

Descendants of David Pugh

Generation No. 1

1. DAVID<sup>1</sup> PUGH was born Abt. 1650 in South Wales, Great Britian, and died Abt. 1695 in Wales, Llangelynnin Parish Merionethshire. He married ELIZABETH. She was born Abt. 1650.

Notes for DAVID PUGH:

This individual was found on GenCircles at: <http://www.gencircles.com/users/deana37/1/data/115>.
Hearth Tax record of 1662 in Merioneth County, Wales. In 1667 the tax record listed David Pugh, in the Township of Tre'r Morfa, the Parish of Llangelynnin, in the old county of Merioneth, on the western slope of Tyddyn Sheffrey, near the present town of Arthog.

David Pugh, Gentleman, acquired the farms of Tyddyn Sheffrey, Deildre, and Cloddio Byrrion, but in 1691 he used the 3 farms as security for a loan of 480 pounds from Thomas Price. The payments on the loan were in arrears, and in 1695 Thomas Price obtained possession of the lands upon an appeal in the Court of Great Sessions.

David and his wife, Elizabeth, had at least 4 children: Lewis, b.c. 1674; David Jr.; Edward; and Elizabeth who married a Benjamin Jones. Lewis left Wales in 1695 and came to the Colony of Virginia, where he is mentioned as a witness to a deed in Lancaster County in 1702. David Jr. came to Virginia, where he died shortly thereafter without issue.

Lewis married Ann Webster in Virginia in 1704. Ann was born about 1680. Baptisms of their children are recorded in the North Farmham Parish Register in Richmond County, VA.

Thomas Price's will is dated 1714. He died 1715 in Ruthin, the county of Denbigh, Wales. Tyddyn Sheffrey and the 2 other farms were left to his children who passed them to Edward Price, Thomas' brother. In the 1725 will of Edward Price of Dolgelley, he made provisions for the "children of my cousin, David Pugh" from the proceeds of the 3 farms. Edward Price named William Price the executor. Edward Pugh, third son of David, signed an affidavit that both Lewis Pugh and David Pugh Jr. had died in VA leaving no heirs. He made a settlement with William Price for 200 pounds. Lewis, in VA, learned of his brother's treachery from his brother-in-law, Benjamin Jones who lived in North Wales. In 1731 Lewis and son, John, sailed for Liverpool, going back to Wales to claim his inheritance.

Records in the Chancery Court in the Public Record Office in London show that in 1735, Lewis Pugh, planter, of the Colony of Virginia, but now living in Dolgelley, filed his claim for Equity of Redemption against William Price and Edward Pugh, who was living in the London area. William Price responded to the same court in 1736, and in 1738 a court document implies there had been an out-of-court settlement, but not yet finalized. Lewis Pugh never returned to Virginia. In 1740 his wife, Ann, and all children except John signed a document in Richmond County, VA appointing the second oldest son, David, as power-of-attorney to go to Wales and claim their inheritance. No records have been found relating to David's efforts. The farms remained in the Price Family. It is not known if John or David returned to America.

It is difficult to research anything prior to David Pugh, father of Lewis. Pugh is a patronymic derivative name from ap Hugh. (Son of Hugh) In Wales before David's time, most men went only by one name, surnames were not in use. Ap was used before consonants, Ab was used before vowels, both meaning "son of". Verch was used also, meaning "daughter of". David Pugh Sr.'s father could have been an ap Hugh, or his father's first name could have been Hugh. (Hugh ap Robert, etc.)

Burial locations of Lewis and David are not known.

Notes for HENRY PUGH:

This individual was found on GenCircles at: <http://www.gencircles.com/users/deana37/1/data/111>. Henry Pugh wrote his last will and testament on Aug 5 1765, witnessed by George Landman and Jeremiah Brown. It is not know exactly when Henry died, his will was proved on jun 2, 1766. His estate inventory showed the usual farm equipment, tools and animals. A more detailed list of items included a spinning wheel and cards, a weavers comb and small spinning wheel, books, household items including a still valued at four pounds (second in value to the bed and furniture which added up to five pounds), and "one dozen tite Casks and 6 mobby tubs." The mobby tubs were used for making peach brandy. With six tubs he may have produced some brandy to sell. After Henry's death and the death of their eldest son David in 1778, his widow Sarah was forced to apply for county aid as most of her children had moved away and her youngest son Lewis was in the military. She petitioned the Richmond County court on Jun 7 1779 as a "poor woman who that a son in the Continental Service." (from Order boods 18-19:90, Richmond County; FHL microfilm 33714. The clerk of the court certified that Sarah would receive thirty pounds to support her.)

George Landman, above, was a brother-in-law of Henry's sister, Elizabeth. George lived near the Pughs. John Landman's will , 20 Oct 1750, in Headley, Wills of Richmond County, Virginia, p. 103
