

Descendants of William Farris / Faris

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM FARRIS /¹ FARIS was born August 12, 1812 in Ohio, and died February 09, 1880 in Arena, Iowa County, Wisconsin. He married LOUISA REED Abt. 1832 in Ohio. She was born December 24, 1816 in Ohio, and died July 23, 1880 in Correctionville, Woodbury County, Iowa.

Notes for WILLIAM FARRIS / FARIS:

William Faris married Louisa Reed about 1832 in Ohio. They're first two boys, Pierson and George were born while living there. By 1840, the family was living in McHenry County, Illinois. While living in Illinois they had three daughters, Lydia, Louisa, and Acena. By 1949 the family had moved to Arena, Iowa County, Wisconsin. Here they had six more children, John, Mary, David and William (twins), Frances, and Paul. The family had always been farmers. According to the 1870 Federal Census, no one in the family could read or write, most had not gone to school. By 1880 William and Louisa had divorced, but they lived on farms next to each other. Pierson was living with his wife and seven children. Louisa was living next to them with her son David. And next to her was John with his wife, three children, and father William.

Through all of the census' the last name was spelled "Ferris". By 1880 it was written "Farris" in Wisconsin. Paul's last name didn't change to "Faris" until the 1900 census in Iowa. Some of the other family members spell their name "Farris".

From the "Dodgeville Chronicle - Friday, February, 13, 1880 - Arena News"

Our community was startled and thrown into considerable excitement early this morning over the announcement that Mr. William Ferris, Sr., better known as "Old Man Ferris", was missing, and shortly after that he been found lying in his back yard, dead. Upon learning the sad news, we, in company with several of our citizens, repaired to the house of the deceased, where we found him, lying upon his face in a small pen some six rods from the house, and from appearances, he had been attending some calves, in doing which he had to get down on his hands and knees to pass through a very low door - not over two and a half feet high - in coming out of which he must have fallen forward upon his face, and apparently died instantly, without a struggle.

In the absence of Justice Meigs, Justice King was notified, who summoned the following jury: Fr. Wm. T. Pinkerton, Wm. C. Meffert, F.G. Villemonte, Timothy Murphy, Geo. W. Standart and Wm. H. Jones, and held an inquest on the body, from which we glean the following facts:

That Mrs Ferris, wife of the deceased, left the house about 9 A.M. yesterday morning on a visit to her oldest son, Mr. Pierce Ferris, living about half a mile distant, and that a friend, Mrs. John Jerdan, called at the house about one hour after, both leaving him in in apparently good health and spirits. That Mrs. F. returned about 4 P.M. and not finding him at home, she concluded he had gone to the marsh a mile or two distant, to cut some wood but upon his not returning she became uneasy and went out to the barn, where she found the stock had not been fed or attended to during her absence. She then went into the house and waited for him to make his appearance, until near daylight this morning when she returned and informed her son of the circumstances, who immediately summoned his brother John, and instituted search, finding him about 7:30 this morning, as above stated.

After examining several witnesses the jury rendered the following verdict:
"That the deceased, Wm. Ferris, aged about 68 years, came to his death instantly, in a calf pen, on his premises, about one-fourth of a mile north of the village of Arena, between the hours of 10 A.M. Feb. 9, and 7 A.M. Feb. 10, from paralysis of the heart".

Deceased was born in Ohio, and came to Wisconsin 31 years ago, settling near Arena, and was consequently one of our oldest citizens. He leaves a family of nine children - five boys and four girls - all grown to man and womanhood, several of them being respected citizens of this county. He was a member of the Advent Church, and an honest, upright, citizen, respected by all. The funeral will take place at 7 A.M. tomorrow, from the Advent Church.

PIERSON FARRIS OBITUARY

Pierson Farris of the town of Arena died at his home Sept 4 at the age of 80 years, 4 months and 2 days. The cause of his death was a sudden attack of heart failure. He was born in Ohio on May 2, 1833. On June 17, 1860, he married Miss Lydia Durbin, who survives him after 53 years of married life. The family from this union consisted of seven children, two of whom have proceeded him in death. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and an affectionate father, his wife, and children, William and John W. Farris and Mrs C. Nelson of Arena, Marion of Cassell and David N. of Spring Green. While the loss id felt by all the relatives and family, the bereavement is more closely related to his wife, who has traveled over half a century of life with him. The services were held from the home on Sept. 6 at 1 o'clock. Rev. B.N. Meigs officiated. A large body of friends of the deceased were in attendance and accompanied the remains to the cemetery where interment was made.

MARY FARIS ASHMORE OBITUARY

"Mrs. Ashmore Died Monday...Has Attained the Age of Almost Seventy Five Years Before Overtaken by Death.

Mrs. Mary Ashmore, though she has put up a determined effort to get well for several weeks passed into the great beyond last Monday.

Mary Faris was born at Arena, Wisconsin, October 21, 1851, and died at her home in Correctionville, Iowa on March 8th, 1926 at the age of 74 years, 4 months and 17 days. She was united in marriage with W.J. Ashmore Oct. 3rd, 1869, and went with him to Kansas where they took up a homestead upon which they lived six years. In 1875 they moved to Shelby County, Iowa, where they remained three years and then to Ida County where they also spent three years, coming on to Woodbury County in 1881, where they lived on the Ashmore farm in Rock Creek township until Mr. Ashmore's death in 1914. Mrs. Ashmore then came to Correctionville which was her home until the time of her death, following an illness of about six weeks.

Mrs. Ashmore was the mother of nine children, and all of them survive her except one son, E.E. Ashmore, who died in 1920. They are Mrs. C.E. Fitch and Mrs. A.T. Bentley of Correctionville, Mrs. Albert Croxell of Lawton, A.J. Ashmore of Hot Springs, S.D., Mrs. H.E. Wright, Mrs. A.M. Mead and Mrs. B.F. Wright of Correctionville, and G.E. Ashmore of Bronson. There are 27 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren surviving and also one Brother Wm. Faris of MT. Horeb Wisconsin, and a sister, Mrs. Ida Vance of Mound Valley, Kansas.

Mrs Ashmore had a well grounded faith in the tenants of the Christian life, having united with the church of her choice as a young girl. She had been a member of the United Evangelical church for 32 years preceding her death. She was primarily a home maker, always devoted to the best interests of those around her and always thoughtful of others even in the midst of her suffering. She repeatedly expressed her willingness and readiness to meet her maker. When unable to drink she whispered her intention of being soon at the Crystal fountain, and passed away with the name of Jesus on her lips, and example to the world of how a Christian can die.

Funeral services were held at the M.E. church in Correctionville Wednesday afternoon in charge of Rev. Hulse and interment was made at the cemetery here.

Ferris, Paul Allen Township 40 acres House, Creek

Paul bought this land April 29, 1884 from the Iowa Railroad Company. (see map)

Sometime between 1905 and 1910, Paul had quit farming and moved to Pisgah, Iowa. He had bought a house and opened his own Blacksmith shop (he had been blacksmithing on the farm). Sarah had a telephone switchboard in the home and worked as an operator for the telephone company. In 1905, their telephone number was "R 5", the R was their ringing code and the 5 was their number. Sarah's mother, Julia Law, had moved in with them (Julia had been living with Paul and Sarah's daughter, Evie). They also had hired a servant to live with them and help out with Sarah's mother, Julia, who was 87 years old in 1910.

By 1920, Paul (age 61) and Sarah (age 58) were working for themselves. Paul was a Blacksmith and Sarah was a nurse for a private family.

Paul & Sarah Faris are buried in Magnolia Cemetery: Section 5, row 1. Paul was the youngest of eleven children.

Pisgah Branch Established.

The Pisgah branch of the Latter Day Saints Church (reorganized) was formed December 6, 1902, with thirty five charter members. The organizers were Frederick A. Smith, minister in charge, H.N. Hansen and Charles Derry; Joseph Lane was elected presiding elder; Charles Vrenderburt, presiding priest; and H.H. Oviatt, presiding deacon. The present officers are Joseph Lane, presiding elder; John P. Lane, presiding priest; John Shearer, presiding teacher; PAUL FARIS, PRESIDING DEACON; John Vredenburg, financial clerk, and Cora Hoyt, secretary. The present membership is one hundred and fifty two.

Early in the spring of 1901, a church building was commenced and was finished during that summer. Charles Derry of Woodbine preached the first sermon in the new church edifice, Sunday, October 20, 1901. The dedication took place September 21, 1902, Joseph Smith and Charles Derry having charge. The building, lot, and fixtures cost two thousand eight hundred dollars. A fine library has been added for the benefit of the young people of the community. George Eggers is superintendent of the Sunday School which has a membership of one hundred and fifty five. Prior to the building of the church, Sunday School was held in the Jones house, near Pisgah.

OBITUARY: The Logan Herald Observer, March 30, 1922

Paul Faris Dead

Monday afternoon the town was shocked by the sudden death of Paul Faris. He dropped dead at his home just a few minutes after his return from the hall where he had cast his vote in the town election. He had not been well for some time, but had done some work at his blacksmith shop during the day. His death was caused by heart trouble.

Mr. Faris came to Harrison county in 1874, worked on different farms for a few years and then bought a farm in Allen township about five miles east of the town of Pisgah. There he remained until he moved into the town a few years ago.

He was married February 6, 1877, to Miss Sarah I. Law. To them three children were born, one son, Claude, a resident of Pisgah, two daughters, Mrs. John Lane and Mrs. George Holman, all survive with his wife to mourn his passing. He was not an old man, probably in the middle sixties. He was an honest, hardworking man, a good neighbor and friend, one whose word could be depended upon. The funeral will be held at the L.D.S. church in Pisgah this afternoon and the interment will be in Magnolia cemetery. Elder Joseph Lane will be in charge of the services.

Notes for SARAH ISABELLA LAW:

After Paul's death in 1922, Sarah started to sell some of the land in Pisgah. On November 27, 1923 she sold part of lot 1, block 2 to A.D. Townsend. This is probably the land that Paul's blacksmith shop stood on. On Feb.

1, 1937 she sold the rest of their property, the other part of lot 1 and all of lot 2, block 2, to Jessie F. Alwell.

Records show that in April, 1943, Sarah was living in Mount Ayr, Ringgold County, Iowa.

Sarah died in 1952. Her headstone has been missing as of November 13, 1999

Generation No. 3

7. MARION JAMES³ FARRIS (PIERSON² FARIS, WILLIAM FARRIS¹) was born August 02, 1863 in Arena, Iowa County, Wisconsin, and died August 29, 1932 in Cassell, Sauk County, Wisconsin. He married CAROLINE MARIE SORG October 26, 1888 in Troy, Sauk Co., Wisconsin. She was born October 16, 1868 in Honey Creek, Sauk Co., Wisconsin, and died January 13, 1906 in Cassell, Sauk County, Wisconsin.

Notes for MARION JAMES FARRIS:

Nephew to Paul. Cousin to Claude Faris

OBITUARY-FARRIS-MARION FARRIS:

The second son of Pierson and Lydia Farris was born in Arena Prairie, Iowa Co., Wisconsin, August 2, 1863 and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Reeve at Cassell on August 29, 1932 at the age of 69 years and 27 days. When Marion was a young man his folks moved to Badger Valley, Sauk Co., Wisconsin to the farm later known as the "Abraham Holzer Place". In October, 1886 he was united in marriage with Miss Carrie Sorg. To this union were born eight children, all of whom survive their father. They began housekeeping on the Sorg Farm just west of the Philip Sorg place.

Thirty six years ago they moved to the Abram Pierce Farm at Cassell which they purchased from Edward Talbot. It is this farm that the children remember as home. Four of them were born here and the others were very young when they came to Cassell. The first great sorrow came to this home on Jan., 1906, when death entered and carried away the wife and mother. With great devotion to duty Mr. Farris kept his family together, brought them up, paid his way, and asked no odds of anyone. He lived all his life within a few miles of the place of his birth, so his neighbors had an opportunity to know him well. They remember him as a good friend and neighbor.

In matters involving morals, Marion stood for what is right. He had clearly defined ideas of justice and honesty which he put into practice. He was a deeply religious man who tried to carry out the Savior. While Mr. Farris was a farmer most all his life, he found time to do other things as well. During the winter months, for years, he made axe handles. He became an expert in this work, marketing many hundred axe handles in the surrounding towns.

He dearly loved the outdoor sports of fishing, hunting, fifle shooting, and baseball. He was a skilled violinist and was known all of his life for the accomplishment. In recent years. The revival of interest in what is known as "Old Time Fiddler" brought Marion into prominence. He took a large share of the honors on several contests among "old timers." He was then sought by managers of radio stations and his rendition of the "old time music" delighted thousands of listeners in our own town and neighboring states.

On Monday of last week, he indulged in his favorite pastime of fishing. Returning to the Reeve home in the afternoon, exhausted by the extreme heat, he suffered a heart attack, but appeared to recover from it in the evening. The relief was only temporary and he passed away during the night while peacefully sleeping.

He leaves to mourn his departure, four sons; Henry of Spring Green, Evan of Merrilan, Herbert of Roxbury, and Grant of Fifield; Four daughters, Bessie (Mrs. Reeve) of Cassell, Nettie (Mrs Lorenz Tarnutzer) of Paole, Pearl (Mrs. J. Accola) of Sumpter, and Esther (Mrs. John Rindle) of West Point; Two brothers; John of Spring Green, And David of Madison; one sister, Louie, (Mrs. Charles Nelson) of Highland; Eighteen grandchildren and many other relatives and friends. Notes for ORVILLE LOUIS FARRIS:

Told by Viola Farris:

"Orville had been given a BB gun and went out and set cans up to practice shooting at. While Orville took aim, he hit a can and one of the BB pellets bounced off and happened to go through a knot hole in the out house, that happened to have his mother sitting at the time. Of course she didn't Consider it a lucky shot as she came looking for Orville and demanded he put the gun in the barn. His lucky shot had hit her right in the knee."

OBITUARY--FARRIS

Orville Farris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farris, was born Jul 5th 1918, and passed away Mar 17 1931; at the age of 12 years, 8 months and 12 days. He leaves to mourn his loss his mother and father, three sisters, Irene, Viola, and Dorothy., three brothers, Marion, Harold and Verne. Besides many other relatives and friends. Up until the time of his last illness Orville was a strong, robust boy, and was able to help much with the work about the farm, cultivating crops, etc. He enjoyed this work and took much pride in doing well the tasks assigned to him. He made a brave fight for life and everything possible was done for him but to no avail. Funeral services were conducted at the home last Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D.H. Johnston, and interment was made at the Cassell Cemetery. --CARDS OF THANKS-- We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their help and all kindness given in our affliction, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farris, J.H. Hoxie

The Cassell community was grieved to learn of the death of Orville Farris Eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farris who died at their home on Wilson Creek Tuesday afternoon of Scarlet Fever. Orville was twelve years old last June. He was a boy of pleasing disposition and a great help to his father. He will be missed not only in his home but also in the school as was shown at the time of the funeral when teacher and scholars viewed the remains through the window as the home was under Quarantine. Each scholar passed the remains with tears of sorrow, showed the was missed. He leaves his parents, four sisters and two brothers and two grandfathers, Marion Farris and James Hoxie and many other relatives. This community extends our sympathy to the family. The family lived at Cassell fifteen years ago.

Notes for MARIE ELLEN PAPINEAU:

Marie moved with her parents from Missouri to Iowa when she was 6 months old. Soon the family moved to the Rosebud Indian reservation where her father Daniel worked at Fort Niobrara near Valentine, Nebraska.

Marie's husband, Guy worked for the railroad, but when the depression hit he was laid off. They family moved to Aunt Mary's farm and lived there until Guy was called back to work. They moved back to Council Bluffs where they lived until they divorced in 1936. After the divorce, Marie and her children moved back to the farm near New Castle, Nebraska. The farm had no heat or indoor plumbing. They had to draw their water from a well. They did have an "icebox", but they had no way to get ice, so it was of no use.

Leaving her children on the farm, Marie came back to Council Bluffs in 1941. She got a job, and found a place to live and moved her children the following summer. (1942)

Notes for BARBARA ANN FARIS:

Barbara Ann Faris graduated from Abraham Lincoln High School in June, 1946. The last two years of high school, she worked part-time as a clerical worker for Mercy Hospital. After graduation, while working full time at the hospital, she studied at Mercy, was tutored, and took some nursing school classes. She self-studied in the Medical Records dept. She took the National Exam., and received her license in December, 1951. She was promoted shortly there after and became the department manager as Registered Medical Records Administrator at Mercy Hospital. She retired in 1988, after forty-one years of service.

During those years of service, she served as various officers of the Medical Records Association, ie Secretary, Vice President, President, and served on the Board of Directors, as well as many committees. Also, during those years, she served as an Iowa Voting Delegate to the National Association when they convened in Chicago, New Orleans, Miami Beach, Atlanta, and Los Angeles.

Five retirement parties were held for Barb, including the dinner held by Mercy and the medical staff where as they presented her a plaque honoring her for her many years of service.

Notes for EDWARD LYLE KUBAT:

(Edward) Lyle was the only child born to Edward and Helen Kubat.

E. Lyle Kubat joined the Navy at age 18, in March, 1944. He first served on the USS Piedmont then served on the Destroyer USS Gatling during WWII, was a Screening Escort for the U.S. Third Fleet; Task Forces 38 and 58. He spent the war in the South Pacific Theater of War, taking part in Island battles, including Iwo Jima, Philippines, Guam, Saipan, Wake Island, Palu, Yap, Mashall Island, Ennewita, and finally Japan. There were also many more battles at sea, not Island related.

Among some of the events remembered: Assisted at the rescue of the Aircraft Carrier USS Princeton, taking on survivors. Shot down ten Japanese aircraft; sunk two Japanese AK's (merchant ships), taking survivors for interrogation. Boarded Japanese ship Nagade (the ship was later used in the U.S. Atomic Bomb tests). His rank was Machinist Mate.

Lyle's ship was one of the escorts taking into Tokyo-Bay the USS Missouri at the time of the Japanese surrender at the end of the war. He then was assigned to Navy Shore Patrol in the occupation of Japan, in Tokyo. Lyle was discharged in May, 1946. He received numerous war medals such as the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Victory Medal and many more.

Following his Navy service, he attended Creighton University earning a Bachelor of Arts degree. His work career was in Omaha, Nebraska. He was a foreman at the Serta Plant, working there of 25 years and then at Seating International until retirement.

Lyle met Barbara Ann Faris in 1947. They were married in 1951.

- iii. JOHN PAUL FARIS, b. September 15, 1929, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., Iowa; m. HELEN DOREEN PARISH, July 16, 1949, Omaha, Douglas Co., Nebraska. John and Doreen were married in the Chapel at Offutt Air Force base where he was stationed.; b. August 31, 1930, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., Iowa.

Notes for JOHN PAUL FARIS:

It's possible that John Paul was named after the two grandfather's. Marie's grandfather was John Sharkey and Guy's grandfather was Paul Faris.

John was born at Mercy Hospital, Council Bluffs, Iowa. When John was born in 1929, the family lived at 1824 8th Ave. His father, Guy, was working for Union Pacific Railroad and his mother, Marie, was a housewife.

The day John and Doreen were married (at Offutt Air Force Base) they had a small reception of cake and ice cream in the hall at the base. From there they went to Johns mother and grandmothers house where his sister Barb had a reception for them. After the reception was over, they met Doreen's dad Virgil, and stepmother Leora, at the Moose lodge for drinking and dancing. Then they went to a nightclub on Hy 64, to party with their friends. When leaving the nightclub (with several cocktails under their belts), Doreen, in her white wedding dress, fell down a 4 foot embankment into a 2 foot mud puddle. John was laughing so hard, he had trouble getting Doreen out. (Wish there was a picture!)

Residence 2: 1955, 2607 3rd Ave., Council Bluffs, IA

Notes for HELEN DOREEN PARISH:

Doreen's little sister, Doris May, died at 3 months of age when Doreen was 5 years old. She has a half-sister, Shirley Linn, daughter of Doreen's father Virgil and Leora Vokt. She Also had a half-sister Thias Jean Payne and a half brother John H. Payne Jr. (Died at 5 weeks) from Della's fist marriage to John Howard Payne.

When Doreen's mother Della died,at the age of 96, her body was cremated. Doreen kept her mothers ashes with her for about a year and a half. Although her mother had a cemetery plot, Doreen and nephew Gary (a deputy sheriff) took the ashes to the grave site of her sister Bette, Gary's mother. They dug a hole above where they thought Bette's chest would be, and buried Della's ashes there. Now mother and daughter are together again.
