Notes for NICHOLAS GENTRY I:

(Broderbund WFT Vol.2, Ed. 1 Tree 2097,)

Nicholas came to America in 1677 from England.

From "Early History of Surry County under Joseph Gentry:

According to family traditions, the first Gentrys in America were two young brothers who came from England as British soldiers and settled in Virginia.

To support this, it has been found that Nicholas and Samuel Gentry entered the land in New Kent County, Virginia in 1684. Nicholas and Samuel were British soldiers sent to Virginia by Charles II with some commissioners to settle the controversy between Governor Berkley and the people of Virginia at the time of the Bacon Rebellion in January 1677. These soldiers were paid off and discharged in the fall of 1683. Many of them, however, remained and settled in Virginia.

The records of the early Gentrys are sparse due to destruction by fire, wars and were lost hence we have'nt been able to establish complete family records but it is thought that Nicholas Gentry had six children. They were Joseph, Elizabeth, Nicholas II, Mabel, Samuel and David
