Pampa News September 15, 1936

City Resident Dies Suddenly Of Poison Dose

Patterson Had Lived Here Six Years

Dalton A.

Dalton A. "Pat" Patterson, 47, was found dead at his service station at the corner of South Hobart and West Brown avenue about 5:30 o'clock yesterday. An inquiry by Justice of the Peace E. F. Young revealed that death resulted from carbolic acid poisoning, self-administered. Examination revealed that he had been dead several hours before being found by Mrs. Patterson. The body was lying on the floor in the restroom. Nearby was a cup bearing odor of the acid, and in the trash barrel at the rear of the station an empty bottle was found. Patterson had been a resident of Pampa for six years. During most of that time he operated a service station. He moved here from Fort. Worth. Patterson served 16 months with the American army in France. He joined the 141st infantry, supply company, but transferred to the 20th engineers, with which company he served overseas. Survivors are his wife, three children, Morton, Nada and Thelma Faye, and two step-children, Francis and Nora Lee. Other survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Bell Ayers, Galveston, Mrs. Earl Hickle, Weatherford, Mrs. Laura Wall, Eden, and two brothers Clarence Patterson, Pampa, Hargist Patterson, McCamey. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the chapel at Pampa Mortuary. In charge will be an official of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of which he was a member. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery. Pallbearers will be A. D. Ingram, Park Brown, Tom Anderson, W. E. Tucker, J. C. Rowe, and Mr. Griffith.
