

Wilhelm Leonhard Nederkorn & Family of Crefeld and Dusseldorf, Germany

---

Husband: Wilhelm Leonhard Nederkorn (ref #PAR29)

---

Born: 1879	in: Germany
Died: September 04, 1914
Marriage: August 08, 1903	in: In der Konigsburg zu Crefeld, Germany

---

Notes

Teacher.

Owner of Silk Haberdashery in Dusseldorf.

Died in WW1.

---

Marriage Notes

---

Wife: Josephine Antoinette Nolten (ref #PAR30)

---

Born: 1884	in: Germany
Died: August 05, 1950	in: Germany
Father: Jacob Nolten

---

Notes

---

CHILDREN

---

1	Name: Leonhard Wilhelm Joseph Ferdinand Nederkorn (ref #PAR5)
	Born: October 26, 1904 in: Dusseldorf, Germany
	Burial: in: Montevallo Cem., Shelby Co., AL
M	Died: July 09, 1969 in: Haver de Grace, Harford Co., MD
	Married: December 21, 1932 in: Montevallo, Shelby Co., AL
	Source: LeMoyne Nederkorn Stouffer.
	Spouse: Overton Winston Peterson

---

Notes

A noted science exhibits designer who, after retirement as head of the Training Aids Department at Aberdeen Proving Ground, worked for the National Science Foundation, was design coordinator for the US Science Pavilion at the Seattle World's Fair in 1961, and beginning in 1965, spent three years in Montreal as general manager of the Canadian Paper and Pulp Association's pavilion at Expo '67.

---

2	Name: Anneliese Nederkorn (ref #PAR239)
F	Born: Abt. 1906
	Died: Abt. 1906 in: Dusseldorf, Germany

---

Notes

---

Prepared By:
Paul Ripley
Albuquerque, NM