing Company, Chicago, IL 1884

"William M. Brent, M.D. of Newton Stewart, Orange Co. IN was born in Henry Co. KY, January 9, 1833. He was the third in a family of ten children, seven of whom are still living. The parents were Sanford and Nancy (Scott) Brent both natives of Kentucky, where they still live at Campbellsberg, the father doing an extensive practice as a physician. William M. Brent received a good education in his boyhood, and at the age of sixteen began a course of instruction in South Hanover College near Madison, IN. This he continued for four years, and the succeeding five years he was engaged in teaching school. On the 7th of March, 1854 he was united in wedlock to Miss Magdalene M. Sutton, and their union has been blessed with these children: Valentine S., Hattie R. (Cox), Oscar L., Ella Belle and Nannie (deceased) and Robert E. Dr. Brent began the study of his profession with Dr. Charles Scott of LaClede, IL, in 1857, and was graduated from the Medical Department of Central University at Louisville, KY. This was in 1860, and he at once located at La Clede, and began the practice, which he continued until he came to Newton Stewart, in 1870. The Doctor enjoys a substantial and lucrative practice, and is doing besides that a drug practice of considerable importance. Mrs. Brent is a member of the Methodist Church while the Doctor belongs to the Presbyterian Church, and is a member of both the Masonic and Odd Fellow Fraternity, and a Democrat in politics."

According to US Census for Illinois 1870 and Indiana 1880 and birth records for Orange CO, IN., the correct name for his daughter is Mattie Mae (Cox) Brent born in Missouri in 1857.

Dr. Brent delivered at least two of his grandsons, Meryl Cox in 1893 son of his daughter Mattie and Lanis Brent in 1890 son of Valentine. roo

Notes for William Sanford Valentine Brent:

There is a rumor in the Kendall family that "Doctor" Valentine Brent disappeared from Orange County and was thought to have been murdered. This from Judy Stein. There is a rumor from Clarabell King that Valentine ran away with the house maid while Elizabeth was in the hospital. Kenneth Brent says his father, Ed did not know what happened to his father, Valentine. He looked for Valentine his whole life and never found him. Kenneth seemed very sad when I told him what had happened to his grand father. roo

Notes for Elizabeth Ann Kendall:

Barbara's Grimes parents are found in the 1860 Orange CO census. The 1900 Census shows William H. Kendall and his wife Barbara Grimes Kendall living next door to Elizabeth and Nathan Webb, her second husband, in Wayne CO, IL. William and Barbara did not show up in the 1880 Census. In 1900, Elizabeth is living next to her parents in Hickory Hill TWP. In 1910 she has moved to Leech TWP and her parents are still in Hickory Hill. Elizabeth moved her family to Indianapolis after 1910 according to Uncle Harold Brent and died there. Widow Elizabeth Webb is living in Center TWP Marion CO IN in 1920 with Alvie Webb and two other sons, Fredrick and Laurence, who were both born in Illinois. Based on when and where Edward and Annie Brent's children were born they were not in Indianapolis much after 1920. They had apparently accompanied Elizabeth to Indiana because their younger children had been born in Indiana. Elizabeth must have died shortly after 1920.

Elizabeth must have been a special person. First she raised at least ten children on a laborer's income. The US Census of 1910 shows her daughter Ella May Webb Younginger and her daughters, Snoda Younginger and Elizabeth Reese, are also living with them. In 1880 a young Cousin Lucinda M. Kendall was living with the family at that time. We are not sure who the father of Snoda is. There are several other Younginger families living close-by in Wayne CO, IL and Elizabeth's father is obviously a Reece but who?. roo Pulled his first motor from a model T Ford when he was 12 years old with his brother Harold who was nine. Harold says he could fix anything he could take apart. The ancestor report which follows is a mixture of US Census data, and a wonderful collection of information from the Crume, Brent, Kendall, Moreland family. Information has been blended together with information that I have obtained myself on trips to the County Clerk of Hamilton, Jefferson, Franklin, White and Wayne COs in IL, the St. Louis City Library and St. Louis County Library, which have an outstanding genealogy sections, and information from Dottie Keegan and Charlyne Hampton and her trip to Jefferson CO, Betty Crume, Rick Crume, Brett Berry, Joseph Kendall, Bob Brent, Harold Brent, Beulah Irvin and additional information researched by Ann Anderson, and information from Ancestry.com and Genealogy.com.

Dottie's User Site for the Crume Family has some wonderful sources she has shared especially Philip Crume's Family Bible and an abstract of his will. The Kinsmen from Indiana with the incites it provides are outstanding. Rick Crume has shared some very important information on the Crume Family including the Lincoln letter, and George W. Crume's letters. Brett Berry has shared the notes of Lucy Geoghagan and his own thoughts on some of the important issues affecting the family lineage. Some of the facts seen here can be attributed to to many sources at the same time. I have tried to give credit as much as possible but am sure that every piece of data has not been sourced.roo

She married Dr. Richard Otto Olson II Private, son of Richard Olson and Helen Scannell. He was born Private.

Notes for Verla Rae Brent:

Verla was born in Effingham, IL. She grew up in the years the family was moving North ending up in Aurora, IL. She was a very good student and graduated from Aurora East High School. She attended the University of Illinois in Champaign for one year. She then began working as a nurse aid in Copley Hospital in Aurora. There she met a young orderly, Richard, who was working there between college and medical school. The two were secretly dating and surprised everyone when they came to the spring graduation party at the nursing school together. Verla wanted to be better trained and enrolled at the St. Joseph Hospital Practical nursing program. Richard and Verla continued to date and became engaged November 10, 1962. Their early married life was challenged by the trials of being the wife of a medical student. Verla worked to keep things afloat. They tried to start a family but it was not to be, and so they decided to adopt and were blessed with Jennifer Lynn. After Rick's residency, the military was next and after being first on orders to Viet Nam, they spent the two years at Fort Sam Houston Medical Field Service School and enjoyed normal married life for the first time. When the service was finished they settled in St. Charles, MO. Verla was always frustrated by the personnel policies of nursing and she wanted to know more about finances. She enrolled at Lindenwood College to "take a course or two" and ended up getting her accounting degree with honors. She then went out in the business world and became bookkeeper and then comptroller of Calico Spicery, a craft business in the historical district on Main Street, St. Charles. The business grew too fast and the owner over extended herself despite warnings from Verla and she went bankrupt. Verla decided she wanted to stay home for a while but as was her custom she was involved especially when Jenny showed a real aptitude for music. Verla became a strong supporter of both the concert and marching bands through the Band Parents Association serving as treasurer. She also was elected to the subdivision board of directors and gave us all real leadership. Verla's leadership abilities again came to the fore when she was asked to help organize and supervise wives participation in the St. Joseph's Hospital Annual Golf Tournament. She continued to participate in this for several years helping to provide monies for the growth of the Health Center. Many of the personnel at St. Joseph know Verla as the "Cookie Lady." She baked approximately 250 dozen cookies a year for the personnel at the Health Center at Christmas time. We estimate she baked more than 50,000 cookies of a dozen different varieties over the years. Verla's hobbies included counted cross stitch and many of the family's children have baby blankets which she embroidered. She also stitched many museum quality wall hangings and afghans . Rick and Verla have a special relationship of friendship, trust, respect and love that has carried them through many challenges. They had a saying, I love you "More than yesterday- less than Tomorrow." (MTY-LTT). The last four years of her life she valiantly fought a losing battle with rheumatoid lung disease and at the end lung cancer. She had a wonderful sense of humor which she maintained right up to her last 24 hours.

Verla had two contributions to this record. The first was when she bought Family Tree Maker software for Rick and showed him how to use it. The second was when she said, "You are finding out so much about your family could you look into mine a little?" Oh Brother!! roo
