In 1790 D.F. Gunn was living in Nash's district of Caswell County, North Carolina.

Around 1799 Daniel and his brother Jesse Thomas Gunn Sr. migrated to Wilkes County, Georgia. Daniels grandson James M. Gunn later knick-named his only child "Wilkes" Gunn because this was the county that this Gunn line first came to in Georgia.

In September 1998, I spoke with Mayor Hugh Harris of Lumber City, who remembers back in the 1950's a man the townfolk called Mr. Johnson. He says he recalls this ancestor because it was right before he went into the Army and the town barbar told him that Mr. Johnson had tolf him that he did not want to be embalmed at death. Mayor Harris said some of his folks from outside the county came and got his remains at death. Hugh also stated that the Telfair Enterprise ran ana article on Johnson, because he was over 105 years old.

I have corresponded with Maybelle Gunn Ward, daughter of Otis Gunn and granddaughter of Johnson Gunn, and she believes that Johnson may be buried near China Hill in Telfair County. She dosent remember much but remembers "Grannie Palace".

Lady at health department said a funeral home by the name of Harris & Smith ran off with all the death records.

68. James Wilson "Wilkes"⁸ Gunn (James Monroe⁷, James W.⁶, Daniel Franklin⁵, John⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², Nathaniel Pistole¹) was born August 25, 1860 in Moultrie, Georgia¹, and died May 10, 1922 in Berlin, Georgia. He married (1) Dicie Anna Lucinda Norman² March 13, 1879 in Moultrie, Georgia², daughter of Moses Norman and Louisa Ursury. She was born August 8, 1861 in Norman Park, Georgia. He met (2) Laura May Lewis March 1, 1919 in Camilla, Georgia³. She was born 1870.

Notes for James Wilson "Wilkes" Gunn:

James Wilson "Wilkes" Gunn was born on April 13, 1860 in Greenfield, Georgia too James M. Gunn and Nancy McMullin reportedly of Cherokee descent. Wikes father James M. Gunn was a steam mill operator at Joel Graves bucket shop in Greenfield Georgia. No one know where the Wilkes nickname came from. One therory is that Wilkes live on the Wilkes family land near Berlin Georgia doing share cropping around the turn of the last century.

Wilkes father, James M. Gunn never returned from the war in the North after being released from Ft. Mc Henry Maryland military prison at the close of the Civil War in 1865. My mother Jennie Gunn said the family last heard of him being near Atlanta somewhere. It's possible that he died in some military hospital and lies in an unknown grave. The following year of 1866 Wilson's mother remarried William E. "Bill" Johnson at the Old Hopewell Church near Moultrie, Georgia. William E. Johnson had served in a local home guard unit of the Confederancy with Wilkes's uncles, William Daniel and Evander Gunn.

Wilkes grew up as the oldest child of five step brothers and a step sister, all Johnson's but him. On June 24, 1870 at the time of the census this family was living in the Rankin District of Brooks County, Georgia. His mother and step father Nancy and Bill Johnson was also living close by in Brooks County.

On March 13, 1879 Wilkes married Dicy Anna Lucinda Norman of Colquitt County Georgia. Rev A.D. Patterson performed the service. Dicy Norman was the daughter of Moses C. Norman, whose brother James B. Norman was one of the founders of Norman Park, Georgia in Colquitt County. Thse Norman kin are descendents of the Dorchester Colony and Midway Church in Liberty County Georgia.

On November 1, 1880 Wilkes and Dicy's first child James W. "Jim" Gunn was born. Two years later my grandfather Henry Moses Gunn was born after the family had moved to Madison County, Florida. Following Henry in birth order was Elisa, Van, Davis, Nancy and Daniel. On February 3, 1894 James Wilson Gunn Jr. was born to Wilkes and Dicey.

On November 28, 1894 Wilkes and Dicy allowed Mr. W.J. Rhodes of Colquitt County to "adopt" children, Jim, Henry and Elisa Gunn, as recorded in the records of the Colquitt County Superior Courts. Six years later at the time of the 1900 census these children were back living with their birth parents Wilkes and Dicy. The reason for this "loaning out" is unknown.

On May 17, 1899, the last child born to this couple was Susie Gunn. They had a total of nine children. This was the last child born to Wilkes and Dicy Gunn.

On June 28, 1900 the census shows Wilkes, Dicy and family living in Autryville, Colquitt County, Georgia in Militia District #1445. Wilkes was working in the turpentine business. Children at home were, Henry, Davis, Lisa, Van, Daniel, Nancy, and Susie.

On March 28, 1902 his son Henry Moses Gunn married Jencie Hunt and left home. Henry and Jencie married at grandma Dicey Baker's home in Pineboro, Georgia. It was around this time that Wilson and Dicy ceased living together as man and wife

In 1908 Wilkes son Jefe Gunn is born in Georgia.

In 1912 Wilkes son Jeme Gunn is born in Georgia.

In 1918 or 1919 Wilkes son Ben Gunn is born in Georgia.

Wilkes Gunn married Laura Lewis who was formerly married to a Mr. Parks on March 1, 1919 in neighboring Mitchell county.

The 1920 census of Mitchell County Georgia shows Wilkes Gunn living with a wife names Laura. They have three sons named Jefe, Jeme and Ben. They are living in the Parker District.

In October 1929 Wilkes Gunn while living outside Berlin Georgia, died from heart dropsy. According to my mother Jennie Gunn he was buried by step brothers Luke and Brink Johnson at the Hopewell Baptist Church Cemetery. Note: All attempts at locating a grave for Wilkes Gunn at Hopewell Baptist Church has failed. Wilkes step brothers Brink, Luke and a few more are buried at Hopewell. According to family legend he did not want to be buried at Hopewell and even threatened digging out and running if the family members buried him in the church cemetery.

The graves of Wilkes Gunn, first wife Dicy Anna Lucinda Gunn and second wife Laura May Lewis Parks Gunn has not been found. Family legend says that Dicy Gunn died in an asylum when my grandfather Henry Moses Gunn was about fourteen years old (1899). My grandfather Henry Moses Gunn did not find out about his mothers death until years later.

CHRONOLOGY

On February 29, 1912 Jennie was born on this leap year in Moultrie Georgia. She was born on the Sam Mays place near an old horse barn, near the old Sardis church. The closest town was Berlin, Georgia. In 1918 Jennie went to first grade at Funston school and Jennie attended second grade in Brooks County where an old lady taught school in one room of her house. Her brother Clyde was born at this place.

In 1921 Jennie went to Culberson School during the fourth, fifth and sixth grade, she was age 16 in the sixth grade because she had to miss some years helping on the farm. She played basketball during the fifth and sixth grade. One of the schools she played was Reedy Creek, school near Grandpa Hunt and Aunt Lizzie's place. She was attending Culberson School in the sixth grade when she was married in June of the year. Health was Momma's favorite subject. She wanted to be a nurse. She learned in her health class that there is enough nicotine in a cigar to kill seven men. Culberson is where she received her first toothbrush and toothpaste. Prior to this country school her family brushed their teeth with a hickory twig.

Jake and Jennie married at Moultrie in the county courthouse. They then moved in with Daddy Richardson's family to the Ladson Place.

On June 3, 1930 Juanita Virginia Richardson their first child born on June 3, 1930. They moved to the Ladson Farm for the second time. Momma became pregnant with James Vernon. On January 5, 1931 James Vernon their second child was still born. They were living at Daddy Gunn's house on the Hitchcock Place for the second time. On November 5, 1931 they moved to the log cabin on the Hitchcock Place where Leon Franklin Richardson their third child was born on November 5, 1931 and passed away in infancy on the 18th. The family moved down the road from this place to the Mays Place where Momma miscarried at her fourth month of pregnancy. She didn't know even know she was pregnant. Momma had four children and one miscarriage by the time she was twenty year old.

On November 11, 1932 Betty Jackyn Richardson their fourth child was born while the family lived at the Hammock Place. Jake got a government farming grant to operate a one horse farm. Momma had a second miscarriage at this home. On October 5, 1935 Joann Richardson their fifth child was born in Oct 5, 1935 at Ellenton, Georgia Route #1.

In 1937 James Prophet Richardson Jr. their sixth child was born Sept. 3rd. and passed away due to a ruptured naval on Oct 26th. He was fifty three days old. In 1938 Shelby Jean their seventh child was born Oct. 26th, 1938 while living on the Brooks County Place. In 1941 Raymond Richardson their eighth child was stillborn on Apr. 26, 1941 while living at the Railroad Place. In 1944 Ronald Everett Richardson their ninth child was born on July 26th of this year at the Service Station Place.

Notes from Momma's tape May 25, 1981:

Momma born February 29, 1912. Born near Berlin on the Brooks County Line. Remember her Daddy letting her ride the plow mule back to the house after the dinner bell rang. Earliest memory of her Momma was when Henry was born the oldest boy in the family. Momma was four years old. Earliest memories were first school at age seven. Estelle and Momma started at same time. Walked a mile to catch a bus to Funston School. It was the year the WWI ended and the big flue epidemic broke out. Half of class mates died in flu epidemic. Just about every family in that part of the country lost one member at least except Momma's family. This was about 1918 and Momma was age seven.

We were sharecroppers. Worked one day to eat the next. Swapped out work with neighbors. Money came in when the first bale of cotton was sold and we had money to buy shoes and cloth for dresses. Playmates were mostly brothers and sisters. Our family stuck together. Grandma Hunt was the only grandmother I ever knew. Grandma Ruth Baker Hunt. My grandma was in a rolling chair. She lived with Uncle Shank. Aunt and Uncle, Jeff and Eva

Hunt were retarded. Jeff made toys out of spools, corn stalks for momma and siblings. Jeff died when he was about thirty years old. Grandma use to keep a lock of Eva's hair in her Bible. She was in her young adulthood when she died. Grandma Hunt died in the bed at their home.

Will Gunn and Dicey, "I never remember them living together". Wilson rambled all over the country. Henry Moses met Jencie Hunt while working on the Hunt farm during harvest season. Grandpa had a hole in his hand from playing Russian roulette before Jencie and him got married. He ground one hand up in a cane meal, and had two bad hands when they got married. Uncle George read a novel about a woman named Octavia, and this was their first child's name. That is where Tavy got her name.

As far back as I can remember Wilkes Daddy never came back from the war. The last they heard from him, he was up near Atlanta. Wilkes never put down any roots. He liked hunting and fishing. He was 3/4 quarters Indian. His grandmother was a full blooded Indian. Wilkes mother married a Johnson. Johnson moved into his mother's house, that his mother and Daddy had owned together. Brink Johnson was Wilkes oldest Johnson brother. Wilkes was a short man that favored Ron Richardson. My Daddy didn't even know she was dead until a long time after her death. Uncle Jim Gunn and us were good friend. Mally Norman was my Daddy's third cousin. Dicy was dead 10-12 years before he married Laura.

Wilson was a lot older than Laura. Wilkes came to see Nita when she was six months old. He told Nita she had Indian Blood. He was in a comma down below Berlin, him the wife and child were their at time of death. Died from heart dropsy. Momma & Daddy live on Dr. Hithcock's farm, below Spence Field. He died on the Brooks-Colquitt County line below Berlin. Children, grandchildren, Brink, Luke, Johnson. Part of Wilkes Daddy land adjoined Hopewell Cemetery where Wilson was buried. He is buried near Eula Mays baby Allison Grave. Bravis Hayburn, baby grave is nearby.

Brink Johnson was in charge of the cemetery at this time. The funeral. Momma worked on the farm, chopped cotton, fertilized, put out tobacco. School: last school Culberson Highschool basketball team. Play out of town another school. Dorsey Matthews talked Jennie into going to out of town basketball. Dorsey Matthews was Colquitt County Representative married one of mommas girlfriends Elisabeth Taylor. This happened when she was 15 years old a year before she got married. They went to Evelyn Church after they were married. This was a Methodist Church. Momma and Daddy were members. They used Hopewell Cemetery. Lot of Jennie's mother's people were buried at Sardis Church Cemetery. We went to camp meetings.

The Hunts: My momma's granddaddy came from Ireland. All the hunts came from Ireland were Catholic but went to the Methodist Church. The Hunts are buried in cemetery at Pineboro, with old wooden headboards. This was on Aunt Lizzie Hunt Johnson's place, Mommas oldest sister. Hunts homesteaded their land. Railroad stopped at Pineboro, and horse and wagon to Moultrie. George Hunt was the postmaster. Momma was eight months old when Will Jefferson Hunt died.

Jake was named after his paternal grandfathers, James Franklin Richardson and Joel Prophet Moody.

Between the years 1955 and 1971 Jake worked as a maintenance supervisor at Blair Village Apartments in south Atlanta.

After retirement Jake continued working and in 1980 at age 72 he was employed as a security guard at the Healey Building in downtown Atlanta.

In 1990 Jake's health began to fail at age 82. He survived a hernia operation at Grady Hospital in 1992. Around Christmas of 1992 he fell down and stayed in bed several weeks. He later went to the hospital because of a high temperature. After two weeks in the hospital he stayed home in a hospital bed. Two weeks later he entered a nursing home named the Fairburn Healthcare Center.

Approximately one month after entering the nursing home Jake came down with gangrene in his leg and pneumonia. His leg was amputated below the left knee. Two weeks later he was sent to Camila Nursing home.

On May 22, 1994 he suffered a heart attack after his meal with Jennie who was taking care of him. The doctors efforts to revive him failed. He died at 4:43 pm.
