Notes for REV. ANTONIUS JACOBUS HENCKEL:

Known in these parts as "Anthony Jacob Henkel", a "hofprediger," - preacher to a royal court, - He was killed by a fall from his horse on Chestnut Hill not far from St. Michaels Church. He died at an inn on Chreisham Rd., Germantown, Philadelphia County, PA.

On October 28, 1917 at the Church the members of the Henckel Association dedicated a headstone and a tablet to both he and his wife. The white marble headstone bore the inscription:

In Memory of:

The Reverend Anthony Jacob Henckel Founder and First Pastor of St. Michaels Church and of Maria Elizabeth, his wife, whose bodies repose in the adjoining churchyard, sprung from a distinguishing and God serving ancestry. They emigrated from Germany into Pennsylvania in the 1717, became in their turn progenitors of a stalwart race, which settled over a wide area of our country and gave to the state many useful citizens and to the church theologies, Pastors and missionaries of unswerving faith and rare ability.

Notes for RACHEL ANN DOLLY:

MRS. J. W. HARPER

Mrs. J. W. Harper was born at Teterton, WV, Sept. 27, 1870, died Sept. 18, 1944, aged 73 years, 11 months and 21 days. The youngest child of Jacob S. and Naomi Dolly and the last in the family to be called to eternal past.

She is survived by her husband, three sons-Grant and Ivan of Teterton and Elmer of Littlestown, PA, and four daughters-Texie Dice and Margie Raines of Teterton, Eva Patch of Petersburg, Elsie Bible of Littlestown, PA, twenty-nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren, as well as a host of other relatives and friends. One daughter preceded her in death.

She was born, spent her life and died in the immediate community. She was united in marriage on Jan. 17, 1889 to J. W. (Will) Harper, she united with U. B. Church in early life.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. C. R. Slider of Mt. Solon, VA. Interment was made in the Dolly Cemetery, on the farm which had been her childhood home and in which most of her family is buried.

Mrs. Harper had been in declining health for several months, having been stricken with a complication of ills last March. She suffered very much, but in spite of it all did not complain nor became childish or fretful. She was so usually thoughtful of all who waited on her, forbearing pain and discomfort that they might rest and relax through the long weary days and nights, that her example was an inspiration.

As a mother, none could be better-loving, patient, kind, forgiving, self-denying; all these, and all other innumerable virtues that flow from a mother's heart into the souls of undying men and women, were giving unreservedly. Sept. 18, 1944

Notes for DORA HARPER:

DORA HARPER

Wherewith, it has pleased God in his wisdom and mercy to visit our community and claim for his own our young and lovely flower, Dora Harper. Oh! It is sad to see the young and lovely ones, just beginning to bud in life, snatched up by the hands of death. But dear friends, let us realize the great fact that God is wise and that man is dumb, and that he does all things well. He has a call for each of us; and when the death angel sounds our names, through his trumpet, will be as ready and pure as dear Dora, who has answered his blessed call and gone to the city not made of hands, to hold out to us a beckoning hand and bid us "come and inherit the mansion prepared for us from the foundation of the World!"

Dear ones our suffering is but momentary for life is but a "vapor," but while, we do live in this world surrounded by sin let our prayer be "Nearer My God to Thee, Nearer to Thee," and when the end comes let us be ready (it is but a few days) and there join our dear ones around the Golden Throne, there to praise Christ eternally.

We any, weep not dear ones, but thank God that He has been so merciful at to take away the "flower" of your hearts, from the sin and suffering of this life, and so soon to place the bright soul in His own home.

Dora was but little past 13 years old and yet in this time she had made a host of friends who will miss her. She had a lovely disposition which anyone could not help but love and admire. She was laid down to sleep Sunday, Dec. 11. Notwithstanding the cold and stormy day many were present to take a last look at the departing form. The beautiful flowers so bountiful strewn on her grave fully represented the young and lovely life.

She was a daughter of John W. Harper, and leaves to mourn her loss, her father, mother, three brothers, Grant (a teacher), Ivan and Elmer and four sisters, Texie Dice, Margie, Eva and Elsie, besides other relatives a host of friends. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and hope the few lines which we have written may bring comfort to them and cause them to open their hearts to God 'ere it is too late. Dec. 9, 1910

AGED CITIZEN OF NORTH FORK SECTION DIES

Another of the county's aged and much loved citizens was laid to rest recently. Mrs. Phoebe Ellen Raines, life long resident of Timber Ridge, exchanged time for eternity on Tuesday, March 22, after a brief illness of complications due to advanced age.

Funeral services were conducted at the farmhouse at ten o'clock in the morning of March 24, by Rev. E. C. Bateman, pastor of the Seneca United Brethren Church, where Mrs. Raines untied in membership in her girlhood. Rev. Don Isenberg of the Nazarene Church of Onego and a group of singers from the church and community assisted the pastor. Mother Raines was laid to rest in the family burial ground on the farm where she had spent the recent years of her life.

Phoebe Ellen Raines was born Feb. 12, 1856, making her age at time of death, 82 years, one month and 10 days. On August 11, 1877, she was united in marriage to Joseph F. Raines. Mr. Raines passed to his reward on Nov. 7, 1911.

Mrs. Raines was the mother of eleven sons and one daughter. Nine sons survive to mourn her passing, as follows: W. G. Raines, Cumberland, MD; M. L. Raines, Teterton; Ora Raines, Teterton; J. G. Raines, Brood; Ralph Raines, Brood; Clay Raines, Mouth of Seneca; Brinton Raines, Onego; Curtis Raines of Teterton and Denver Raines of Onego. Four sisters also survive, as do sixteen grandchildren.

Mrs. Raines lived a quiet, unassuming but useful life. She was a mother to all who were in need and the warm hospitality of her home, so typical of the older people of the mountains, will linger in the minds of all who knew her. May we all anticipate the reuniting some sweet day.

- iv. ORA GILTON RAINES, b. 30 Apr 1883; d. 13 Jul 1938.

Notes for ORA GILTON RAINES:

It is with deep regret that I must report we lost another of our leading citizens last week in the person of Ora Raines, of Timber Ridge. He was a son of the late Joseph and Ellen Raines. He died in Rockingham Memorial Hospital last week of complications and heart failure. His sudden and wholly unexpected death came as a deep shock to his immediate family and friends.

He was yet a comparatively young man and in the prime of his life. He was held in high esteem and well respected by all who knew him. He spent his life on the farm and in the lumber woods. He was the most even tempered man I have ever known and members of his family have told me they never saw him angry and he didn't have an enemy in the land.

He was a home loving and a very industrious character. His untimely passing will be keenly felt in his home and in the community because he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to a needy cause or neighbor. In politics he was a staunch Republican and a loyal supporter.

Funeral services were held by his pastor, Rev. E. C. Bateman, last Friday, July 15 at 11 o'clock and he was gently laid to rest in the family cemetery near his mother who preceded him to the great beyond only a few short months ago.

The large assembly of people who left harvest fields, the work shop, places of business, etc., proved the high esteem in which he was held. We extend to his family and relatives our deepest sympathy.

Notes for ROSA THOMPSON:

MRS. RAINES HAD INTERESTING LIFE IN LUMBER TOWN

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Rosie Alice Thompson Raines, was born at Riverton more than three quarters of a century ago. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson.

In her early youth she was united in marriage with a fine young man, W. G. (Bill) Raines of Onego, and they moved to Horton, which was a boom lumber town just in its prime. They operated a hotel there for a number of years while her husband served a chief lumber inspector.

With the passing of the lumber plant they moved to Maryland near Cumberland and there they ran a grocery store and filling station.

She was kind and loving wife, a devoted mother and a most congenial neighbor. We have spent many nights at their hotel when they lived in West Virginia, they fed you good and were so courteous that the time to go came too soon and you wanted to "linger longer". Her beautiful Christian character, her strong and abiding faith, her quiet and unassuming manner and her firm stand for right were noble examples of her life. Those who knew her best loved her most and spoke words of praise concerning her.

To her and Mr. Raines were born two daughters, Mrs. Stelman (Caddie) Judy of Romney and Miss Hallie Jane who preceded her in death some years ago, also her husband had passed over to life's other side some years ago. She had been ill for quiet some time and had been tenderly nursed and cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Stelman Judy and then she was sent to Kings Daughters Hospital where she died.

The body was returned to Onego and funeral services were held at Seneca EUB Church by Rev. Burr of Riverton and he brought a message that was full of inspiration and comfort. Her favorite songs were sung by the choir with Mrs. Bardon Harper as pianist. Then she was tenderly laid to rest in the Raines' Cemetery.

She was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and Royal Neighbors of America. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Judy, four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and one brother, Glen of Riverton. June 11, 1954
