Marriage Notes

I don't know much of the history of my parents marriage...what I do know is very little. I remember seeing the "Stefana", the wreaths that were worn on their heads during the wedding ceremony. Toula Stravoudis told me that the tradition is to place the Stefana in the coffin along with the first spouse to die. I am not sure if this was the case with my mom and dad because I do not know what happened to the wreaths after my dad's death.

NotesATHENA P. SMITH

Born 26, January 1930 to Elizabeth and Charles Plastas, in Scranton, Pennsylvania, Athena grew up in Northeastern Pa. She attended Misericordia College in Dallas Pa., and moved to New York City where she became associated with Circle in the Square,, an off Broadway theater. After several years as a starving actress, a young naval officer perhaps began to look pretty good and, on 10 March 1952, she married LRJG Robert Smith in St Patrick's Cathedral. Following the Navy life, she made many homes, including Key West, Florida, Barcelona, Spain, Newport, Rhode Island and Honolulu Hawaii.

After her husband's retirement, they lived in Vienna Virginia. She worked in Bloomingdale's Tyson's Corner, for over ten years, most of those years in charge of the Book Department. Since Bloomingdale's she worked for some years as a volunteer with the Botany Department of the Smithsonian Institution.

She had four children, Robert. H. Smith, Fr. of Miami, Florida, and three daughters; Brooke O'Neill of Atlanta, Georgia; Siobhan Smith of Springfield, Virginia and Victoria Smith of Ashburn, Virginia. In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by grandchildren Travis and Ansley O'Neill; a sister Eleanor Keen of Corpus Christi, Texas; a brother James Plastas also of that city; and Sister Lydia Anne of Kansas City, Missouri .

A loved and loving heart, she is mourned by many.,

MedicalNotes

This is a story told to me by my brother (James). He was born in Scranton Pennsylvania on July 23, 1935. When he was only 18 hours old he was secreted out of the hospital by his father(Tilemahus Plastas) and his brother (Aristotelis) and taken to the Greek Orthodox church in Scranton and baptized Demetrius Zissis Tilemahus Plastas. When he was 8 days old his mother (Elizabeth) took him to the Catholic church where he was baptized James Edward Charles Plastas.....when he was 16 he was in the seminary and once again he was baptized.....AGAIN because no one was certain the first two were acceptable!!!! My brother said to me....this is why he is so mixed up!!!!

It is tales such as these that interest and delight the history of our family. Ann (Anitsa) Plastas
