To the Editor of the Republican:
Clay Banks, July 19-

Two deaths have occurred in our midst of late, viz, Mrs. Nes Vista and Mr. Clark. The former, who had been ill for some time, leaves a large family of children, some of whom are quite small. The cause of death of Mr. Clark is unknown, he having been found dead some distance from his house.

(Obituary from Door County Advocate, 16 July 1892, page 5)
SUDDEN DEATH

William Clark, whose home is in the southern part of Clay Banks, died very suddenly on Tuesday. He was out in the barn attending to some chores, and not returning on time Mrs. Clark began to look for him, and on entering the building she was almost paralyzed to find her husband lying dead on the floor before her. Heart failure is supposed to be the cause of the sudden taking off.

CLARKS HAVE A REUNION

The Jacksonport area lost a well liked family this fall when Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Clark sold their place and moved away. The Clarks lived on the farm home south of Jacksonport for 36 years. They raised a family of four sons and two daughters. The sons are Clifford of Tucson, Ariz., Raymond of Sheboygan, Gerald of Milwaukee, and Frank of Sturgeon Bay. All are married and have families. The two daughters are Amelia, Mrs. Thiry, of Grafton, and Doris, Mrs. Alvin Grovogel, now living in Port Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Clark are grandparents to 19 grandchildren and great grandparents to three. The most recent grandchild was a girl born Oct. 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Sturgeon Bay. The grandparents spent sometime with their son and his family helping to care for the three grandchildren there while Mrs. Frank Clark was in the hospital with the fourth child.

Sunday, Oct. 18, the Clark family held a reunion at the Raymond Clark home in Sheboygan. While all together the family celebrated the birthdays of Gerald whose birthday was Oct. 17; Doris, Oct. 19 celebrant, and Raymond who claims Oct. 22 for his natal day. Doris, who has a birthday on the 19th was 19 years old. Doris was graduated from Sevastopol high school in the class of 1958. Her husband, Alvin Grovogel, is a former resident of Jacksonport.

The former Clark home and woodland was sold to a family from Madison and the farm land was purchased by the Donald Hasenjagers, near neighbors.

The Sanford Clarks are now living at 1226 Erie St., Sheboygan. They are very happy in their apartment and "Sandy" enjoys a long walk every day. Mr. Clark greatly enjoyed farming but when he could no longer do the daily milking, he reluctantly sold the farm. We hope they enjoy their well deserved retirement.

THE SANFORD CLARKS ARE FETED TO MARK 50TH WEDDING EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Clark, 918 Kentucky Ave., have been honored with a reception in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. The event was held at the VFW Home, 1138 Union Ave., Saturday, July 30, and had approximately 175 guests.

Featured during the party was a humorous skit, portraying a mock wedding, written and performed by Roy Grovogel. Various guests participated in the production which provided entertainment for the group.

Relatives and friends were present from Saginaw, Mich., as well as Algoma, Jacksonport, Two Rivers, Sister Bay, Egg Harbor, Sturgeon Bay, Manitowoc, Wisconsin Rapids, Milwaukee, Kenosha, Oconomowoc, Port Washington, Grafton, West De Pere, Forestville, Cleveland, Kohler, Sheboygan Falls and Sheboygan.

The former Eva Mapes and Mr. Clark repeated marriage vows in Manitowoc, Aug. 3, 1916, before Judge John Chimpek. She was born in Forestville to the late Mr. and Mrs. John Mapes, Feb. 13, 1900. Her husband's birth occurred in Kewaunee, Sept. 20, 1883. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Dave Clark.

Four sons and four daughters were born to the couple. They include Clifford Clark, Tucson, Ariz.; Mrs. Amelia Thiry and Gerald Clark, Milwaukee; Frank Clark, Sturgeon Bay; Mrs. Edward (Lucille) Timm and Mrs. Clyde (Helen) Fulmer, both of Oconomowoc; Raymond Clark and Mrs. Alvin (Doris) Grovogal, of Sheboygan. All were present for the golden event, except the first-listed son.

Also, the Clark family includes 25 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. The golden bridegroom was a sailor and is currently retired from farming. He and his wife attend First Methodist Church in Sheboygan.

JAS. TOLLIFSON IS ACCIDENT VICTIM
Dies Following Injuries Sustained on Monday

James Tollifson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tollifson of the town of Sevastopol, was the victim of a fatal accident while sawing lumber for making fish boxes at his father's home Monday afternoon. The father and two of his sons, James and Alfred, had worked during the day sawing lumber but about 3 o'clock Mr. Tollefson left to attend to his duties as one of the bus drivers for the Sevastopol school, the two young men remaining at the work which they expected to complete in a short time. There remained but three or four logs to saw when one of the boards apparently stuck and when forced through the saw it struck the teeth and was thrown with great force, striking James directly in the face.

The young man was knocked unconscious and when removed to a local hospital it was discovered that he had suffered a bad skull fracture and a fractured jaw, in addition to other injuries, and no hopes were entertained for his recovery. He passed away about 10:45 Monday night.

James William Tollifson was born in Sturgeon Bay and had he lived until Wednesday he would have been 23 years of age. Following a residence in Sturgeon Bay of a number of years, the family removed to a farm in Clay Banks where they lived for some time, later going to Muskegon, Mich. The family lived in Michigan about six years and four years ago purchased the farm in the town of Sevastopol where they have since lived.

Surviving relatives are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tollifson, two brothers, Alfred and Arthur, and one sister, Dorothy, all living at home.

Funeral services will be held from the Sawyer M.E. church at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon, the Rev. Otto Philipp officiating, and interment will be made in Bayside cemetery.

Notes for DorisAnn Louella Clark:
Door County Advocate, Tuesday, Feb. 3, 1976

DOOR COUNTY NATIVE SLAIN AT SHEBOYGAN

A former Door county woman, Mrs. Dorisann Majdacic, 35, was one of two women murdered in her Sheboygan apartment last week Wednesday.

Randall L. Schoerner, 18, an unemployed high school dropout who sometimes stays in Sheboygan, is charged with two counts of first degree murder in the deaths.

Mrs. Majdacic is the former Dorisann Clark who was born Oct. 19, 1940, in Sturgeon Bay, the daughter of the former Eva Mapes and the late Sanford E. Clark. She graduated from Sevastopol high school and on June 23, 1973, married George Majdacic of Sheboygan.

Mrs. majdacic and her friend, Marjorie Boone, 54, were found shot and stabbed to death in Mrs. Majdacic's apartment Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Majdacic had been a patient in Sheboygan Memorial hospital, for about six days and had obtained permission to go home for the day, accompanied by Mrs. Boone.

Police said the bodies of the two women were found by Mrs. Majdacic's husband when he returned home from his job with the Sheboygan Department of Public Works about 4:40 p.m. Wednesday. The Majdacic apartment is located just south of the Sheboygan business district, above a garage which is operated part time by Majdacic.

Police said both women had been shot and stabbed several times but unofficial reports indicated no sign of a struggle.

Mrs. Majdacic's 14-year old son by a previous marriage said he and his brother had been staying with neighbors while their mother was in the hospital and that she had come home for the day to make more permanent arrangements for them before returning to the hospital.

Schoerner, whose parents live in Black River, has no permanent address and sometimes stays with brothers living in Sheboygan and attended Sheboygan South high school as a special education student in 1973-74. He was arrested the same night of the murders but as part of an investigation of an unrelated purse snatching and kept in custody since then.

Schoerner was declared indigent by Circuit Judge Allen Deehr and is being held for preliminary hearing.

Mrs. Majdacic is survived by her husband; mother; two sons, Dale and Rickey Grovogel; four brothers, Clifford Clark of Tucson, Ariz., Raymond Clark of Adell, Wis., Frank Clark of Wauwatosa and Gerald Clark of Franklin, Wis; three sisters, Mrs. William Payne of Tampa, Fla., Mrs. Ed. Timm of Watertown, and Mrs. Clyde Fulmer of Oconomowoc. One brother preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at St. Luke Methodist church in Sheboygan, the Rev. Michael White officiating. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery, Jacksonport, the Rev. William Shepherd officiating. The Gerand-Habermann funeral home of Sheboygan was in charge.

YOUTH SURRENDERS IN HIT-RUN DEATH (Milwaukee news article)

A Milwaukee woman was killed and her companion was injured when they were hit by a car Sunday night in the 8500 block of N. Granville Rd. on the Northwest Side.

The driver, a 17-year-old youth, fled from the scene but later surrendered to police.

Jacqueline Zukaitis, 27, of 6330 N. 91st St., died about 12:35 a.m. Monday at the Milwaukee County Medical Complex, the medical examiner's report says. Zukaitis suffered head injuries. An autopsy was pending.

Her companion, Stephen J. Batzier, 28, of 8226 N. 93rd St., was in satisfactory condition at the medical complex Monday.

The accident occurred about 10:45 p.m. Sunday as Zukaitis and Batzier were standing on Granville Rd., police said. Batzier's wife, Catherine, was waiting nearby in their car.

According to the medical examiner's report, a southbound car driven by the 17-year-old tried to avoid Batzier's car, which was near the center of the road. Instead, the report says, his car hit the two pedestrians, knocking Batzier to the ground and throwing Zukaitis 48 feet.

The youth fled from the scene but surrendered late Sunday night at the 4th District Police Station, 6829 W. Silver Spring Dr.

The case was expected to be reviewed by the district attorney's office.
