The first born American male of the family, Eddy John Schiavon grew up in the family home in Fresno, California. Eddy, throughout his life, always kept himself very busy.

Deciding to go on to college he entered Fresno State College in 1939 as a pre engineering major. After only a year, World War II loomed. As the war continued, Eddy entered the Army Air Force in 1943. His service education was completed in 1944 and he was prescribed as PILOT. In 1944 he was also appointed a FLIGHT OFFICER.

Following his separation from active duty in 1945, Eddy and his new wife settled in Earlimart, California where he became the owner of the Earlimart Welding and Machine Shop (Eddy's Welding Shop). The last position he held was that of the shop manager and engineer of Sorensen's Machine Works in Mendota, California (1964-1980).

Eddy became very active within the Earlimart community and joined various service clubs. He was a member of the American Legion Post #745 and served many years as its commander. He was also a member and, on occasion, president of the Earlimart Lions Club. He was also active with his children serving as a Boy Scout and 4-H leader for many years. Not content just to be a wife and loving mother, she held many jobs outside the home from being self employed business owner (retail dress shop) to many bookkeeping positions. For ten years (1954-1964), she was the Clerk of the Court for the Pixley Justice Court System. Her last business venture, in 1970 was being the News Editor for the newly created local newspaper, The Earlimart News American. She eventually became the Managing Editor for the entire newspaper. This employment only lasted a year due to her ill health.

Being busy with her career did not stop "Llew" from finding time to devote to the needs of the World War II vets. She became a charter member of the Earlimart American Legion Auxiliary Unit 745. She served repeatedly as its president - first as charter president (1955-1956), and again in 1956-57, 1959-60, and 1964-65.
