

Descendants of Ephraim OSBORNE

Generation No. 1

1. EPHRAIM² OSBORNE (*UNK*¹) was born Abt. 1723, and died 23 Apr 1794 in GRAYSON CO VA. He married ELIZABETH (BETTY) HOWARD. She was born Bet. 1723 - 1725, and died in VA.

Notes for EPHRAIM OSBORNE:

There is no proof of a marriage to Betty Howard. It has been noted that Christopher Gist brought Ephraim Osborne, Squire Boone and their families to the Rowan County NC area, near Mocksville, NC on the forks of the Yadkin River. Christopher Gist married a Howard from Maryland, and also two of his brothers married Howards. It is possible that the Gists and the Osbornes were somehow related.. Ephraim was apparently a fur trader, purchasing furs from long hunters (such as Gist) and selling them through his northern connections to England. Christopher Gist accompanied George Washington across the Ohio River to negotiate peace with native nations prior to the French Indian War. Gist made crude maps of the area of present day Kentucky 18 years prior to Daniel Boone travelling there, and may have been the source of Daniel's interest in Kentucky and his knowledge of the Cumberland Gap route. Christopher Gist's son, Nathaniel and a Cherokee, Tu-Teh of the Paint Clan had a son, George Gist (Sequoyah) who invented the Cherokee alphabet.

Notes for SR ENOCH OSBORNE:

Enoch his father, Ephraim, and his brothers travelled to what is now Grayson County from North Carolina. (Perhaps with the Cox family) They built a Fort on the bank of the New River, between Bridle Creek and Saddle Creek. Defending against Indian raids was a priority. Enoch was later Captain of the 78th VA Militia and participated in the Revolutionary War. Prior to the war he fought hostile Indians on the Clinch Frontier during Lord Dunmore's War. Enoch was a Sergeant under the command of a Captain Looney, and Lieutenant Daniel

Boone. Daniel's brother Israel was also in Captain Looney's group. Enoch was credited with giving Martin Gambill his plow horse after Gambill's mount collapsed on his famous ride to assemble militias in SW Virginia for what became the Battle of King's Mountain, the turning point of the Revolution. It is possible that Enoch fought in the Battle of King's Mountain, as well as the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. This is difficult to prove, or disprove, as many militia muster rolls for these battles were lost. Enoch was a prosperous farmer and land-owner thanks in part to several land grants. Enoch was a slave owner. He was a Justice of the Peace as well as a militia leader, and popular with his descendants as attested by all the Enoch Osborne's and Coxe's to follow.
