Notes for STEPHAN ARTHUR GOODELL:

Steve Goodell's daughter, Ida Belle, was born in a wagon box near Devils Gate in the Wyoming Territory in 1862. The family moved on to Running Creek, Douglas County (near Denver, in the gold region of the Colorado Territory). Stephan farmed the land and had 3 more children while living in Colorado. Frank, born in 1866, Abigail, born 1868, and another daughter born in 1870. In the July, 1870 census, it shows a 3 month old daughter that had not been given a name yet. This little girl must have died since she is not in the 1880 census. About 1873, Stephan moved his family to Nebraska where he had 4 more children. Stephan was born 1873, Grace, 1876, Van was born 1878, and Cora 1880. In 1880 Stephan was farming in Blair, Washington County. Ida, his oldest daughter had just married Henry Burman and the couple was living with him.

Most of the family was living in Florence City, Nebraska around the turn of the century. ( Which is now part of north Omaha. It's been said that some of the family is buried in the Old Florence Cemetery, now the Morman cemetery. In 1900 Steve was a widow living in a rented house next door to Lucinda Cole and son John. Steve and Lucinda were the grandparents of Della M. Cole. Steve was her great-grandfather on her mother's side, and Lucinda was her grandmother on her father's side.

Notes for IDA BELL GOODELL:

When Ida married Henry Burman in 1879, they lived with her father Steve, on his farm in Blair, Washington Co., NE. She divorced Henry and married a Mr. Stanton. It's not know what happened to Mr. Stanton, but in April of 1910, I found her working as a domestic for the Ruhart (sp) family in Fremont County, Wyoming. Later that year she would marry Charles Brant of Basin Wyoming.

OBITUARY--WORLAND, WYOMING, 1942

Mrs. Charles Brant Laid To Rest Here Monday
Believed First White Woman Born in Wyoming

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles Brant, 79, were held at the Catholic church Monday forenoon, May 18, with the Rev. Father Krass officiating. Mrs. Frank Clinton was organist. Pallbearers were W.A. Denton, B. L. Bonine, Oyer Bonine Sr., Pete Selhorn, Frank Coulter and Jess Hamilton. Interment was in Riverview cemetery.

Ida Belle Goodell was born in a wagon box along the Sweetwater, near Devil's Gate in 1862. She is believed to be the first white woman born in Wyoming. A friendly squaw attended her mother and cared for her. When a year old, she and her mother were held captive by the Indians for 24 hours. While still a baby she moved with her family to Denver, living there until 12 years of age, when they moved to Nebraska. When 18 years old she was married to Mr. Steinspring (Burman). Two children were born to this union, Elroy Steinspring of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. May Fisher of Casper. These with their father preceded her in death. In 1910 Mrs. Steinspring (Stanton) was married to Charles A. Brant of Basin and in 1919 they moved to Worland where they have made their home. Mrs. Brant was an invalid the last three years of her life. Her husband survives her. Other survivors include a brother, two sisters and three nieces, all in Omaha, Nebraska: a granddaughter and five great-grandchildren in Council Bluffs, Iowa; a great-granddaughter and great-great-grandson in Michigan.

The Washakie Signal Fire joins the community in sincere sympathy to Mr. Brant and bereaved ones.

He lived in South Dakota until some time after the death of his wife (See Letters written in 1933 from Bismark, North Dakota). His death record shows in died in Los Angeles, California.

A letter dated April 5, 1933 from Henry Burman to his grand daughter Della;

"Mr. & Mrs. Della Pain

Council Bluffs, Iowa"

"Dear grand children, pardon me for calling Della Pain. As I could not find your last name. So I am addressing you a letter as Della Pain and to your number and street. So when you answer my letter, please give me your last husbands name and last name. I have some Express I am going to send you. So it is essential to have your rite name and address Della. I sure am in a ponder sins the 27th of march. On the 27 of march your grama died. She was buried on 29 of March. She was sick only 5 days. She died with blood clot on her brain. She surely suffered something awful. So I am left alone but Raymond is going to rent his house & move in with me, as I have a large house & more room. I could not find your last name in your last letter only Della. So that accounts for to rite Della Pain. You signed your name Kells & that was all.

This is all for this time. Hoping will find all Well & Doing well. Write soon. With I will close with regards from all to all I ? your grand Paw

Henry Bruman

Pardon haste."

The following letter was written June 12, 1933

"Dear Della & all

I received you very welcome letter a few day ago which I read With pleasure. Was glad to hear that You are all well up to date.

Sory to note that Vergil hasn't any work yet. I know it is hard to find work her also. But keep on trying. Maybe he will Stumble on to something Soon. Some very best men here have bin out of work for a year.& half pay rent & lave large families on hand. I know I have been playing a loosing game the last I years, also, But I had a little surplus on hand. But the hard time & all the sickness & deaths & Sickness of myself my surplus is about exhausted. But I am living very sparingly by. So I manage to get along but drive my car any more than I have to.

No Della I haven't bin sick sins I wrote you last only down hearted & heart broken. I feel lost don't care to go any where. So if you don't here from me promptly, don't feel hard towards me. I wont forget you.

Della I don't know what went wrong with your Father he just quit writing to us some twenty years ago. You never said any thing about him. So I die not know if he was dead of alive. You tell him I would like to here from him some time . Yes give me his address. We are having fine wether now not very hot & cool nights. Croax are looking fine. Della, you remember where we lived when you was here? I live on the same old spot Keep my house up in good shape. Everything looking fine.

Well children no knowing of any special news will close for this time. Hoping to hoping to here some good news from you soon.

Your grand dad

He was born August 21, 1876 in Missouri Valley, Harrison Co., Iowa, and died December 17, 1966 in Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., Iowa. She married (2) PETER FISHER January 06, 1909 in Casper, Natron County, Wyoming. He was born March 14, 1868 in Wyoming, and died May 11, 1954 in Casper, Natrona Co., Wyoming.

Notes for MAY BURMAN:

May married her second husband, Pete Fisher, in 1909 in Casper, Wyoming. She died in 1912.

OBITUARY: The Natrona County Tribune, August 14, 1912

FOUND DEAD ON HER BED

Mrs. May Fisher, thirty-three years of age, wife of Pete Fisher, the freighter, was found dead lying on her bed in her home in the west part of town about noon last Thursday. Mr. Fisher had been out to Salt Creek for over a week and when he returned he immediately entered his home. He saw his wife lying on the bed in a natural position, fully dressed, but when he approached the bed he discovered that she was dead. Physicians were called and they said that she had been dead about twenty-four hours. Coroner Foshay empaneled a coroner's jury composed of F.P. Bogue, J.R. Clemons and James A. Kennedy and returned a verdict that death was caused from an excessive use of strong drink. The stomach was removed by Dr. Kieth and nothing was found that would indicate suicide, although a phial partially filled with carbolic acid was found in the room with the deceased.

Miss Abbie Goodell, an aunt, and Della Cole, the 11 year-old daughter of the deceased, arrived on Saturday and the remains were interred in Highland cemetery on Saturday afternoon, services being held at the M.E. church.

More About MAY BURMAN:

Burial: August 10, 1912, Highland Cemetery, Casper, Wyoming

Notes for ETHAN ALEXANDER COLE:

Although Ethan was born in Iowa, his family moved to Florence, Nebraska where he lived on a farm until he was a young adult.

Ethan Married May Burman November 16, 1899. September 1, 1900 their daughter, Della was born. It's not known when Ethan and Mae divorced, but she was remarried in 1909.

In 1925, Ethan and second wife Nellie were living at a boarding house at 830 First Avenue in Council Bluffs, IA.

In 1930, Ethan's daughter Della was expecting her third child (H. Doreen) with Virgil. Della and family were living in Omaha, Nebraska. It was the time of the great depression. Virgil couldn't find work and they were being evicted from their apartment. Ethan bought a house at 1500 Ave. C, in Council Bluffs for them to move into before little Helen Doreen was born in August. In the meantime, Ethan always RENTED apartments for himself to live in. They were all in the same general area. He wanted to be in walking distance to his favorite Pubs.
