Erie Meredith and Betty Jane Hobbs Perry

Erie Meredith Perry was born on December 31, 1931, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, the son of Erie Perry from Sherwood, Franklin County, Tennessee, and Idell Bates Perry of Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama. His grandfather, Meredith Perry, lived and worked in Sherwood, Tennessee, along with his part Cherokee wife, Alice Catchings. Meredith Perry's ancestors lived in the area since the early 1800's. The University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee, is on Perry land. During the War Between the States, the Perry family had fought in the Seventeenth Tennessee Infantry fighting in the Army of Tennessee until the fall of 1863 and with Robert E. Lee's Army of Northern Virginia in last two years of the war joining with the Twenty-Third Tennessee and surrendering at Appomattox.

The Perry family left the Volunteer State when young Erie was in the third grade for High Point, North Carolina, for the textile jobs. Erie was a fixer and Idell a knitter. During young Erie's seventh grade year, the family returned to Tennessee for one year and then back to High Point for the next three. Midway through young Erie's junior year of high school the family moved to Mount Airy. Erie excelled in sports during his high school years in the "Granite City" After graduating, he spent one year working at what is now Spencer's, then accepted a scholarship at Lees McRae College. He played on one champion football team and two championship basketball teams for Western North Carolina Junior College for a $555 scholarship, which required him to work in the lunchroom and sweep the gym floor. He graduated from Appalachian State Teacher's College playing sports on scholarship. The first member of his family to do so. He later received a Master's Degree in Administration from Radford University in 1967.

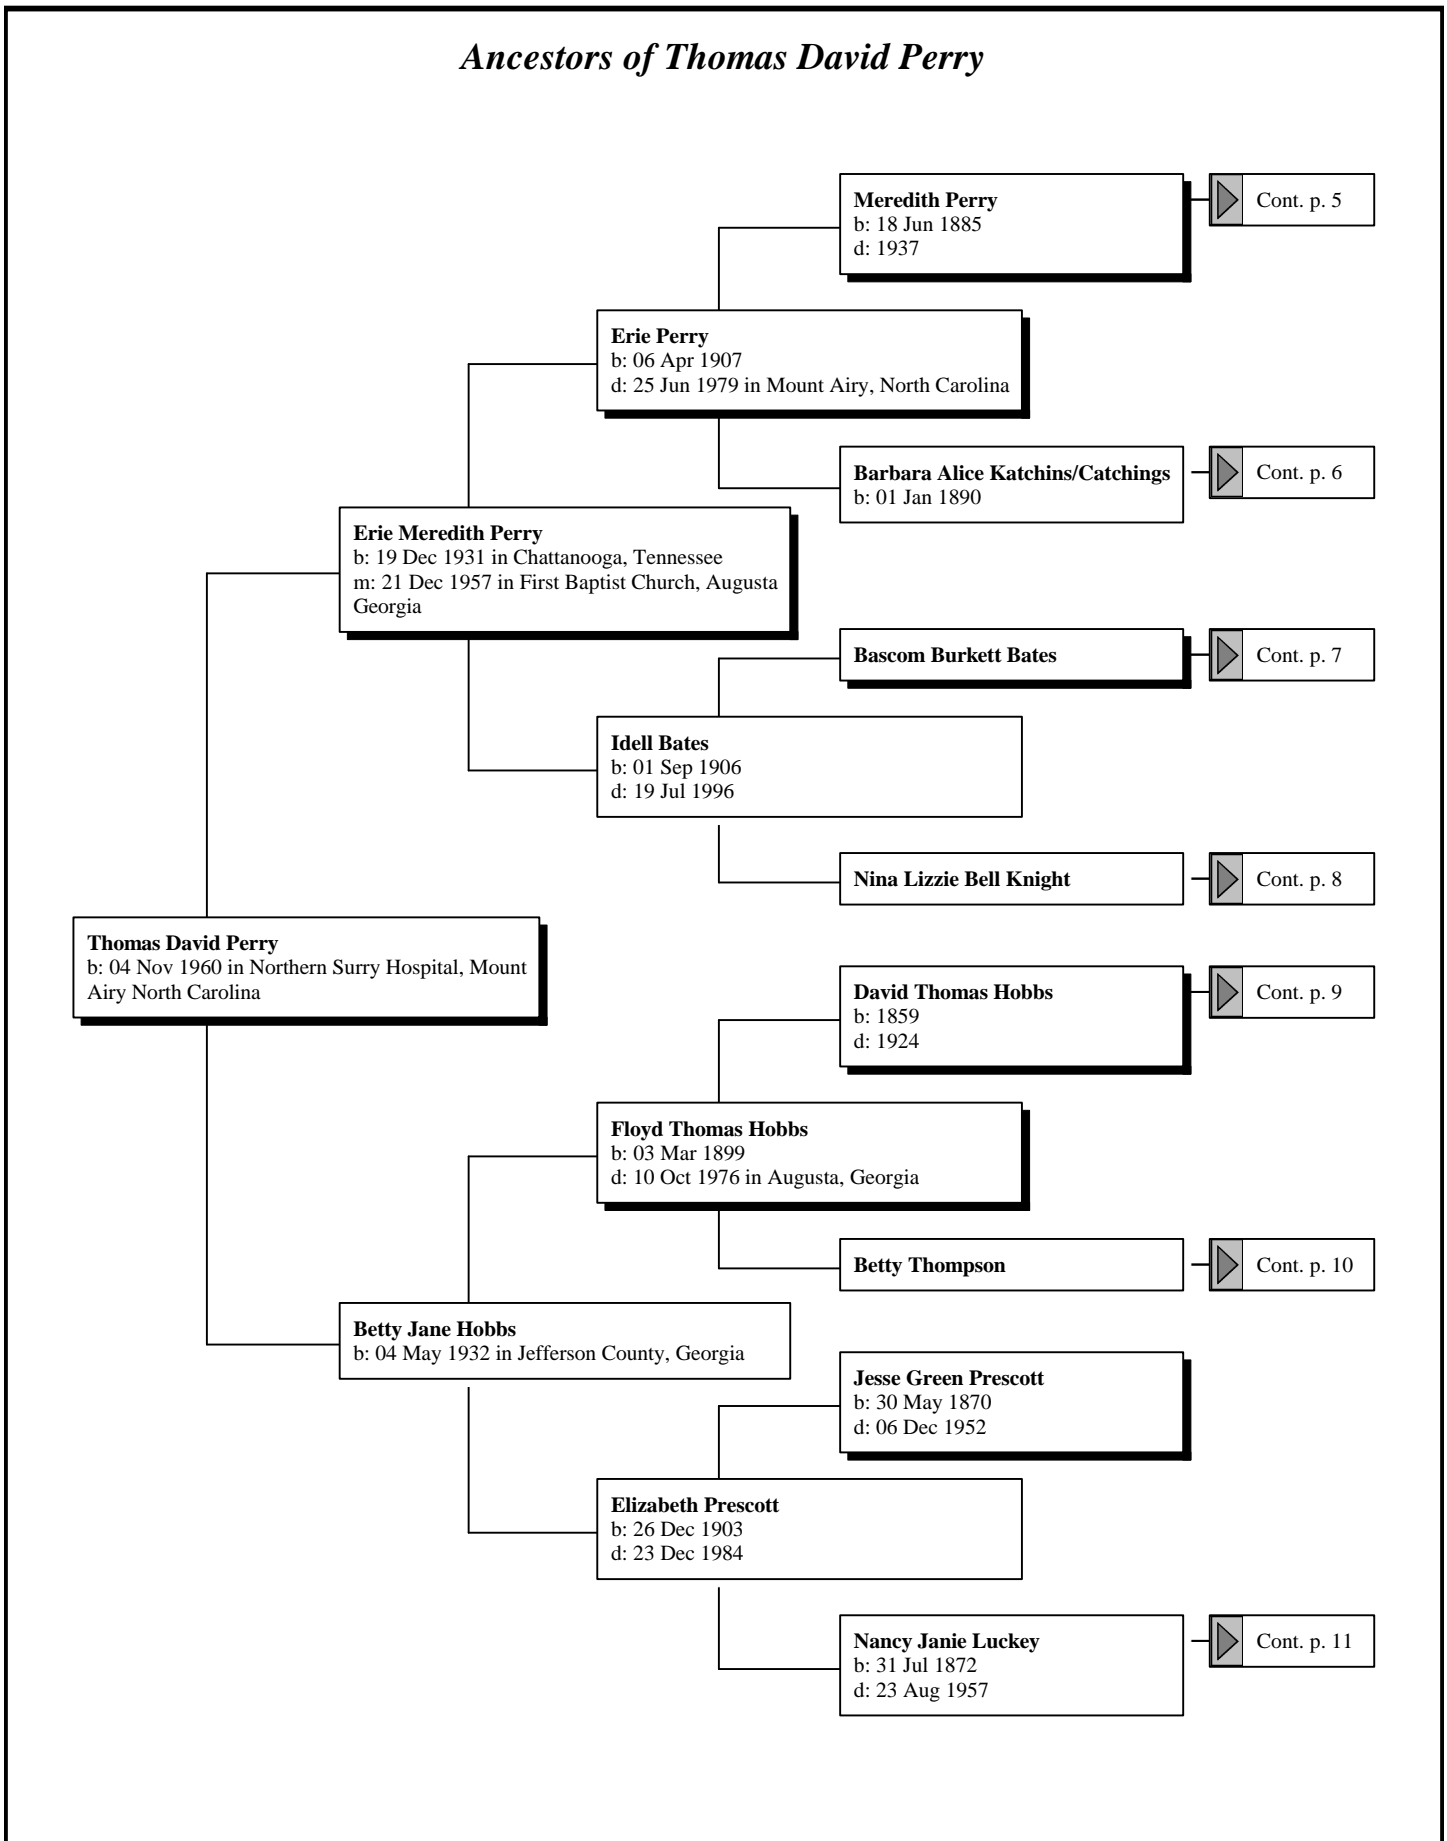

Erie volunteered for the United States Army in September 1956. After basic training, he was transferred to Fort Gordon, just outside Augusta, Georgia. While there, he met Betty Jane Hobbs born on May 4, 1932, in Jefferson County, Georgia. Her parents were Floyd Thomas Hobbs and Elizabeth Prescott. The army stationed Erie at Stuttgart, Germany, in February 1957. He won $100 in a football contest and a round trip ticket home, which he used to marry Betty on December 21, 1957.

Erie and Betty came to Ararat, Patrick County, Virginia in 1959 when he took a position at Blue Ridge High School as teacher/assistant principal. He coached baseball and basketball. Their only child Thomas David Perry was born on November 4, 1960. In 1963, he accepted the position of Principal at Red Bank Elementary School in Claudville, Virginia. He returned to Blue Ridge Elementary School in 1973 from which he retired in 1988. Betty Perry worked for Doctor Tuledge in Claudville and then worked at Cross Creek Apparel in Mount Airy for over thirty years.
