

Descendants of George Richards

Generation No. 1

1. GEORGE¹ RICHARDS^{1,2,3} was born in Ireland, and died October 15, 1846 in Lloydsville, Cambria County, PA. He married CHARLOTTE BELLMAN^{4,5} Bef. 1833, daughter of JACOB BELLMAN and CHARLOTTE ??. She was born December 1813 in Tioga Co. PA, and died Aft. 1900.

Notes for GEORGE RICHARDS:

A Cambria County researcher, who was researching the oldest families in Cambria County, had provided the Obit for George's son, Emanuel Richards. This man also suggested the Cambria County Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Cambria County for the family of this Emanuel. Based on the information found to date, I am certain that this George Richards is my GGGreat Grandfather.

The following is the information found on George Richards and his offspring.

Naturalization of George Richards filed in Clearfield Co. Pa, state the following:

George Richards arrived in the United States March 29, 1828. Filed for citizenship December 4, 1832, and granted Sept. 4, 1838. [Source: Clearfield Co. Clerk of Courts.]

The closest Record I could find for a George Richards that came into the country close to that time was March 11, 1829 from London, on the ship Corinthian and lists him as a Gardiner.

* Author's note: On the document attached to the Naturalization papers, which is the page of the court docket, it states that the place of Nativity was Ireland. This is the only record to date to which George Richards himself provided the information. Obviously he should have known his place of birth. All the dates correspond with another document previously received and the signature matches. Although, we must add that on all the census records containing George Richards children, when asked where their father was born they responded with England.

Along with the published article in the Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Cambria County this is what was written regarding George Richards:

"Native of England and emigrated to America about 1830 or 1831 and located at Carthouse, Clearfield County, Pa. Married Charlotta Bellman, daughter of Jacob Bellman." [According to the records of Naturalization, this time line is incorrect.]

Petition in the Orphans Court

On the 28th day of Aug. 1871 Charlotte Bellman filed petition in the Orphans Court of Cambria County to divide the land between herself and her children. The land is described in territory and 433 acres and which land had several coal banks opened thereon at the death of said George Richards. The children are listed as follows: John Richards, Geroge B. Richards, Mary Anne married to Jacob Burg, Sarah Jane married to Daniel Spangler, Malinda married to Isaiah Haines, Hannah married to Perry Harkins, and Emanuel Richards. Charlotte was to have one equal third part of the estate. And to the children the remaining two-thirds were divided up evenly among the seven children.

Notes for CHARLOTTE BELLMAN:

Charlotta Bellman was the daughter of Jacob and Charlotte Bellman of Tioga County Pennsylvania. Charlotte married George Richards Abt. 1833 to which marriage produced seven children. It is thought by some that Charlotte had three more children after the death of George Richards. Those three children were born out of wedlock to the best of our knowledge. Of those three children, only one was recognized by Joseph Miller to be his daughter. That child was Sevilla Miller, whose mother was Charlotte Bellman Richards.

Daughter, Sevilla Miller, can be found in the 1860 census with her half-brother John Richards. Perhaps David Richards was also a child of Charlotta and Joseph Miller? He was nine months old when the census was taken, but his father had died in 1846. Joseph Miller did "recognize" Sevilla as his child because she was given the name Miller and she is listed in his Will.

In the 1850 Census, White Twp., Cambria County, Pa:

Miller, Joseph, age 39 farmer

Meany? age 13

Margaret age 11

Peter, age 9

George, age 7

Sarah, age 4

Richards, Charlotta, age 36 Both parents born in PA

Sarah J., age 8

Melinda, age 6

David, age 9 mths. (Raises the question, whose son was David, George Richards died in 1846.)

In 1860, Gulich Twp. Clearfield Co. Pa

Charlotta was living with her daughter Sarah Jane, who at that time was married to Daniel Spangler:

Daniel Spangler age 25

Sarah age 20 (Sarah was age 18 in the 1850 census)

Charlotte Richards age 50 (Charlotta was age 36 in the 1850 Census)

Elizabeth C. Bellman-[thought to be Charlotte's daughter, father unknown).

Petition in the Orphans Court

On the 28th day of Aug. 1871 Charlotte Bellman filed petition in the Orphans Court of Cambria County to divide the land between herself and her children. The land is described in territory and 433 acres and which land had several coal banks opened thereon at the death of said George Richards. The children are listed as follows: John Richards, Geroge B. Richards, Mary Anne married to Jacob Burg, Sarah Jane married to Daniel Spangler, Malinda married to Isaiah Haines, Hannah married to Perry Harkins, and Emanuel Richards. Charlotte was to have one equal third part of the estate. And to the children the remaining two-thirds were divided up evenly among the seven children.

[I have the copy to this petition if any one would like a copy.]

In 1880, she was living with a daughter, Mary E. and her husband Henry Stine age 31; Mary C. age 28; Mary C. age 1; and Charlotte Richards age 67. This is from the 1880 Logan Township, Blair County, PA census.

1900 Census:

Dixon, Josiah age 50

Elizabeth wife, age 48 and one child whose name is unknown;

David I. Dixon, son age 1

Charlotta Richards mother-in-law age 86

Josiah and Elizabeth had been married 16 years

Elizabeth was the mother of 6 children, only 3 of whom were still living. Josiah, Elizabeth and the first child are shown on the bottom of a page, which is very difficult to read. Elizabeth's husband's name was actually Isaiah Dixon, but spelled in this census record as Josiah.

According to Charlotte's son Emanuel's obit, he had two half-sisters surviving him named Mrs. Daniel Hollen and Mrs. John Dixon. We now know that Mrs. Daniel Hollen was Elizabeth and suspect that Mrs. John Dixon was Sevilla Miller. They were probably daughters Charlotte had after George Richards' death, making them half-sisters to Emanuel.

More About CHARLOTTE BELLMAN:

Census: 1850, White Twp. Cambria County, PA

Petition, Orphans Court: August 28, 1871, Cambria Co. Pa

Children of GEORGE RICHARDS and CHARLOTTE BELLMAN are:

2. i. MARY ANN² RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1833, Cambria County PA; d. Bef. 1896.
3. ii. JOHN RICHARDS, b. April 19, 1836, Blair County, PA; d. August 29, 1915, Eldorado, PA.
- iii. HANNAH RICHARDS⁶, b. 1838, Pa; d. Bef. 1896⁷; m. PERRY HARKINS⁸, January 21, 1858, White Twp. Cambria County, Pa; b. 1838, Crawford County, Pa; d. Bef. 1896.

Notes for HANNAH RICHARDS:

In the Biographical & Portrait Cyclopeda of Cambria County Pennsylvania page 55

Hannah is listed as the child of George Richards and Charlotta Bellman. This was written in 1896 and Hannah Richards married to Perrie Harkins was listed as deceased.

She is found in the 1850 Census, for White Township, Cambria County, PA, living with her sister Mary Ann:

BURGE, Jacob, head of household age 25; Mary Ann wife, age 17;

RICHARDS, Sarah age 13, sister in law

RICHARDS, Hannah age 12, sister in law

RICHARDS, Emanuel age 5, brother in law.

In the 1860 Census of Beccaria Twp. Clearfield County, Hannah 18 is living with Perry Harkins 22 in a residence next to Hannah's brother John Richards.

Obviously one of these census is off in ages. For if Hannah was indeed 12 years of age in 1850 then she would have been 22 years of age in 1860.

Notes for PERRY HARKINS:

Darlene Pyeatt gave the information on Perrie and parents.

1860 Census living in Beccaria Twp. Clearfield Co.,PA

Marriage Notes for HANNAH RICHARDS and PERRY HARKINS:

Notes for GEORGE B. RICHARDS:

Source: Biographical and Portrait Cyclopeda, Cambria County Pennsylvania Genealogy. Page 54 and 55. Captain George B. Richards, a farmer of Reade township, this county, is a son of George and Charlotta (Bellman) Richards, and was born at Allegheny Ore bank, Huntingdon county, now Blair county, Pennsylvania March 13,1838.

His father, George Richards, was a native of England, and emigrated to America about 1830 or 1831, and located at Carthouse, Clearfield county, Pennsylvania. While in his own country, he learned the trade of a stone-mason, and acquired considerable knowledge of mineralogy, and followed this pursuit as a means of gaining a livelihood of his adopted county. From Coalport, Clearfield county. His residence here was not permanent, and he soon returned to Allegheny Ore Bank. He finally located at Lloydsville, at that time called Richards Coal bank, this county, where he died in October, 1846.

He was a member of the old line Whig party, and took a normal interest in all political affairs. In religious faith he was an ardent member of the Lutheran Church.

His marriage with Charlotta Bellman, a daughter of Jacob Bellman, of Tioga county, Pennsylvania, resulted in the birth of seven children, three sons and four daughters: Mary Ann, deceased, who was the wife of Jacob Burge; John, a veterinary surgeon of Blair county, Pennsylvania; George B; Sarah Jane, wife of James Bowman, a blacksmith, of Allmansville, Clearfield county; Hannah, deceased, who was the wife of Perrie Harkins; Malinda, deceased, who was the wife of Isaac Haines, and Emanuel of Madera, Clearfield county.

George B. Richards was educated in the common schools of Cambria and Blair counties, and, prior to the Civil War, earned a comfortable living as a day laborer. When the crisis of civil war threatened the dismemberment of our Union, he was one of the first 75,000 volunteers to respond to President Lincoln's call for troops. April 21,1861, he enlisted in company "D," Fourteenth regiment, Pennsylvania Militia infantry, and served four months. September 14, 1861, he re-enlisted in company "D," Fifty-third regiment, Pennsylvania infantry, and was appointed first corporal, but was soon raised to the rank of sergeant, and again first sergeant. He received his discharge in December, 1863, and re-enlisted the same month in his former company, where he was promoted to the office of first lieutenant. His career was one of advancement; his services in behalf of his country received due recognition, and he was again promoted; this time he was raised to the rank of captain. His regiment belonged to the Army of the Potomac, and in all the engagements in which he participated the only injury he received was while at Savage Station; he suffered a sunstroke, which impaired his left elbow, and rendered him a cripple for life.

After receiving his discharge from the military service, July 10, 1865, he purchased a farm in Reade township, this county, on which he located in August, 1865, where he has since been actively engaged in agricultural pursuits.

He is a member of David Truxel Post, 421, G.A.R., at Glasgow, a member of Washington Camp, No. 56, P.O.S. of A., of Glasgow, and of the agricultural order of the Grange at Mount Pleasant, Clearfield county, Pennsylvania. In politics he affiliates with the Republican party, and has filled some of the local offices.

His marriage with Susan E. Beers, a daughter of John Beers, a carpenter and farmer (who served as a volunteer in the war with Mexico), near Fallen Timbers, this county, was celebrated March 30, 1865.Note, no children listed.

1850 Census, White Twp. Cambria Co.

George Richards age 13 is found living in the household of George Lamer and wife Mary. Also living in the household was Mary Davis age 18. Next door to the Lamer's was the household of James Bowman and wife Barbara with children George, Susan, Samuel, Jacob and Mary E.

March 30th, 1865 Susan E. Beers married George B. Richards they resided in what was known as Reade Twp., Cambria County, Pa. on a farm that George had purchased. Susan was approximately 14 yrs old when she married the 26 year old George B. Richards.

Affidavit to Origin of Disability.

Jacob Burge gave this account in the case for pension of Capt. George B. Richards:

We were on the retreat from in front of Richmond to Harrison landing and claimant was with the Company at the time. I believe heart disease was the result of sunstroke as I knew claimant long before he went to the Army, worked with him and for him the winter of 1860 knew him to be strong able bodied man saw him immediately after sunstroke knew him having shortness of breath there after. Have seen him at least once in every six months since the war and know that he is still affected with shortness of breath. I have my belief on the facts above stated also by self experience being sunstroke my self and experiencing the same results. Jacob made his mark X which ends the document.

Allemansville, Gulich, Clearfield Co. Pa¹⁶. She married (1) DANIEL SPANGLER Bef. 1867. She married (2) BOWMAN Aft. 1874.

Notes for SARAH JANE RICHARDS:

Picture of gravestone gives date of birth and death of Sarah Jane Richards Bowman.

On Sarah's death certificate it lists her father as John Richards of England and mother unknown. If Sarah was the daughter of George and she was born in 1840, she was only Abt. 6 years old when George passed away. John, being the oldest child may have taken the responsibility of raising Sarah, Malinda and Emanuel. Could explain why some of the death certificates of George's children list John as the father.

According to Sarah's death certificate, her mother is listed as being born in England. Father was listed a J Richards and mother's maiden name scratched out and "don't know" written in. She was married at time of death. She is buried next to her husband, Daniel Spangler.

She is found in the 1860 census in Gulich Township, Clearfield County, PA: Spangler, Daniel (25); Spangler, Sarah (20); and Richards, Charlotte (50). According to the biography written about Sarah's brother George -- which was published about 1896 -- Sarah was "wife of James Bowman, a blacksmith, of Allmansville, Clearfield county." (Source: Biographical & Portrait Cyclopedia of Cambria County Pennsylvania, p. 55.)

In the 1870 census, Gulich Township, Clearfield County, PA: Spangler, Daniel (35); Sarah J. (29); and Levi (3) .

Notes for EMANUEL RICHARDS:

Emanuel Richards at 59 years old was 5'11" at 185 #'s with sandy and gray hair with a fair complexion with grey eyes.

Emanuel Richards, first thought to be Nathaniel Richards in a family letter written in 1981. However, Dale Britten was researching the older families of Cambria Co. PA and posted Emanuel's obit on the Cambria County site. All the children matched the letter to the obit. Finally, a major break after years of dead end! The names of Emanuel and Nathaniel are very close and could easily be confused in the memory of my elder Richards informant. She was recalling events and names of 50 to 70 years prior. Not many can do that today and be as accurate as she has been.

In this same letter from my Aunt, Emanuel's first wife's name is given as Susan Smith, (which she was found with Emanuel in the 1880 census below) and the second wife listed as Jinny [Linny].

I was searching through some archive records and found a woman who had listed a book belonging to her great grandmother. The book belonged to Mrs. Francis Warner who was widowed with young children. Francis ran a boarding house in Blandburg Pa to support her family. This book was used as a source of keeping track of boarders. I thought it a long shot, but contacted the woman. She replied and shared the information.

Hi Debra,

I'll have to dig up the book and start posting again.

My GGrandmother was Frances Warner, nee Frank, she was widowed while her children were very young, she ran a boarding house in Bburg, there is a hotel in Lloydsville still standing. She remarried to a Ralph Edmiston. Her father-in-law was James Warner, he is the one that I can't find the date of death, I have him on the 1920 census and his son's obit, who died in 1921, states that he was preceded in death by his father.

Hopefully, now that things have settled down somewhat for me, I can get back into research, I'm ready. these last few years have been very hectic. It's a whole other story, I should write a book.

Glad to have helped.

Name withheld to protect privacy of author

"Manuel Richards died Feb. 23, 1925" (The dates match my Emanuel Richards.)

This had been the first time I had seen Emanuel referred to as Manuel Richards.

So I decided to run with it and research the name Manuel Richards also. That is when I found Manuel Richards married Melinda (now known as Emma N. Nevling) "LINNIE" Nevling on 01/04/1893 in Clearfield County Archive marriages. The marriage took place in Madera, Clearfield County. Janet Nevling has been researching the Nevling Family along with Lowell Thomas. Janet and Lowell had Manuel Richards married to Melinda "LINNIE" Nevling with the marriage record of Clearfield County, Pa as 01/04/1893. We already knew that on William Richards death certificate, Linnie is listed as his mother. However, Linnie is not William's mother for she married Emanuel 19 years after William was born. The marriage of Emanuel and Linnie produced three children, Nellie, Fred and Thomas (who may have been the name sake of Linnie's father?)

Obit reads:

Emanuel Richards, 79 , farmer and Civil War veteran, died 23 Feb 1925 at his home in Glasgow, Pa. He was a Private in Company C 13th Regt. Services will be held in the Pleasant Hill UB Church. Surviving children are: John, George, Robert, Fred, Thomas, Christopher, William, Hayes, Mrs. Norman Good, Mrs.Clem Condreit and Mrs. John Steeley; two half sisters Mrs. Daniel Hollen and Mrs. John Dixon; 72 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. (Altoona Tribune, Feb 27,1925 sent to me by Dale Britten.)

The the only information we have on parents is conflicting:

Death Certificate of Emanuel Richards:

On Emanuel's death certificate he was widowed, his father's name is given as JOHN while his mother's name is unknown. The father is also listed as being born in Pa. Information on death certificate was given by Emanuel's son William.

[Author's note *It is quite possible that John raised Emanuel following the death of their father, George in 1846. Emanuel was only a few months old at the time of George Richards death.]

*According to the Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Cambria County; Emanuel is listed as the child of George Richards of England [Ireland] and Charlotte Bellman [Belman] of Tioga County PA.

*A Petition Filed in Orphans Court by Charlotte Bellman Richards also has Emanuel listed as a son.

Petition in the Orphans Court:

On the 28th day of Aug. 1871 Charlotte Richards filed petition in the Orphans Court of Cambria County to divide the land between herself and her children. The land is described in territory and 433 acres and which land had several coal banks opened thereon at the death of said George Richards. The children are listed as follows: John Richards, Geroge B. Richards, Mary Anne married to Jacob Burg, Sarah Jane married to Daniel Spangler, Malinda married to Isaiah Haines, Hannah married to Perry Harkins, and EMANUEL Richards. Charlotte was to have one equal third part of the estate. And to the children the remaining two-thirds were divided up evenly among the seven children.

Service Record:

Emanuel Richards: Enlisted as a Private on 23 March 1864 and Mustered out on 14 July 1865 in Raleigh, NC.(History of Pennsylvania Volunteers,1861-1865. (PA Roster)Published in 1870)

Emanuel was a Private in Co. C, 13 Regiment of the PA Cavalry. He enrolled at Hollidaysburg, Blair County, PA on March 23, 1864 and was honorably discharged at Raleigh, North Carolina on July 14, 1865. The rolls show him present during that time, except for October 23 to December 28, 1864, when he was sick in the hospital with a fever and chronic diarrhea. He was returned to duty. Information given on his pension application shows that he was 5' 9" tall; with a fair complexion; blue eyes; light-colored hair; and that his occupation was laborer. After leaving the service he lived in Philpsburg, PA for yrs; Curwensville, PA for 3 yrs; and Madera, PA for 10 years; remainder in Blandsburg, Cambria County Pa. When he completed his Declaration for Pension on October 5, 1908, he was a resident of Blandburg, Cambria County, PA. [Source: NWCTB- Pension Soldier's Certificate # 838802] I have the complete civil war service record on this individual.

*Author's note: The 1910 Census leads me to believe that Melinda, Emanuel's second wife, died prior to this census. In addition, Emanuel's death certificate of 1925 states he was widowed.

In the 1920 Census Reade Township, Cambria County, PA
Richards, Emanuel, age 73, laborer (Emanuel should have been 63)
Fred, son, age 26, laborer

The information you have just read is what we have found during our research. It is what we believe to be our ancestors. We have the letter from my Aunt, along with an Obits of Emanuel and his son Geroge B. Richards, Emanuel's pension records, death certificates and various court records. Along with census records. The information as a whole is what we have based our assumption. You will need to make your own assessments.

On the marriage license for Emanuel's second marriage to Emma Malinda Nevling, it states that his first wife [Susan] died August 26,1892. This is where we have obtained the date of death for Susan Smith Richards.

According to Alexander Cemetery Records, there is no record of Susan Richards or Susan Smith being buried at this cemetery as stated by another researcher.

That same researcher has no cemetery infomation listed under the name of Susan Smith, yet she claims Susan is buried in Alexander Cemetery. She has that information listed under the notes of an Infant Richards.

These are the Richards buried in Alexander Cemetery:

Notes for EMMA MALINDA NEVLING:

Russ Hippo had found the Emma Nevling and the date of marriage to "Emanuel Richards". Janet and I found Manuel Richards married to Melinda Nelving. Both had the same dates of marriage. But it wasn't until Janet made reference to Melinda as Linnie that I knew we had our correct wife. Now how the name Emma came about, we really aren't sure. Some people may have referred to her as Emma, while family members referred to her as Linnie. Or, it could have just been transcribed incorrectly, like Emanuel's name on the records we found. 04/12/03* I just received the Marriage License for "Emma N. Nevling" and Emanuel Richards. Bride's name clearly states Emma N. Nevling and her father is listed as Thomas Nevling, (mother is not listed for the bride). Emanuel's parents are listed as George and what looks like Emma, clearly not Charlotte. Sends us all searching again, or the person filling out the document made a mistake with Emanuel's mother's name.

Email from a Nevling Family Member:

Hi Debra,

I see that you will have to change some of the entries about Malinda Nevling. I believe you have her entered as Emma. I have the marriage date, in Madera, of 4 Jan 1893, but now I cannot find this information in the list of Clearfield County Marriages which we got at the courthouse in Clearfield last September. But the marriage date makes sense with regard to the three children you have, i.e., Fred, b. 1894, Nellie, b. 1897, and Thomas, b. 1899. Melinda was born in 1858, so she had that last child when she was 41. Do you have a death date for her? You seem to indicate that she died before Emanuel did in 1925. [authors note: Emanuel's death certificate states he was widowed] I have looked at the Pleasant Hill cemetery site and found Nevlings and Scotts. Her brother Fillmore and his wife Mary Ann Emigh are buried at Pleasant Hill, and her brother-in-law, John Wesley Scott and other Scotts are also buried there. The family must have been centered around Glasgow. The father and mother, Thomas Nevling and Caroline Palmer Nevling, had 300 acres of land in Gulich Twp in 1878 which they inherited from his father John Adam Nevling, but one son, John Adam Nevling was hanged for murder in Clearfield in March 1882. I don't know whether the siblings moved to Cambria County before or after this time. Father Thomas Nevling also is said to have died in 1882. Mother Caroline is buried in Hillcrest Cemetery in Clearfield. I have been quite fascinated with the Thomas Nevling family. Malinda was born in 1858 as she is listed as 2 years old on the 1860 census. That's all for now. You certainly do have a great many Richards in your list. Wow!!!

Congrats on being such a good detective.

Janet

This is what was written on the inside cover of the book of Francis Warner:

"Manuel Richards died Feb. 23, 1925" (The dates match my Emanuel Richards.)

This had been the first time I had seen Emanuel referred to as Manuel Richards.

So I decided to run with it and research the name Manuel Richards also. That is when Manuel Richards married

Melinda "LINNIE" Nevling on 01/04/1893 in Clearfield County Archive marriages was found. The marriage took place in Madera, Clearfield County. Janet Nevling has been researching the Nevling Family along with Lowell Thomas. Janet and Lowell had Manuel Richards married to Melinda "LINNIE" Nevling with the marriage record of Clearfield County, Pa as 01/04/1893. We already knew that on William Richards death certificate, Linnie is listed as his mother. However, Linnie is not William's mother for she married Emanuel 19 years after William was born. The marriage of Emanuel and Linnie produced three children, Nellie, Fred and Thomas (who may have been the name sake of Linnie's father?)

Susan [Smith] Richards died on August 26, 1892 which the family has stated was due to child birth. This child would likely be the child she was delivering at time of death.

It is thought this child to be buried in the Alexandria Cemetery of Madera Township, Clearfield County, Pa. However, there is no record in Alexandria Cemetery to support the funeral card found. It is possible that the headstone is no longer standing.

Another reseacher, (unrelated to this family) states that Susan Smith Richards is also buried in Alexander Cemetery. Here is the list of Richards buried in that cemetery. None of which are Susan. If she is in fact buried in this cemetery, she does not have marker.

9. ROBERT³ RICHARDS (*EMANUEL*², *GEORGE*¹) was born Abt. 1864. He married AGNES?? Abt. 1890³⁸. She was born 1866.

Notes for ROBERT RICHARDS:

In the 1910 Census, Cambria County, PA, there is a Robert Richards found living in the household right next to Emanuel Richards. In that census, however, Robert's age is given as 45, while Emanuel's is given as 53. Emanuel should have actually been 64 in 1910. Perhaps it was actually 63 -- instead of 53 -- since Emanuel's age at the time the 1920 census was taken was 73.

In the 1910 Census: Richards, Robert age 45; farmer; married 20 years; Agnes wife, age 44;
Annie daughter age 18;
Evelynann daughter age 17;
Irene daughter age 14;
Alise daughter age 11;
boarders William Coulter age 47; William McDonald age 55 and Andrew McClintock.

In the 1920 Census in Reade Township, Cambria County, PA, two households away from Emanuel Richards is a Robert Richards, age 56; coal mining;

Emily age 26;
boarder William McDonald age 65.

Notes for MARY RACHEL WITHERITE:

According to Aunt Arilda's, (Esty's wife), letter to Shirley Richards, it was thought that Roseworth was Mary's mother's maiden name. According to Mary's death certificate, Mary's mother's surname was Susan Bishop.

I have seen that name on the census records and will post it at a later date. To view Aunt Arilda's letter, go to Shirley Richards, then view family. However, we do have more documentation that Mary's maiden name was Witherite or Witherwright. Mary's mother married a second time to Tom Hurd and had two daughters and a son from that marriage. Tom and Lena, other unknown.

William was born in 1877, so Linnie(Emma Nevling) was not his mother. The marriage between Linnie (Emma Nevling) and Emanuel did not take place until 1893. However, the family would not have known Susan Smith Richards for she died soon after the birth of her last child. Which would have been Ida Mae Richards. Therefore, the family may have given the only information to which they had knowledge.

On the obit of her brother, George B. Richards, March 10, 1947, Ida was listed as Mrs. Ida Buck. So it is safe to assume that she married William Buck sometime between 1930 and 1947.

On her death certificate, her father's name is given as Emmanuel Richards, with mother's name "unknown."

Clement died on Oct. 23, 1927 at 5:30.

Notes for CLEMENT FRANCIS COUDRIET:

Clement Francis Coudriet is the full name of this individual.

Clement worked in the steel mill in MacDonald Ohio.

Clement's death certificate has no year of birth, Dec 29 born date, death Oct. 23 1927 / age 44 yrs. 9 m. 24 days. He died in Oct but that would mean he was 44y 11m and he was born 1882. Clement Coudriet and Ida Richards marriage license dated 21 Dec. 1903 has Clement as 20 yrs of age which would put his birth Abt 1882, in 8 days he would be 21. Clement is buried in Osceola Mills, Clearfield Co., Pa.

Clement was 20 when he got married in 1903. That would put his birth in 1883. Ida was 16. [Source Eileen Druzak]

Effie was actually a daughter-in-law, being married to William. Everyone in the household was born in PA.

I found Fred married to Olive Richardson. During the late 1940's lived in Williamsport, Pa. This information came from the children of Olive and Fred. According to his brother's obit, Fred was living in Williamsport in 1947. So I think I have found our Fred Richards, son of Emanuel and Emma Nevling Richards. I have filed for their marriage application and Olive's death certificate.

18. NELLIE³ RICHARDS (*EMANUEL*², *GEORGE*¹)⁶² was born May 14, 1897 in Gulich, Clearfield County, Pa⁶³, and died 1974. She married JOHN QUAY STEELEY November 28, 1918 in Clearfield Co. Pa. He was born Abt. 1898 in Harrisburg, Pa.

Notes for NELLIE RICHARDS:

Birth Certificate:

Note: Book 1, page 222, Line 28 has Nellie's birth date as 05/14/1897 in Clearfield County, Orphans Court, Pa.

1910 Census Cambria County, PA

Fred, son, age 16

Nellie, daughter, age 13

Thomas, son, age 11

William, son, age 33

Effie, daughter (daughter in law), age 28

Dewey, grandson, age 12 (son of William and Effie)

It would appear that Emma had died prior to this census.

From the Altoona Mirror, April 15, 1914; Lloydsville: Miss Nelly Richards of Osceola Mills came home Saturday due to the illness of her father, Emanuel Richards. Christ Richards & brother William of Osceola Mills were here last week visiting their father, E M. Richards.

Obviously at this time of the article, Nellie was still single. However, in her father's obit, Nellie is listed as Mrs. John Steeley. So Nellie must have married between 1914 and 1925.

I found a marriage record for Nellie G. Richards to John O. Steery on 11/28/1918.

I have a feeling that John O. Steery is actually John Steeley and transcribed incorrectly. According to the application of marriage for Nellie G. Richards, this is the correct date of marriage. Someone has transcribed the name of John incorrectly on the books.

Nellie married John Q. Seely in 1918, on the Application for Marriage License, her parents' names were given as Samuel Richards and Emma Nevling. Clearly another mistake, for her father's name was Emanuel Richards.

1920 census in Williamsport, Lycoming County, PA:

STEELY, John Quay age 23

wife Nellie E. age 24

brother James age 38

Everyone in the household was born in PA. John's occupation merchant in a hardware store; James occupation salesman in a hardware store.

1930 census in Loyalsock, Lycoming County, PA:

boarder James REINER age 25

John and Nellie married when they were both 21 years old. Everyone in the household was born in PA. John's occupation listed as retail merchant / gasoline service station; Nellie's occupation was listed as saleslady / gasoline service station.

Notes for JOHN QUAY STEELEY:

He's found in the 1910 Miracode Index in Snyder County, PA: STEELY, Sarah E. (51); sons James W. (29) and John Q. (12). Everyone in the household was born in PA.

When he married Nellie in 1918, on the Application for Marriage License, his name is given as John Q. Steery. He was a machinist who was born in Harrisburg, PA. His father was John J. Steery (deceased) and mother Sarah E. Roming. His father had been a school teacher.

He's found in the 1920 census in Williamsport, Lycoming County, PA: STEELY, John Quay (23); wife Nellie E. (24); brother James (38). Everyone in the household was born in PA. John was a merchant in a hardware store; James was a salesman in a hardware store.

He's found in the 1930 census in Loyalsock, Lycoming County, PA: STEELEY, John (33); wife Nellie (33); son Jack (9); boarder James REINER (25). John and Nellie married when they were both 21 years old. Everyone in the household was born in PA. John was a retail merchant / gasoline service station; Nellie was a saleslady / gasoline service station.

[There is another John Steeley who some have confused with this John Steeley, claiming he was born May 16, 1898 and died November 20, 1969 in Florida. This John Steeley was born in PA, and according to his application for marriage license, was a son of John Steeley and Sarah Romig. The John Steeley who died in Florida in 1969, however, was born in Kentucky and was a son of John C. Steeley and Fannie Jones.]

Notes for CAROLYN ANN CRAMER:

Carloyn is the daughter of Lida Irene Biles Cramer.

Lida Irene Biles was raised by her mother's cousin, Daisy Mae Matthews Cramer. Lida was legally adopted by Daisy Mae and John Cramer. In a rare letter my Grandmother, Lida Biles Cramer Cornell, retains from her father John Biles, written to Daisy Matthews Cramer, John expressed that he had received the adoption papers and it was the hardest thing that he ever had to do in signing those papers allowing Daisy and husband John to legally adopt Lida.

Carolyn Ann who was conceived out of wedlock, took on the legal name of her mother which was Cramer.

Carolyn Ann Cramer was born to Lida Irene Biles Cramer and John Seaton Langley. Lida and John were never married. When Carolyn Ann was born, Lida was told by family members of the Biles family, who wanted to raise Lida's baby, to allow them to adopt the baby. Daisy Mae Cramer, who raised Lida as her mother, would not hear of Lida putting the baby up for adoption. Daisy and John Cramer showed their devotion to their adopted daughter and supported her through this most difficult time.

Lida later married Argil Basel Cornell, who helped to raise Carolyn as his own child. In fact, the entire Cornell family embraced Carolyn as their own. Carolyn went to school and graduated from North Union High School where she met her first husband, Harold Edward Richards, son of James E. Richards and Christina Wilson Steel Richards. Carolyn and Harold settled in Uniontown Pa until the birth of their third child. Harold was hired by the Ford Motor Company and was employed at their Walton Hills, Ohio Stamping Plant. The couple moved to Akron Ohio in April of 1955.

Harold remained at the Ford Motor Company Stamping Plant until a head on collision claimed his life. Leaving behind five young children for his wife Carolyn to raise.

Email received from David's son David:

Hi Debbie,

You have done an enormous amount of research on our family. Let me just ask you to correct one detail. David Leroy Richards is my father and has not passed away. We just recently took interest in our family history. Cathy had told us that you had done this work, but with her computer not in service, she had forgotten your email address. We thought by posting the information we knew on Ancestry.com you may see it and respond. It will take us some time to go through the entire tree, but really like what you have done. I see you even have some of my mother's family listed. Thank you for all the work and time you have put into researching our family. A job well done.

Pennsylvania¹¹⁰, and died August 17, 1997 in Youngstown, Mahoning Co., Oh.¹¹⁰.

Notes for PAUL EUGENE SR. HIPPO:
[WilliamRobertHippo.FTW]

My Dad, Gene Hippo as he was known his entire life was raised by his grand Mother Cecelia (Sybert) Hippo and he Loved her dearly maybe more then anyone or anything in the world, at least that's what I used to think when ever he spoke her name. From all the stories I've heard about great grandma Celia she was a wonderful person and I pray there is a heaven where they'll meet and be together again. Gene was a Navy veteran of W.W.II. He met his first wife Edith while in the Navy and in Mississippi for training. They lived in Juniata, Blair Co, Pa. and had two children there. Gene worked as a Fireman in Juniata / Altoona area in his younger day's. At some point in there marriage they moved to Chicago from Juniata where they ended up getting a divorce.

Gene moved to Youngstown, Ohio where some of his Aunt's and Uncle's moved to in search of work. My uncle " Johnny " Juan Cardona who was dating my mom's sister Ida at that time (later Married) told me my dad was fairly new in town and really didn't know anyone other than relatives so he introduced Gene to Esther (My Parents) . Gene eventually got hired at U.S. Steel which was a very good paying job with excellent benefits and alot of layoff's, we lived in 5 different homes during my school yrs. and 2-4 before that. He retired from U.S. Steel with a disability pension due to a serious stroke when he was in his early 50's, he had alot of health problems from there on which were all related to clogged Arteries, Diabetes, High Blood Pressure . Gene, just like his maternal mother Bert loved to go to Bingo, let me tell you this did little good for his blood pressure and his other problem's, room filled with smoke and though not suppose to, still ate greasy and high cholesterol food's, pizza, hot dog's, etc. He loved to go back to Juniata / Altoona to visit old friend's and relative's and most of all to the Hippo Family Reunion which was held in Aug. each yr. at Bland Park now called Del Grosso's which is who always owned it. also in his healthier day's he loved to go to the local stock car race's on the week end's and fishing. I miss him truly, and wish he was still with us, but I'm glad for the extra yr's he was given to make it to 70 1/2 yr's of age and when his time came, it was at this point for the best for he was suffering and no longer able to fight the battle for life as he did for so many years before. [Source: Russ Hippo]

Notes for TERANCE EUGENE CALLAHAN:

Terry Callahan was this author's brother in law. As with many individuals, Terry made his share of mistakes. However, this man was a wonderful father and husband. More than anything in this world, he loved his children and wife.

[Editor's note: In a telephone conversation with Thomas Callahan and his step mother, they have stated what another individual has posted on the internet regarding this family is completely false. At no time did Terry Callahan ever lose custody of his son Thomas. They are extremely upset at the insensitive comments made regarding their father/ husband. 08/08/04]

[We will not deviate from the manner in which we display information on deceased individuals. Just because another researcher attempts to portray this man in a negative manner, does not mean that we should lower our standards. Most families have things they wish not to be plastered all over the internet. We respect the privacy of all individuals despite our personal feelings and attacks made on our family.]

46. DEBRA LYNN⁶ RICHARDS (HAROLD EDWARD⁵, JAMES EDWARD⁴, GEORGE B³, EMANUEL², GEORGE¹)^{17,118} was born March 12, 1955 in Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa.. She married LIVING MURRAY^{119,120} November 24, 1973 in St. Pius X, Bedford, Ohio¹²¹, son of GEORGE MURRAY and MARIE VOURRON. He was born April 26, 1951 in Garfield Hts., Ohio¹²².

Notes for DEBRA LYNN RICHARDS:

Debra Lynn Richards was born 03/12/1955 in Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa.

Her family resided in Bedford, Cuyahoga County, Ohio for much of her life.

Debra graduated from Bedford High School in 1973. She met living Murray through a friend, Tom B, and they were married November 24,1973. Regarding her in laws, George and Marie Murray, they always treated Debra as a daughter. The girls and Debra remained close to both George and Marie until their deaths.

Descendents of Michael Beeghly and Barro Iken, Book III, Joseph Beeghly and Mary Keagy; page 73 Family Group #730C. Debra Lynn Richards, 730, Fernway St., Maple Hts. Ohio, was b. Mar.12, 1955 at Uniontown, Pa. m. Lawrence M. Murray who was b. Apr. 26,1951 at Maple Hts., Ohio, son of George Murray and Marie. Delivery truck driver. Catholic. Lisa Marie, Sept. 12,1974.

Debra had her first child at age 19, Lisa Marie Murray and her second child Carrie Ann Murray at age 22. Divorce was filed and granted 06/23/1978 when her youngest child was less than a year old. The two children remained in the custody of their mother. Cuyahoga County, Ohio Case # 092581 Case #202856 TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDER GRTD. HEARING SET FOR JUNE 14, 1990 AT 8:45 A.M. ROOM 305. OSJ. VOL 1634 PG. 887-889. NOTICE ISSUED. Case # CV-91-210985

Many obstacles were faced by this young mother with infant children. For the first six years of divorced life, she was the primary provider and care giver for her daughters. At the age of 25 years, she suffered a stroke. It was the immense love for her daughters, along with strong faith and family support that enabled Debra to fight back. She regained full use and directed her attention to the job of raising her daughters.

During the period of raising her children, Debra chose to remain single. There was no need for marriage out of necessity, as was the situation with ancestors before her. Debra purchased a home two years ago completely on her own. Since her daughter was in need of a place to stay with the baby, this home worked out perfectly. Just large enough for the three, but small enough to maintain for one individual when that time came.

In an recommendation from a former employer he had this to say about Debra: "Debra is a self starter, needs little direction. A responsible and reliable woman who is willing to do whatever need be to get the task done. In the years I have known her as an employee I have come to depend on her and her keen sense to work through and resolve any given situation." This just about states how Debra has approached every task in life, should it be employment or personal. She does whatever need be to get the job done! [Sandra Richards] long. It was the greatest joy of my life to aid in the delivery of my first grandchild. The moment she arrived, her eyes opened and she looked straight at me. The midwife helped her out and she clasped my finger. Believe me, she does have grandma wrapped around her little finger. The bond that MacCaila and I share began the moment she was born and continued to grow during the first two years she and Carrie lived with me.

I was truly blessed to have had the experience of welcoming her into our world. Sharing those precious daily moments of the first two years was a joy. Coming in to greet her each morning and singing a little morning song, she would smile and reach with those little arms to be held. Today she still finds love and comfort in grandma's arms and they will always be there to hold her.

At two years old she expresses her compassion and love for her grandma. Yesterday, 04/07/03 I was experiencing a terrible sinus headache. Mac sat on the couch with my head in her lap and kept kissing and patting my head very gently. When Carrie came to pick her up, she wasn't going anywhere till I told her I was feeling much better and would see her tomorrow.

MacCaila is now three years old and still has Grammy wrapped around that little finger. Her mother told me a story this past week. When MacCaila was asked who she loved most, she responded with "Grammy". This was during a little interview by her step grandmother's boss. This boss happens to be an attorney and was giving a little interview with MacCaila. After a number of questions, the attorney asked MacCaila, who do you love most in your life? When the attorney repeated what she thought she heard MacCaila say "Oh you love your Momo, that's nice"; MacCaila was quick to correct her and said "Oh No! My Grammy, I love my Grammy!"

MacCaila's middle name was chosen due to the first female child being born after the death of our grandmother, Christina Wilson Steel. MacCaila's middle name, Steel, will hopefully keep the long time tradition of our ancestors.
