Notes for WILLIS BLACKBURN:

Letter written by Elder Willis Blackburn, October 2, 1954. which reads

To my many Brothers and Sisters in the Lord, throughout Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia,

To you I say farwell and my last Prayer for you is that you strive for the things that make for peace and the things whereby one may edify and comfort another. Please do not strive about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers, for if Ye bite and devour one another, take heed that Ye be not consumed one of another: live in peace, love one another with a more fervent love than ever before. I feel sure that the time is not far distant when the Blessed Lord will descend from Heaven and them that sleep in Jesus will God bring wit him when he comes, anddd these mortal bodies will put on immortality, though our bodies must seek corruption, then and not until then, will be brought to pass the saying, death is swallowed up in victory, then the redeemed of the Lord can join in the song of triumph, "O death, where is thy sting, Oh grave where is thy victory", and finally, Farewell; I commend you to God and to word of His grace, which is able to build you up and establish you in every good word and work.
